Mrs. THOMAS LORD produced and sworn.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Knox Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you the wife of Thomas Lord?—A. Yes.

Q. Was he minority inspector at the election in Knox Township of November 5, 1878?

(Counsel for contestant objects to this question and to the answer which may be made thereto, for the reason that the returns of said election, as well as the records on file in the office of the prothonotary of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, will show who was or was not minority inspector of said election in said township, and can be had, and is the best evidence, and the testimony is further objected to for the reason that her knowledge must depend upon what others told her and is hearsay and immaterial.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he bring the ballot-box used at that election home with him?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, for the reason that it has not been shown that Thomas Lord (by the best evidence) was minority inspector or an officer of said election in said township, and for the further reason that contestee, in his answer to the notice served upon him by Andrew G. Curtin that his right to a seat in the Forty-sixth Congress of the United States would be contested, did not make any charges or allegations that any frauds or irregularities were committed by the officers of the election held on November 5, 1878, in Knox Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and for the further reason that it is immaterial in whose custody the ballot-box containing the ballots cast at said election in said township of Knox was placed after the said votes were counted and the returns of said election showing the number of votes received by each candidate at the same were made out and placed in the hands of the persons who were legally entitled to receive the same, because no recount of the votes cast at said election in said township has been ordered, and the evidence is therefore immaterial and wholly irrelevant.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. While it was in his custody, at your house, did any persons come there and examine its contents, and what did they say?

(Objected to because it is immaterial and irrelevant and hearsay, and for the same reasons as in the objection to preceding question.)

A. Yes, sir; there was persons came there. John Withero came in and asked for the box. He said he had come to see if I would let him have the ballot-box. I told him I had no right to——give him the box; perhaps it would put my husband and me into trouble. He answered that there was no danger of that. I then told him, if I had any right to give it to him I would do so. He said that he had been to James McKee's and expected to find it there, and said that they were sent to examine it. He said that all the ballot-boxes of every township in the county would have to be examined, and they were sent to examine this one. I told him then that if they had a right to get the box I would give it to them. That is all that I can remember that was said at that time. He went out to put away his horse; he said he had another man out with him, and he would bring him in; he said it would take some time to go over the tickets. He went out to put away his horse, then they both came in. I brought the box down and gave it to them. Robert Withero, the man that was with him, opened the box; he took out the papers that were in it; when he found the list of voters he compared them with the tickets, and when he found a number on the tickets he told John Withero to mark each one. When he found the number on the name list he found a ticket with the same number. If they voted Democrat, told him to mark it D ; if Republican, to mark it R ; if Greenback, to mark it G. There was a great many of the names they could not make out ; they asked me whether I could tell what they were. When they went on with that until they had finished they counted the number of votes they put down and compared it with those in the ballot-box.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the witness testifying to anything she said, and also to that part of the answer just given that relates to what she said, for the reason that it is not in answer to the question, and because it is immaterial and irrelevant and incompetent as testimony in this case.)

Q. Do you remember of anything else that was said or done ?

Counsel for contestant objects to this question and answer thereto for the same reasons as in objections to the two preceding questions and answers.

A. While they were examining the tickets they found some names that had two tickets, the same number ; they said no man was entitled to more than one vote ; they put down one in their book, and marked the other name on the back of their book ; the name of William Conder was on the name-list in two places ; they found the name of William Kethcart in the registry book and it was not on their name-list. Robert Withero supposed it was a mistake in the one that wrote the names and should have of been William Kethcart instead of William Conder in one place, and wanted to rectify it ; and John said they had no right to make any alterations whatever ; that they were to send this in just as they found it here. I don't remember anything else they said concerning the election or ballot-box.

Q. How many names were there on the list of voters for which there was more than one ticket bearing the same number ?—A. There was three or perhaps more.

Q. Do you remember their names ?

(Objected to for same reasons as in the objections to the preceding questions and answers.)

A. I remember the names of three, Cartes Bloom, Snyder Bloom, James Kethcart ; there may have been more than that, but I don't remember their names.

Q. How many tickets were there for each of these names ?—A. Not more than two that I know of.

Q. You have stated that these parties, John and Robert Withero, after going over the tickets and ascertaining how each of the persons on the list of voters voted, they put them down in a book which they had, counted them up, and compared it with the paper in the ballot-box ; will you now state how this count of theirs compared with that on the paper in the ballot-box ?

(Objected to for the same reasons as in the objections to the preceding questions and answers.)

A. That's something I did not pay any attention to when they counted them.

Q. Did they say whether or not they had discovered any error in account ?—A. They said they didn't think there had been any fraud practiced in our township.

Q. Did they put all of the papers back into the box and fasten it as it was before, when they were through ?—A. All but one that fell behind the table, which I found afterwards. I suppose it was what they call the tally-list. I opened the box and laid it in.

Q. Did these parties, or either of them, on leaving, tell you anything about keeping their visit or anything they did a secret ?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, for the same reasons as in objections to the preceding questions and answers.)

A. Robert Withero said I had better keep this a little quiet about them getting the ballot-box, and said it was my husband's best plan to take it to James McKee's as soon as he came home.

Q. What was James McKee?—A. He was justice of the peace, the nearest to the place of holding the election, in Knox Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Who did they say had sent them to open and examine the contents of the ballot-box, and who did they say they had authority from?—A. They did not say, and I did not ask them.

Q. Did they say they had authority to open the ballot-box and examine its contents?—A. I don't remember of them using the word "authority."

Q. Did the book which these parties had, and in which they noted how each man voted, contain the names of the voters already written out?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was the shape of that book, as near as you can remember?

(Objected to because it is immaterial and irrelevant, and for the same reasons as in preceding objections.)

A. I would call it a common pass-book, as near as I could get it.

Q. Was the writing in that book, if you know, that of either of those parties?—A. I don't think it was.

Q. Did they say where they got that book, or who had given it to them?—A. They did not.

Q. What is the politics of John and Robert Withero, the parties who opened and examined the ballot-box?

(Objected to because it is immaterial, irrelevant, and hearsay.)

A. I did not know what their politics was then, but understood since and they were both Democrats.

Cross-examined:

(Counsel for contestant, reserving the right to move the committee of Congress who shall hear this case to strike out the testimony now sworn, for the reasons stated in the several objections made to the questions and answers in her direct examination, proceeds to cross-examine.)

Q. Were you present during the time the ballot-box was being examined by the parties you say examined it?—A. Nearly all of the time.

Q. When was this?—A. I think it was in the month of January, 1879.

Q. They did not, did they, take away with them any of the papers that were in the ballot-box?—A. Not that I seen.

Q. Do you remember the numbers that were opposite the name of William Conder?—A. No, I don't.

Q. Were not the names of William Conder both together, one immediately following the other, on the list?—A. They were not.

Re examined:

Q. Where was your husband at the time these parties were at your house, and what was he doing?—A. He was hauling spars from above New Millport.

Q. How far was that from where you live?—A. They call it four miles to the place where he boarded while he was hauling.

And further saith not.

Q. Did you reside in Gulich Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for more than two months before the election of November 5, 1878, at which Curtin was a candidate for Congress?—A. I think I was, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. Have you paid, or has there been paid for you, a State or county tax within two years immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. O, yes.

Q. Was that tax assessed at least two months and paid one month or more before said election?—A. I can't tell you anything about it; I don't know whether it was before or not.

Q. Have you a receipt for the payment of those taxes, and will you produce it?—A. Yes, sir; there it is.

Q. Will you hand it to the notary to copy?—A. Yes, sir. (Witness produces the receipt, and the following is a copy:)

“GULICH T'W'P, S'pt. 4, 1878.

“J. E. DAVIS, Col.”

Q. Have you resided in Pennsylvania for one year immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you read?—A. No, sir.

Q. Then you cannot swear positively, can you, that you voted for Curtin?—A. No, sir; I can't; not unless his name is on the Democrat ticket; if it was, I voted for him, and if it wasn't, I did not.

Q. If you can't read, how do you know you voted the Democratic ticket?—A. Because a man that was a Democrat give it to me; he told me it was the right ticket when I asked him.

Q. Then you depend upon what he told you when you say you voted for Curtin, do you not?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. After answering the foregoing question, you intended making some explanation; will you do so now?—A. When I went down to the store and asked him for a ticket, he handed it to me; I asked him if it was the right ticket; yes, he said, it was; that's all I have to say.

And further saith not.

Q. Did you vote in Gulich Township at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For the Democratic candidate, Yocum.

Q. Have you any explanation to make about your answer to the preceding question; and, if so, make it.

(Counsel for contestant objects to this question that the witness has already testified for whom he has voted for Congress, and the question is put for the manifest intention of having the witness contradict his former answer, and is, therefore, an improper question.)

A. I voted for the Democratic party.

Q. Did you vote for the Democratic candidate for Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. In answer to a preceding question you stated you voted for the Democratic candidate, Yocum. Did you mean by that to say that you voted for Yocum, who was the Republican candidate?

(Objected to for the reason that the counsel assumes by his question that Yocum was the Republican candidate for Congress, while the witness has already testified that Yocum was the Democratic candidate for Congress, and the question is so framed as to mislead the witness, and is unfair to him, and leading.)

A. I voted the Democratic ticket through.

Q. Did you not vote for Curtin and the whole Democratic ticket?—A. Yes, sir; I voted the whole Democratic ticket.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long was it before the election that you moved into Gulich Township?—A. About between five and six weeks, as near as I can tell.

Q. Did you pay any State or county taxes within two years preceding said election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. How long were you in Gulich Township before the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Between five and six weeks.

Q. Did you read your ticket?—A. No, sir.

Q. Then you cannot swear, can you, that the name of Curtin for Congress was on your ticket?—A. Well, the man that gave me the ticket was a straight-out Democrat himself.

Q. Then you cannot swear, can you, of your own knowledge, that the name of Curtin was on your ticket for Congress?—A. No, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Who gave you your ticket?—A. Wm. R. Dickinson.

Q. Did you tell Dickison to give you a Curtin ticket, and that you intended to vote the whole Democratic ticket?—A. No, sir. He asked me whether I wanted a Democratic ticket. I told him I did, and he said he was going to run the straight ticket.

Question. What is your name?—Answer. M. P. Barron.

Q. Are you not by some persons known by the name of Barrow, and do you not receive communications through the mails addressed to you by that name?

(Objected to for the reason that the witness has already sworn that his name is M. P. Barron, and it therefore matters not under what name he receives communications, as the act of Congress requires that contestant shall have notice of the name and place of residence of the witness, which had not been given in this case.)

A. Yes. My paper comes from Harrisburgh in that name.

Q. Have you not been a candidate for office within the past two years, and were you not known and announced by the name of M. P. Barrow?—A. Yes, sir. I wrote to the editor and made him rectify my name.

Q. Where and when were you born?—A. Born in Ireland, January 22, 1822.

Q. Are you a naturalized citizen?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. About how long is it since you were naturalized?

(Counsel for contestant objects to this question as well as to the preceding one, for the reason that his papers of naturalization are the best evidence, and the facts which it is sought to prove cannot be proved by parol evidence until the loss of the best evidence is shown.)

A. About 24 or 25 years. If I had known they had been needed I could have brought them along as easy as wink.

Q. Have you them at home?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you with your wife and family reside in the State of Pennsylvania for more than one whole year immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878, and in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for more than two months immediately preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you read your ticket you voted at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you with your wife and family reside in the State of Pennsylvania for more than one whole year immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878, and in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for more than two months immediately preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election that was assessed more than two months and paid more than one month before said election, and have you any receipts therefor, and will you produce them for inspection?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, because it is not the best evidence, and because such payment cannot be proven until it shall have been shown that the receipt for the payment of such taxes has been lost or destroyed.)

A. Yes. (Witness produces receipts, as follows: One dated May 28, 1877, signed by D. McGaughey, treasurer, for county and State taxes for 1877, and another, dated May 24, 1878, signed by D. McGaughey, treasurer, for the taxes of Joseph Lawford, county and State, for the year 1878.)

Q. Did you vote in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, because the witness cannot be compelled to divulge for whom he voted until it shall be shown that he is an illegal voter, it being a matter of privilege.)

A. For Yocum.

Cross-examined:

Q. Will you produce and hand to the notary your naturalization paper to copy in your testimony; that is, the paper which you produced in your direct examination as your naturalization papers?—A. Yes.

Witness produces paper, which reads as follows:

“Be it remembered that a court of common pleas held at Clearfield, for the county of Clearfield, in the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in the United States of America, on the first day of Sept., in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, Joseph Lawford, a native of England, exhibited a petition praying to be admitted to become a citizen of the United States; and it appearing to the said court that he had declared on _____, before the prothonotary of the court of the county of Clearfield, on the first day of Sept., A. D. 1851, that it was bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and to renounce forever all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty whatsoever, and particularly the Queen of England, of whom he was at that time a subject; and the said Joseph Lawford having, on his solemn _____, declared and also made proof thereof by competent testimony of Robert Henderson & Henry Baughman, citizens of the United States, that he had resided one year and upwards within the State of Pennsylvania, and within the United States of America upwards of five years immediately preceding his application, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that during that time he had behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same, and having on his solemn _____ before the said court that he would support the Constitution of the United States, and that he did absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to every foreign prince, potentate, state, and sovereignty whatever, and particularly to the Queen of England, of whom before he was a subject :

“ Thereupon the court admitted the said Joseph Lawford to become a citizen of the United States, and ordered all the proceedings aforesaid to be recorded by the prothonotary of the said court; and which was done accordingly.

“ WM. PORTER, Proth'y.”

Q. Have you any other papers which you regard as naturalization papers, except the one which you have just handed the notary, and which he has copied into your testimony, as part of it?—A. No, sir; not that I know of.

Re-examined :

Q. Did you see the prothonotary sign this paper and attach the seal of the court thereto?—A. Yes, sir.

Recross-examined.

Q. How do you know it was the seal of the court?—A. Why, I was there; I could not help but see it, without I shut my eyes.

Q. Might it not have been the private seal of the man who put it there, or the seal of the commissioners of Clearfield County, instead of seal of the court of Clearfield County?—A. It was the lawful seal for anything of that kind, as far as I know.

Q. Might not the seal which was attached on this paper which you have produced as your naturalization paper been the private seal of Wm. Porter instead of the seal of the court of common pleas of Clearfield County?—A. If it was, he made the mistake himself.

Q. How old were you, about, when you came into this country?—A. To the best of my knowledge I was about twelve or thirteen years of age.

Q. Did you or not declare your intentions to become a citizen at the same time you petitioned to be naturalized.

(Counsel for contestant objects to this question and to the answer of the witness thereto, for the reason that the petition which witness presented to the court of common pleas of Clearfield County, as witness alleges he did present such petition, is, or ought to be, on file in the office of the prothonotary of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and said record is the best evidence of what witness did, and of what was contained in said petition, and the contestee cannot, under the rules of evidence, substitute parol evidence to prove the facts sought to be proven, because the record can be had and is the best evidence.)

Q. Was your father ever naturalized; and, if so, have you any certificate thereof, and will you produce it?

(Counsel for contestant objects to this question, and also the answer of the witness thereto, for the reason that his father's certificate of naturalization is the best evidence, and for the further reason that it is attempted to introduce parol evidence and proof, which cannot be done until after the loss or destruction of the documentary evidence of the naturalization of father and the witness.)

A. Yes, sir; my father was naturalized. Yes, sir; I have it and will produce it.

(Witness produces duplicate certificate from the court of common pleas, held at the city of Pittsburgh, in and for the county of Allegheny, Pennsylvania, showing the naturalization of John Smiles by said court on the 13th day of October, 1860, this duplicate being issued October 27, 1876.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you not mistaken when you stated that you moved into Woodward Township in December, 1878, which was after the election? Did you not mean December, 1877?

Q. Are you married ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election that was assessed more than two months and paid more than one month before the same ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote at the said election of November 5, 1878, and for whom did you vote for Congress?

(Objected to the latter part of this question because it is improper, and one which counsel for contestee should not ask nor witness answer until it shall have been first proved that witness' vote was illegal, which has not been done in this case.)

A. Yes, sir; I voted the Republican ticket; I cannot remember all their names.

Q. Can you now recall the name of the person for whom you voted for Congress?—A. I couldn't hardly tell you.

Q. The two candidates for Congress were A. G. Curtin and Seth H. Yocum; did you vote for either of these; and, if so, which of them?

A. I voted for Yocum.

Q. Did you read your ticket?—A. I looked them over I believe.

Cross-examined:

Q. When did you pay your State and county tax for the year 1876?—

A. I couldn't tell you the date exactly, but I paid it October, 1877.

Q. Would you have known for whom you voted for Congress if the name had not been suggested to you in the form of a question by counsel for contestee?

(Objected to for the reason the question assumes that the name of the person for whom witness voted was suggested to him, which is not the case, both candidates having been named, and the witness asked which one he voted for.)

A. Yes, sir; them two names I remembered.

Q. Was Yocum's name written or printed on the ticket you voted?—A. Printed.

Q. Have you not said since you were subpoenaed in this case, and before you came upon the witness-stand, that you did not know whom you voted for for Congress?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Re examined:

Q. Will you produce the receipt for State and county taxes which you have for 1876, and hand the same to the notary to be copied into the testimony?—A. Yes.

“D. McMUNNIGAL, Col.”

Q. Have you the receipt for State and county taxes which you paid Malee early in the summer of 1878?—A. Q. Did you pay any taxes on property assessed in your own name?—A. Not here I didn't.

Q. Have you any property assessed or taxed in your own name, either real or personal?—A. Some little personal property and a small property that's assessed in my name; have no title for it.

Q. Do you pay any taxes on this small property for which you have no title?—A. Yes; I pay the taxes on it.

Re-examined:

Q. In addition to the taxes which you paid to Malee early in the summer of 1878, for the other persons named, did you pay a State or county tax of your own to him?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where do you reside?—A. In Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Where and when were you born?—A. I was born in 1849, Derbyshire, England.

Q. Are you a naturalized citizen; and, if so, when and where did you receive your papers; have you them with you and will you produce them?—A. Yes, sir, I am; received my papers in Clearfield, Pennsylvania. The certificate is dated 24th of September, 1872.

(Witness produces certificate of naturalization from the court of common pleas of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, dated 24th of September, 1872.)

Q. Were you under the age of 18 when you arrived in this country and how old were you?—A. Yes, sir; I was 17 years of age, going on to 18.

Q. Did you or not declare your intentions to become a naturalized citizen, and petition the court for your final papers at the same time, by virtue of having arrived in this country under the age of 18 years?

(Counsel for contestant objects to this question and the answer of the witness thereto, for the reason that the certificate of citizenship or naturalization and the records of the court of common pleas of Clearfield County are the best evidence, and parol evidence cannot be given to prove the facts it is sought to prove until it shall have been shown that the records of said court and the certificate of citizenship, which are the best evidence, have been lost or destroyed.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Look at your certificate of naturalization and see if they state that you were naturalized by having shown to the satisfaction of the court, among other things, that you had arrived in the United States before you were 18 years old.

(Counsel for contestant objects to this question and the answer of the witness thereto, for the same reasons as in the objections to the preceding question.)

A. Yes, sir, it does.

Q. Did you reside in the State of Pennsylvania and in Houtzdale Borough on election day, November 5, 1878, and for more than two years prior thereto?—A. I did.

Q. Have you any tax receipts for the payment of State and county taxes, and will you produce them?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote in Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the election of November 5, 1878, and for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; I voted for Seth H. Yocum.

Cross-examined:

Q. Will you read to the notary the indorsements on the back of the certificate of your naturalization?

(Witness reads as follows:)

"Certificate of Charles Charlton, 1872, voted at Houtzdale, Feb. 17th, 1874.

"J. L. SHAW, Judge.

"L. F. RILEY.

"JOHN BIGLEY."

Q. Is that all that is on the certificate of your naturalization?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Did you vote in Houtzdale Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at each general election for five consecutive years prior to the election of November 5, 1878?

Question. Where do you reside?—A. In Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Where and when were you born?—A. Born in Bedford County, Pennsylvania, the 18th day of March, 1832 or 1833.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you reside in the State of Pennsylvania with your wife and family for more than one whole year preceding the election of November 5, 1878, and in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, on said election day, and for more than two months immediately preceding it?—A. Yes, sir; and for twenty-three years, except during the war.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election that was assessed more than two months and paid more than one month before said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When and to whom did you pay such tax?—A. On September 2, 1878, and to Thomas Henderson.

Q. Did you pay any State or county tax in 1877?—A. Yes, sir; I paid it to Joseph G. Higgins, either on the day of the spring election or the day of the fall election, 1877.

Q. Did you vote in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the election of November 5, 1878, and for whom did you vote for Congress?

(Object to the latter part of the above question because the witness cannot be compelled to tell for whom he voted until it has been proven that his vote was an illegal one.)

Question. Are you a justice of the peace?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. For Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

(The above questions and answers, since the witness has been recalled, are objected to for the reason that it is a matter of record whether or not the witness is a justice of the peace, and the records thereof are the best evidence, and the fact cannot be proved by parol testimony.)

Q. Are you or are you not the justice of the peace of Woodward Township residing nearest the election house in which the election of November 5, 1878, was held?

(Objected to for the reason that it has not been shown by the records, which is the best evidence, that J. M. Lehman is a justice of the peace in and for Clearfield County.)

A. I believe I am. My impression is that I live a mile nearer the election house than any other justice of the peace in the township.

Q. What other justice or justices of the peace reside in Woodward Township?—A. But one, William Luther.

Q. Was the ballot-box used at the election of November 5, 1878, in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, placed in your hands after the election was over?—A. No, sir.

Q. Into the custody of what justice of the peace was it placed, if you know?—A. I don't know only by report. It was reported that there was to be a contest on this election. I was one of the clerks of the election, and I spoke to the board that I had better take charge of the ballot-box when the polls was closed and the vote counted out. Thomas Henderson was in the room at the time; he said that the ballot-box had always remained at the election house. He said he thought it was as safe there as any place else, and the board concluded to leave it at the election house. When I heard there was to be a contest I went to the election officers; I told them I thought they had better get the ballot-box. They said if I would go along they would go and get it. We started on Monday morning. I think that was eight or ten days after the election. We got within 200 yards of the election house and met Thomas Henderson; told him the business we were on; he said that Constable Higgins had been there on Saturday and took the ballot-box to 'Squire Luther's. I think that he said that he (Higgins) had an order for it from Wallace and Krebs. Then another reason that I think the ballot-box was left with Luther at the spring election, when the constable brought the box I asked him where he got it from, he said he had got it of 'Squire Luther.

And further saith not.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Where and when were you born?—A. I was born in Fulton County, Pennsylvania. I am going on 25 years of age.

Q. Were you married at the time of the election, November 5, 1878, or at any time before that?—No, sir.

Q. What is your father's name?—A. B. F. Defibaugh.

Q. Was he examined here as a witness yesterday?

(Objected to, because if said B. F. Defibaugh was examined yesterday before this board of examination it is a matter of record in this case, and is therefore the best evidence, and the answer of this witness is hearsay.)

A. Yesterday or day before; I could not say which.

Q. Did your father pay those taxes for you at your request?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you the receipt for such payment, and, if not, what has become of it?—A. I have not got it. I lost it, and I don't know where I lost it.

Q. Did you vote in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?

(Counsel for contestant objects to this question, for the reason that the witness cannot be compelled to say for whom he voted until it shall be shown that his vote was illegal, it being a matter of privilege, and can be answered or not, as the witness sees fit.)

A. For Yocum.

Cross-examined:

Q. How do you know you voted for Yocum?—A. I seen it on the ticket.

Q. What other names did you see on the ticket?—A. I don't remember.

Q. Do you remember one?—A. Yes, sir; I remember Yocum.

Q. How does it come that you remember Yocum and none of the others?—A. Because the fight was between Yocum and Curtin.

Q. For what office was Yocum running?—A. For governor of Pennsylvania.

Q. I also understand you to say, do I, that you do not remember any other names that were on your ticket?—A. Besides Yocum—no, sir.

Q. When you say "Besides Yocum," do you mean besides Yocum for governor of Pennsylvania?—A. There was only one man on the ticket for governor, and I voted for Yocum.

Q. Are you positive of this fact?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. You are sure you are not mistaken?—A. I am sure I voted for Yocum for governor.

Q. In your direct testimony, you swear that your father paid your State and county tax for you and at your request. Now, when did you make that request?—A. I don't remember when I made the request, but he paid them.

Q. Did you make this request in November, 1878?—A. I said I didn't remember when I made the request.

Q. About when did you make this request?—A. It was two months, anyhow, before the election.

Q. How can you fix this date?—A. I can't fix it at all; I can't tell you the date.

Q. Now, was it not about the 15th day of October that you spoke about these taxes for the first time to your father?—A. I don't know whether it was that time or before it.

Q. How long was it before that time, at the longest?—A. I don't know.

Q. When your father paid these taxes for you, did he owe you anything?—A. No, sir; but I gave him the money to pay them with.

Q. Have you a receipt?—A. Havn't any; told you before I lost it.

Q. When did you lose it?—A. I don't know.

Q. When did you get it from your father, and was it not on the day of election?—A. I couldn't say for sure. I believe it was on day of election.

Q. Where was it you got it?—A. At home, in the house.

Q. How long after you requested your father to pay it did you get the receipt from him?—A. About two months.

Q. How long after you gave your father the money to pay it was it he gave you the receipt?—A. I don't remember.

Q. Was it one week?—A. I don't know.

Q. Are you sure it was one week?—A. I don't remember whether it was or not.

Q. Then you cannot swear, can you, that it was one week before the election of November 5, 1878, that you gave your father the money to pay these taxes for you?—A. Yes, it was before one week, and a good while too.

Re-examined:

Q. Were you living at home with your father when he paid these taxes for you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. You were asked in your examination-in-chief for whom you voted for Congress and you replied that you voted for Yocum for Congress, and on cross-examination you stated you voted for Yocum for governor. Now, were you not mistaken in saying you voted for Yocum for governor, and did you or not mean Congress?

(Counsel for contestant objects to this question for the reason that the witness has already testified that he does not remember the names of any other candidate upon his ticket than the name of Yocum for governor, and that he is positive that he voted for Yocum for governor of Pennsylvania, and it is objected to for the further reason that the question is so framed as to put in the mouth of the witness the answer desired by counsel for contestee, and is leading and unfair to the witness and an improper question.)

A. It was on account of my ignorance. I suppose it was Congress.

Q. Did you vote for Yocum for the office for which he was a candidate?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. In saying on cross-examination that you voted for Yocum for governor, did you do so thoughtlessly and was or not your mind principally occupied in the person for whom you voted rather than the office for which he was a candidate?

(Objected to because it is improper and leading.)

A. The person more than the office.

Q. Were you mistaken when you said it was governor?

(Counsel for contestant objects to this question because the witness has already testified that he could not be mistaken when he said he voted for Yocum for governor.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. When you stated that you were certain that you could not be mistaken, did you or not merely mean that you could not be mistaken in having voted for Yocum?

(Objected to for the reason that the witness has already answered the question, and has said in his cross-examination, when asked whether he could be mistaken when he said he had voted for Yocum for governor of Pennsylvania, that he could not be mistaken and that he was positive that he voted for Yocum for governor of Pennsylvania.)

A. Yes.

Q. Did you vote for Yocum and the whole Republican ticket?—A. I voted for Yocum. I don't know whether the whole Republican ticket or not.

Q. Do you remember who gave you your ticket?—A. My father gave me my ticket.

Q. Was it or not an ordinary printed ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

And further saith not.

Q. Did you read your ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Did you also pay a State or county tax to Collector Higgins, in August, 1878?—A. I paid him my 1877 tax in 1878. No date on the receipt.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election?—A. No, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election of November 5, 1878, for Congress?

(Objected to for the reason that it is a privileged question and the witness cannot be compelled to divulge for whom he voted until it is first shown that his vote was an illegal one.)

A. For Andy Curtin.

Q. How long did you live in Woodward Township with your family prior to the election of November 5, 1878?—A. About three years.

Q. Where did you move from when you moved into Woodward Township?—A. From Cambria County.

Q. Did you pay any State or county tax since you moved into Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania?—A. No, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Do you own any real estate situated in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, which is assessed in your name and upon which you pay taxes or have them paid for you at your instance and request?—A. Yes, sir; at the time of the assessment I owned property.

Q. And did you pay or cause to be paid for you, at your request, the State and county taxes assessed against that property?—A. No, sir.

Q. Who paid the taxes upon that property while it was assessed to you?

(Counsel for contestee objects to the witness testifying to any hearsay or anything he does not know of his own knowledge.)

A. I guess I will have to pay it.

Q. When did you come into possession of that property; in what year?—A. About three years ago.

Q. Has there never been any State or county taxes paid upon that property since you owned it, if you know?—A. Not that I know of.

Q. Did ever the tax collector of Woodward Township—I mean Thomas Henderson—ask or demand of you any State or county taxes?—A. Once, that I know of.

Q. When, and for what year?—A. Some time before the previous election.

Q. What election?—A. The same election at which you're examining about these votes.

Q. Was or was not the election of November 5, 1878, the one you mean?—A. Yes; that's the one I mean.

Q. When you came to vote at the election of November 5, 1878, in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, was your vote objected to, and what did Thomas Henderson say to the board at that time?

(Objected to, because the question assumes that Thomas Henderson did say something to the board, and that the witness so testified, which is not correct.)

A. They asked me for my tax receipt; Thomas Henderson said my taxes was all right.

Q. After Thomas Henderson said to the election board of Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, that your taxes were all right, did you then present your vote or ticket to the said board of election, and did they accept it?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. How long before the last general election was it that Thomas Henderson asked you for your State and county taxes?—A. It might be two or three months. I can't exactly say.

Q. Can you swear that it was more than one month before the election?—A. Yes.

Q. Was it or not in the month of October last?

(Objected to, because the question intimates that it was in the month of October, whilst the witness has already sworn it might have been two or three months before the election of November 5, 1878, which would make it in the month of August or September, and question is leading and unfair to the witness.)

A. I could not exactly say. I had no day or date; it must be two or three months previous to the election.

Q. Then your vote was not challenged at the election, but were merely asked if you had tax receipt?—A. Yes, sir.

And further saith not.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, for the reason that it is a matter of privilege and the witness cannot be compelled to testify for whom he voted until it shall have been shown that his vote was illegal.)

A. I voted for Yocum.

Cross-examined:

Q. Where did you live on September 15, 1878?—A. In Woodward Township.

Q. Have you ever been married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is your wife living?—A. No, sir.

Q. When did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election?—A. I paid it some time in September, 1877.

Q. Have you a receipt?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay that tax yourself?—A. My friend paid it for me. I am in his employ. Mr. Chase paid it for me.

Q. Did you ask Mr. Chase to pay these taxes for you?—A. Yes, sir; I generally do.

Q. When did you ask him to pay your State and county taxes for 1876 and for 1877?—A. Now that's hard for me to say when. It was previous to that time though.

Q. Did you ever ask him to pay your State and county tax for 1877?—A. Why, yes, of course I did.

Q. Did you see him pay your State and county taxes for 1876 and 1877 to the collector?—A. I did not.

Q. Where were you born?—A. Born in Lebanon County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Was W. A. Chase, the man from whom you say you received your receipt, a collector of State and county taxes?—A. No, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Have you a receipt for your State and county taxes, and will you produce it?—A. Yes, sir.

(Witness produces receipt for State and county taxes dated September 21, 1877, for State and county taxes, of Joseph Reigel, for the years 1876 and 1877, for 50 cents, signed by J. G. Higgins.)

Q. When did you get that receipt, as near as you can tell?—A. As near as my memory serves me now, I got it within a day or two.

Q. Within a day or two of what time?—A. Of the date of the receipt.

Q. Did you see J. G. Higgins sign the receipt which you presented to the notary for inspection?—A. No, sir.

Q. In your cross-examination you swore that you received that receipt from W. A. Chase, who was not tax-collector of State and county taxes. Now, of your own knowledge, do you know whether or not this tax receipt was written or signed by J. G. Higgins?—A. That is not for me to say. I took the man's word for it.

Q. What man's word for it?—A. William A. Chase.

Q. Do you know Higgins's handwriting or signature?

(Objected to because the witness is not an expert, and Higgins is a competent witness and his testimony can be had, and is therefore the best evidence as to the signature to the receipt, which has not been offered in evidence.)

A. Well, I don't know that I would, never having had any dealings with him.

Q. Did you also pay your State and county taxes for 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you read your ticket carefully before voting it?—A. I did not read it very carefully; I seen his name there, that I wanted to vote.

Q. Did you read all the names?—A. I didn't want to read them all; that one was all I wanted to know.

Q. Can you read at all?—A. Yes; I can read a little.

Q. Did you on the 5th of November, 1878, read the ticket you voted for Congress with such care and attention as will enable you now to say positively upon your oath that you voted for Yocum?—A. I voted for Yocum.

Q. Have you since the day of election of November 5, 1878, all the time recollected that you voted for Yocum for Congress, or has your memory been refreshed since that time?—A. I always remembered I voted for him.

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within the two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, that was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before November 5, 1878?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you a receipt for such payment?—A. I had a receipt, but mislaid it; I can't find it.

Q. To whom did you pay such taxes?—A. Joseph Higgins.

Q. When?—A. It was in July or August, 1877.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of said Woodward Township, at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. How do you know you voted for Yocum on the 5th of November, 1878?—A. I know, because I read his name.

Q. Did you read the ticket you voted on November 5, 1878, with such care and attention as enables you to swear positively that you voted for Yocum for Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you recollected ever since the election of November 5, 1878, that you voted for Yocum, or has your memory been refreshed since that time?—A. I recollected ever since I voted for him.

Q. Is that all the indorsement that appears on the back of your certificate of citizenship?—A. Yes.

Q. Did you vote at the general election of November, 1877?—A. The first time I voted here I voted for Yocum.

Q. Did you vote in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, on the 5th of November, 1878, and did the board of said election make any indorsements in writing or printing on your certificate of citizenship?—A. Q. Did you and your wife reside in the election district of said Woodward Township continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding the 5th of November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you within two years preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. To whom and when did you pay such tax?—A. I paid it in June, between the 15th and 10th in 1877, to Joseph Higgins.

Q. Was Joseph Higgins the collector or not of State and county taxes? (Objected to because it is not the best evidence.)

A. He was, I guess; he came there, to the place of my residence.

Q. Was or was not Joseph Higgins collector of State or county taxes? (Objected to for same reason as in preceding objection.)

A. I believe he was.

Q. Did you or not get a receipt from Higgins for said taxes, and if so, where is it?—A. I got a receipt from him, but I got it mislaid some way or other.

Q. Is it lost so that you cannot find it?—A. I looked for it. Cannot find it yet.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Woodward Township at the general election held therein on November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?

(Counsel for contestant objects to this question for the reason that witness cannot be compelled to answer it unless he desires so to do until it has been shown that his vote is illegal.)

A. I voted for Yocum.

Q. Did you or not, at said election, vote for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. I did.

Cross examined:

Q. Where was your father born?

(Objected to because it is immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. He was born in this country.

Q. What tax did you pay Joseph Higgins?

(Objected to because the witness has already testified that he paid Higgins a State and county tax, and the purpose is to mislead the witness and is unfair and improper.)

Counsel for contestant objects to the objection of counsel for contestee for the reason that it is a suggestion of the answer desired by counsel for contestee and is put in the form of an objection as a mere pretext and for the further reason that it is an improper objection and is put for the purpose of interrupting the cross-examination of this witness.)

A. State and county tax 1877.

Q. What other taxes did you pay him?—A. Did not pay any; that's all I paid him.

Q. Did you pay him yourself?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. In money?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where is your receipt for the payment of the same?—A. I either lost it or mislaid it.

Q. Where did you live in 1876?—A. In Woodward Township.

Q. Did you read your ticket you voted at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What other names were on that ticket?—A. I don't remember just what they were.

Q. Give me one name that was on your ticket; this question is put to test the memory of the witness.

(Objected to because the witness has already testified in substance that Seth H. Yocum for Congress was on his ticket, and the purpose of the question is to mislead the witness.)

A. I don't remember it.

Q. Do you swear that you cannot remember one name that was on the ticket you voted at the election of November 5, 1878?

(Objected to because the witness has already testified in substance that Seth H. Yocum's name was on his ticket.

Counsel for contestant objects to the receiving of the testimony of this witness and to the considering of the same by the committee of Congress who shall hear this case, for the reason that counsel for contestant are not permitted to cross-examine the witness without the repeated suggestive objections of counsel for contestee which destroy the effectiveness of the cross-examination.)

A. I don't remember it.

Re examined:

Q. Do you or not know that Seth H. Yocum's name was on the ticket you voted November 5, 1878?

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. In Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. I am 27 years old next April.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Ireland.

Q. How old was you when you came to the United States from Ireland?—A. About seven months old.

Q. Did you or not come to the United States with your father?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Has or has not your father been naturalized, and if so, when?

(Counsel for contestant objects to this question and the answer of the witness thereto, because his father's certificate of naturalization is a matter of record and it is the best evidence, and for the further reason that parol evidence cannot be given to establish the fact it is sought to establish, until it shall have been shown that the record and documentary evidence has been lost or destroyed.)

A. Yes, sir; he was naturalized. I know his first vote was at the time of Lincoln's first election in 1860.

Q. Have you or not frequently seen your father's naturalization papers?

(Objected to for the same reasons as in objection to preceding question.)

A. Yes, sir; I have.

Q. Where was he naturalized?

(Objected to because the certificate of his naturalization is the best evidence, and if said certificate has been lost or destroyed, a certified copy of the records thereof would be the best evidence, and until the loss or destruction of the best evidence is proven, parol proof is inadmissible and incompetent.)

A. In the State of Pennsylvania; his first papers were got in Blair and his second in Huntingdon County.

Q. Where is your father's certificate of naturalization?—A. He has them in his house.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you and your wife resided in the election district of said Woodward Township continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you within the two years immediately preceding November 5

1878, pay a State or county tax; and, if so, will you produce receipt for the same?—A. Yes, sir.

(Witness produces receipt of J. G. Higgins, dated September 28, 1878, for his State and county tax for 1877.)

Q. Did you vote in the election district of said Woodward Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For Seth H. Yocum.

Q. About how many years ago was your father naturalized?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, because it is not the best evidence, and for the reason that the record of his father's naturalization as well as the certificate thereof, have not been proven to have been lost or destroyed, and therefore parol evidence is inadmissible to establish the facts sought to be established by the testimony of the witness.)

A. Some time in the year 1860, I think.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did you read your ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Will you produce the certificate of your father's naturalization?—

A. Yes, sir; if required.

Q. Did you pay these taxes to Higgins yourself, and in money and at the date mentioned in the receipt?—A. No, sir; I was working; left the money at my house, and my wife paid them for me.

Q. Who gave you the receipt?—A. My wife gave it to me when I came home that evening.

Re-examined:

Q. Did you or not leave the money with your wife, and direct her to pay said taxes, and did she or not give you the receipt on the day mentioned in the receipt?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where was you born?—A. In England.

Q. Have you been naturalized; and, if so, will you produce your certificate of naturalization?—A. Yes, sir.

(Witness produces certificate of naturalization dated September 3, 1872, and signed by W. A. Thomas, prothonotary, and there is attached thereto the seal of the court of common pleas of Bradford County, Pennsylvania.)

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you and your wife reside in the election district of said Houtzdale Borough continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes.

Q. Did you within two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, pay a State or county tax; and, if so, will you produce the receipt for the same?—A. Yes, sir; paid it in good time, too.

(Witness produces receipt dated May 31, 1878, signed by D. McGaughey, for his county and State taxes for the year 1878.)

Q. Did you or not receive said receipt from D. McGaughey, county treasurer, on May 31, 1878?—A. I could not say; it was him or his clerk; I don't know the man. I saw a notice to pay in May and save 5 per cent., and where to go to pay it.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Houtzdale Borough at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Are these all the indorsements on the back of your certificate of naturalization?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you read the ticket which you voted on November 5, 1878?—Yes, sir.

Re-examined:

A. In Bradford County, Pennsylvania.

Q. When you voted November 5, 1878, in Houtzdale Borough, did or did not the election board know that you were naturalized?

(Objected to because the witness could not possibly know the fact he is asked to establish by his testimony, and for the further reason that no indorsement appears upon his certificate of naturalization, which is the best evidence; and for the further reason that the members of the election board are competent, and their testimony can be had.)

A. Yes, sir.

And further saith not.

Q. Did you ever live in Bradford County?—A. No, sir.

Q. How do you fix the date when you paid these taxes you have spoken of?—A. I kept it by the receipt.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; 33 years old next April.

Q. Where were you born?—A. Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you married ; and, if so, had you and your wife resided in the election district of said Woodward Township continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; for five years.

Q. Had you within two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When and to whom?—A. In last of April, 1878; to Joseph Higgins.

Q. How do you fix the time as in April, 1878?—A. I was down the river and came up on the cars; I paid it coming up on the cars to Higgins.

Q. Did you take his receipt?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of said Woodward Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. Yocum.

Q. Do you mean Seth H. Yocum?—A. Yes sir.

Q. What ticket did you vote?

A. Republican.

Q. Did you or not read the name of Seth H. Yocum for Congress that you voted?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant for the reason that counsel for contestee in his question assumes that the witness read his ticket, while he has not so testified; and for the further reason that it is leading.)

A. I did.

Q. Are or are you not, because of reading the ticket, certain that you voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?

(Objected to for same reasons as in objections to preceding question.)

A. I am certain I voted for Yocum.

Cross-examined:

Q. What other names were on your ticket which you voted on November 5, 1878?—A. Well, I can't recollect them.

Q. Can you recollect one of them?—A. No; don't know as I can.

Q. Now, why is it that you can recollect that the name of Seth H. Yocum was on the ticket you voted at said election?—A. Because Curtin was running against him.

Q. Then the only reason you have for saying that you voted for Yocum is because Curtin was running against him, is it not?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then I understand you to say, do I not, that you do not rely upon seeing his name on your ticket?—A. His name was on my ticket.

Q. Do you swear that the name of Seth H. Yocum was on your ticket?—

A. Well, Yocum's name was on it; I don't mind about Seth H.

Q. Then you are positive, are you, that Yocum's name was on your ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. You are not positive, however, that the name of Seth H. Yocum was on your ticket?—A. I am not positive as to all the letters were on. I am positive that Yocum's name was on.

Q. When did you move into Woodward Township?—A. Five or six years ago I moved to Woodward Township.

Q. Have you resided in that township ever since?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How much tax did you pay Joseph Higgins in the spring of 1878?—

A. I think it was $1.50 or $1.55, or about that.

Q. What kind of tax was it you paid Joseph Higgins?—A. State and county.

Q. Had this tax been regularly assessed against you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For what year was it?—A. For 1877.

Q. Why is it that you did not take a receipt for the payment of the same?—A. We had no paper and ink on the cars.

Q. Had you no paper there at all?—A. I had none.

Q. Why did you not get a receipt from him when you came home?—A. I trusted to his honesty to mark it off the duplicate.

Q. Now, since you had no receipt for the payment of your taxes, how did you come to be permitted to vote at said election?—A. I was not asked for any tax receipt.

Re-examined:

Q. Was your vote challenged?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you or not vote for the man for Congress who was running against Andrew G. Curtin?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, for the witness has already said that he voted for Yocum, and that he cannot swear positively that the name of Seth H. Yocum was not on his ticket, and that the question is leading.)

A. I did.

Question. Where do you reside and what is your age?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; age, forty-four years.

Q. In what State were you born?—A. In Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you married; and, if so, did you and your wife reside in the election district of said Woodward Township continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; yes, sir.

Q. Had you within the two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax; and, if so, will you produce receipt for such payment?—A. Yes, sir.

(Witness produces receipt, dated September 17, 1878, for State and county tax for 1877, signed by J. G. Higgins, per E. A. H.)

Q. Did you or not pay on September 17, 1878, your State and county tax assessed for the year 1877?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, because it is not the best evidence, for the reason that it is shown by the testimony of the witness that he has a receipt for the payment of the same, and for the further reason that parol evidence cannot be given as a substitute for documentary evidence.)

A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you vote at the general election of November 5, 1878, in the election district of said Woodward Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What ticket did you vote?—A. Republican.

Q. Did you or not vote the whole straight Republican ticket?—A. I don't know how to answer that, gentlemen. I think I voted for Yocum.

Q. Have you or have you not, since you testified at Clearfield some weeks ago, been considering the question as to whom you voted for for Congress.

(Counsel for contestant objects to this question, for the reasons, first, that it is a question framed from an explanation made by the witness in explanation to the answer of the preceding question, which was not taken down; secondly, because the question is leading.)

The witness did make some explanation aside, but stated that it was not a part of his answer.

W. N. PROTHERO,
Notary Public.

(Counsel for contestant object to the statement which has just been placed upon the record, for the reason that, under the act of Congress regulating the taking of testimony in contested rights for seats in the Congress of the United States, it is the bounden duty of the commissioner taking such testimony to reduce to writing the questions asked by counsel for the parties, and also the answers of the witnesses thereto, and said officer cannot be the judge of what is the answer to the question where the witness makes a statement in connection with his direct answer, but the whole answer and statement must be taken down and reduced to writing, that the committee may be able to ascertain the answer of the witness as he wishes it to be received.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, to the best of your knowledge, did you or did you not vote for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. What are your politics?

A. Republican.

Cross-examined:

Q. How do you know you voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. He was on the ticket.

Q. How do you know he was on your ticket?—A. I read his name on it.

Q. When did you read his name on your ticket?—A. The morning of the election.

Q. What other names were on your ticket?—A. Well, sir, I don't remember only Hoyt's name.

Q. Give me all the names you can remember that were on your ticket that you voted on November 5, 1878?—A. I can't remember only the two names.

Q. Give me those two names as they were on your ticket.—A. Hoyt and Yocum.

Q. What Hoyt, and for what office was he running?—A. For governor. I don't know his initials.

Q. What Yocum, and for what office was he running?—A. For Congress; don't know his initials either.

Q. Then you cannot swear positively that you voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress, can you?—A. I believe I can.

Q. Now, if you cannot remember the initials that were on your ticket, how can you swear that you voted for Seth H. Yocum?—A. Well, he is the only man that I can remember being on the ticket—the only Yocum.

Q. Why did you swear, then, in answer to a preceding question, that you could not remember the initials of Yocum upon your ticket?—A. I have a poor memory, I suppose.

Q. How was your memory refreshed that you can now swear that you voted for Seth H. Yocum, whilst a few minutes ago you swore you did not remember the initials of the Yocum you voted for for Congress?—A. Well, gentlemen, I'll just tell you. Since I was to Clearfield I have been studying about this. To the best of my knowledge, I voted for Yocum. The sheep law I did not vote for, gentlemen, and that was the reason why I was not positive whether I voted for Yocum when I was at Clearfield.

Q. Then, if Seth A. Yocum was a candidate on your ticket for Congress, did you vote for him?

(Objected to because the purpose is to mislead the witness, inasmuch as he has already sworn that to the best of his knowledge he voted for Seth H. Yocum, there being no Seth A. Yocum a candidate for Congress.)

Counsel for contestant denies that the purpose of this question is to mislead the witness, but asserts that it is put for the purpose of testing the memory of the witness. And it is further objected to for the reason that in his objection counsel for contestee assumes that witness has sworn that he voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress, while in his cross-examination the witness swears that, to the best of his knowledge, he voted for Yocum, and does not give his initials. It is objected to for the further reason that votes were polled in the twentieth Congressional district for Seth A. Yocum as well as for Seth H. Yocum, and it is important that contestant should know whether witness voted for S. A. Yocum or S. H. Yocum. And it is objected to for the further reason that it is a suggestion (under the pretext of an objection) of the answer desired by contestee, and is consequently an interference with the cross-examination of the witness by counsel for contestant.)

A. I voted for the man that was on my ticket, whether it was Seth A. Yocum or Seth H. Yocum, or whatever it was.

Q. And you say, do you not, that you cannot swear positively what the initials were of the Yocum which was on your ticket which you voted on November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; I could not.

Q. Did you pay yourself, and in money, the taxes for which you have produced a receipt?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Re-examined:

Q. Did you, or did you not, on November 5, 1878, vote for the man who was running against Andrew G. Curtin for Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

Recross-examined:

Q. How do you know you voted for the man who was running against Andrew G. Curtin for Congress?—A. They told me Yocum was running against Curtin.

Q. What Yocum did they tell you was running against Curtin for Congress?—A. Yocum. They didn't say what Yocum.

Q. Was or not the tax for which you have produced a receipt paid on the date mentioned in said receipt?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you been voting in Woodward Township since you moved there?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you mean at each general election since you moved there in 1870?—A. I have been entitled to vote ever since. I don't recollect.

Recross-examined :

Q. Then you do not know positively whether you have voted in Woodward Township for five consecutive years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, do you?—A. Well, I don't attend the polls regularly. Q. Did Diffibaugh read from the ticket you voted the name of Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What are your politics?—A. My politics is Republican.

Q. What are the politics of Diffibaugh, the man who gave you the ticket you voted?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question for the reason that Diffibaugh is a competent witness and is the best evidence of what his politics is, and for the reason that it is hearsay.)

A. As far as I can understand of the gentleman, he was a Republican.

Cross-examined:

Q. Was the State and county tax you paid Higgins, in 1878, assessed against you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you read the ticket which you voted on November 5, 1878?—A. I did not, sir.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Woodward Township at the election of November 5, 1878 ?—A. Yes, sir.

SAMUEL STILES sworn.

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. In Gulich Township, Clearfield, in Janesville. Smith's Mills is the name of the post-office.

Q. Do you know John M. Krise, of Gulich Township?—A. I know a John Krise of Gulich Township; don't know whether he has a middle letter in his name or not.

Q. I mean John Krise that was called here as a witness a few days ago.

(Counsel for contestant objects to this question and the answer of the witness thereto, for the reason that unless the witness knows of his own personal knowledge that John M. Krise was a witness, his evidence is hearsay, and incompetent as testimony.)

A. I know that there is no other John Krise in Gulich Township.

Q. When did John Krise come to live in Gulich Township; during last summer or fall?—A. About on the 8th day of September, 1878, he came to my house to stay all night. To the best of my knowledge, he went to Jim Flynn's on the 9th of September.

Q. Don't you know it was on the 8th day of September, 1878?—A. He came to my house on Sunday evening. I marked the time because I thought he was an unlegal voter when the election would come. I warned Mr. David that he had no right to vote on the day of the election.

Q. What office did Mr. David hold on the election board?—A. Inspector.

Q. I understand you to say that the reason you noted down the date when Krise came to your house was because he had no legal right to vote?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant for the reason that the witness has already answered the question, and for the reason that the witness is not the judge of who is or is not a legal voter; and for the further reason that the question is leading.)

A. Noted down? I kept it in my mind because I thought he had no right to vote.

Q. How far do you live from the house of Wm. L. David, and what relation is he to you, if any?

(Counsel for contestant objects because it is immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. He is my brother-in-law. At the day of the election I lived the fourth house from him. I am a little wrong there; when John Krise came there to stay all night, I lived in the fourth house from him.

Q. Where did Krise go to live after he left your house?

A. To James Flynn.

Q. Had Krise been at Wm. L. David's to stop, and why did he not stay there, if you know?

(Objected to for the reason that John Krise has been made a witness by the contestee and was the best evidence why he left Wm. L. David's, and Wm. L. David is a competent witness and his testimony can be had. And it is objected to for the further reason that it is immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. By hearsay, they had no room for him.

Q. Did Krise tell you the reason he did not stop at David's was because they had no room?

(Objected to for the reason that Krise is a competent witness and his testimony is the best evidence, and for the further reason that it is immaterial, incompetent, and hearsay.)

A. David or Krise told me.

Q. Did he then stay at David's at that time?

(Objected to for the reason that Krise has been made a witness by contestee, and it is not proper for contestee to contradict his own witness.)

A. No, he staid all night at my house.

Q. Did Krise live at Side Shofe's, in Beccaria Township, before coming to your house?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, for the reason that Sides Shofe has been made a witness by contestee and he is a competent witness and his testimony is the best evidence; and unless it be shown that the best evidence cannot be had the testimony of the witness is incompetent to prove the fact it is sought to establish by his testimony, and because it is hearsay.)

A. It is only hearsay; he told me he did.

Q. When did Krise bring his clothing, &c., into Gulich Township from Beccaria?

(Objected to because Krise is a competent witness and his testimony is the best evidence and can be had, and until it be proven that it cannot be had the testimony of the witness is incompetent.)

A. On the 12th or 13th of September, I believe, he fetched them in; I saw him going through Janesville or up street.

Q. When he came to your house, did he come to live or remain permanently, or to stay all night?

(Objected to for the reason that the witness could not possibly know the intention of Krise, and the testimony of Krise can be had and is the best evidence, and therefore the testimony of the witness is incompetent.)

A. I might have kept him two or three days without turning him off.

Q. Are you positive that John Krise came into Gulich Township within two months preceding the election of November 5, 1878, to live there?

(Objected to for the reason that contestee having made a witness out of John M. Krise cannot contradict the testimony of his own witness.)

A. I believe he did not come into the township 60 days before the election to live, because I told him that James Flynn had been asking me how he would suit him. I told John Krise I thought he could get a chance to live at Jim Flynn's.

Cross-examined:

Q. How many miles did you live from Wm. L. David's at that time?—

A. I lived in the fourth house.

Q. How far was it; a mile, or more less?—A. between 75 and 150 yards.

Q. Do you know of your own knowledge anything about when John M. Krise came into Gulich Township last fall?—A. He came to my house on the 8th day of September.

Q. Did he not work for Wm. L. David for two days before he came to your house?—A. I think not, sir.

Q. Did he not come from Wm. L. David's to your house?—A. I believe he did, sir.

Q. You do not pretend to swear, do you, when John M. Krise left Side Shofe's, in Beccaria Township?—A. No, sir.

Q. In your direct examination, in answer to the question "Don't you know that it was on the 8th day of September, 1878?" you said, "He came to my house on Sunday evening," &c. Now, how did you mark the time?—A. Well, I was studying about the election, and I generally watch the Democrats in Gulich Township pretty sharp, and I knowed it would be their game to try to get John Krise a vote.

Q. What were your politics in 1878?—A. Republican and National, or Greenback.

Q. Do you know whether John M. Krise's vote was challenged at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I was setting in Flynn's store, I believe, on the counter. My brother Will came to me and said the board was giving John Krise a vote. I went to the school-house where they held the election. I warned the board; told them the consequence of the law; also warned Wm. David; told him, too, that he knowed as well as I did that John Krise had no right to vote.

Q. After you told the board that John Krise had no right to vote, was his vote received?—A. It was, certainly; they were swearing him about at this time.

Q. Then it was after he was sworn that his vote was received?—A. It is a customary rule to vote after they are sworn, in our township.

(Counsel for contestant objects to all the testimony of this witness tending to show that his vote, that is, the vote of John M. Krise, was illegal, that is, the vote which he cast in Gulich Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, on November 5, 1878; and counsel for contestant will move the committee of Congress who shall hear the case to strike out the testimony of the witness for the following reasons: First, for the reason the election board of Gulich Township were sworn officers of said township, and were sworn to perform the duties of the officers of the election of November 5, 1878, in said township, and that the fact that they received the vote of John M. Krise, after hearing the objections of this witness now sworn, and receiving satisfactory evidence of the residence of said John M. Krise, his vote was received; and the conclusion of said board, after the said John M. Krise was sworn, and other evidence of his residence being heard, is conclusive of the right of said John M. Krise to vote in said Gulich Township, and cannot be impeached; and for the further reason that the said John M. Krise has been made a witness by contestee, and has sworn that he resided in said district for more than two months immediately preceding said election, and contestee cannot contradict his own witness.)

Re-examined :

Q. If Krise had lived at William L. David's for two or three days, would you not have known it?—A. I think I would, sir.

Q. What is the politics of William L. David?—A. Democrat.

W. N. PROTHERO,
Notary Public.

The notary public from overwork requests the appointment of an amanuensis to write down the testimony, and accordingly appoints Z. T. Porter, esqr., as an amanuensis for that purpose, the said Z. T. Porter residing at Houtzdale, in the 20th Congressional district.

Counsel for contestant objects to the appointment of Z. T. Porter as an amanuensis for W. N. Prothero, notary public, for the same reasons as were made to the appointment, and for the reasons set forth in the objection made by counsel for contestant against and to the appointment of O'L. Buck, esq., as an amanuensis or clerk for Wm. Rodebaugh, a notary public, whom testimony was and is being taken on the part of the contestee, S. H. Yocum, wherein his right to a seat in the Forty-sixth Congress of the United States as a Representative for the twentieth Congressional district of Pennsylvania is contested, and his election for said office on November 5, 1878, is being investigated, in which case testimony is also being taken before W. N. Prothero, a notary public, who is fully competent to reduce to writing the testimony in said case.

CLEARFIELD COUNTY, ss :

Personally appeared before me, W. N. Prothero, a notary public in and for said county, Z. T. Porter, esq., who being duly sworn, according to law, doth depose and say that as an amanuensis he will faithfully and correctly write down the testimony of each witness called in the presence and under the direction of W. N. Prothero, the said notary public, by whom he has just been appointed to write down the testimony on the part of the contestee in the contested election case of Curtin against Yocum.

Z. T. PORTER.

Sworn and subscribed before me this 25th day of March, 1879.

W. N. PROTHERO,
Notary Public.

EDWARD LLOYD, Jr., sworn.

Question. Where do you reside ; what is your age ?—Answer. Woodward Township, Clearfield County ; 31 years on June 10, 1878.

(Objection.—Counsel for contestant objects to the taking of the testimony of Edward Lloyd, jr., before W. N. Prothero, notary public, for the reason that in the notice served upon counsel for contestant notice was not given that the testimony of said Edward Lloyd, jr., was not taken before W. N. Prothero alone, but notice was given that the testimony of Edward Lloyd, jr., would be taken before Wm. Rodebaugh and W. N. Prothero, whilst the testimony is being taken before W. N. Prothero alone.

Counsel for contestee says of this objection that like most other objections made by J. T. Snyder, counsel for contestant, that it is untrue, there being a regular acceptance of service of notice as to this witness that his testimony would be taken before W. N. Prothero, notary public, on this day, which acceptance is dated March 14, 1879, and signed D. L. Krebs, esqr., the leading counsel for A. G. Curtin, contestant, in Clearfield County.

J. T. Snyder, of counsel for contestant, denies the truthfulness of the statement just made by T. H. Murray, of counsel for contestee, so far as the same relates to the objections which have been made during the taking of the testimony on the part of the contestee, and refers the committee to the record for the truthfulness of said objections ; and in reference to the notice that testimony would be taken before W. N. Prothero alone, if said notice was accepted ; as stated by counsel for contestee, the said J. T. Snyder has no knowledge whatever of the fact, and the objection which was made to the taking of the testimony of this witness now sworn was made in good faith.)

Q. Where were you born ?—A. In Wales.

Q. Are you naturalized ?

(Objected to, because it is not the best evidence, and for the reason that, until the record or certificate of the naturalization of the witness shall have been shown to have been lost, parol proof of naturalization is incompetent.)

A. Yes, I am naturalized ; I meant to say, yes, sir.

Q. At what age did you come to this country ?—A. Between seven and eight years old.

Q. Did your father come with you ?—A. No, sir.

Q. What was your age when your father came ?—A. About five years old.

Q. Was your father naturalized ?

(Objected, to for the reason that the certificate of his father's naturalization is the best evidence, and, until it shall have been shown to be lost, parol proof is incompetent.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was your age when your father was naturalized ?—A. About twelve years old.

Q. When you say you were naturalized do you not mean that you vote by reason of your father's naturalization ?—A. Yes, sir ; that is what I mean.

Q. Where was your father naturalized ; in what county or State ?—A. In Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Have you seen your father's naturalization papers?—A. Yes, sir; had them in my hand.

Q. When?—A. In 1861.

Q. Did you see them at any other time?—A. Yes, sir; in 1864. I would not be positive as to any other time.

Q. When you saw his naturalization papers were they the papers on which he voted?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How did you come to see them; what was the occasion?—A. On the election-day for proof for my voting on age.

Q. When you say 1861 and 1864 as the times you saw his papers, do you mean that, or do you mean 1871 or 1874, which?—A. I mean what I said.

Q. What year did you first vote; do you mean that you voted as long ago as 1861 or 1864?

(Objected to, because it was leading, and for the reason that the witness has already answered the question, which answer has not been taken down.)

A. In 1864; yes, I mean it.

Q. If you are only 31 years old, how could you have voted as long ago as 1861 or 1864?

(Objected to as leading, because contestee seeks to contradict his own witness.)

A. I made a mistake—I did not think—about myself.

Q. Please explain in what way you made a mistake and what you meant to say.—A. I meant to say 1874.

Q. When you said 1861, did you or did you not mean also 1871?

(Objected to, because it was leading.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Will you now state what year it was that you saw your father's papers?—A. Yes, sir; 1871 and 1874.

Q. Will you state how you came to see them; what the occasion was?—A. On election days.

Q. For what purpose?—A. For election.

Q. When you say you saw them for the purpose of voting, what do you mean? By saying by voting on age, do you, or do you not, mean voting on your father's papers by reason of your having been under age when he was naturalized?—A. Yes, sir; that is what I mean, but I was under age when my father was naturalized.

Q. To whom were these papers shown when you voted in 1871 and 1874?—A. To the man inside the polls.

Q. What did the men do when they saw those papers?—A. Got father to swear that I was of age.

Q. What did they then do?—A. Can't remember.

Q. Did they or not take your vote?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you lived in Pennsylvania?—A. I never was out of Pennsylvania since I came to the country.

Q. Had you within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax, which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month preceding said election?—A. I paid tax in 1877.

Q. To whom did you pay it?—A. To Jos. G. Higgins, constable.

Q. Was Jos. G. Higgins, constable of Woodward Township, collector of State and county taxes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was that the kind of tax you paid him in 1877?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where were you when you paid him that tax?—A. By the mines by the store.

Q. What time of year in 1877, as near as you can tell?—A. About March, I think.

Q. Did he give you a receipt at that time?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What ticket did you vote at that election?—A. Republican ticket.

Q. Did you vote for Seth H. Yocum or for Andrew G. Curtin at the said election for Congress—which one of the two?—A. For Yocum.

Q. Who gave you your ticket?—A. Richard Owens.

Q. Was Richard Owens a Republican or a Democrat?—A. A Republican.

Cross-examined:

Q. Can you read?—A. No, sir.

Q. How do you know you voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. Because that man gave me the ticket and knowed it was.

Q. Then when you swear you voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress do you rely upon what others told you?—A. I did not say that others told me, because that one person told me.

Q. How do you know that Seth H. Yocum was on the ticket which you voted at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I take that man's word.

Q. Then I understand you to say, do I, that the only reason you have for swearing that you have voted for him for Congress is that you were told that his name was on the ticket which was given you?—A. Yes, sir; I can rely on it.

Q. Now, if the man who gave you your ticket gave you a ticket with the name of Curtin upon it, did you not vote that ticket?—A. No, sir; did not vote it.

Q. Now, can you swear of your own knowledge that you voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, since you cannot read, how can you swear you voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. Because I know that man would not wrong me or give me the wrong ticket.

Q. Now, if that man gave you a wrong ticket, did you not vote for the man that was on that ticket?

(Objected to as unfair to the witness, because it is improper in form, argumentative in substance, and asked for the purpose of misleading and entrapping the witness.)

A. He did not give me a wrong ticket.

Q. If the man who gave you your ticket gave you a ticket which did not have the name of Seth H. Yocum, did you not vote that ticket?—A. He did not give me a ticket that had not that name on it.

Q. If a ticket was given which did not have the name of Yocum upon it, did you vote that ticket?—A. No, sir.

Q. Where did you live on the first day of August, 1878?—A. Houtzville—can't name the township—Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Where did you live on the first day of September, 1878?—A. Same place.

Q. Where did you live on the first day of October, 1878?—A. Same place.

Q. Now, were you not out of Woodward Township, and did you not reside in another township at some time between the 5th day of September and the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Was the tax which you say you paid Jos. Higgins in 1877 the only

State and county tax which you have paid within two years preceding said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you a receipt, and will you produce it?—A. I have a receipt. (Witness produces receipt, of which the following is a copy:)

“WOODWARD T’P, March 25, 1879.

“Received of Edward Lloyd, jr., twenty-six cts. State and county tax fore 100 dollars the year 1877.

Re-examined:

Q. When did Jos. G. Higgins give you that tax receipt?—A. To-day.

Q. Did you pay him any State or county tax to-day, or on the day that receipt is dated?—A. No, sir.

Q. How did Jos. G. Higgins come to give you that receipt to-day?

(Objected to, because it is not the best evidence, and Jos. Higgins is a competent witness.)

A. Because I spoke to him about my tax-receipt, and he never gave me one before; I have my receipt in my pocket for 1879.

Q. When, in 1879, did you pay tax, and to whom?—A. February 12, 1879, 26 cents State and county tax for 1878, to Thos. Henderson. (Witness produces receipt accordingly.)

Q. Did or did not J. G. Higgins, constable, give you that receipt to-day for the State and county tax which you paid him in 1877?—A. Yes, sir. He gave it to me to show that I have paid it.

Q. Did he dispute your word when you told him you had paid it in 1877, and what did he say?—A. No, sir; he did not dispute my word; he said he had not marked it out on his book. He told me there was so many Lloyds up there, probably he forgot to mark out your tax when paid.

Q. How long had you known Richard Owens when he gave that ticket you voted?—A. About fifteen or sixteen years.

Q. Which man was he working for on election day—Curtin or Yocum?—A. For Yocum.

Q. Have you full and entire confidence in him that he would not give you a wrong ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Who advised you to go to Higgins and get this receipt?—A. Myself, because I saw him.

And further saith not.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you and your wife, for one whole year or more, resided continuously in Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, immediately preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you, within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878, paid a State or county tax, which had been assessed at least two months and was paid at least one month preceding that election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you pay that tax, as near as you can tell, and to whom?—A. I paid it about three or four days before September court of 1878.

Q. To whom?—A. To the best of my knowledge, to Howe.

Q. For what collector or constable was Howe collecting?—A. He put Jos. Higgins's name on the tax receipt.

Q. Had Jos. G. Higgins asked you for this same tax before?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When Higgins asked you, had he his duplicate or not?—A. I could not tell.

Q. When Howe the man, collecting for Higgins, received his tax from you, had he a duplicate or book with names of persons and amount of tax opposite?—A. Yes, sir; he had a book of that kind.

Q. Was it or not the same tax and same amount that Higgins asked you for?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was Jos. G. Higgins, the man for whom Howe was collecting, the collector of State and county taxes for Woodward Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where is your receipt for the payment of that tax?—A. I lost it.

Q. When did you lose it?—A. I lost it between the time I got it and the election.

Q. Did they require any other proof of your right to vote?—A. Yes, sir, they did; they made me swear.

Q. When did you lose your tax-receipt?—A. Between the time I got it and the election.

Q. How much tax did you pay?—A. I could not tell.

Q. When and where did you get the receipt?—A. I got it in my own house, as near as I can tell, about the middle of September.

Q. Where were you when you received the ticket?—A. At the polls.

Re-examined:

Q. The counsel on the other side asked you this question, "Can you recall the names of any other candidates on your ticket?" Your answer was, "Yes, sir; Yocum, Andrew G. Curtin." Did you mean to answer in that way and to say that Curtin's name was on your ticket, or what did you mean?

(Objected to as an improper method of examining the witness; the witness has a right to explain if he believes he was mistaken; but that the question is too leading and suggestive of the answer desired.)

A. I did not mean to say that Andrew G. Curtin was on it, when he and Yocum were running on opposite parties.

Q. Did you or not mean simply that you recalled Curtin's name as one of the candidates at that election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was it Henry M. Hoyt or Andrew H. Dill you voted for at that election for governor?—A. To the best of my knowledge it was Dill; I am not positive.

Q. Did you vote for the Republican candidate or the Democratic candidate for governor?—A. Republican.

Q. If Dill was the Democratic candidate and Hoyt the Republican candidate for governor, for which did you vote?

(Objected to as leading and improper.)

A. Certainly I voted for Hoyt; but I did not know which.

Q. Was this man, Jos. Higgins, the boss of the shop, a friend of Curtin or Yocum?—A. He was in favor of Yocum.

Q. When Jos. G. Higgins, the collector, came to you for your tax, how long was it before you paid the tax to Howe?—A. I think within two or three days.

Q. Did Jos. G. Higgins fix any time within which you should pay the tax, and what reason did he give for that?—A. He said he would like for me to pay the tax before September court, that he was going there.

Q. Did you pay the tax within that time?—A. I am not certain that it was before the court.

Q. Was it during the month of September, 1878, that you paid it?—A. Yes, sir; to the best of my knowledge.

Question. Where do you reside, and what is your age?—Answer. In Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; age, going on 45 years.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Wales.

Q. When did you come to this country?—A. Nineteen years last November 14.

Q. Were you ever naturalized?

(Objected to, because the record or certificate of the naturalization of the witness is the best evidence, and parol proof is incompetent until it shall have been shown that the best evidence has been lost or destroyed.)

A. Yes; I got my two papers.

Q. What has become of your second paper, namely, your certificate of citizenship?—A. It was destroyed by the fire the day of the Osceola fire in May, 1875. I think.

Q. Where was you naturalized?—A. In Clearfield, I got my first paper; I got the second in Schuylkill County, Pennsylvania.

Q. When did you get your certificate of citizenship in Schuylkill County, Pennsylvania?

(Objected to, because a copy of the record of said naturalization, under the certificate and seal of the court, would be the best evidence; therefore parol proof is incompetent until it shall have been shown that said record was either lost or destroyed.)

A. So far as I recollect it was six years last September.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes.

Q. Did you and your wife reside in the election district of Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, continuously for the one whole year and more immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you within the two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, paid a State and county tax which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir. (Witness produces receipt, dated September 26, 1877, for State and county tax for the year 1876, which receipt is signed by J. G. Higgins, collector.)

Q. Did you on September 26, 1877, pay said taxes?—A. My wife paid them; I told my wife to pay them for me.

Q. Did you or not leave the money with her to pay the same, because you were away from the house at work?

(Objected to, because it is leading.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did or did not your wife give you said receipt in the evening when you returned home from work?—A. Can't say as to that; I don't remember.

Q. Did you vote in the election district of said Woodward Township at the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for Congress?—A. For Yocum, as far as I can recollect.

Q. What are your politics and what have they been?

A. Republican.

Q. Did you read your ticket and see Yocum's name upon it for Congress; that is, the ticket you voted?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Can you name any other persons for whom you voted at said election?—A. Don't remember.

Q. Are you certain you read your ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you not give one name that you read upon that ticket?—A. I don't remember certain.

Q. You cannot swear positively, can you, that you voted for Yocum?—

A. Yes, I can.

Q. Why is it that you can remember the name of Yocum but cannot remember the names of any other candidates for whom you voted and which were upon your ticket?—A. Because he was a higher official.

Q. Was Curtin the highest official that was on the ticket?

(Question withdrawn.)

Q. Was Yocum running for the highest official position that was to be filled at said election?—A. I don't remember.

Q. Do you remember for whom you voted for governor?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you remember any of the names which were upon your ticket save the one you have mentioned?—A. That has been asked me before.

Q. How long did you reside in Woodward Township?—A. Five years next August.

Q. Was your vote challenged at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No.

Q. Were you required to prove that you were a naturalized citizen of the United States?—A. Yes, sir; I had to make an oath to that effect.

Re-examined:

Q. Were you living at Osceola at the time of the fire?—A. No, I lived on the same lot I live now in Woodward Township.

Q. Do you or not swear that you voted for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?

(Objected to, because it is leading.)

Ans. Yes, I do.

Q. Were you or were you not, six years ago last September, in open court in Schuylkill County, naturalized?

(Objected to, for the reason that the certificate in the record of the naturalization of the witness, or certified copy of said record or certificate of naturalization, is the best evidence, and until it shall have been shown that said certificate of naturalization of the witness, and also the record thereof of the court granting said naturalization or certificate of naturalization have been lost or destroyed, parol proof is incompetent to prove what it is sought to prove by the testimony of this witness.)

A. Yes, sir; so far as I recollect that was the time.

Cross-examined:

Q. Was the reason you refused to answer the second question asked you in your direct examination because the counsel for contestee agreed to ask you but one question, which question was the last one asked you and answered by you in your direct examination?—A. Q. What did they require you to do?—A. My father was on the board, and he told them I was of age.

Q. What position did your father occupy on that board of election?—A. I do not know.

Q. Was he judge, one of the inspectors, or one of the clerks?—A. I can't tell you.

Q. When your father vouched for your age at said election of November 5, 1878, did he satisfy the board that you were a legal voter, and between the ages of 21 and 22 years?—A. Yes, sir; he did.

Q. Did the board at said election ask or require of you to sign any written or printed or partly written and printed affidavit of your legal qualification as a voter in the said district?—A. They did until my father told them I was a legal voter.

Q. Had you resided in the election district of Union Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for two months and more immediately preceding the general election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Re-examined :

Q. What is your father's politics?—A. Democratic. I hardly know how to answer that question; he was a kind of a Greenbacker last summer, but was always a Democrat before.

Q. When were you born?—A. In December, 1856.

Recross-examined :

Q. When you say you voted for Curtin for Congress, do you mean Andrew G. Curtin?—A. Yes, sir.

And further saith not.

Notary Public.

JACOB BEER SWORE.

(Objected to for the same reason as stated in the objection to the testimony of John H. Brown, a previous witness called and sworn in this case.)

Question. Where do you reside?—Answer. Huston Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Where and when were you born?—A. In Huston Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. I was 23 years old the 12th of November, 1878.

Q. Are you married?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you reside in Huston Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for more than one whole year immediately preceding the election of November, 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years preceding said election that was assessed more than two months and paid more than one month prior thereto?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you a receipt for such payment, and will you produce it?—A. Yes, sir.

(Witness produces receipt dated May 11, 1878, for State and county taxes of Jacob Beer for the year 1878, signed by D. McGaughey, treasurer, per Wright.)

Q. Did you vote in Huston Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at the election of November 5, 1878, and for whom did you vote for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; I voted the Republican ticket. I forgot; I can't think of it.

Q. Do you mean that you have forgotten for whom you voted, or are you merely unable to recall his name?—A. I cannot speak the name.

Q. The two candidates for Congress at said election were A. G. Curtin and Seth H. Yocum; did you vote for either of them; and if so, which of them?—A. Yocum, I think, is the one.

Q. Don't you know you voted for Yocum, the Republican candidate for Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined :

(Counsel for contestant, reserving all legal rights and privileges, proceeds to cross-examine.)

Q. Did you read the ticket you voted for Congress at said election?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What other names were on that ticket except the name of Yocum?—A. It appears to me Hoyt was not it.

Q. Can you remember any other names that were on the ticket?—A. No, sir.

Q. How does it come that you can remember the name of Yocum and cannot remember the name of any other candidate on that ticket?—A. I suppose my memory ain't very good.

Q. For whom did you vote for supreme judge at said election?—A. I don't remember.

Q. For whom did you vote for State senator at said election?—A. I don't remember.

Q. Now since your memory serves you so poorly as to the names of other candidates at said election, how can you, or do you, swear positively, that you voted for Yocum?—A. Can't answer that; I have no reason for remembering.

Q. If you have forgotten the names of the other candidates on the ticket, how does it come that you have not also forgotten the name of Yocum?—A. I suppose that name was in my memory.

Q. Did you read your ticket that you voted on November 5, 1878, with such care and attention that you are now willing to swear the name of Yocum was on the ticket you voted at said election?—A. I am willing to swear that I voted the Republican ticket any way.

Q. Did the board of election in Huston Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, ask or require from you when you presented your vote to sign any written or printed or partly written or printed affidavit with witnesses subscribing thereto?—A. No, sir.

Re-examined:

Q. Was not the principal fight at the election between Curtin and Yocum, the candidates for Congress?

(Objected to because it is leading.)

A. I don't remember.

And further saith not.

Q. Did you vote at the State and county election held in the election district of the borough of Renovo on the 5th day of November, 1878; and, if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?

(Objected to because the witness has not been shown to lack any of the qualifications of a legal voter, and therefore is not bound to disclose for whom he voted.)

A. I did vote at that election. I voted the Democratic ticket, and for Andrew G. Curtin.

Cross-examined:

Q. How long have you lived in Renovo?—A. Nine years last fall.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years prior to November 5, 1878, and thirty days prior to the same?—A. I paid on the 23d of April, 1878, to John Zimmerman, county collector.

Q. Did you take a receipt?—A. I took a receipt.

Q. Have you the receipt now in your possession, and will you show it to the examiner?

(Objected to unless the receipt shall be attached to the testimony. 2nd. Because there are no such things as examiners here.)

(Question withdrawn.)

Q. Have you the receipt in your possession, and will you show it to the commissioners?

(Objected to unless the receipt shall be attached to the testimony.)

A. I have the receipt in my possession, and herewith exhibit it to the commissioners.

Q. Have you in your possession your naturalization paper? If so, produce it to the commissioners.

(Objected to unless the paper shall be attached to the deposition.)

A. I have, and hereby exhibit it to the commissioners.

Q. What day and year were you naturalized, and where?—A. On the 18th day of September, 1876, in Lock Haven, Clinton County, Pennsylvania.

Redirect examination :

Q. How do you spell your name?—A. I spell my name Gary.

Q. Your name, then, is Thomas Gary?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who told you to bring your tax receipt and naturalization paper here with you?—A. Myself, so that there might be no difficulty about my right to vote.

Q. Who talked with you about your right to vote?—A. No one but myself.

Q. Do you say you have not talked with anybody about your testimony that you were to give here to-day since you were subpoenaed to attend?—A. Yes, I asked John Smith, esq., and he told me to bring my naturalization papers and my tax receipt.

Q. Then you say that John Smith told you to bring these papers here to-day?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did you see John Smith?—A. In his office in Renovo.

Q. When did you see him?—A. Last Saturday.

Q. Have you seen him since last Saturday?—A. No, sir.

Q. What is John Smith's politics?—A. I don't know, sir.

Recross-examined :

Q. You stated that you spelled your name Gary. Is it spelled sometimes by others in a different way; and, if so, how?—A. I don't know. I spell it Gary; other men spell their names Garry.

Q. Have not you seen your own name written by others Geary?

(Objected to because the question suggests to the witness the answer counsel desires to have.)

A. I have. That is the way I spell my name, Geary.

Q. If the commissioners have written in your deposition before this that you told them that you spelled your name Gary, did they understand you properly?—A. No, sir. I told them that I spelled my name Geary.

Q. In your naturalization papers your name is spelled Gary. Is that intended for you personally?

(Objected to : 1st. That the naturalization papers are not in evidence. 2d. That the naturalization paper which witness holds is not his, but belongs to a different man of a different name. 3d. That the records of the court cannot be corrected in these proceedings.)

A. I can't tell. That is not the way I told them to spell my name.

Counsel for contestant here offers the following as a copy of the witness' naturalization paper :

"Certificate of naturalization."

"UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
 "Clinton County, ss :

"At a court of common pleas, holden in and for Clinton County, in the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, on the eighteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, on the petition of Thomas Garey, an alien and native of Ireland, being presented and read, signifying his desire to be admitted a citizen of the United States, he, the said Thomas Garey, having in all things complied with the acts of Congress in such case made and provided, and having in open court taken and subscribed the necessary oath according to law, the court thereupon admitted the said Thomas Garey to become a citizen of the United States, and ordered all the proceedings aforesaid to be recorded by the prothonotary of said court, which was done accordingly.

"In witness whereof I, W. H. Brown, prothonotary of said court, having hereunto set my hand and seal of office at Lock Haven the 18th day of September, A. D. 1876.

"W. H. BROWN,
 "Prothonotary."

(To which is attached the seal of the court of common pleas of Clinton County, Pennsylvania.)

(Objected to because the original has not been offered in evidence. 2d. Because the paper from which counsel read shows upon its face that it has been changed and mutilated. 3d. Because the original is not the certificate of any court record. 4th. Because counsel has not correctly dictated the original. 5th. It is irrelevant in that the original is not the certificate of naturalization of the witness on the stand. 6th. Because a copy cannot be put in evidence in the manner in which this is attempted to be done.)

I. T. Abrams, attorney for contestant, says, in response to the objection of counsel for contestee, that the exceptions of said counsel are not true in fact, and asks the commissioner to examine the original certificate of naturalization of witness, and state wherein such certificate has been changed or mutilated.

Q. (The original certificate of naturalization shown witness.) Is that the paper you received from the prothonotary of Clinton County on the 18th of September, 1876, when you were naturalized?

(Objected to: 1st, unless the paper shall be offered in evidence. 2d, because counsel for contestant has improperly directed the commissioner to note in the testimony that the original certificate is shown witness before the witness has been asked the question whether it is the original certificate or not.)

A. Yes, sir; in Williamsport.

Q. What were you going to say about Williamsport when counsel for contestee interfered?

(Objected to until counsel states in what manner counsel for contestee interfered.)

A. I got my first papers in Williamsport, and these I got at Lock Haven.

Q. Did you vote at the State and county election held in the election district of the borough of Renovo on the fifth day of November, 1878; and if so, for whom did you vote for Congress?

RENOVO, March 26—9 a. m.

M. C. BIRGE sworn.

Question. State your name, age, residence and occupation.—Answer. M. C. Birge ; age, thirty-six ; residence, Farrandsville, Colebrook Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania ; occupation, a laborer.

Q. How long has your residence been in Colebrook Township?—A. About twenty years; went there in 1847; been away off and on, about twenty years continuously.

Q. State whether or not you voted at the State and county election held in the election district of the township of Noyes, in the county of Clinton, State of Pennsylvania, on the fifth day of November, 1878.—

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you registered in said township of Noyes?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you make or file an affidavit with the election board in said township of Noyes at the time you voted there?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did any one make or file an affidavit as to your residence with the election board at the time you voted there?—A. No, sir.

Q. Where were you registered as a voter?—A. In Colebrook Township.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress on the 5th day of November, A. D. 1878?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Cross-examined:

Q. Are you married or single?—A. Single.

Q. When did you go up to Noyes Township?—A. 1st of August, 1878.

Q. What are you following as a business in Noyes Township?—A. Lumbering.

Q. Did you go to Noyes Township with the intention of making it your home provided you could get permanent employment?

(Objected to because any intention on the part of the witness based upon a contingency is irrelevant in these proceedings. 2nd. No matter upon what contingency the witness may have intended to make his home in Noyes Township, he has already testified that he has not made that his home, but that his residence has been in Colebrook Township for twenty years continuously.)

A. No, sir, is my answer to the whole question.

Q. Can you read printed matter?—A. No, sir; I am no scholar at all.

Q. Then, of your own knowledge, you don't know what candidate for Congress was printed or written on the ticket you voted?—A. Yes, sir; I do.

Q. Did you read the ticket?—A. Yes, sir; I read that much of it.

Q. What letters were in the name of the candidate you voted for for Congress November 5, 1878?

(Objected to because either a poor scholar or a good scholar may read a name and recognize it as the name at the time of reading it, and four or five months afterwards may not be able to repeat the spelling of it.)

A. I don't believe I could spell it now.

Q. How could you make out the name of the candidate for Congress by reading it when you have already sworn that you can't read printed matter?—A. I always show my ticket to a man that can read who votes the same ticket that I do, that is, if I can't make it out myself.

Q. Did you do that in this instance?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is that the way by which you found out the name of the candidate for Congress you voted for?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. To whom did you show your ticket ?—A. John Saltsman.

(Objected to because the witness has already testified that he can read a little.)

A. Yes, sir.

Witness present :

O. S. HOUTZ.

FRANK JOHNSON sworn.

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. My name, Frank Johnson ; suppose about thirty-seven or thirty-eight years of age ; residence, Grugan Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania ; occupation, a laborer.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years prior to November 5, 1878, and at least thirty days before said time ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. To whom did you pay it ?—A. To John Grugan, of Grugan Township, who had the county duplicate.

Q. State how you paid him.—A. I paid him in a settlement.

Q. Did you pay him any money ?—A. No, sir, not on the taxes ; he owed me in the settlement and paid me balance coming to me in money.

Q. Did he give you a receipt ?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did he mark your taxes paid on the duplicate ?—A. They say not ; I never looked at the book ; can't answer the question.

Q. What did John Grugan owe you for ?—A. Labor.

Q. What kind of work did you do for him ?—A. Principal part was for tending mason, gathering stone up and carrying mortar.

Q. What were the masons building ?—A. A wall to set a kitchen on.

Q. When did you pay the last State or county tax previous to that which you worked for John Grugan to pay ?—A. I couldn't hardly answer that ; can't say whether it was in 1876 or not ; I think I paid Johnson tax in 1875 ; think in the summer flood ; think it was in June, 1876 ; am not sure.

Q. Was that the time that you paid your last taxes prior to those you worked for Grugan to pay ?—A. I believe it was.

Q. Did you vote at the State and county election held in the election district for the township of Grugan, Clinton County, Pennsylvania, on the 5th of November, A. D. 1878 ?—A. Yes, I did.

Q. For whom did you vote for Congress at said election ?

(Objected to because witness has not been shown to lack any of the qualifications of a legal voter, and hence is not obliged to disclose how he voted.)

A. For Andrew G. Curtin.

Cross-examined :

Q. How long have you lived in the township of Grugan ?—Lived there all my life.

Q. Was your name on the registry list on the 5th of November, A. D. 1878, at the time you voted ?—A. I couldn't hardly tell ; never looked at the registry.

Q. You have voted in Grugan Township since you become of age ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. At the time you say John Grugan and you settled, did he agree to apply enough of what he owed you on your county or State tax ?—A. I believe he did.

FRANK JOHNSON.

JOHN GRUGAN sworn :

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. John Grugan ; 54 years of age ; residence, Grugan Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania ; occupation, a farmer.

Q. Are you the collector of the county taxes of Grugan Township, Clinton County, for the year 1878 ?—A. Yes, sir ; I am collector for Grugan Township.

Q. Do you know Frank Johnson, of Grugan Township, who has testified immediately preceding you ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is his name on the duplicate of county taxes for Grugan Township for the year 1878 ?—A. Yes.

Q. What amount of taxes does said duplicate show to be charged against him ?—A. Fifty cents.

Q. Are any of said taxes marked paid on said duplicate ?—A. No, sir.

Cross-examined :

Q. Did not Frank Johnson pay to you these taxes by labor performed for you at least thirty days prior to November 5, 1878 ?

(Objected to, because county taxes cannot be paid in that way.)

A. Well, you will have to let me explain about that. I had Frank Johnson employed about the first week of July. When we settled there was a balance coming to Frank Johnson from me. This, so far as I know, was a final settlement. If the tax was not paid in that settlement, it was my fault. Johnson understands that the tax was paid in that settlement, as I understand him to say.

Q. What amount of money was coming to Frank in this settlement ?—A. I can't say ; more than the amount of tax.

Q. Do you remember that Frank Johnson, at this settlement, and at least thirty days before November 5, 1878, told you to credit the amount of his taxes on the duplicate ?

(Objected to, because what Frank Johnson said is immaterial, and the witness has already testified that he cannot remember what took place at the settlement.)

A. I do not.

Q. Did you not say and admit to Frank Johnson and several others on election day, on the 5th of November, 1878, that he had paid his taxes, but you forgot to scratch it out ?

(Objected to, that it is immaterial if witness did say so.)

A. Frank told the board and me also that he had paid his taxes, and I had reason to believe that he had done so, as I had settled with him and there was a balance coming to him. I was not aware that his tax was not marked out until the judge of election discovered it at the township election this spring.

Q. To the best of your knowledge and belief, were Frank Johnson's taxes for 1878 paid in that settlement?

(Objected to, because the question is clearly improper; 2nd, because the witness has testified already that he had no recollection of their payment; 3rd, because the taxes could not be paid in that settlement.)

A. I don't see how I can qualify that any further than what I have done.

Redirect examination:

Q. Are you a Democrat?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you voted the Democratic ticket?—A. I have always identified myself with that party.

Q. Are you a member of the vigilance committee of the Democratic party of your township?—A. Yes, sir; so I understand.

JOHN GRUGAN.

Q. Do you know David Walters, M. K. Nelson, and Patrick Foley of said Leidy Township?—A. Yes.

Q. For whom did David Walters, M. K. Nelson, and Patrick Foley vote for Congress in said township of Leidy on the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. To the best of my knowledge they voted for Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Do they belong to the Democratic party?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did they ever tell you for whom they voted for Congress on said day?—A. They did.

Q. For whom did they say they voted?—A. For Andrew G. Curtin.

Cross-examined :

Q. Your knowledge is based on what they told you only?—A. On what they told me and being strong Democrats.

W. A. CLAWATER,
Notary Public.

Depositions of witnesses produced, sworn, or affirmed and examined before S. M. McCormick, a notary public in and for the county of Clinton and State of Pennsylvania, resident in the city of Lock Haven in said twentieth Congressional district, at his office on Water street, in said city, on Friday, the 28th day of February, A. D. 1879, at 8 o'clock a. m., and by adjournments from time to time hereinafter particularly noted, to wit, the 1st, 3d, 5th, 6th, 8th days of March, A. D. 1879, by virtue of contestee's notices, marked respectively A, B, C, S. M. McCormick, notary public.

H. T. HANEY, Esq., appears as counsel for contestee; T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., appears as counsel for contestant.

FRANK M. WELSH first duly sworn.

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. Frank M. Welsh; 42 years of age; Mill Hall, Clinton County, Pennsylvania. I am a manufacturer.

Q. Were you the secretary of the council of the borough of Mill Hall for the year 1878?—A. I was.

Q. Have you with you here the minute-book and the ordinance-book of the borough council of the borough of Mill Hall for the year 1878?—A. I have.

(Borough minute-book containing proceedings of council of September 3, 1878, showing petition of citizens of Bald Eagle Township to the chief burgess and borough council of the borough of Mill Hall, praying the said council to admit such persons and territory into their corporate limits, shown witness.)

Q. Is this a correct statement of the proceedings of council of September 3, 1878, and was the petition of citizens of Bald Eagle Township, as herein set forth, presented to the council of the borough of Mill Hall on said 3d day of September, A. D. 1878?—A. It is, to the best of my knowledge; and such a petition was presented to our borough council.

(Ordinance book of the borough of Mill Hall, containing ordinance approved and passed the 3d day of September, A. D. 1878, and entered in said ordinance book on pages 16 and 17, and attested by J. H. Hickoff, chief burgess, and by F. M. Welsh, clerk, shown witness.)

Q. Is this the ordinance book of the borough of Mill Hall?—A. It is; and it contains the ordinance passed on September 3, 1878, in reference to the admission of certain territory of Bald Eagle Township, upon petition of citizens of said township, into the limits of said borough.

Q. Is this the original petition and draft of the territory under which the ordinance of September 3, 1878, was passed; and is it the territory included in said ordinance, and is the copy hereto attached a correct copy of that ordinance?—A. This is the original petition and draft of the territory as presented to the borough council; and the copy hereto attached is a true copy of the ordinance as passed by them on September 3, 1878.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestant:

Q. In whose handwriting is the alleged copy of the proceedings of the borough council of Mill Hall of September 3, 1878, purporting to show a copy of a petition of citizens of Bald Eagle Township for the annexation of certain territory to the borough of Mill Hall?—A. It is in my handwriting.

Q. In whose handwriting is the alleged ordinance annexing said territory to which your attention has been called?—A. In Wm. D. McCormick's handwriting.

Q. By whom was the petition for annexation written, and by whom was the draft thereto attached made?—A. I don't know. I think it is Platt's writing; I knew nothing about it until it came there that evening.

Q. Does not this draft attached to said petition show two distinct tracts of land, one lying northward and westward of the old borough around the Bald Eagle Valley Railroad, and the other lying southward of the old borough about the ax-factory of Robert Mann, instead of one single tract of land?—A. I don't know. It looks so on the draft. I can't say whether there are two tracts, or but one tract.

Q. Have you not heard the matter discussed, and is it not the common understanding, that that territory is composed of two separate tracts of land?—A. No; it has been the reverse that I have heard—that it is one tract.

Direct examination resumed:

H. T. Haney, esq., now offers the minutes of borough council of September 3, 1878 (a copy whereof is made by S. M. McCormick, notary public, with his certificate thereto, marked Exhibit "No. 1," attached to testimony); ordinance of the borough of Mill Hall passed by said borough on September 3, 1878 annexing the territory therein described to the borough of Mill Hall (a copy whereof is made by S. M. McCormick, notary public, with his certificate thereto, marked Exhibit No. 2, attached to testimony of contestee); also, petition, ordinance, and plan of Bald Eagle Township annexed and made part of the borough of Mill Hall, Clinton County, Pennsylvania, as filed in the court of quarter sessions of Clinton County, on September 11, 1878 (a copy whereof is made by S. M. McCormick, notary public, with his certificate thereto, marked Exhibit No. 3, attached to testimony of contestee); also, act of assembly of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An act for the further regulation of borough," approved the 2nd day of June A. D. 1871, pamphlet laws, page 288, &c.

T. C. Hipple, esq., counsel for contestant, objects to the offer, 1st, because the alleged proceedings of the borough council of Mill Hall, the petition upon which the same is founded, and all proceedings regarding said alleged annexation were illegal and void for the following reasons:

1st. That it appears in the evidence already offered by the contestant that the ancient borough of Mill Hall was incorporated by the court of quarter sessions of Clinton County on the 16th day of February, A. D. 1849, by virtue of proceedings under the acts of general assembly of Pennsylvania of 1st of April, A. D. 1834, and of April 17, 1846, said act of 1846, section 5, being special as to the then village of Mill Hall.

2nd. That the borough of Mill Hall having been created prior to the act of April 3, A. D. 1851, under which the petitioners proceeded, which act of 1851 applied only to boroughs to be thereafter incorporated, or to such boroughs before that time incorporated which might make application to the court of quarter session, and thus become subject to the restrictions and possess the powers and privileges conferred by the act of 1851, and it not appearing that the borough of Mill Hall ever did apply to the court of quarter sessions of Clinton County for such privileges, powers, &c., or that such powers, &c., were ever conferred upon the borough by any other competent authority; therefore the act of 1851 has no application to said borough of Mill Hall, and the borough council had no authority to annex any territory.

3d. That it does not appear that any twenty (20) of the signers to this petition are freehold owners of lots or out-lots or tracts of land in the territory sought to be annexed.

4th. That many of the signers to the petition appear to have acted in an official or representative capacity, and not as individuals.

5th. That the territory sought to be annexed does not appear to be one single tract of land.

6th. That as to the act of June 2, 1871, offered, it does not apply to the present case. If it did, it prescribes a mode of proceeding for the incorporation of boroughs and also for the change of borough limits which require a previous presentation to the court of the proper county of a petition, and public notice of the intended application for either a charter or change of borough limits in one newspaper of the proper county, for not less than thirty days immediately before the petition shall be presented to the court, none of which requirements have been complied with in the present case.

H. T. Haney, esq., counsel for contestee, offers act of assembly of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, approved April 3, 1851, Pamphlet Laws, pages 325, &c.

T. C. Hipple, esq., counsel for contestant, objects to above offer, for the reason that it having been enacted subsequent to the incorporation of the borough of Mill Hall, and never having been accepted by said borough nor extended to it, its provisions do not apply to said borough of Mill Hall.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestant :

Q. Was not the ordinance above mentioned repealed by another ordinance of the borough of Mill Hall?—A. It was by ordinance of January 7, 1879.

Q. Does that repealing ordinance appear upon the books and proceedings of the borough council of the borough of Mill Hall?—A. It does.

T. C. Hipple, esq., counsel for contestant, offers in evidence ordinance of January 7, 1879, and requests the notary to make a copy thereof and attach to the deposition. (A copy whereof is made by S. M. McCormick, notary public, marked Exhibit No. 3½, attached to testimony of contestee.)

Q. Were you clerk of council at the time that repealing ordinance was passed?—A. I was.

FRANK M. WELSH.

JAMES H. HICKOFF affirmed.

Question. What is your name, age, residence, and occupation?—Answer. James H. Hickoff; 45 years of age; Mill Hall, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; ax-maker.

Q. Were you the chief burgess of the borough of Mill Hall during the year 1878, and are you so at this time?—A. I was chief burgess of said borough from about the first of April, 1878. I am chief burgess now.

(The ordinance of September 3, 1878, heretofore offered in evidence, ordinance book of the Borough of Mill Hall, pages 16 and 17; also copy of said ordinance attached to petition, ordinance, and plan of territory of Bald Eagle Township, annexed and made a part of the borough of Mill Hall, heretofore offered in evidence, shown witness.)

Q. Is the signature of J. H. Hickoff attached to said ordinance and copy your signature?—A. It is.

Q. Did you sign as chief burgess of the borough of Mill Hall?—A. I did.

Q. Do you know a young man living in the borough of Mill Hall by the name of Add. or Addison McLain?—A. I do.

Q. Have you had any conversation with him recently in reference to his age; and, if so, what did he say?

(Objected to as irrelevant.)

A. I had. He told me he would not be of age until next June.

Q. Did he tell you that he had voted at the election held for the election district of the borough of Mill Hall on the 5th of November, A. D. 1878?

(Objected to as irrelevant, being merely the alleged statements in a casual conversation, not being the best evidence as to whether or not the party voted, not being offered to contradict any person as so far appeared in this case.)

A. He did.

Q. Did he tell you for whom he had voted for Member of Congress at said election?

(Objected to for the same reason as given to previous question.)

A. Yes; he said he had voted for Andrew G. Curtin.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestee:

Q. When and where did you have this conversation?—A. I had this conversation with him to-day in this office.

Q. Who spoke first on this subject?—A. I did.

Q. How did you come to speak to him?—A. Because I had heard it talked of that he had voted under age. I had heard this long ago.

Q. Have you met him frequently since you heard of his having so voted under age?—A. I have seen him frequently; but I do not think I have had any conversation with him before to-day about it.

Q. Did you approach him for the purpose of ascertaining what he would say on this particular subject?—A. I approached him to see whether he was really under age when he voted and for whom he voted.

Q. Did you know he had been subpoenaed and was here in this office as a witness in this contest when you spoke to him in this office?—A. I did.

Q. Are you a Republican in politics?—A. I am a Republican in politics, although I voted for Andrew G. Curtin for Member of Congress.

JAMES H. HICKOFF.

ADAM McLAIN, a witness called by H. T. HANEY, Esq., being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. Adam McLain; my age is more than I can say myself; Mill Hall, Clinton County, Pennsylvania, is my residence; laborer is my occupation.

Q. What, to the best of your information and belief, is your age?—A. I don't know anything at all about it any more than my parents say. Before the election they said that I was of age. That is all I know about my age.

Q. What do they say since the election is your age?

(Objected to as irrelevant, the casual statements of parents made since the election not being competent testimony, the best evidence being the parents themselves and family records, if any.)

A. I did not hear them say anything about my age yet.

Q. Did you not tell James H. Hickoff this morning that you would be 21 years of age next June?

(Objected to as irrelevant.)

A. I said as much as I knew about it.

Q. Did you not tell me (H. T. Haney) that since the election your parents have told you that you would be 21 years of age in June next?

(Objected to as irrelevant, it being immaterial what recent statements were made by the witness' parents, such statements being incompetent to disprove the information and instructions of the parents to the witness while he was young and under the age of 21 years; because the parents themselves could furnish the best evidence on this point when under oath.)

A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Did you vote at the election held in the election district for the borough of Mill Hall in November last, being the 5th day of November, 1878; and if so, did you vote for Member of Congress, and for whom did you vote?

(Objected to because the witness has not been shown to lack any of the qualifications of a legal voter.)

A. I did vote at that place. I voted for Member of Congress; but do not know the name of the person for whom I voted.

Q. Did you not vote for Andrew G. Curtin for Member of Congress? (Objected to same as to previous question.)

A. I voted for Curtin. I think that name was on the ticket. I got my ticket from Clarks.

Q. Did you not state to me (H. T. Haney) about an hour ago, that you had voted for Curtin for Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. You did vote for Curtin for Congress, did you not, as you stated to me (H. T. Haney)?

(Objected to, because the witness has already stated that he got his ticket from another party, and thinks Curtin's name was on the ticket; that contestee's counsel should not contradict his own witness.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Before you were called upon the witness stand were you consulted or asked about your age and how you had voted by any one except James H. Hickoff and myself after you came to this office?

(Objected to as irrelevant.)

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you not have a conversation with George A. Brown, of one the attorneys for the contestant, the gentleman standing in the rear of the notary, about your age and whether or not you had voted on November 5, 1878?

(Objected to as irrelevant.)

A. I don't remember anything of it.

Q. What is your father's and mother's name?—A. My father's (or step-father's) name is Daniel McLane; my mother's name is Harriet McLane; I live with them.

Q. Can you read?—A. No, sir, I can't read or write.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestant.

Q. Did you believe at the time you voted that you were over 21 years of age?—A. I did not know anything more than my mother told me; I took her word for it.

Q. What did she tell you regarding you age?—A. She told me I was 21 years of age.

Q. When did she tell you this?—A. Before the delegate election, prior to the election of November 5, 1878.

Q. How did she come to tell you this?—A. She just told me at home that I was 21 years of age.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Bush Valley, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How long have your parents resided in Mill's Hall?—A. I think about four years prior to this time; they have lived there twice.

Q. Did you read the ticket you voted November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did any one read it for you?—A. No, sir; it was tied up when I got it.

Q. Did any one read the name on it for Member of Congress to you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you not receive your ticket folded up and tied, and did you not vote it without opening or looking at it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you swear of your own knowledge that the name of Andrew G. Curtin was actually upon your ticket, since you did not look at your ticket, did not read it or have it read, but voted it unopened?—A. I can't swear that his name was upon the ticket.

Q. Could not the name of Seth H. Yocum for Congress have been upon the ticket, for all you know from your examination of it, just as well as the name of Andrew G. Curtin, and if Yocum's name was on the ticket, would you have discovered it?—A. Yes, sir; the name of Seth H. Yocum could as well have been upon the ticket from all I knew; if his name had been on the ticket I would not have discovered it.

Direct examination resumed by H. T. HANEY, Esq., counsel for contestee:

Q. What Mr. Clark gave you the ticket that you voted?—A. They call him "Dutchman" Clark in Mill Hall; I think his name is William.

Q. On the 5th day of November, 1878, did you claim the right to vote upon age, and what was your age at that time?—A. I did so claim the right to vote upon age. I was then between twenty-one and twenty-two years of age.

Q. Is your father a native of the United States?—A. Yes, sir; he was born near Hamburg, Clinton County, Pennsylvania.

Q. When did you pay a State or county tax, to whom, and for what reason did you pay it, since you stated you were between twenty-one and twenty-two years of age, on November 5, 1878?—A. I paid a State and county tax on the 5th day of November, 1878, to Thomas J. Fox, collector. I was registered. I do not know that they could have made me pay tax, because I was between the age of twenty-one and twenty-two years, but I paid it anyhow. It was $1.80. I owned some personal property. I owned a buggy, and I was taxed for that.

(Objected to because his name appears on the registry list of Lamar Township, offered by contestant (Exhibit F), and the witness having testified that he was born on November 10, 1856, he was entitled to vote, and being so entitled he cannot be compelled to disclose for whom he voted.)

D. 1878, as returned to your office by the judge of the election of said township?—A. I have.

Q. When were the papers above referred to returned to your office?—A. The next day after the election—the 6th of November, 1878, I think.

Q. Have you here with you a certified copy of the oaths of election officers, the triplicate election return sheet, the affidavits of voters, and poll-list of the township of Woodward, in the county of Clinton?—A. I have certified copies of all except a full copy of the triplicate election-return sheet, which I have so far as it relates to the vote for member of Congress.

(Papers marked Exhibit No. 4 shown witness.)

Cross-examined as to Exhibit No. 4 by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq.:

Q. In whose handwriting are these copies and exhibits?—A. In Oscar S. Houtz', of Lock Haven, Clinton County, Pennsylvania, late chairman of the Clinton County Republican committee.

(Exhibit No. 4 offered in evidence by H. T. Haney, esq., counsel for contestee.)

Direct examination resumed by H. T. HANEY, Esq.:

Q. Have you here with you the oaths of the election officers, the triplicate election return sheet, and the poll-list of the election district of the township of Dunstable, in the county of Clinton, for the general election held on the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. I have.

I have, except as to the triplicate return sheet, and I have it so far as it relates to the returns for member of Congress.

Q. Are these the certified copies of which you speak of the election of November 5, 1878, of Dunstable Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania?—A. They are. These copies were made by Oscar S. Houtz.

(H. T. Haney, esq., offers Exhibit No. 5 in evidence.)

Q. Was this paper filed in your office September 11, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; it was.

Cross-examined as to Exhibit No. 3 by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq.:

Q. How do you know that was filed in your office on September 11, 1878, and what record of it is there in your office?—A. I came in a short time after it was brought in. It was lying on my clerk's table. I picked it up and I said, "What is this?" He (my clerk) said he did not know what it was, but that it had been brought in by W. Scott Clawwater, and it had already been marked "Filed September 11, 1878," by my clerk. There is no record of it in my office other than the entry that is made on the back of the petition.

Q. Why was it not recorded in your office?—A. Because the attorney, Mr. Clawwater, said it was not necessary to record it. He said the act of assembly did not require it to be recorded. I told him I thought it should be recorded. C. S. McCormick, esq., an attorney at law, came in afterwards, and I asked him about recording it, and he told me I should not record it at present; that he would look up the matter and let me know about it. He has never let me know anything about it. I have never been paid anything, or tendered any fee for my services.

GEO. W. BATCHELER.

(Counsel for contestant object to the offer of Exhibits No. 4 and No. 5.)

GEORGE HANNA, of Woodward Township, called by H. T. HANEY, Esq.:

(Counsel for contestant objects to the examination of this witness at this time, for the reason that no notice of the intended examination of this witness to-day was served upon the contestant or any of his counsel; that counsel for contestee has produced no such notice; that S. M. McCormick, before whom this testimony is being taken, has no proof whatever that any such notice was ever served, and counsel for contestant, in the absence of such notice, or proof of notice, protest against the examination of the witness, and insist that the said commissioner should not allow the examination of a witness who is improperly before him.

Counsel for contestee withdraws the witness.)

Q. Is that the ordinance of which you speak?—A. It is.

(Copy of said ordinance, marked Exhibit No. 6, offered in evidence by counsel for contestant.)

T. C. Hipple, esq., objects to the offer, for the same reason given to the offers of the petition, borough ordinance, council proceedings, &c., heretofore offered by contestee; that said proceedings to effect the alleged annexation were illegal, irregular, void; and that this publication is immaterial and irrelevant.)

Q. Have you here with you a copy of the Clinton Democrat of September 26, 1878, containing the proclamation of John Candor, high sheriff of the county of Clinton, for the holding of the election of Tuesday, the 5th day of November, 1878, in the several election districts of the county of Clinton?—A. I have.

Q. How often was this notice of election published?—A. Six times.

(Copy of proclamation of John Candor, high sheriff of Clinton County, as published in the Clinton Democrat of September 26, 1878, providing for the election of Tuesday, the 5th day of November, 1878, for the several election districts in the county of Clinton, marked Exhibit No. 7, offered in evidence by H. T. Haney, esq., counsel for contestee.)

T. C. Hipple, esq., counsel for contestant, objects to this offer, as not being the best evidence of which the case is susceptible; that it is irrelevant, immaterial.)

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. J. B. G. Kinsloe; 59 years of age; Lock Haven, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; editor and publisher.

Q. Have you here with you a copy of the Clinton Republican of September 25, 1878, containing the borough ordinance passed by the council of the borough of Mill Hall, approved September 3, 1878, providing for the annexation of a portion of the township of Bald Eagle, in said county, to the borough of Mill Hall?—A. I have.

Q. How often was said ordinance published in your paper, and of what dates?—A. Three times; September 11, 18, and 25.

Q. Does your issue of the same date, to wit, September 25, 1878, contain the proclamation of John Candor, high sheriff of the county of Clinton, calling for the holding of the election of Tuesday, the 5th day of November, 1878, in the several election districts of the county of Clinton?—A. T. C. Hipple, esq., counsel for contestant, objects to copy of ordinance and of proclamation; objects for the same reason that was given to the same offer in the evidence of the previous witness, J. C. C. Whaley.)

J. B. G. KINSLOE.

Met Wednesday, March 5, 1879, pursuant to continuation.

W. W. CLARK, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. W. W. Clark; was born in 1835; I will be 44 years of age in July next; Mill Hall, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; saddler.

Q. Are you acquainted with a young man who voted at the election district of the borough of Mill Hall on the 5th of November last, who gave his name or is known as "Ad." or Adam McLain?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you give Ad. McLain or Adam McLain a ticket to vote at the election of November 5, 1878; did that ticket have on it the name of a candidate for member of Congress, and if so, whose name appeared upon said ticket for member of Congress?—A. I gave him a ticket, and Andrew G. Curtin's name was on that ticket for member of Congress.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq.

Q. Where and when did you give him the ticket mentioned?—A. I gave it to him in my shop, in the afternoon some time of the day of the election, November 5, 1878.

Q. How far is your shop from the election polls?—A. About the length of two lots; about 300 or 400 feet.

Q. Did you see McLain vote?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know that he voted the ticket you gave him?—A. I do not know that; I was not around with him.

Q. Could that ticket have been changed after you gave it to him, and voted thus without your knowledge?—A. It could have been changed, certainly.

Q. How long have you known Adam McLain?—A. I have known him five or six years, I guess.

Q. State whether or not you would, from his appearance, judge him to have been 21 years of age and over on the day you gave him a ticket?

(Objected to as being immaterial and irrelevant, and as not being the best evidence.)

A. I would judge him to be that; I would not be positive.

W. W. CLARK.

JAMES T. BROWN, called by H. T. HANEY, Esq., being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation?—Answer. James T. Brown; I will be twenty-two years of age next August; Lock Haven, Pennsylvania; clerk.

Q. Were you present at an interview between C. H. McKee and Mrs.

Harriet McLain, at Mill Hall, on February 28, 1879?—A. Yes, sir; I was.

Q. Did she at that interview exhibit to Mr. McKee and yourself a paper known in German as a "Taufschein," or a paper which she said was the record of Adam McLain's age?

(Objected to because the evident purpose is to contradict a person who has not yet been a witness in this contest; if not for that purpose, it is not the best evidence on the point raised as to the boy's age, and because it is irrelevant.)

A. Yes, sir.

(Paper shown witness.)

Q. Do you recognize this as the paper?—A. I do.

Q. What did she say in reference to the name?—A. The way I understood her was, that this was the father of Adam Sylvester Reninger, and that a record of when Adam Sylvester Reninger was born was on there.

Q. Did she then state that this boy (Adam Sylvester Reninger) was known as "Ad." or Adam McLain?—A. I understood her that they called him "McLain," but that was not his name; his true name being "Reninger."

Cross-examined as to this paper by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq.

Q. In what language is this paper?—A. I would call it German.

Q. Can you translate it?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know whether this is a baptism record or a birth record?—A. I do not know what it is.

Q. Will you please translate that part of this paper, if you can, containing the record of any birth? If you cannot translate it, so state.—A. I couldn't translate it; I would not undertake to translate it, for I can't do it.

Q. Can you then, from anything that appears upon this paper, state positively the purport and meaning of this paper?—A. Only by her word; I cannot from anything that appears upon the face of this paper state what it is.

(H. T. Haney, esq., counsel for contestee, offers in evidence the paper shown to witness as a record of birth and baptism.)

(T. C. Hipple, esq., counsel for contestant, objects to the offer as being irrelevant, there being no proof as to its contents; because the form of the offer, there being no certified copy or translation, is improper; and because there is no proof of any execution of this paper, no evidence of when it was made; and because it is not the best evidence on the question raised, Harriet McLain being alive, subpoenaed in this cause, and expected to appear in this cause; also because the offer assumes this paper to be a record of birth and baptism, without a particle of proof.)

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq.:

Q. Is the Mr. McKee, with whom you went to interview this woman, C. H. McKee, esq., of Lock Haven, one of the counsel for Mr. Yocum in this contest?—A. I don't know; it is C. H. McKee, of Lock Haven, Pennsylvania, but I do not know whether he is one of counsel for Mr. Yocum or not.

Q. Is Mr. C. H. McKee an attorney-at-law in Lock Haven?—A. As far as I know, he is; I do not know anything about you lawyers.

Q. Do you not know that he is practicing law in Lock Haven, and is a member of the law firm of Kress & McKee; have you not seen him in our courts acting as a lawyer?—A. I know that he is practicing law in Lock Haven; I guess he is a member of the law firm of Kress & McKee; I have never seen him in our courts acting as a lawyer. I have no business in these courts to see these things.

Q. Is he not at this time standing in the rear of the table at which the notary public is now writing; have you not seen him since you came into this room to be a witness, consulting with H. T. Haney, esq., counsel for contestee, who conducted your examination-in-chief?—A. He is now standing in the rear of the table at which the notary public is now writing. I have seen him since I came into this room in consultation with H. T. Haney, esq., counsel for contestee, who examined me in-chief.

Q. How long have you lived in Lock Haven, Clinton County?—A. All my life time.

Q. Do you know any other person than the gentleman of whom we have been speaking by the name of C. H. McKee?—A. No, sir.

Q. When did you go to the place where you heard these statements of Harriet McLain?—A. I can't say positive; but I think it was on Friday, February 28, 1879.

Q. How far does she live from here?—A. I can't answer that; she lives in Mill Hall; about four miles, I should call it.

Q. How did you go to that place, and with whom?—A. I went up in a sleigh with C. H. McKee.

Q. Why did you go?—A. He asked me to take him.

Q. Did he tell you what he wanted to do?—A. He said something about a Curtin and Yocum contest; he wanted to go there on matters referring to the Curtin and Yocum contest; he said that he wanted to go up there on matters referring to the Curtin and Yocum contest.

Q. Did he say anything to you on the way up about listening to the statements that might be made by Harriet McLain concerning the age of her son?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did he say anything after you arrived at her house, or where she was, and before there was any conversation with her on this point?—A. No, sir.

Q. Where did you find Mrs. McLain?—A. At her house; there was another lady with her; I do not know who the lady was.

Q. Was it a private residence where she lived?—A. I think so.

Q. Did you go into the house?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did Mr. McKee go in ahead of you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you say that you drove to Mill Hall, to the residence of Harriet McLain, dismounted from your sleigh, and followed Mr. C. H. McKee into a private house without his stating to you or without your understanding what his object was?—A. I don't say anything of the kind.

Q. Had you, when you entered that house, any more information or knowledge about Mr. McKee's object than that conveyed in the words you have given above—"that he wanted to go up on matters referring to the Curtin and Yocum contest"—which were spoken, as you stated, at the time he requested you to take him to Mill Hall?—A. I had more knowledge.

Q. From whom did you get it?—A. From a crowd of fellows in Mr. Clark's saddle shop, in Mill Hall; that is where I got the knowledge.

Q. Who gave the information, or stated the object of McKee's coming up?—A. I heard McKee and some of the other fellows talking there.

Q. Was that before or after you had been at the house?—A. Before I had been at the house.

Q. Then what was McKee's object, as you heard it from him, before you went with him to the house?—A. I did not hear it directly from him, but from a conversation that he and the men that were in the shop had; that he was going to that house to find out when Ad. McLain or Reninger was born.

Q. When did you first hear it stated by anybody that Ad. McLain had the other name of Reninger?—A. I first heard it when I was in Clark's shop.

Q. Between whom was the conversation at the residence of Harriet McLain, regarding the age of Ad. McLain?—A. Between Chas. H. McKee and Mrs. Harriet McLain; the other lady remained in the room during the conversation between them.

Q. What did McKee first say to Mrs. McLain?—A. He first asked if that was Mrs. McLain; she came to the door when we came; I tied my horse, which took some time, and I then went in afterwards; I don't remember what was the first thing I heard when I got into the house; the first thing I remember of hearing him say to her was something about that paper there (the paper offered in evidence by H. T. Haney, esq.).

Q. Had the paper been produced by the time you got into the house?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who had it?—A. Mr. McKee had it in his hands.

Q. Did Mrs. McLain read it to you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did she say whether or not she could read?—A. She said she could not read English; I did not hear her say anything about reading German, or whether or not she could read this paper.

Q. Did you pay particular attention to the conversation?—A. I had to; I was not talking about anything else.

Q. Did you see how Mr. McKee came into possession of this paper, or did you hear any of the conversation previous to its coming into his possession?—A. I did not.

Q. Now that you gave in your examination-in-chief a part of the conversation between Mr. McKee and Mrs. McLain, state all that was said and done there at that time.—A. I can't give just the words of the parties; Mr. McKee wanted to take that paper along with him to Lock Haven, and she at first would not allow it; but after a little talk of McKee, she consented to let him have it; Mr. McKee told her he would return it to her, provided she would allow him to take it; he first read a subpoena to her, and offered her twenty cents mileage, I think; and he told her she must be in Lock Haven on March 5, 1879; she said she would not come; McKee then told her he would send after her; she told him he had better not; that she had a dog there; Mr. McKee then told her that they had a way to get rid of dogs; she then said if they came they would not find her there; that she had a place to go to hide. I think we left then.

Q. Have you, in your last answer, stated the substance of your recollection of the conversation between Mr. McKee and Mrs. McLain at that time?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you recall anything material or definite in the way of conversations and statements, in addition to your last answer just mentioned?—A. I cannot now.

Q. How long were you in the house?—A. About thirty minutes, I guess.

Q. Did you take any part in the conversation?—A. I don't think I did.

Q. Did you see this paper in Mrs. McLain's hands at all?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you have it in your hands in the house?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you read it?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you make inquiries about it?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you say anything about it?—A. I said I could not read it.

Q. Who carried this paper from the house?—A. Mr. C. H. McKee.

Q. Who has had it since that time?—A. I don't know who.

Q. When did you last see it prior to to-day?—A. In Mrs. McLain's house, at that time.

Q. Who brought it here this morning?—A. I do not know.

Q. Since you have stated that you did not see the paper from February 28, 1879, in Mrs. McLain's house until to-day, March 5, 1879, when it was brought here by you don't know whom, do you swear, as a fact, that this is the same paper you then saw; and, if so, that it is in the same condition, writing, &c., as when you saw it?—A. It looks like the same paper that I saw in Mrs. McLain's house; I do not see how I can swear to it as a fact that it is the same paper I saw there.

(C. H. McKee, esq., objects to the witness answering the last clause of the question, because the witness is not permitted to examine or see the paper.)

(The witness is handed paper by counsel for contestant.)

A. This looks like the same paper that I saw there in the house; they might have made a fac-simile of it; I don't swear it is the same, but it looks like the same; it looks as if it was in the same condition as when I saw it at Mrs. McLain's house.

Q. What part of the written or printed portion of this paper can you repeat from your knowledge of it, gained at the house of Mrs. McLain?—A. I remember that Samuel Reninger's name was on it; I could not understand the paper very well; I also remember the general style of the printing and writing.

Q. Are there not on the margin of this paper a number of verses, or considerable printing in German? Are there not also upon it a number of bright-colored figures of men?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do they cause you to think that this is the same paper?—A. Yes, sir; they with the writing and printing do.

Q. Do you rely upon that portion as much as you do upon your recollection of what is printed and written in the small square in the center, alleging to relate to the birth of this person?—A. Yes; just about as much as the center.

Q. Can you recall any other names signed to or set forth in this paper?—A. No, sir.

Q. Then all you know about the writing in that paper is the name of Samuel Reninger, is it?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were there any dates upon it?—A. I think there was a date upon it of some year, but I do not know what it is any more.

Q. In what part of the conversation did Mrs. McLain refer to what appeared in this paper?—A. I can't remember what part.

Q. Have you stated her exact words when she referred to what appeared in this paper?—A. I don't think I did state her exact words. I don't think I can do so.

Q. Are you as uncertain about that part of her conversation as you appear to be about the others?—A. I have about the same recollection of all.

Q. When did you first know that you were to be a witness in this case?—A. Mr. McKee told me, coming from Mill Hall, that he was going to put me on the subpoena as a witness.

Q. Did he explain to you what he expected to prove by you?—A. He wanted me to tell what occurred up there—about what occurred in the house in relation to this paper.

(T. C. Hipple, esq., counsel for contestant, renews his objection to this paper, because it is not possible from a certified copy for any person to judge of the most prominent features of the paper upon which the witness evidently relies to identify it.)

(Paper heretofore offered in evidence as a record of the birth and baptism of Ad. McLain shown witness.)

Q. Does the date in this paper correspond with your recollection of the date of the birth of Adam McLain?

(Objected to because the paper shown witness has not been proven to be a registry of the birth of Adam McLain.)

A. This date is within a day of what I judge it to be.

Cross-examined by GEORGE A. BROWN, Esq., of counsel for contestant:

Q. Where was your daughter born?—A. She was born in Porter Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Where was Adam McLain born?—A. In Brush Valley, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Were you in Brush Valley at the time of his birth?—A. I was not.

Q. Then how can you state as a fact that he was born on the 27th day of May, 1858?—A. In February, 1858, my wife's brother died. My wife and I attended the funeral. I told my wife that if Harriet McLain (her sister) had not a husband, she ought to have one before long. I know that he was born on that day through my wife's mother, my mother-in-law.

Q. Do you know that this Adam McLain is that child?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How do you know it?—A. It is the only child she ever had.

Q. How long was it after his birth until you saw him first?—A. About a month and a half afterwards, in cherry-ripe time.

Q. When did you make this entry of your marriage?—A. In the same fall I was married in. It was not made just at the time I was married.

Q. Whose Bible is this?—A. That Bible belongs to me.

Q. How long did you have it before you were married?—A. About two years.

Q. Will you read to me the letters giving the year in which this Bible was published?

Q. Do the letters MDCCCLVI appear on the bottom of the title page of the Bible you referred to in your examination-in-chief as containing the record of the births of your family and the date of your marriage?—

A. There are such letters there. I do not know what they are there for.

Q. Will you give the date of your marriage as it appears in that Bible?—A. September 20, 1856.

Q. Can you read German?—A. I cannot. By looking at the figures in this paper I can tell the dates. The writing in it is not written in German.

Q. In what language is it written?—A. "May" is written in English. Some of the written and the printed part I can't read.

Q. Who first asked you about this boy's age lately?

(Objected to as not being cross-examination, immaterial, and irrelevant.)

A. I think that that was the man (pointing to C. H. McKee, esq.).

Q. Have you had any talk with Harriet McLain as to his age lately?—A. I had a talk with her some time this last winter, after the election of November 5, 1878. Harriet McLain was at my house and told me that he (Adam McLain) had voted. I told her then I thought the boy was not old enough. She said she could not tell his age. Then I asked her what difference there was between his age and my daughter's. She acknowledged to me that my daughter was in the neighborhood of a year older than her son (Adam McLain).

Direct examination resumed by CHARLES H. MCKEE:

Q. Do you remember from whom you purchased this Bible?—A. I bought it from one of the Longs. I had two Bibles that are nearly alike. One of them I purchased since I was married. I am not positive that I purchased this Bible before I was married. One of the Bibles I have since given to my daughter.

Q. Might this Bible have been the Bible you bought after you were married?—A. I do not know; it might have been; they are very nearly alike.

Recross-examined by GEORGE A. BROWN:

Q. About how long after you were married did you buy one of the Bibles?—A. I can't say whether it was three, four, or five years; I can hardly say whether it was less than two years or not. If I am not mistaken it was in the neighborhood of three years after I was married that I bought it.

Q. Can you swear that the name of Andrew G. Curtin, for member of Congress, was on your ticket, you not being able to read?

(Objected to, 1st. Because the witness has already sworn that Andrew G. Curtin's name was on his ticket. 2d. Because the witness has already sworn that he voted the straight Democratic ticket.)

A. Of course it was.

Q. How do you know it was on the ticket?—A. I got a good, honest man to give me the ticket, and he read it to me. George J. F. Ramm gave it to me.

Q. Does the name of Jacob E. Kline appear in your duplicates for the years 1876 and 1877?—It does in the duplicate of 1876, and in the duplicate of 1877 there is a Jacob C. Kline, which is the same person.

Q. Have the State and county taxes of Jacob E. Kline for the years 1876 and 1877 been paid, or has he been exonerated therefrom?—A. They have not been paid, and he has not been exonerated.

Q. Does the name of William Rice appear in your duplicates for the years 1876 and 1877?—A. It appears on the duplicate of 1876, and he is marked "exonerated." It does not appear on the duplicate of 1877.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestant:

Q. You have stated that Jacob A. Kline and George L. Myers are marked on the duplicates of 1876 and 1877 as "exonerated," and that William Rice is marked on the duplicate of 1876 as "exonerated." Is that written on the duplicates; in what colored ink, and by whom were these exonerations made?—A. It is written on the duplicates in each case "exonerated." It is written in red ink. The writing in the body of the book is in black ink. These exonerations were made by the commissioners of Clinton County. One of the commissioners wrote it.

ROBERT A. SHAW.

And I do further certify that the erasures and interlineations made therein and particularly set forth on pages 259, 260, 261, 262, 263, 264, 265, 266, 267, and 268 were made by me on the lines and pages therein noted, before the respective depositions in which they were made were signed by the witnesses.

[SEAL.]

S. M. MCCORMICK,
Notary Public.

Depositions of witnesses produced, sworn or affirmed, and examined before S. M. McCormick, notary public in and for the county of Clinton and State of Pennsylvania, resident in the city of Lock Haven, in said twentieth congressional district, at his office on Water street in said city, on Monday, the 10th day of March, A. D. 1879, at 8 o'clock a. m., and by adjournments from time to time, hereinafter particularly noted, to wit, the 11th, 13th, 14th, and 17th days of March, A. D. 1879, by virtue and in pursuance of contestee's notices, hereto attached, marked respectively D and E, S. M. McC., N. P.

H. T. Haney, esq., appears as counsel for contestee; T. C. Hipple, esq., appears as counsel for contestant.

Met on Monday, the 10th day of March, 1879, in pursuance of contestee's notice (marked D, S. M. McCormick, N. P.), hereto attached.

JOHN SNODGRASS, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. John Snodgrass; I am 69 years of age; I reside in the annexation to the borough of Mill Hall, Clinton County, Pennsylvania. My occupation for three years has been tax-collector and a kind of a farmer.

Q. Are you the collector of State and county taxes for Bald Eagle Township, Clinton County, for the year 1876 and for the year 1877?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you the duplicates here with you containing the amount of taxes assessed against the taxable inhabitants of said township, for State and county purposes, for the years 1876 and 1877?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Does the name of Jacob Smith appear on said duplicates; and, if so, what is the amount of taxes assessed against him for State and county purposes for the year 1876 and for the year 1877?—A. It does appear on said duplicates. For the year 1876 there is assessed against him for county purposes $3.50, and for the year 1877 the sum of $3 for county purposes.

Q. Has any portion of either tax been paid; and, if so, how much, and for what year?—A. For the year 1876, on the tax assessed for that year, he has paid me 80 cents. That is all the tax I have received on those two years' taxes. I did not receive anything for the year 1877.

Cross-examined by counsel for contestant:

Q. Were you collector of any other taxes than State and county in Bald Eagle Township in 1876?—A. Yes, sir; I collected school tax and poor tax.

Q. When did Jacob Smith make this payment of 80 cents on account of tax?—A. I am not able to answer that question definitely. I kept no dates to the payments generally.

Q. Did you give him a receipt for this payment?—A. I cannot answer that definitely.

Q. Did he pay you any more money at the time he paid you 80 cents?—A. Yes, sir; I can't remember how much he paid me. I applied to school tax $2.45 in full for school tax of 1876. I have not the poor-tax duplicate with me. I don't think he has paid me the poor tax in 1876 in full. His poor tax for 1875 would be about $1.75 for 1876.

Q. Did you apply out of what he paid you enough to pay the poor tax for 1876 in full?—A. I can't answer that correctly. It is altogether likely I did.

Q. Did you not apply the money to the school and poor taxes to pay them in full, and then take whatever balance might be left and apply it to the county tax?—A. I did.

Q. Why did you not pay the county tax in full, since it appears to have been for 1876 only $3.50, and since you appear to have received from Jacob Smith the sum of $5; and why did you not apply the balance to the school and poor taxes?—A. That is a pretty hard question to answer directly. I can't say any more than that I did it because I am in the habit of doing it in that way. I usually make the application to that tax which is most pressing and urgent. I had no directions from Jacob Smith where to apply or upon what duplicate to apply it.

Q. State your politics.—A. I am generally Republican.

JOHN SNODGRASS.

ROBERT C. PACKER, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. Robert C. Packer; I am 58 years of age; I reside in Bald Eagle Township; I am a farmer.

Q. Are you the collector of State and county taxes for the year 1878 for Bald Eagle Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Does the name of Jacob Smith appear on your duplicate, and what is the amount of his State or county taxes as appears upon your duplicate?—A. His name does so appear on my duplicate. $2.40 is his county taxes. There are no State taxes.

Q. Has Jacob Smith paid all or any portion of said taxes for the year 1878?—A. No, sir; he has not paid any.

Q. Do you know Jacob Smith, whose name appears upon your duplicate?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you give him a ticket to vote at the election that was held on November 5, 1878, in the election district of Bald Eagle Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania?—A. No, sir.

Cross-examined by counsel for contestant:

Q. When did the 1878 duplicate come into your hands?—A. I think in October or November, 1878, when I got the duplicate.

ROBERT C. PACKER.

JACOB SMITH, a witness called on behalf of contestee, being first duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. Jacob Smith. I am 41 years of age, I think. I live in Bald Eagle Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania. I am a farmer.

Q. Did you offer to vote at the election held on November 5, 1878, in the election district of Bald Eagle Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania, and was your vote received by the election officers at that place?—A. I did so offer to vote and my vote was received.

Q. What ticket did you vote?

(Objected to because the witness has not been shown to lack any of the legal qualifications of a voter.)

A. I voted the Democratic ticket.

Q. Who gave you your ticket?—A. I got a ticket from Packer; I guess they call him William. He lives in the stone house.

Q. Do you know whose name was on your ticket for member of Congress?—A. I think it was Andrew G. Curtin.

Cross examined by counsel for contestant:

Q. Did you read your ticket and see the name of Andrew G. Curtin upon it for Congress?—A. I read it. I don't mind; I think it was.

Q. Do you swear, as a fact from your own knowledge gained either by reading or examining that ticket, that the name of Andrew G. Curtin was on it for Congress?—A. As near as I know it was. So near as I know now it was; it was some time ago. I voted the Democratic ticket, and Curtin's name was the first name on it.

Q. Did you pay county taxes to John Snodgrass in Bald Eagle Township, for either the year 1876 or 1877?—A. I did pay taxes to him.

Q. How much did you pay to him?—A. I paid him $5, the last time.

Q. Did you get a receipt from him?—A. Yes, sir; this is it.

(T. C. Hipple, contestant's counsel, requests notary public to make a copy of the receipt in this testimony.)

“Received of Jacob Smith five dollars on taxes for 1876.

“JOHN SNODGRASS, Col'r.”

I hereby certify that the above is a true copy of the receipt spoken of above produced before me.

S. M. McCORMICK,
Notary Public.

Q. State whether or not this money, or so much of it as was necessary, was intended by you to pay your county taxes for 1876.—A. I always calculated it was to pay my county taxes.

Q. When did you first know that anybody claimed that your county taxes for 1876 had not been paid?—A. I don't know that any person claims that my county taxes for 1876 had not been paid. I do not know how he redacted off; I told him I wanted to pay my county taxes. I hardly ever take a receipt of him.

Q. Did you know at the time that the amount of money you paid was more than your county taxes for 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you tell Snodgrass about paying your county taxes with this money, at the time you paid him the money?—A. Yes, I told him; and that was all about it.

Q. Did Snodgrass say anything to you to show that he would not apply this money on your county taxes, as you had directed him to do?—A. No, sir. I gave him the five dollars and did not have much talk with him. I went off then.

Direct examination resumed by H. T. HANEY, Esq., counsel for contestee:

Q. When you gave him the five dollars did you not know that you owed him some poor tax, some school tax, and county tax?—A. I didn't care what I owed him. So far as county tax, I wanted paid first. I knew there was other taxes, and I calculated to pay them as soon as I could, but I wanted to pay the county taxes first.

Q. Did you talk with Snodgrass about it at the time?—A. No, I did not talk much; I had not time.

Q. When you gave him the five dollars you told him it was for your taxes. Did you tell him at that time which taxes?—A. I told him county taxes.

Q. Where was it?—A. On public road, next to my gate.

JACOB SMITH.

Q. Have you your duplicate with you, and does the name of William Cole appear on your duplicate, and has he paid you any State or county taxes?—A. I have my duplicate with me and the name of William Cole appears on it. He did not pay any State or county taxes on my duplicate.

Q. Does the name of William Cole appear in your duplicate as owing State and county taxes for the year 1878, in Allison Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania?—A. It does appear, but for county taxes, not for State taxes.

Q. What is the amount?—A. One $\frac{84}{100}$ dollars.

Q. Has he paid any portion of it?—A. He has paid nothing.

Cross-examined by counsel for contestant:

Q. When did you get this duplicate?—A. In the spring of 1878.

“CRAWFORD J. QUIGGLE.”

I certify that the above is a true copy of the receipt produced before me and offered in evidence by H. T. Haney, esq., counsel for contestee.
S. M. McCORMICK, Notary Public.

Q. Did you offer to vote at the election held on the 5th day of November, 1878, in the election district of Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; if so, was your vote received by the election officers at that place; if so, did you vote for member of Congress; and if so, for whom?

A. I did so offer to vote, and my vote was received by the election officers at that place; I voted for Andrew G. Curtin for member of Congress.

I was in the employ of George M. Hoagland; he has been in the habit of paying my taxes for me, and I have allowed him credit for the payments so made by him.

(H. T. Haney, esq., counsel for contestee, objects to the foregoing cross-examination because what was done in this particular instance is alone competent.)

Q. The name “H. J. Snyder” appears upon the poll-list returned from Wayne Township, and “Henry J. Snyder” appears on the registry-list of the same township; are you the person intended or meant in both instances?—A. Yes; I know of no other H. J. Snyder or Henry J. Snyder in Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania.

H. J. SNYDER.

JOHN W. JOHNSON, being duly sworn, deposes as follows :

Q. Did you vote at the election held November 5, 1878, in the election district of Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania? Did you vote for member of Congress; if so, for whom did you vote?

JOHN W. JOHNSON.

THOMAS G. SIMCOX, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. Thomas G. Simcox; I am 38 years of age; I live in Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am a lumberman.

Q. State if you paid State and county taxes since the election of November last to any one; and if so, to whom?—A. I paid State and county taxes to John Simcox, collector of taxes of Wayne Township, since the election of November 5, 1878.

Q. Do you remember when and to whom you paid State or county taxes before?—A. I think it was in February, 1876, to James Montgomery; I am not positive as to the time, but I think it was.

Q. Have you a receipt for either of these taxes?—A. I do not know whether I have or not; I do not remember whether I got one or not.

Q. Did you vote at the election held on November 5, 1878, in the election district of Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; if so, did you vote for member of Congress; and, if so, for whom did you vote for such member?—A. I voted at the election held November 5, 1878, in Wayne Township. I suppose I voted for member of Congress. I voted for Andrew G. Curtin. I do not know, though, what he was running for.

THOS. G. SIMCOX.

THOS. G. SIMCOX (recalled by counsel for contestant for cross-examination.)

Question. Did you pay any taxes to John Simcox in the early part of 1878; and, if so, how much?

(Objected to, because the question is improper, unless it is shown that they were either State or county taxes.)

Answer. I paid taxes to John Simcox in the early part of 1878, but I cannot state the amount. I think it was $1.80 or $2.80. I am the only T. G. Simcox or Thos. G. Simcox in Wayne Township.

Q. What amount of taxes did you pay to John Simcox since November 5, 1878?—A. In the neighborhood of $2. I can't tell the exact amount.

Q. Were not the taxes paid since November 5, 1878, merely the balance of your taxes left unpaid after the payment made by you in the early part of 1878?—A. Certainly, they were.

Q. What time in 1878 do you mean by the "early part of 1878"?—A. I think it was in February, 1878. I would not be positive about it.

Q. Do you know what taxes were left unpaid after February, 1878, on John Simcox's duplicate?—A. I do not know what taxes were left unpaid.

Q. State the transaction of February, 1878, when you paid taxes.—A. John Simcox and I were making ties together and we got an estimate and the estimate was small, and I told him to put some on the taxes (I gave him a part of the estimate). I told him I would pay him the balance again.

Q. In reply to a question of H. T. Harey, esquire, counsel for contestee, you stated that you had paid State and county taxes to John Simcox since November 5, 1878. Do you now state that you know that it was the State and county taxes and not some other taxes that were left unpaid after February, 1878, and which you paid since November 5, 1878?—A. My taxes, State, county, road, and school were on duplicates which John Simcox had. I do not know whether he gave me the first credit on the State, county, road, or school tax. I do not remember that there was anything said by either of us as to the State or county taxes at either of the payments.

THOMAS G. SIMCOX.

RICHARD H. QUIGGLE, junior, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. Richard H. Quiggle; I am twenty-six years of age; I reside in Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am a farmer.

Q. Have you ever paid State or county taxes to any one either in Wayne Township or elsewhere?—A. For myself to pay it, I would say "No, sir." My father and I, you may say, are one, and I know my father pays the taxes. When a tax-collector would come to our place he would not ask me for taxes, very seldom, and my father would always pay the taxes for me with his own. I cannot say whether the taxes have been paid lately; but I think my father has paid taxes for me already.

Q. Please state whether or not your State and county taxes have been paid, either by yourself or any one for you, at any time previous to November 5, 1878, and within two years of that time.—A. I would just say to that, I cannot tell.

Q. If they were paid, by whom were they paid?—A. If they were paid, they were paid by my father, Thomas Quiggle.

Q. Do you know anything about it personally?—A. I do not.

Q. Did you vote at the election held on the 5th day of November, 1878, in the election district of Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; if so, did you vote for member of Congress? And, if so, for whom did you vote?

A. I voted on November 5, 1878, in Wayne Township election district. I voted the full Democratic ticket. I do not know for whom I voted for member of Congress. I cannot tell whether I voted for Curtin or Yocum. To the best of my knowledge I voted the full Democratic ticket.

Cross-examined by counsel for contestant :

Q. Are you married?—A. I am not.

Q. Do you now reside, and have you all your lifetime resided, with your parents?—A. Yes, sir. My father's name is Thomas Quiggle. He has a farm and I work with him.

Q. State whether or not it has been the practice and dealings between your father and yourself ever since you became a voter that he should pay your taxes without consulting you each time he paid them?—A. It has been the practice and dealings. He would sometimes tell me had paid them, and that would be all there was of it.

Q. State whether or not you have any contract for wages or payment for the labor you do for your father, and whether or not you receive anything from your father for your labor.—A. We have no contract; but I do receive anything and everything that I want and need. If I want any money or clothes, I get them as I need them.

Q. Is that why you paid no attention to the payment of taxes yourself, and is that why you say you have no personal knowledge of payments?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was your vote challenged at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; not that I know of. No one spoke to me. I am R. H. Quiggle, junior. When I voted I had no reason to think my taxes had not been paid.

RICHARD H. QUIGGLE, JR.

JOHN G. DAVIS, junior, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. John G. Davis, junior; I was born on July 24, 1842; I reside in Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am a laborer.

Q. State if you paid State or county taxes within two years previous to November 5, 1878; and, if so, to whom you paid them?—A. Not to my recollection.

Q. Did you vote at the election held November 5, 1878, in the election district of Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; if so, did you vote for member of Congress; and, if so, for whom did you vote?

A. I voted on November 5, 1878, in Wayne Township election district. I think I voted for member of Congress. I think I voted for Andrew G. Curtin. My memory is so much gone that I can't recollect as I should.

Q. Did you not vote the Democratic ticket?—A. Yes, sir; that was my calculation.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestant :

Q. Have you not, since the election of November 5, 1878, had severe attacks of apoplexy, or some other illness, so much so as to impair your recollection of events in the past, so that you cannot feel confidence in your memory, and so much so as to cause confusion in your recollection of your own acts, dates, names, and occurrences generally?—A. I have had such attacks and it has impaired my memory a great deal.

Q. Can you undertake to state the particulars and details of what you did, saw, or heard, as far back as November, 1878, or as far back as two years prior to November 5, 1878?—A. I can tell so far as about the taxes, and how that I came to the polls to vote. I was not challenged. I can tell what I labored at that day. I would not like to undertake that. It would be too much for me to tell all that occurred in that time.

Q. Is your memory as clear and strong now as it was before you had these attacks?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you as much confidence in your memory as you had before you had these attacks?—A. No, sir.

Q. From whom did you get your ticket?—A. I can't be sure of that. I think it was from John Chatham. It was a young Mr. Chatham.

Q. How long have you lived in Wayne Township?—A. I can't tell that. I think somewhere near ten years.

Q. Are you a housekeeper?—A. Yes, sir; and a freeholder too.

Q. Do you own real estate?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you owned real estate in Wayne Township?—A. I can't say. I suppose for nine years.

Q. Have you not kept your taxes paid upon your real estate and personal property, to the best of your recollection?—A. I have, until the last two years.

Q. When did you last pay State or county taxes, and to whom?

(Objected to, because it is irrelevant, being a matter of no consequence as to the payment of any other taxes than State or county.)

A. I don't know; the last State or county tax that I know of was paid to James Montgomery. I can't tell when I paid it.

Q. Did you take a receipt from James Montgomery?—A. No, sir.

Q. What year did you pay James Montgomery?—A. I can't recollect

Q. How much did you pay him?—A. I can't recollect how much I paid him.

Q. Where did you pay him?—A. At his house.

Q. How do you know it was State and county tax?—A. He said it was. That is all I know.

Q. Are you not able, in some manner, to state even the year in which you say you paid James Montgomery State or county taxes?

(Objected to because the time at which it was paid is not evidence, the witness having already sworn that it was not within two years of last November; because it is immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. I am not; no, sir.

Q. Do you know for what year James Montgomery was collector of taxes?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know how long this payment by you was made after Montgomery became collector of taxes?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you make this payment to Montgomery before or after the 5th day of November, 1876?—A. I can't say that; I don't know it.

Q. From all that you can remember, could that payment to James Montgomery have been made after November 5, 1876?—A. No, sir. I think I paid it so as to be entitled to a vote, as near as I can recollect.

Q. For what year did you make the payment so as to be entitled to vote, and for what election?—A. I calculated the same fall to be entitled to vote that I paid my taxes in.

Q. State what fall you mean by "the same fall," at which you calculated to vote.—A. The same fall I paid my taxes. I can't say what year it was. If I had not had this disturbance in my head, I could recollect. I had a good memory.

Q. Now, since you have stated that you cannot remember the year when you paid this tax, how can you state that you did pay it before November 5, 1876?—A. I can remember a conversation that we had. Of course I had paid my taxes before right along. I can't state what year it was in; I can't say it was in November before; I paid it before the election.

Q. Do you swear as a fact now, clearly recollected by you, that you did pay that money to James Montgomery before November 5, 1876?

(Objected to because the witness has already sworn, in chief and on cross-examination, that the payment to Montgomery was more than two years previous to November 5, 1878; and in answer to question in cross-examination as to how he knew that the payment was previous to November 5, 1876, he states, "I can remember a conversation that we had," and that he paid it before he voted that fall at that election.)

A. I don't swear to it as a fact, but to the best of my knowledge—the best of my knowledge.

Q. Why will you not answer to it as a fact?

(Objected because it is irrelevant, and designed to confuse the witness, and to weaken the testimony already drawn out on cross-examination.)

A. As I said before, my head is bothered.

(T. C. Hipple, counsel for contestant, requests the notary public to reduce to writing a statement of the witness that he has forgotten how he was sworn, whether it was the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth; and if the notary refuses to reduce the statement to writing, he is requested to state why.)

H. T. Haney, esq., counsel for contestee, objects to its being reduced to writing because the remark was made voluntarily by the witness after a long cross-examination, without any motive or reason being stated, not appearing whether the witness means that he did not remember the nature of the obligation or the language in full of the oath administered by the notary. The evident purpose of having it reduced to writing being to create the impression that the witness's memory was so bad that he could not remember the nature of his obligation for the length of time that he was upon the witness-stand.

The witness stated to me: "I have forgotten how I was sworn. Was I to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth?" I informed him that he was to tell "the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth."—S. M. McCORMICK, Notary Public.)

Witness continues:

My head is bad to-day, but there is one thing I recollect. Last fall I was deceived in my taxes being paid. There was a man told me that they were paid, and that it was all right, and I could vote. He said that George Hoagland had paid them to Jacob Quiggle. That was the reason I voted. I understand that my oath was concerning the case—to tell what I know.

Q. Since you have stated that you understand your oath to mean that you are to tell what you know, do you state that you know this payment to Montgomery was before November 5, 1876? If so, state fully how and why you know it.—A. I think it was two years ago last fall, as near as I can recollect; I don't know anything about the year; I can't say that I know it was before November 5, 1876. I don't remember the year.

Direct examination resumed by H. T. HANEY, Esq., counsel for contestee:

Q. Was it not your recollection during last summer and fall that you had not paid State and county taxes within the time that would have entitled you to have voted last fall; did you not so state to Michael Shurr?

(Objected because it is irrelevant and immaterial, and not the mode of proof in this particular case.)

A. My recollection, during last summer and fall, was that I had not paid State and county taxes within the time that would have entitled me to vote last fall. I did so state to Michael Shurr.

Adjourned at 12.30, to meet at 1.30 p. m.

Met at 1.30 p. m., pursuant to adjournment. H. T. HANEY, Esq., appears as counsel for contestee; T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., appears as counsel for contestant.

JOHN G. DAVIS, Jr., the witness on the stand.

Q. Is your recollection the same now?—A. Yes, sir. There is no other J. G. Davis or John G. Davis in Wayne Township beside myself.

JOHN G. DAVIS.

WILLIAM E. LUCAS (without objection by contestant's counsel), being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. William E. Lucas; I am 29 years of age; I live in Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am a laborer.

Q. Have you a receipt for the payment of State and county taxes dated October 5, 1878, and signed by John C. McKague?—A. Yes, sir; that is the receipt.

Q. When did you receive this receipt, and from whom?—A. I received this receipt from George Hoagland; I did not receive it until this morning.

Q. Do you know who paid the tax which purports to have been paid October 5, 1878, by this receipt?—A. I do not know any more than what Hoagland told me. He told me in the presence of a witness that he had settled the tax.

“WAYN, October 5, in 1878.

“Received from Wm. E. Lucas 71 cts. of State and county tax.

“JOHN C. MCKAGE, Col.”

I hereby certify that the above is a true copy of the receipt referred to above, and which was produced before me.

S. M. McCORMICK,
Notary Public.

Q. Did you vote at the election held on the 5th day of November, 1878, in the election district of Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; if so, did you vote for member of Congress; and if so, for whom?

(Objected to, because the witness has not been shown to lack any of the legal qualifications of a voter.)

A. I did vote at that election in election district of Wayne Township. I cannot tell for whom I voted for member of Congress. They would not allow me to open my ticket. That was the first election I ever was at that I was not allowed to open my ticket.

Q. From whom did you receive your ticket?—A. George M. Hoagland.

Q. Who told you you must not open your ticket?—A. George M. Hoagland.

Q. State if you had any conversation with George M. Hoagland just before the election about your vote and Abraham Simcox's vote.

(Objected to as irrelevant, not being stated whether on the day of the election or how long before the day of the election.)

A. No, sir; I had a conversation with John Chatham.

Q. State if you were promised any compensation or reward if you would vote the ticket which Hoagland would give to you, and were you authorized by Chatham or Hoagland to make the same promise to Abraham Simcox?

(Objected to because it is irrelevant.)

A. John Chatham told me that Hoagland was to pay $1.50 apiece. He told me I should pay Abraham Simcox a dollar as soon as I went home, and take a receipt, so that he could not say that he did not get nothing.

Q. Did you pay him the dollar?

(This and the foregoing question objected to because they are not covered by any charges or specifications in contestee's answer, and because it is irrelevant.)

A. Yes, sir; I did as I was told.

Q. Did you take a receipt?

(Objected to, same as to previous question.)

A. Yes, sir; but I did not bring it along with me.

Q. Did John Chatham or George M. Hoagland give you the dollar to pay to Abraham Simcox, or after you had paid Abraham Simcox the dollar, did they give you one in return?

(Objected to, same as to foregoing question.)

A. Each one of them (Chatham and Hoagland) paid me a half a dollar afterwards.

Q. Did they, or either of them, at the time you received your ticket, tell you whether it was a Republican or a Democratic ticket?—A. They (both of them) told me it was a Democratic ticket; they both stood together.

Q. Was there any one with you at the time, and where was it that they gave you the ticket?—A. Abraham Simcox was with me, and it was at the Fillman House, where the election was held.

Q. At the time that you say John Chatham told you that he would give you and Abraham Simcox each one and a half dollars, or that he and Hoagland would, if you would come and vote the ticket they gave you, did you agree to his proposition, and did you tell Abraham Simcox what Chatham had said, and did you and Abraham Simcox go to the polls on the 5th day of November, 1878, and receive your tickets from John Chatham and George M. Hoagland, which they told you were Democratic tickets, in pursuance of the arrangement that you were each to have one dollar and a half for so doing?

(Objected to as not being covered by contestee's answer, as leading in its form, and assuming the existence of a contract of bribery or selling of votes.)

A. I said if it was correct; if it was a benefit to our county I would do so. I told Abraham Simcox what John Chatham had said. I went to the polls with Abraham Simcox on the 5th November, 1878, in pursuance of the arrangement that I had that I was to receive one and a half dollars. They said that the money had been taken from the treasury to pay every poor man for his time taken for voting. I received a ticket, which I voted, from George M. Hoagland.

Cross-examined by C. T. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestant:

Q. Had you paid State or county taxes within two years previous to the 5th day of November, 1878; if so, when and to whom did you pay them?—A. I did so; I paid them to John Earon, in Pine Creek Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania. I think it was about March 15, 1878, when I paid him; it was just before I went to move from Pine Creek Township to Wayne Township.

Q. Where did you have your conversation with Chatham about paying you money, and when did you have it? Give that conversation in full.—A. In front of his house in the road. I had this conversation with him the Wednesday before the election; it was about 4 o'clock in the afternoon; I was going home from hauling ties. He stopped me on the road, and he told me that if I would come in and Abraham Simcox that he would insure us our taxes paid, and besides our one and a half dollars apiece for our day.

Q. How far do you and Mr. Simcox live from the election polls?—A. Between four and a half and five miles.

Q. Was there anything said by you about losing your time, and your not being willing to do so?—A. No, sir.

Q. What ticket did you intend to vote before you saw Mr. Chatham?—A. I intended to vote the Democratic ticket clean through.

Q. Did you intend to go to the election and vote before you were promised this money?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. If you had not been promised money, would you have gone to the election and voted the straight Democratic ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you intend to sell your vote?

(Objected to as improper cross-examination, the counsel having no right to inquire as to the intention either before or at the time of voting, the only competent testimony being what the witness did do, not what his intentions were.)

A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. You have stated in your examination-in-chief, in answer to a question by Mr. Haney, that you went to the polls, received your tickets, and voted them in pursuance of an arrangement with Hoagland and Chatham. Do you mean to say that this one and a half dollars which had been promised you was your reason and cause for voting what you were told was a Democratic ticket; in other words, did you sell your vote that day, or were you bribed that day to vote any particular ticket?

(Objected to because the witness is asked to swear to a conclusion of law from facts already in evidence embraced in the question. What the witness did do is relevant; what his intentions were, or what the effect of what he did do, is immaterial, and the witness not competent to swear to it.)

A. The dollar and a half I received was not my reason for voting what I was told was a Democratic ticket. I did not sell my vote that day, nor was I bribed to vote any particular ticket. George M. Hoagland is man of our party, true and honest, and we took his tickets.

Q. What party do you mean by "our party"?—A. By "our party" I mean the Democratic party.

Q. Then if you voted a Democratic ticket on November 5, 1878, although money was promised you, did you vote the same as you would have voted without any promise of money?—A. That I can't say; they would not allow me to open my ticket. If it was the Democratic ticket that I voted, then I would have voted the same ticket without any promise of money.

Q. You have stated that you did not sell your vote, and was not bribed to vote. Did you receive from either Hoagland or Chatham any more money than you had actually paid out of your own pocket to Abraham Simcox?—A. No, sir; I paid Simcox a dollar and I was paid but 90 cents. Chatham gave me a pint of whisky for my father, who was sick; it was 40 cents. Hoagland gave me 50 cents worth of chop.

Q. Then you did not receive a single cent or anything of value from either Chatham or Hoagland for yourself for coming to the election and voting, did you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Where did you see Simcox and where did you pay him the money?—A. I saw him at my own house. I did not give him the money.

Q. What did you give Simcox?—A. He owed me ten dollars and I gave him credit with one, and reduced it to nine.

Q. When did you get this whisky from Chatham for your father and this chop from Hoagland?—A. I got the whisky from Chatham before the election a couple of days, and the chop from Hoagland the next day after the election.

Q. When did you give Simcox his receipt for $1 upon the $10 he owed you?—A. In the week before the election; about the middle of the week.

Q. Has Simcox that receipt, to the best of your knowledge?—A. I don't know; that is more than I can tell you; he is very careless.

Q. What kind of an account had you against Simcox for this $10?—A. It was balance of a horse and spring-wagon; it was booked against him. I did not have a note.

Q. Have you the book here?—A. No, sir; I have not. I did not think it was necessary.

Q. Was Hoagland present at that conversation with Chatham in the road?—A. No, sir.

Q. How long after you saw Chatham in the road was it that you gave Simcox his receipt or credit on his $10?—A. The same evening.

Q. What day in the week was it that you had this talk with Chatham, and how long before the election?—A. It was the Wednesday before the election.

Q. How long after that was it that you saw Chatham again?—A. Not until the day of the election.

Q. How, then, did you get the whisky from Chatham a couple of days before the election, as you have stated in one of your previous answers?—A. I am not exactly positive that it was Tuesday or Wednesday before the election; it was one of those days that I got the whisky from Chatham; it may have been the day I was talking with him, or the day before.

Q. Can you not remember whether you saw Chatham on any other time on Wednesday before the election than about 4 o'clock p. m., as you have testified?—A. No, sir. I did not see him that day until I had that conversation with him.

Q. Can you not remember whether or not you got the whisky from Chatham on that day (Wednesday)?—A. I don't remember. I was a good deal bothered when I got it, for father was not expected to live that day; he died a couple of days afterwards.

Q. State the date of your father's death.—A. That I can't do.

Q. State the day of the week your father died.—A. He died on Saturday evening.

Q. Where were Chatham and you when you got the whisky from him?—A. He took me in the house and gave it to me. I had sent in the night before for him to get it for me.

Q. Have you since that time talked to Chatham about paying him for the whisky; if so, when?—A. I talked with him on the day of the election about paying him for the whisky; he said I needn't mind paying for it, as it was already fixed.

Q. State what you did say to Chatham that called forth this answer.—A. Nothing, only I asked Chatham about paying for the whisky, how much it was; and he said never mind, that was already fixed; then I started home, and I have not seen him but once since, and then I did not get speaking to him.

Q. From whom did you get the chop that you spoke of having received from George M. Hoagland?—A. I got it from George M. Hoagland in person.

Q. Was anything said about paying for it?—A. No, sir; he said that that would square us.

Q. Had you any conversation with Hoagland between the Wednesday you saw Chatham and the day on which you voted, in reference to voting?—A. Not until the day of the election.

Q. What conversation had you that day with him?—A. He asked me if I had paid Simcox. I told him I had, and he said I should come out and he would pay me.

Q. If the name of Andrew G. Curtin was upon your ticket for member of Congress, was it the name you intended to vote before you had this conversation with Chatham and Hoagland?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. In these talks about voting were the names of any candidates mentioned?—A. No, sir; none but Curtin's. I was referred to Curtin before any other. I was asked to vote for Curtin in particular.

Q. Is there any other William Lucas or William E. Lucas in Wayne Township beside yourself?—A. No, sir; there is not.

WM. E. LUCAS.

JACOB B. ANTIS, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. Jacob B. Antis. I am 52 years of age. I live in Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania. I am a watchman on railroad.

Q. Did you vote at the election held on November 5, 1878, in the election district of Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania? If so, did you vote for member of Congress; and if so, for whom did you vote for such member?

(Objected to, because the witness has not been shown to lack any of the legal qualifications of a voter.)

A. I voted on that day in Wayne Township, Pennsylvania. I voted for Andrew G. Curtin for member of Congress.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestee:

Q. The name of J. B. Antis appears on the poll-list of Wayne Township, and Jacob B. Antis on the registry list of said township; is there any other J. B. Antis or Jacob B. Antis, in Wayne Township, besides yourself?—A. No, sir.

Q. Are you a housekeeper?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where were you born, and how long did you live in Wayne Township immediately preceding November 5, 1878?—A. I was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania. I lived in Wayne Township about seventeen years immediately preceding November 5, 1878.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax within two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878?

(Objected to, as not being proper cross-examination, as the witness has not been asked any questions as to the paying of taxes.)

A. I have, sir.

Direct examination resumed by H. T. HANEY, Esq., counsel for contestee:

Q. Did you personally pay State or county tax to John Simcox, the collector of State and county taxes for the year 1876, previous to the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I did; his duplicate will show it. I never took a receipt from him. I never took a receipt for taxes in my life.

Recross-examination by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestant:

Q. State whether or not at any time within two years immediately preceding November 5, 1878, you paid State or county taxes to Jacob Quiggle, collector of taxes for 1877.—A. I did not. I have never been asked to pay it.

JACOB B. ANTIS.

WILLIAM CONNELL, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. William Connell. I am 53 years of age. I live in Wayne Township. I work on the railroad.

Q. When did you last pay State or county taxes, and to whom did you pay them? Give the month and the day of the month.—A. It was from the 5th to the 7th of October, 1876. I gave the money to pay the taxes to Shade Smith, one of our men; he was going down; he paid them to John Simcox. I did not pay them in person.

Q. Did you vote at the election held November 5, 1878, in the election district of Wayne Township? Did you vote for member of Congress, and if so, for whom did you vote?

(Objected to, because not shown that witness lacked any of the legal qualifications of a voter.)

A. I voted at the election held November 5, 1878, in Wayne Township. I voted for Andrew G. Curtin for member of Congress.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestant:

Q. Did you read your ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you know that you had not paid State or county taxes, so as to entitle you to vote?—A. No, sir; I did not know it had been so long since I paid taxes. I am the only William Connell or William O'Connell in Wayne Township.

WILLIAM CONNELL.

ABRAHAM SIMCOX, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. Abraham Simcox. I am 35 years of age. I reside in Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania. I am a laborer.

Q. Have you a receipt for the payment of your State and county taxes for the year 1877, signed by Crawford J. Quiggle, dated October 5, 1878?—A. I have; this is it.

“WAYNE TWP., Oct. 5th, 1878.

“Received of Abraham Sincox sixty-one cts., for State & Co. taxes for the year 1877.

“CRAWFORD QUIGGLE.”

I hereby certify that the above is a true copy of the receipt referred to above, and produced before me.

S. M. McCORMICK,
Notary Public.

Q. When and from whom did you receive this receipt?—A. I received this receipt on the day of the election from William E. Lucas, the person who was just on the witness stand.

Q. Do you know from whom he got it?—A. He told me he got it from George M. Hoagland. I did not see him get it.

Q. Did you vote at the election held November 5, 1878, in the election district of Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; and, if so, did you vote for member of Congress; and, if so, for whom did you vote for such member?

(Objected to because witness not shown to lack any of the legal qualifications of a voter.)

A. I voted at last fall's election in Wayne Township. I don't know whether or not I voted for member of Congress. I did not open my ticket.

Q. Why did you not open your ticket?—A. They allowed that it was no use; that it was the ticket I wanted to vote anyhow.

Q. Who gave you the ticket?—A. George M. Hoagland.

Q. Was it Hoagland that allowed that you need not open your ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did they tell you whether it was a Republican or a Democratic ticket?—A. No, sir; they did not. I did not ask them because I thought it would be of no use, for I voted the Democratic ticket anyhow.

Q. Is Hoagland a Democrat?—A. So they tell me.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestant:

Q. How long have you lived in Wayne Township?—A. Eight years last fall.

Q. Is there any other Abe or Abraham Simcox in Wayne Township except yourself?—A. No, sir; there is no other.

Q. If the name of Andrew G. Curtin was on your ticket for Congress, is he the person you wanted to vote for?—A. Yes.

Witness;

S. M. McCORMICK.

ROBERT T. QUIGGLE, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation?—Answer. Robert T. Quiggle; I am 27 years of age; I live in Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am a laborer.

Q. Did you not vote at the election held November 5, 1878, in the election district of Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; if so, did you vote for member of Congress; and, if so, for whom did you vote?

(Objected to because the witness has not been shown to lack any of the legal qualifications of a voter.)

A. I voted at that election in Wayne Township, in said county; I can't tell for whom I voted for member of Congress. I don't remember now for whom I voted.

Q. Did you not tell me (H. T. Haney) within fifteen minutes that you had voted for Curtin?

(The objection renewed that the witness is not shown to lack any of the legal qualifications of a voter, and cannot properly, and should not be asked to disclose the name of the party for whom he voted; and that it is in the nature of a cross-examination, or contradiction of their own witness.)

A. Yes, sir; I voted for Curtin.

Q. Then when you stated a moment ago that you did not remember for whom you had voted for Congress, did you mean to say you did not know you had voted for Curtin?—A. No, sir; I did not mean that. I did not know for what office he was running for. I voted the straight Democratic ticket. That is the ticket I voted, and have always voted.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestant :

Q. Did you read your ticket?—A. I read it at the time I voted.

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. Samuel Cable; I am 36 years of age; I live in Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I work on the railroad.

Q. Have you paid State or county taxes at any time within two years previous to November 5, 1878; and, if so, how much and to whom did you pay this tax?—A. Yes, sir; I have paid tax within that time. I paid it to John Simcox. I can't say how much I paid him.

Q. Do you say under oath that you do not know how much or about the amount you paid John Simcox?—A. I don't know.

Q. Do you not know that you paid but thirty-five cents?—A. No, sir; I do not.

Q. Did you vote last fall at the November election in the election district of Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote for Andrew G. Curtin for member of Congress?

(Objected to because the witness has not been shown to lack legal qualification as voter; that he cannot properly and should not be asked to disclose the name of the person for whom he voted. The question is improper, being direct and unusual in its form.)

A. Yes, sir.

Cross examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestant:

Q. Did you read your ticket?—A. I did; and saw the name of Andrew G. Curtin upon it.

Adjourned to meet at 1.30 p. m.

Met at 1.30 p. m., pursuant to adjournment.

H. T. Haney, esq., appears as counsel for contestee; T. C. Hipple, esq., appears as counsel for contestant.

GEORGE M. HOAGLAND, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. George M. Hoagland; I am 48 years of age; I reside in Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am a miller.

Q. Did you at any time during the summer or fall, before or after the election of November 5, 1878, pay to Jacob Quiggle, collector of State and county taxes for Wayne Township, any money for the purpose of paying the taxes of Jacob B. Curtis, John W. Johnson, Washington McClure, Abraham Simcox, and Henry J. Snyder, or either of them?

(Objected to as irrelevant.)

A. I did. I paid taxes for all those persons mentioned to him.

Q. State upon what day of the month it was that you gave to Jacob Quiggle the money for the payment of the taxes of the persons above named?—A. On the 5th day of October, 1878.

Q. Did you not have receipts signed by Crawford Quiggle for the payment of State or county taxes for which, at the time you received said receipts, you had not actually paid the money; or, if paid, did you not have an understanding or arrangement that if any of the parties for whose taxes you held the receipts could vote without using said receipts, that you could return the same?

(Objected to as irrelevant.)

A. I did not have receipts signed by Crawford Quiggle for the payment of State or county taxes for which I had not actually paid the money. I had no understanding that I could return the receipts if the parties could vote without using them.

Q. Did you return any receipts?—A. I did not return any of the receipts.

Q. Did you give tickets to Abraham Simcox and William E. Lucas to vote on the 5th day of November, A. D. 1878, at the election in Wayne Township?—A. I don't recollect.

Q. If they received tickets from you, did they have the name of Andrew G. Curtin or Seth H. Yocum on for member of Congress?

(Objected to because witness says he has no recollection of giving them tickets.)

A. I don't know that.

Q. Were you giving out tickets that day?

(Objected to as irrelevant.)

A. Yes; I gave out tickets.

Q. So far as you know or believe, which of the two names mentioned (Andrew G. Curtin or Seth H. Yocum) was on the tickets which you gave out to William E. Lucas or Abraham Simcox, if you gave them tickets?

(Objected to as irrelevant.)

A. I presume I gave them Andrew G. Curtin tickets, if I gave them tickets.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestant:

Q. Have you a distinct recollection of seeing William E. Lucas or Abraham Simcox, or either of them, at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Yes; I saw them both there.

Q. Did you prevent or interfere with either William E. Lucas or Abraham Simcox opening and examining the tickets they voted?

(Objected to as not being proper cross-examination, and the counsel for the contestee protests against any examination of this witness in reference to matters to which his attention has not been called, the evident purpose of the examination being to contradict William E. Lucas and Abraham Simcox by improper cross-examination of the witness upon the stand without assuming the responsibility of calling the witness.)

A. No, I did not.

Q. Did you authorize John H. Chatham, or any other person, to offer one dollar and a half each, or any money, to William E. Lucas and Abraham Simcox to come and vote November 5, 1878, as was testified to by William E. Lucas?

(Objected to for the same reason as to previous question.)

A. I did not authorize Chatham or anybody else to pay anything.

Q. William E. Lucas testified yesterday that he received 50 cents' worth of chop from you a couple of days after the election. Are you a miller? Did you furnish him chop a few days after the election; and, if so, how and why; and was it in consideration of his vote, as he seems to allege?

(Objected to for the same reasons above given.)

A. I am a miller; I furnished him chop a few days after the election. I do not know how long afterwards it was. I gave him some chop and some flour, I think. We bought some wood from him to be delivered to Mr. Leese, the miller there. We gave him flour, I think, for it. He got flour and chop several times. It was not given him in consideration of his vote.

Q. William E. Lucas testified that he was not allowed to open his ticket; that he got his ticket from you and that you said he must not open his ticket. Is that true or false?

(Objected to for same as above.)

A. It is not true.

Q. How long have you lived in Wayne Township and done business there?

(Objected to as irrelevant.)

A. About ten years. I moved there about twelve years ago, but I was out about two years in that time.

GEORGE M. HOAGLAND.

Continued to Monday, the 17th day of March, 1879.

Monday, March 17, 1879, met in pursuance of adjournment at 10 o'clock a. m.

H. T. Haney, esq., appears as counsel for contestee; T. C. Hipple, esq., appears as counsel for contestant.

WILLIAM M. QUIGGLE, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—A. Answer. William M. Quiggle; I am 36 years of age; I live in Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am a lumberman.

Q. Have you paid State or county taxes within two years preceding the election of November 5, 1878?—A. Unfortunately not.

Q. Did you vote at the election held November 5, 1878, in the election district for the township of Wayne, in the county of Clinton; if so, did you vote for member of Congress, and for whom did you vote?—A. I voted at that election in Wayne Township. I voted for Andrew G. Curtin for member of Congress.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestee:

Q. Did you examine your ticket and see the name of Andrew G. Curtin upon it?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did any one read it aloud to you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Now, since you have stated that you did not examine your ticket, did not see the name of Andrew G. Curtin upon it for Congress, and that no one read it aloud to you, can you state, under oath, of your own knowledge as a fact, that you did vote for Andrew G. Curtin?

(Objected to because the witness has already sworn as a fact that he did vote for Andrew G. Curtin.)

A. Where I having perfect faith in the Democratic principles of the man who furnished me the ticket, I had not the least doubt that I voted for Andrew G. Curtin. I could not swear to that; I swear to the best of my knowledge only.

Q. If the person in whose principles you had such faith had placed the name of Seth H. Yocum upon that ticket for Congress, and had not informed you of Yocum's name being on it, but had left you under the impression that Curtin's name was on it, when it was not, could you, from any examination you made of the ticket, have detected the change?

—A. No, sir.

Direct examination:

Q. Who gave you your ticket?—A. Robert C. Quiggle.

S. M. McCORMICK,
Notary Public.

Depositions of witnesses produced, sworn or affirmed, and examined before S. M. McCormick, a notary public, in and for the county of Clinton and State of Pennsylvania, resident in the city of Lock Haven, in said twentieth Congressional district, at his office on Water street, in said city, on Friday, March 14, 1879, at 8 o'clock a. m., and by adjournments from time hereinafter particularly noted, to wit, March 15, 18, and 25, A. D. 1879, by virtue and in pursuance of contestee's notice, marked F, S. M. McC., N. P., hereto attached.

Met at 9 o'clock Friday morning, March 14th, 1879, pursuant to contestee's notice, marked F, S. M. McCormick, notary public.

H. T. Haney, esq., appears as counsel for contestee; T. C. Hipple, esq., appears as counsel for contestant.

C. H. McKEE, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation?—Answer. Charles H. McKee; I am 24 years of age; Lock Haven, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am an attorney at law.

Q. State whether you are acquainted with or have ever seen Harriet McLain, the mother of Add. or Addison McLain.—A. I have seen her and have talked with her once.

Q. When and where did you meet her?—A. About two weeks ago, at her house in Mill Hall.

Q. What persons were present?—A. When I met her at her door James T. Brown sat in the sleigh about 20 or 30 feet distant. There was no one else present at that time.

Q. Please state all that occurred during your interview with her.

(Objected to because the evident purpose is to prove statements of Harriet McLain made in a casual conversation concerning the age of her son, Add. McLain, which statements if made and testified to here by the witness would not be the best evidence in the case, and would not be in contradiction of any testimony by Harriet McLain, who is the best witness on the point of her son's age, and who is living, was subpoenaed on behalf of contestee, and was present to be examined, but was dismissed without being examined; under all which circumstances the evidence is manifestly irrelevant and immaterial.

Counsel for contestee denies that Harriet McLain was dismissed without being examined by himself or any one authorized to discharge witnesses; Harriet McLain was subpoenaed on part of contestee to be present on a day fixed, and of which notice was given to counsel for contestant. She did not appear on the day she was subpoenaed, and as attorney for contestee remembers, not until the second evening after she was subpoenaed to appear, the parties having dispersed and suspended the taking of testimony for that day. She was not then dismissed; the only thing said or done by counsel for contestee was to say to her son, Add. McLain, who came to his office between 4 and 5 o'clock when he was starting for his supper, that she should go to the gentleman's office who had issued the subpoena, Mr. S. M. McCormick, and he would tell her what to do.

Counsel for contestant requests commissioner to state whether the party, Mrs. McLain, appeared at his office, and what was said.

The commissioner replies that Mrs. Harriet McLain appeared at his office on March 6, 1879, between the hours of 4 and 5 o'clock p. m., and asked him what she should do. He does not remember the exact words in which he answered her, or her son, in her presence, but it was to the effect that she could go home, as she would not be examined that day.

A. When I met her I asked her if she was Mrs. Harriet McLain, and the mother of Add. McLain. She said she was. I told her that the object of my visit was to see her in reference to the age of Add. McLain, her son. I went with her into her house, and asked her if she had a family Bible in which there was a record of his age. She said that she did not, but that she had a paper that would show it. She then left the room and in a few minutes returned with this paper, which she handed me. She said that this paper contained his father's name and a record of his (Add. McLain's) birth, and that she had no other record than this of his age. I don't remember whether she asked me why I wanted the record, but I told her that the object was to learn whether or not Add. was old enough to vote at the last election. After mentioning that this was the purpose she grew angry and said that Abe Snyder was trying to make trouble about Add's having voted. I told her I would have to subpoena her as a witness to appear in Lock Haven and give her testimony in regard to Add's age. She said she would not come, and that nobody could bring her. I told her that I would have to subpoena her and request that she bring with her this paper containing a record of Add's age. I filled in a subpoena with her name with the request that she bring with her any records that might be in her possession in reference to Add's age. I read the subpoena to her. During the time I was reading it she again expressed herself in angry tones and said that she could not understand English. I handed her a copy of the subpoena I had read. She refused to take it. I offered her twenty (20) cents mileage in advance and she refused to take that. She said she would not come, and said if they came after her she would take to the mountains or set her big dog on them. When I read the subpoena to her containing the words, "To Harriet McLain, and that you bring with you your family Bible, containing the record of the age of Add. McLain, &c.," she said his name was not McLain; that his right name was Adam Sylvester Reninger; that his father's name was Samuel Reninger, the same name that appears in this "Taufschein." She stated that this boy was born before she was married. She said that his right name was Remiger, but they called him McLain. After her having stated in positive terms that she would not come in obedience to the subpoena I asked her if I could bring this "Taufschein" with me, and she at first denied me the privilege. James T. Brown and myself examined this "Taufschein" and tried to read it. The printed and written parts are in German and we had difficulty in making out portions other than names and dates. It was remarked that this record did not show Add to have been old enough to have been entitled to vote on November, 1878. Mrs. McLain then said that the paper was not right as to the dates. She was still angry and said that Abe Snyder was making this trouble. I asked her what he knew about Add's age. She then explained that he knew Add's age by the age of one of his children; that he had a daughter born before Add, and that Abe said, by his daughter's age, that Add was not old enough to vote. I have not pretended to give the exact words that were used, but have given the substance of that interview to the best of my recollection. Mrs. McLain was not an intelligent woman, and spoke broken English, and it would be impossible for me to narrate the threat she made, and her expressions made in anger.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestant:

Q. Have you not during this contest appeared and examined witnesses in behalf of the contestee and otherwise acted in his behalf?

(Objected to as irrelevant and immaterial.)

A. I have appeared and taken part in the examination of witnesses. I have otherwise acted in his behalf, too. I have not been employed by him directly. I have acted at the request of W. C. Kress, esq.

Q. Do you not know, and were you not informed, that on the day or about the day Harriet McLain was to appear as a witness that she was arrested and imprisoned in jail in Lock Haven, for a day or more, so that she was deprived of her liberty?

(Objected to as irrelevant.)

A. I can't say that I was so informed. I was told on the morning of the day that she was to appear that she was to be arrested during that day. I can't say of my own knowledge that she ever was arrested, or that I have been informed that she was placed in jail.

Q. Was it one of your objects in taking charge of the serving of that subpoena to see Mrs. McLain in person and ascertain what statements she would make on the point of her son's age; by object I mean were you so directed, or was that notion or thought in your mind?

(Objected to as irrelevant.)

A. My instructions were given to me hurriedly on the day on which Add. McLain was here called as a witness. My recollection is that H. T. Haney, esq., came to me and stated the portion of Add. McLain's testimony; that since the person who had been employed to serve subpoenas was that day out of town, and that he would like, if possible, for me to go to Mill Hall and subpoena W. W. Clark, the man whom Add. McLain had testified had given him the ticket which he had voted; also to subpoena Mr. McLain who was then supposed to be the father of Add. McLain, and requested me to bring his family record and to subpoena any of the neighbors who might be able to testify as to this boy's age. I cannot say positively whether it was contemplated that I should see Mrs. McLain; if it was I do not recollect it now.

Q. Did Mrs. McLain tell you when or where she got this paper, this record, as you call it?—A. She told me that she got a man to fill it in, and she said she got it a long time ago; that she had difficulty in fixing the date. A young lady who sat in the same room with her talked to her in my presence as to when this "Taufschein" was filled in. She (Mrs. McLain) spoke of its having been done before she lived at a certain place (I don't remember the name), and then counted how many years had elapsed since that time. There seemed to be an uncertainty about the count, so I helped in figuring it up, and we commenced by counting how many years she lived at Mill Hall (my recollection of that is that it was between four and five years); then add to that the number of years she had lived at the last residence before coming to Mill Hall. I don't remember the name of the place that she lived or the number of years she had lived there. There were a number of places she had lived at before coming to Mill Hall. She was uncertain in some instances to the years and fractional parts that she had lived at some of these places, but we counted back such times as she was certain of until we reached a place that she was certain she lived at least thirteen years ago. She was positive that this was filled in before that time, but was uncertain how long before.

Q. Did the young lady of whom you spoke converse with Mrs. McLain in English or German?—A. Both; her English was broken and her German was broken, too, so that I understood a part of it. When she spoke of years I had no difficulty in understanding it.

Q. Did you make any effort to obtain the name of this young lady, or subpoena her, so that she might testify as to those conversations?—A. No, sir; owing to the fact that she did not speak English well, and did not seem intelligent, I did not think she would be a satisfactory witness.

Direct examination resumed by H. T. HANEY, Esq., counsel for contestee.

(Paper referred to by witness as a "Taufschein" shown witness and identified by him as the same paper about which James T. Brown, a former witness, testified.)

Q. Is this the paper?—A. It is. At the time I received it I put a mark upon it, and I now identify the mark as well as the paper. It is the same paper that Harriet McLain handed to James T. Brown and myself as a record of Add. McLain's age.

C. H. McKEE.

GEORGE BROSIUS, being duly affirmed, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. George Brosius; I am 46 years of age; I live in Crawford Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am a mechanic.

Q. Are you the collector of State and county taxes for the township of Crawford for the years 1876, 1877, and 1878?—A. I am for the years 1876 and 1877, and, by proxy, for 1878. Jacob Stall is the collector for 1878, and he is getting pretty old and infirm, and he got me to do the collecting for him.

Q. Does the name of Samuel Wentzell appear upon your duplicates for the years 1876, 1877, and 1878; and, if so, has his taxes been paid for either year?—A. It appears upon the duplicates of 1876 and 1877, and it does not appear on the duplicate of 1878. I have an extra assessment list at home which I forgot to bring along with me this morning. I know that his name appears on that list. His taxes has not been paid for any of the years mentioned.

Q. Are you acquainted with Alfred Chatham? Does his name appear on your duplicates for the years 1876, 1877, and 1878; and, if so, has his taxes been paid for either year?—A. I am acquainted with Alfred Chatham. His name appears on my duplicates for those years; but his taxes have not been paid for any of those years.

Q. Have you had a conversation with Samuel Wentzel since the election, in which he told you for whom he had voted for member of Congress; and, if so, for whom did he tell you he had voted?

(Objected to because it is not the best evidence of which the case is susceptible, and because Samuel Wentzel himself should be first examined as to his qualifications as a voter; because it is irrelevant.)

A. I had a conversation with him yesterday afternoon. He told me he had voted for Mr. Curtin for member of Congress.

Q. Have you had a conversation or conversations with Alfred Chatham since the election in which he told you, or in which you heard him say, for whom he had voted for member of Congress; and, if so, for whom did he say he had voted?

(Objected to for the reason that Alfred Chatham himself, if able to be subpoenaed, should be called upon the witness-stand and questioned upon this point. That the testimony sought to be adduced might be competent to contradict Chatham if under oath he denied that he had voted for Curtin, but without such denial or refusal to appear being shown, the question is irrelevant and improper.)

A. I have had no conversations with him since the election. I never heard him say for whom he had voted for member of Congress.

Q. Did you hear him say for whom he intended to vote?

(Objected to as irrelevant, no time being stated; no pretense of the intentions of the witness having been carried out, and no proof on the question raised in any possible manner.)

A. I heard him say that he intended to vote for Andrew G. Curtin.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestant:

Q. Are you the person named by the commissioners of Clinton County as collector of State and county taxes for Crawford Township, Clinton County, for 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. How did you become collector, or "proxy," as you termed it?—A. Mr. Stall requested me to do it for him, as he thought he could not do it himself on account of age and infirmity.

Q. When did the duplicate for 1878 come into Mr. Stall's hands?—A. I can't say exactly. My impression is that it was about September or October, 1878. I mean that at that time it came into my hands. I do not know when it came into his hands.

Q. Do you pretend to be able to state under oath, and of your own knowledge, as to who did or did not pay taxes to Mr. Stall?—A. No; I can't. There was nothing on the books to show payments by any one when they came into my hands. I could only judge from the books.

Q. Then if Mr. Stall had received taxes and had not marked the proper credits, would you know of such payments?—A. I would not know unless the parties whom I notified had told me that they had paid them; but no one told me that they had made any payments.

Q. If any payment had been made to Mr. Stall even while the duplicate was in your hands, and Mr. Stall failed to tell you of the payment, could you state, or know, that such payment had not been made?—A. I could not.

Q. Has Mr. Stall lived in Crawford Township since you undertook to collect for him?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. You have mentioned the duplicates for State and county tax for Crawford Township for 1876, 1877, and 1878, and have spoken of names appearing there. Have you those duplicates here?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do the names of George S. Sheadle and George W. Sheadle appear on your duplicate?

(Objected to as not proper cross-examination.)

A. Yes, there is a George S. Sheadle and a George W. Sheadle.

Q. Has either of them paid a State or county tax for the years 1876, 1877, 1878?

(Objected to as improper cross-examination ; and at this point, H. T. Haney, esq., counsel for contestee, protests against this irregular and unprofessional cross-examination of contestee's witnesses, and demands that the notary shall now decide whether or not such testimony shall be taken against the protest of contestee's attorney.

T. C. Hipple, counsel for contestant, states that the notary public cannot, under any pretense, or any known law, be considered a judicial officer ; that the committee of Congress will be the tribunal to decide whether cross-examination is proper or professional ; that if the notary public undertakes to rule any questions of law in this case or to control counsel in the examination of witnesses, or to pass upon the relevancy or irrelevancy of any evidence offered, he is requested to state in writing the grounds upon which he rules, and the grounds upon which he undertakes to pass upon the question belonging to a tribunal created by law to pass upon it.

The notary public, or commissioner, is of the opinion that as he is appointed merely to take the testimony of the witnesses, he is not to judge as to the relevancy or irrelevancy of matters appearing before him, and he therefore declines to do so.

H. T. Haney, esq., counsel for contestee, here notifies the notary public, and attorney for contestant, that he desires to and hereby does, withdraw the witness from the witness-stand, and so notifies the witness that so far as the attorney for the contestee is concerned, he is dismissed from further testifying, and is instructed that he need answer no more questions.

T. C. Hipple, counsel for contestant, asks counsel for contestee whether or not by the withdrawal of the witness he intends that the testimony given by the witness shall be expunged the same as if the witness had not testified. If the counsel for contestee states that he withdraws all the testimony given by this witness, counsel for contestant has no further cross-examination ; but unless counsel for contestee does so state in order that the notary public may know what disposition he may make of the testimony of this witness already written, counsel for contestant claims the right to continue his cross-examination, leaving the question of its relevancy or propriety to be judged by a proper tribunal.

(Counsel for contestee maintains silence.)

A. George S. Sheadle has not paid any, but George W. Sheadle has.

Q. Do the names of William L. Sheadle, Martin Thomas, and Peter Irwin appear upon the duplicates for 1876, 1877, and 1878 ?

(Objected to. Same objections, rulings, directions, &c., as to other question.)

A. William Sheadle's name does not appear on the duplicate of 1876. It appears on the duplicate for 1877. I do not think his name is on 1878. He did not pay State and county taxes for 1877. He was not in the county in 1876 and 1878 ; he was in Lycoming County. Martin Thomas's name is on all the duplicates, but there are no taxes paid for any of the years. Peter Irwin's name is on all the duplicates, but he has paid no taxes for any of the years.

Q. When did you have your conversation with A. C. Chatham about how he intended to vote ?—A. I think it was a day or two after the Greenback meeting in Crawford Township, when Mr. Yocum spoke. I do not know how long that was before the election.

Q. Can you state how long this was before the election ?—A. I cannot.

Q. Where did you have your conversation with Samuel Wenzel as to how he had voted?—A. At my house.

Q. Did either Peter Irwin, George S. Sheadle, Martin Thomas, or William L. Sheadle, tell you or say in your hearing before the election for whom they intended to vote for Member of Congress; or, since the election, for whom they had voted for Member of Congress?

(Objected to as irrelevant and immaterial.)

A. George S. Sheadle told me prior to the election that he intended to vote for Yocum, but not since the election. Peter Irwin told me prior to the election that he was going to vote for Yocum. Martin Thomas said before the election that he was going to vote for Curtin. I did not hear William L. Sheadle express himself in any way.

GEO. BROSIUS.

Continued to Saturday morning, March 15, 1879, at 9 o'clock.

Met on Saturday morning, March 15, 1879, at 9 o'clock, pursuant to adjournment.

H. T. Haney, esq., appears as counsel for contestee; T. C. Hipple, esq., appears as counsel for contestant.

GEORGE W. BATCHELER recalled by H. T. HANEY, Esq., counsel for contestee.

Question. Have you here with you the election returns, including the poll list, oaths of officers, affidavits of electors, and duplicate election return sheets, so far as the same relates to the summary of the vote for Member of Congress, as contained in said election returns for the election held on the 5th day of November, 1878, for the following election districts: Renovo Borough, Chapman Township, Grugan Township, Noyes Township, Lock Haven, second ward; Lock Haven, fourth ward; Greene Township, Pine Creek Township, Wayne Township, Gallagher Township, Beech Creek Township, Logan Township, Logansville Borough, Crawford Township, and Castanea Township?—Answer. I have.

Q. Have you made copies of them?—A. I have made true and correct copies of the poll list, oaths of election officers, affidavits of voters, and triplicate return sheets, so far as relates to the returns for Member of Congress, for the election held November 5, 1878, so far as they were returned to my office for the following election districts in Clinton County: Renovo Borough, Chapman Township, Noyes Township, Beech Creek Township, Gallagher Township, Wayne Township, and fourth ward of the city of Lock Haven. I have made true and correct copies of the poll lists, oaths of election officers, and triplicate return sheets, so far as it relates to votes cast for Member of Congress, for the election held November 5, 1878, for the following election districts in Clinton County: Grugan Township, Castanea Township, Logan Township, Crawford Township, Greene Township, Pine Creek Township, second ward of the city of Lock Haven, and the borough of Logansville. I did not attach the oaths of electors in the last above-named townships and districts, because there were none returned to my office. H. T. Haney, esq., counsel for contestee, offers exhibits Nos. 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, and 24, in evidence.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestant:

Q. Who made out these exhibits?—A. Oscar S. Houtz made almost all the exhibits; a Mr. Larkins made a few copies of the oaths of election officers. I am satisfied that they are true and correct copies as I have certified them to be.

G. W. BATCHELOR.

The election returns for Beech Creek Township are offered by H. T. Haney, esq., counsel for contestee, among other purposes, in connection with the sheriff's proclamation for the purpose of showing that the election was not held at the place designated in said proclamation, and was not in accordance with the laws of this commonwealth.

DAVID HOLLER, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. David Holler; I am 60 years of age; I live in Castanea Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am a brewer.

Q. Have you a wife and family?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where are your wife and children?—A. One of my children is here in Lock Haven, one boy is in Gallagher Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I don't know of my wife and other child for a year, but then they were in Bellefonte, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote at the election held November 5, 1878, in the election district of Castanea Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who gave you your ticket?—A. Charles Fabel.

Q. Did he read it to you, and was the name of Andrew G. Curtin upon your ticket?

(Objected to because the witness has not been shown to lack any of the qualifications of a legal voter, and until the vote is shown to be illegal, a voter cannot properly and should not be compelled to disclose for whom he had voted.)

A. He read the ticket to me, and the name of Andrew G. Curtin was upon the ticket, and I voted for him.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq.:

Q. When did you go Castanea Township to live?—A. I went there in May, 1878.

Q. How long has it been since you and your wife lived together?—A. Two years and nine months.

Q. How long is it since you have heard of her and the child that was with her?—A. One year.

Q. At what have you worked in Castanea Township since you went there; with whom did you board and lodge, and where did you have your washing done?—A. I worked at brewing since I have been there; I boarded and lodged with Charles Fabel, for whom I worked; I had my washing done by Charles Fabel.

Q. When you went to Castanea Township in May, 1878, did you go with the intention of remaining there and of making that your home, and have you ever since remained there and considered that your home?—A. I went there at that time with the intention of making that my home; I have ever since remained there and considered it my home.

Q. The name David Holler appears on the registry-list of Castanea Township, and the name David Holland appears on the poll-list of the election of November 5, 1878 in that township; do you know of any other person in Castanea Township than yourself having either of the above names, and are you the person intended in both instances?—A. It is intended for me in both cases; no other person of that name is in the township except myself.

DAVID HOLLER.

H. T. Haney, esq., appears for contestee; T. C. Hipple, esq., appears for contestant.

WILLIAM H. SMITH, being duly sworn, deposed as follows:

Question. You are the same William H. Smith who was called by the contestant, and who testified that you were clerk to the commissioners of Clinton County, are you?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you here with you the original registry-lists, as the same are on file in the office of the commissioners of Clinton County, of the taxable citizens of the following townships, wards, and boroughs in said county for the year 1878, to wit: Danstable Township, Woodward Township, Chapman Township, Grugau Township, Noyes Township, Greene Township, Pine Creek Township, Wayne Township, Gallagher Township, Beech Creek Township, Logan Township, Crawford Township, Castanea Township, Renovo Borough, Logansville Borough, second ward of the city of Lock Haven, and fourth ward of the city of Lock Haven?—A. I have.

Q. Have you made true and correct copies of each of the said registry-lists, and have you attached to each of them a certificate, signed by you as the clerk of the commissioners of Clinton County, certifying under the seal of said office that said lists are true and correct copies of said registry-lists?—A. I did not make these copies; I certified that they are true copies of those registry-lists.

Q. Did you carefully compare each of the said copies with the original, and did you find said copy to be a true and correct copy of the original before you attached your certificate and seal of the commissioners' office of Clinton County?—A. With the assistance of others, I compared the copies so as to satisfy myself that they are true copies of the originals.

Q. Have you authority from the commissioners of Clinton County to use the seal of the said county in connection with your signature and certificate as clerk to said commissioners in attestation of the correctness of the copies you have made?—A. I believe I have; they authorized me to make certificates of these copies, and I understood that I had authority to use the seal. I thought that was embraced in my directions, though I can't say that that was specified particularly.

Q. Are these the copies?—A. Yes, sir.

Exhibit No. 25 is a certified copy of the registry lists of Beech Creek Township, Pine Creek Township, Noyes Township, and Logansville Borough.

Exhibit No. 26 contains certified copies of the registry lists of Chapman Township, Crawford Township, Gallagher Township, and Greene Township.

Exhibit No. 27 contains certified copies of the registry lists of Castanea Township, Dunstable Township, Wayne Township, Woodward Township, and Grugan Township.

Exhibit No. 28 contains certified copies of the registry lists of the second ward of the city of Lock Haven and the fourth ward of the city of Lock Haven.

Exhibit No. 29 is a certified copy of the registry list of Logan Township.

Exhibit No. 30 is a certified copy of the registry list of Renovo Borough.

(H. T. Haney, counsel for contestee, offers Exhibits Nos. 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, and 30 in evidence.)

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestant:

Q. Who made out these copies for you?—A. Mr. Oscar S. Houtz and Mr. Edward Larkins, both of this city.

Q. Did you make any of them yourself?—A. I did not; if the name was omitted, I wrote the name in.

Q. Please state how you compared them?—A. Mr. Houtz read the original and I looked over the copy, and then Mr. Dauer read the copy and I looked over the original.

Q. Did you make particular notes of all the marks and other designations in the books?—A. I tried to see that they were true copies.

Q. When did you make these certificates and attach them to these copies?—A. I made a part of them March 24, 1879, and some of them this morning (March 25, 1879).

Q. When did you first begin to compare these copies?—A. I can't tell exactly; I think as much as two weeks ago.

Q. Did you, when you came to certify these copies, make a fresh comparison of those you had compared about two weeks ago?—A. I did not; those that we compared about two weeks ago we compared a second time about last Thursday. The second comparison was commenced about last Thursday or Friday.

Q. Have you any personal knowledge as to the correctness of the contents of these books other than that they are the books you found in your office at the time you were called upon by the contestee to make certified copies of them; and is there any other record of them in the office except the books or lists themselves?—A. I have no personal knowledge as to the correctness of the contents of these books, other than they were in my office. There is no other record of them kept in our office except the books or lists themselves.

Q. By whom were the books made up and returned to the commissioners' office?—A. I suppose by the assessors of their respective districts. These books are given to the assessors in blank, and they are sent to the office or returned to the office by the assessors themselves, filled up.

Q. Are you able to name the assessors for the different districts who made up these books, and can you state the dates on which they were respectively returned?—A. I cannot name the dates at which these lists were respectively returned. I suppose I could name the assessors if I could take time to think them up.

Q. Then all you profess to know about these registry-lists or books of your personal knowledge is the fact that they are on file in the office of the commissioners of Clinton County; I mean your personal knowledge as to the correctness of their contents?—A. That is all. They are there just as the other registry-lists of the county are.

WM. H. SMITH.

MICHAEL FETTERHOOF, being duly sworn, deposes as follows :

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—A. Michael Fetterhoof; I am 40 years of age; I live in Logansville Borough, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am a shoemaker.

Q. Are you the collector of State and county taxes for the borough of Logansville, in Clinton County, for the years 1877 and 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you your duplicates here with you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Please refer to your duplicates and state whether or not the taxes of George A. Achenbach, D. M. Brumgard, James L. Cole, Edson Dow, William Goodman, J. J. Herlacher, Joseph Kleckner, Isway Carstetter, Jonathan Moyer, Peter Rishel, Isaac C. Smith have been paid.—A. George A. Achenbach gave me a borough order. I asked him for his borough tax, when he gave me a borough order. He had not the borough order with him then. I accepted it, however, and the balance was to be applied on his other taxes.

Q. Did you ever receive the borough order?—A. Yes, sir; he gave it to me some time afterwards.

Q. When did he give you the borough order?—A. To the best of my knowledge it was in August, 1878.

Q. How much was it?—A. Two dollars.

Q. How much were his borough taxes?—A. His borough tax was 15 cents.

Q. How much of the borough order were you to apply to the taxes of Cathain Achenbach?—A. Seventy-two cents I think.

Q. Was the balance of the borough order that you speak of to be applied to the payment of Cathain Achenbach's county tax, or to George A. Achenbach's, or was there anything said at the time how you should apply it?—A. To my recollection he said I should apply it to his other taxes.

Q. You have made no application of the balance, have you?—A. I applied the balance of the order on his road tax.

Q. Has D. M. Brumgard paid his taxes for either year?—A. No, sir.

Q. Has James L. Cole paid his taxes?—A. He has paid $3.33 on a tax of $4.44. That was paid the last of August, 1878.

Q. Has Edson Dow paid his taxes?—A. No, sir.

Q. Has William Goodman paid his taxes?—A. No, sir.

Q. Has J. J. Herlacher paid his taxes?—A. He has paid his tax for 1877. He paid it in 1877.

Q. Has Joseph Kleckner paid his taxes?—A. No, sir. He paid five dollars on the taxes of John Kleckner, or tenant.

Q. Has Isway Carstetter paid his taxes?—A. No, sir; he has not.

Q. Has Jonathan Moyer paid his taxes?—A. No, sir.

Q. Has Peter Rishel paid his taxes?—A. He has paid $3 on a tax of $3.17. He has paid his taxes in full. The $3 he paid a good while ago—in the spring of 1878, I think—and the balance of 17 cents he has paid since the election, a couple of months ago.

Q. Has Isaac C. Smith's taxes been paid?—A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestant:

Q. You have stated that at one time, early in 1878, you called upon George A. Achenbach for his borough tax (15 cents); that he told you he had a borough order of $2, out of which he would pay the borough tax and apply the balance on his other taxes; that you accepted the order and got it afterwards, in August, 1878. When was it that you had this first conversation with Achenbach?—A. It was early in May, 1878.

Q. State what George A. Achenbach's State and county tax was for 1877; also what it was for 1878.—A. His county tax was 75 cents for 1877; no State tax. For 1878 his county was 60 cents, and no State tax.

Q. Have you the road duplicate here for 1877 for the borough of Logansville?—A. Yes, sir. The road duplicate for 1878 came into my hands after this transaction with Achenbach.

Q. Examine your road duplicate for 1877, and state the amount of George A. Achenbach's road-tax for that year.—A. Forty-five cents.

Q. Does that stand marked as paid or unpaid on your duplicate?—A. It stands unpaid.

Q. Did you, then, in your examination-in-chief intend to state that you had taken the balance of that borough order and applied it to George A. Achenbach's road-tax?—A. On the road-tax of that property and his road-tax—I mean that property where he lives, assessed in Catharine Achenbach's name.

Q. Opposite whose name in your road duplicate is there marked a credit of the balance of the borough order?—A. It is marked opposite the name of Catharine Achenbach. The amount of the balance is $1.13. Her whole road-tax was $2.16.

Q. Please examine your State and county duplicates for 1877 and 1878, and state whether or not the following names appear therein; and, if so, whether their taxes are paid in whole or in part for the said years, viz: Jesse M. Adams, James F. Berry, Wade Banum, John A. Heller, Henry Wirth, Samuel Wolfert, George B. Yeager, Jonathan Benersox, John Berry, F. G. Berry, C. W. Couser, William Decker, Jeremiah Fidler, John Heller, sr., Emanuel Heller, Robert Carstetter, Henry Wren, John E. Weise.

(Same objection as to the testimony of John Simcox, tax-collector of Wayne Township, Clinton County.)

A. Jesse M. Adams's name appears on both duplicates; taxes not paid on either duplicate. James F. Berry's name appears on both duplicates. His county tax is $11.17 on duplicate of 1877, and his State tax for the same time is 10 cents. He has paid $5.50; he has paid it since November 5, 1878. His taxes for 1878 are not paid. Wade Banum's name appears on my duplicates. His taxes are not paid for either 1877 or 1878. John A. Heller's name appears on my duplicate. His taxes are not paid in either year. Henry Wirth's name appears on my duplicates. His taxes in 1877 were: county, $4.70; and State, 20 cents. On that he has paid $3. He paid that two or three weeks ago. His taxes for 1878 are not paid. Samuel Wolfert's name appears on my duplicates. His taxes for 1877 were paid since the election of November 5, 1878. His taxes for 1878 are not paid. George B. Yeager's name appears on my duplicates. His taxes for 1877 and 1878 have not been paid. Jonathan Bower's county tax for 1877 was $2.95. He has paid $1.91. He paid 41 cents of this before the election and $1.50 since the election. His tax for 1878 has not been paid. John Berry's tax has not been paid for either year. F. G. Berry's tax has not been paid for either year. Charles W. Couser's county tax for 1877 was $2.70, and his State tax was 75 cents. He paid 75 cents, to the best of my knowledge, after the election. His taxes for 1878 have not been paid. William Decker's taxes for either year have not been paid. Jeremiah Fidler's taxes for either year have not been paid. John Heller, sr., county tax for 1877 is $4.05, and State tax 10 cents. He has paid $2.90. He paid this amount in September, 1877, some time, I think. He has paid nothing in 1878. Emanuel Heller's county taxes in 1877 are $5.15, and he paid on that $2; no State tax. He paid that since the election of November 5, 1878. His taxes for 1878 have not been paid. Robert Carstetter's taxes for either year have not been paid. John E. Wise's county tax for 1877 is $3.58, and no State tax. He paid on that $3.37. To the best of my knowledge, he paid that before October 5, 1878. His taxes for 1878 have not been paid.

Q. You stated that Joseph Kleckner had paid you $5; state when that payment was made.—A. I think it was some time in August, 1878; and this I applied on the Logan House tax, of which house Joseph Kleckner was a tenant.

Q. Did Joseph Kleckner have at that time an individual tax, State or county, assessed against him in your duplicate of 1877? If so, give the amount.—A. He had a county tax of $2.85. He had a county tax in 1878 of $2.16.

Q. Where did you receive this $5 from Joseph Kleckner?—A. In the Logan House, in Logansville Borough. I don't think I gave him a receipt. John and Joseph Kleckner, after this payment, both told me that Joseph Kleckner was responsible for the payment of this tax.

Direct examination resumed by H. T. HANEY, Esq.:

Q. Did he pay you this tax to apply on the property to which you applied the tax?—A. I don't remember whether there was anything mentioned.

Q. Is David Ludwig's name on your duplicate?—A. Yes, sir; his name appears on 1877 duplicate, but not on 1878.

Q. Have his taxes been paid on either of your duplicates?—A. His taxes for 1877 have not been paid, and he is not on my duplicate for 1878. His tax was a county tax of 50 cents; there was no State tax.

Q. If this conversation with John and Joseph Kleckner was after the tax was paid, how did you come to call upon Joseph Kleckner for it, or credit it to the tax of John Kleckner or tenant?—A. John Kleckner or tenant is assessed with it, and on that ground I credited the tax to John Kleckner.

Recross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq.:

Q. State whether or not David Ludwig worked for you in 1878, cutting corn, or some other farm labor. If so, how long?—A. He worked for me one day in 1878.

Q. What were you to pay him for that day's labor?—A. There was no bargain made for it.

Q. State what the ruling price was then.—A. As near as I can tell, it was 50 cents a day.

Q. State what David Ludwig's State and county tax was for 1877.—A. His county tax was 50 cents; no State tax.

Q. Have you ever paid Ludwig?—A. Not yet.

Q. Shortly after this work was done, did David Ludwig tell you to square his county taxes with that day's wages; did you agree to do so, and did you afterwards, since the election, tell him that it had been fixed according to that arrangement?—A. I don't remember that he told me to square his county taxes; I can't remember, but to the best of my knowledge I did lately. He spoke to me the other evening about it, since he was subpoenaed, and I told him I would.

Q. Are you able to say that you did not, shortly after this work was done, at his request, agree to pay his county taxes with these wages?—A. Not that I remember of. I can't say that I did not, but I don't remember that I did.

Q. Where did Joseph and John Kleckner say to you that Joseph

Kleckner was responsible for the tax of the Logan House? Were they together, and did they say it was by contract, or that Joseph, being the tenant, could be made to pay taxes?—A. John Kleckner told me on the street, opposite Cole's Hotel. Joseph was not there. They had an article of agreement to that effect.

Q. Where did Joseph tell you, then?—A. Joseph told me that he was responsible for it. On the strength of that I applied this money to those taxes.

MICHAEL FETTERHOOF.

Continued to Tuesday, March 18, 1879.

Tuesday, met pursuant to adjournment.

H. T. Haney, esq., appears for contestee; T. C. Hipple, esq., and T. T. Abrams, esq., appear for contestant.

HENRY KARSTETTER, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. What is your name, age, residence, and occupation?—Answer. Henry Karstetter. I am thirty-two years of age. I live in Logansville Borough, Clinton County, Pennsylvania. I am a blacksmith.

Q. Have you paid State and county taxes within two years previous to November 5, 1878; if so, when did you pay it, how much did you pay, and to whom?—A. I don't remember that I have paid State tax. I paid the county tax for 1876 since the election of November 5, 1878. I paid it to D. M. Morris, collector of county taxes of Logansville Borough, in place of Robert Kleckner, who was collector of said taxes for said borough, and who is now deceased. I paid Mr. Morris $3.70.

Q. Have you paid State or county tax within two years previous to November 5, 1878; and, if so, to whom did you pay it?—A. I have. I have paid $2 on the 1877 tax to Michael Fetterhoof. I cannot tell the exact date, but I think it was in 1878. It must have been five or six months before the election. I cannot tell exactly, as I did not get a receipt. My county tax for that year was $3.45. I do not know of paying any State tax.

Q. Did you pay any other State and county tax within that time?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you vote at the election held November 5, 1878, in the election district of Logansville Borough, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; if so, did you vote for member of Congress, and, if so, for whom did you vote?—A. I voted at that election in Logansville Borough. I voted for Andrew G. Curtin for member of Congress.

Cross-examined by T. T. ABRAMS, Esq.:

Q. You paid then $2 out of $3.75 county tax, some five or six months before November 5, 1878, did you?—A. Yes, sir.

HENRY KARSTETTER.

JOHN GASTING, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence and occupation?—Answer. John Gasting; I am 49 years of age; I live in Logansville Borough, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am a potter.

Q. Have you paid State or county taxes at any time previous to the election of November 5, 1878, and within two years. If so, to whom did you pay it, and how much?—A. I paid $2 on the tax of 1877, to Michael Fetterhoof, last spring, 1878. I had a State tax; I cannot say how much.

My county tax and State tax was $4. I have a receipt, but I left it at home.

Q. Have you paid any other county or State tax within two years previous to November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I paid some tax to Robert Kleckuer; I paid all my 1876 and 1877 taxes, and last spring I paid two dollars on my 1878 tax.

JOHN GASTING.

GEORGE A. ACHENBACH, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence and occupation?—Answer. George A. Achenbach; I am 64 years of age; I live in Logansville Borough, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am an insurance agent.

Q. Have you paid State or county taxes within two years previous to November 5, 1878; if so, to whom did you pay it, and when and how much?—A. I have paid State and county taxes within that time to Michael Fetterhoof. My county tax of 1877 and 1878 were $1.35.

Q. How did you pay Michael Fetterhoof the $1.35?—A. In the spring of 1878, Michael Fetterhoof was collector of borough tax. He met me in Isaac Smith's store, along with others, and asked myself and the others for our borough tax. It was a money borough tax. After telling us what our taxes were, he told me my borough tax was fifteen cents. I then told him that I had a borough order for $2, and if he would give me the balance I would pay my borough tax. He said he had not collected money enough yet to do that, as he had just started out. I told him that I would give him the order, and he should apply it on my other taxes, he having the county duplicates of 1877 and 1878.

Q. Do you not know that Michael Fetterhoof did not have the collection of the county and State taxes for the year 1878, in the spring of that year when you say you asked him to take that order?—A. I knew he was collector of 1878.

Q. Then you say that in the spring of 1878, at the time you say you had this conversation, Michael Fetterhoof was the collector of county taxes for the borough of Logansville, for the year 1878?

(Objected to as irrelevant; it appearing in evidence from Michael Fetterhoof's own testimony that he was collector for 1877, and that he became the collector for 1878 as soon as the duplicates were made out; it being immaterial whether the duplicates came into his hands at that time or not.)

A. I am not so clear on that as to whether he had the duplicate of 1878 at that time or not.

Q. Who is Catharine Achenbach?—A. My wife.

Q. Are you not in the habit of paying the taxes assessed on her property?—A. Yes, I do her business for her.

Q. At the time that you told Fetterhoof you would give him the order for two dollars, or at the time you did give it to him, did you specially say to him, that the $2 order was to apply on George A. Achenbach's county taxes, or did you give it to him with the general instruction that it was to apply on taxes?—A. I told him it was to apply on my taxes.

Q. If at the time you gave him this order you owed him but fifteen cents borough taxes, and 60 or 75 cents county tax, how could he apply the whole of the two-dollar order on George A. Achenbach's tax.

(Objected to as irrelevant. Michael Fetterhoof, himself, the collector, being yesterday on the witness-stand stated the items of George A. Achenbach's taxes, being a road tax of 45 cents in addition to his county taxes, and there being nothing in all that has been testified to in reference to the transaction inconsistent with the returning to Achenbach of the balance of the order, if any remain.

Counsel for contestee requests the notary to note that the objection above made is not in accordance with the facts as testified by Michael Fetterhoof; he having testified that he had received said order to apply on the local or road taxes of Logansville Borough, and that he had applied the same in accordance therewith to the road and borough tax of George A. Achenbach, and the balance to the tax of Catharine Achenbach, wife of George A. Achenbach.

Counsel for contestant requests the notary public to turn to the testimony of Michael Fetterhoof, and to note whether the testimony of Michael Fetterhoof is as alleged by the counsel for the contestee in his above request.

The notary public replies that the following words were used by Michael Fetterhoof in reply to a question by counsel for contestee: "George A. Achenbach, gave me a borough order. I asked him for his borough taxes when he gave me a borough order. I accepted it, however, and the balance was to be applied to his other taxes."

A. He might apply it on all my taxes, and if it overpaid my taxes, let him return me the balance; that was my idea of it.

Q. Do you say that he had no right to apply any portion of that order to the taxes of Catharine Achenbach?—A. No, he had not; for he had no orders to that effect.

Q. Did it ever occur to you, until you were subpoenaed in this case, that your county taxes to Michael Fetterhoof had been paid by an order on the borough of Logansville, given to him at a time when you and Catharine Achenbach, whose taxes you paid, were owing more local taxes than would consume the two dollar order, and did you ever until you were subpoenaed in this case inquire of Michael Fetterhoof what application he had made of the two dollar order?—A. It was my idea that it would apply on my two taxes—county tax of 1877 and 1878—as they were the two highest taxes against me. I never inquired of Michael Fetterhoof what application he had made of this two dollar order until after I was subpoenaed in this case.

Q. Did you vote at the election held November 5, 1878, in the election district of Logansville Borough, Clinton County, Pennsylvania? If so, did you vote for member of Congress; and, if so, for whom did you vote?

(Objected to, because the witness has not been shown to lack any of the qualifications of a legal voter.)

A. I voted at that election in that election district. I voted for Andrew G. Curtin for member of Congress.

GEO. A. ACHENBACH.

Cross-examined by counsel for contestant:

Q. How long after he got the duplicate was it that you were appointed by your father to collect the taxes?—A. About a month afterward.

Q. If your father had received taxes from any party during that month that the duplicate was in his hands, or since then, and had not informed you of the payment, or had not marked the credit in the duplicate, would you be able to tell or swear that such taxes had not been paid?—A. No, sir; I couldn't swear to that.

Toner, Robert H. Williams, John Hoyt, Nelson Clendennin, James Q. Dice, Joseph R. Fredericks, and Jacob Stamm, appear upon your duplicate. If so, are their taxes paid, either in whole or in part; were any of them paid by third parties? If so, state by whom.

(H. T. Haney, esq., counsel for contestee, objects for same reasons assigned to the cross-examination of George Brains, collector of taxes for the township of Crawford; and further, that it is immaterial in this stage of the contestant's case who had paid taxes and who had not, of electors who had voted for Seth H. Yocum, as the contestant cannot introduce any such testimony, either on cross-examination or in rebuttal; the evident purpose of this cross-examination being to pave the way for the introduction of testimony in rebuttal which can only be legally introduced as the part of the contestant's case in chief.)

A. The name of Thomas Cupp, sr., appears on my duplicate, and his taxes are not paid. John Cable's name appears, but his taxes are paid; can't tell whether they were paid by himself or a Mr. Miller. Williams's name appears; his taxes are not paid. John Hoyt's name appears; his taxes are not paid. Nelson Clendennin's name appears on the extra assessment; but his taxes are not paid. James M. Dice's name appears on the extra assessment, but it should be and is intended for James Q. Dice; his taxes were paid only a few days since. Joseph R. Fredericks's name appears; but his taxes are not paid. Jacob Stamm's name appears; his taxes are not paid.

Q. Do you know anything more about the payment of Victor Fabinger's taxes than what your brother Robert N. McKague told you?—A. No, sir.

JOHN C. McKAGE.

Q. Are you the collector of State and county taxes for the township of Wayne, in the county of Clinton, for the year 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you here with you the duplicate containing the names of the taxable citizens of Wayne Township and the amount of the taxes assessed against each?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Please refer to your duplicate and state if the taxes of Samuel Cable have been paid, or any part thereof, how much his taxes are, and how much has been paid.—A. His taxes were 65 cents and he paid 35 cents.

Q. Have the taxes of Wm. M. Quiggle been paid; and, if so, when were they paid?—A. They have not been paid.

Q. Have the taxes of Peter Miller been paid; and, if so, when were they paid?—A. The whole tax against him is $6.60; the amount he has paid on them is $1.01; it was paid in the fore part of summer of 1878; I can't say exactly when.

Q. Have the taxes of Joseph McKague been paid?—A. He has paid the amount $14.29 since the election of November 5, 1878.

Q. Have the taxes of Cornelius McKague been paid?—A. Yes, sir; they were paid in fore part of summer of 1877 or 1878; they were paid before the election of November 5, 1878.

Cross-examined by counsel for contestant:

Q. Please refer to your duplicate and state whether or not there appear therein the names of Thomas Cupps, sr., John Cable, William Chatham, John Q. Dice, James Pipes, George Ritter, Joseph Simcox, Thomas Shortlidge, Benjamin F. Toner, Robert H. Williams, John Hoyt, Nelson Clendennin, James Q. Dice, Joseph R. Fredericks, and Jacob Slatter appear upon your duplicate; if so, are their taxes paid, either in whole or in part? Were any of them paid by third parties? If so, state by whom.

(H. T. Haney, esq., counsel for contestee, objects for the same reasons assigned to the cross-examination of John C. McKague, and because contestant in his notice of contest containing charges and specifications gave no notice of his purpose to contest the election held for the election district of Wayne Township either on account of fraud, irregularity, or for any other cause, said charges and specifications being silent as to the election held in Wayne Township.)

A. Thomas Cupp's, sr., name appears; his taxes were paid October 7, 1876. John Cable's name appears; his taxes were paid October 7, 1876. Wm. Chatham's name appears; his taxes amount to $4.60; there was 50 cents paid by Joseph R. Fredericks before October 5, 1876, for him. John Q. Dice's name appears; his taxes was paid December 19, 1878. Dice's name appears; his tax was paid October 2, 1876. Joseph R. Fredericks's name appears; his county tax is $8.71, State 40 cents; he paid $5.83, I think; this was paid in time for him to get a vote at the election of November 5, 1878. Jacob Stamm's name appears; his county tax was $24.78, no State tax; he paid at one time $5.40 and $17 at another time; I can't say when it was paid; some of it was paid before last fall.

JOHN SIMCOX.

JACOB QUIGGLE, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. Jacob Quiggle; I am about 57 years of age; I reside in Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am a farmer.

Q. Are you the collector of State and county taxes for Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania, for the year 1877?—A. Yes, sir; I was appointed. My son Crawford J. Quiggle has done all the collecting, or almost all of it.

Q. As the collector of State and county taxes for Wayne Township, did you receive any money from George M. Hoagland for the purpose of paying State and county taxes on your duplicates?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What month and what day of the month was it that you actually received the money from him?—A. I am not prepared to tell you more than that it was in time to secure these votes in 1878; I cannot say any more, for I cannot recollect the time.

Q. How much money did you receive from him, and for the payment of whose taxes was it given you?—A. I can't say how much, but it was the amount due to receive these receipts that my son gave him.

Q. What receipts did your son give him?—A. I am not prepared to say what receipts he gave him.

Q. Have you no idea of the amount of money you actually received, or for the payment of whose taxes it was given you?—A. It seems to me it might have been three, four, or five dollars. It was wrapped up in a paper.

Q. Did you count it?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you open the package?—A. No, sir.

Q. How do you know there was three, four, or five dollars in it?—A. I judged from the pile; there was some silver and a bill or two in it, I guess.

Q. How do you know there was a bill or two in it if it was wrapped up in a paper?—A. There did not appear to be silver enough to make that amount of money.

Q. To make what amount of money?—A. From three to five dollars, I believe I said.

Q. Then you speak of what Hoagland told you as to the amount of money that was in the paper, do you?—A. No, sir; he said the amount of money that was required was there. I do not know what amount was required.

Q. Then if you did not open the package, and do not speak from what Hoagland told you as to the amount, how can you tell anything about the amount of money you received?

(Objected to, because the witness has stated that Hoagland and his son, Crawford J. Quiggle, had calculated the amount of taxes to be paid and that he took no part in that, and simply received the money that was handed to him, and did not at the time count it or examine it.)

A. Through my son it was; through what he said.

Q. Do I understand you to say that your son told you how much it would require to pay the taxes of certain persons whose names he mentioned, and that Hoagland handed you the money after your son had told you the amount required?—A. My son told me that Hoagland was to pay taxes, and I received it. I suppose it to be from three to six dollars. It may have been more or it may have been less. Hoagland did not state the amount; he simply said that there was the amount and that I should give it to my son.

Q. Did you hand the money to your son?—A. No, sir; I do not think I did. I just put it in the duplicate and laid them up on the shelf, and when my son came home I told him that there was the money Hoagland paid me.

Q. Do you know whether the State and county taxes for the year

1877, on your duplicate, of William Connell, Samuel Cable, John G. Davis, jr., William McClure, Richard H. Quiggle, jr., Robert T. Quiggle, jr., Thomas G. Simcox, Wm. E. Lucas, Jacob B. Curtis, John W. Johnson, Washington McClure, Henry J. Snyder, Abraham Simcox, Peter Miller, Joseph M. Logan, Cornelius McKeague, and Victor Fabinger, have been paid, and, if so, which of them?—A. The only one I know about is Victor Fabinger; I know that he is paid.

Q. When and how did Victor Fabinger pay his tax?—A. I can't just tell you when, but some time in the fall of 1878, about seeding time; I got four pigs of him at $1 apiece, and I settled his taxes.

Q. At the time you got those pigs did you agree to settle his taxes?—A. No, sir; there was nothing said about it at that time.

Q. Have you made an actual settlement of Victor Fabinger's taxes upon the duplicate; and, if so, when was that settlement actually made, day and date?—A. I made an actual settlement with him, but I cannot tell the day and date. I ordered my son to give him a receipt. I do not know whether he gave it or not.

Q. Was that settlement not made since November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; not to my knowledge.

Q. Do you say that to the best of your knowledge and belief that it was before November 5, 1878, that you told your son to give Victor Fabinger a receipt for his taxes?—A. I could not say when it was. I cannot fix any time at all.

Q. Do you not know that the payment of Victor Fabinger's taxes, out of the proceeds of the pigs which you bought from him, was never spoken of by either of you until since the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I can't say a single thing about it; I don't know.

Q. Why is it that your memory serves you so well as to the time that you purchased the pigs, and you cannot tell within months as to the time when you settled for them?—A. I remember getting the pigs about the time I spoke of; the settlement was made shortly afterwards in the fall, but I do not know how long after; but I ordered my son to give him a receipt; the receipt will show for itself.

Q. How much did the pigs come to?—A. I paid $1 apiece for them.

Q. Do you not know that you made a settlement with Victor Fabinger since the election of November 5, 1878, in which he gave you in money a balance of about $1, and did you not give him a receipt dated back?—A. No, sir; I answer that to all the questions.

Adjourned to meet at 1.30 p. m.

Met at 1.30 p. m. in pursuance of adjournment.

H. T. Haney, esq., appears as counsel for contestee; T. C. Hipple, esq., appears as counsel for contestant.

JACOB QUIGGLE the witness on the stand.

Q. Then do I understand you to say, under oath, that you cannot tell whether your settlement with Fabinger was before or after the election of November 5, 1878?

(Objected to, because the witness stated that it was not made since November 5, 1878, but that he could not state exactly when it was.)

A. I am under the impression that it was before the election.

Q. Do you know whether or not any receipts were returned to you or to your son, by George M. Hoagland or any other person, after the election, which had been issued and signed by your son before the election?—A. No, sir.

Cross-examined by counsel for contestant :

Q. Does your son, Crawford J. Quiggle, of whom you have been speaking in your testimony, live with you ; has he lived with you all his life-time ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Your appointment of him as collector was for your own convenience, and his acts you considered as your acts, did you not ?—A. My appointment of him as collector was for my own convenience ; I considered his acts as my own ; I considered that I was responsible for them.

Q. Did George M. Hoagland and your son do the examining of duplicates, the making of calculations of amounts, the preparing of receipts, &c., almost entirely without consulting you, and is that the reason why you have but a general idea of the date, the amount of money, and the names of the persons for whom taxes were paid, and other details of that transaction ?—A. Hoagland never consulted me at all ; my son can tell you about it, I guess.

Q. You have spoken of certain persons, commencing with William Connell and ending with Victor D. Fabinger, whose taxes for 1877 you said were not paid upon your duplicate so far as you knew, excepting Victor D. Fabinger ; when you made that answer did you have your duplicate before you ; do you profess to be able to state who of them has not paid taxes without referring to your duplicate ?—A. The only one I know of having paid was Victor D. Fabinger. I do not know anything about the others.

Q. You have stated that you got four pigs from Victor D. Fabinger, at one dollar each, about "seeding-time" in the fall of 1878 ? What do you mean by "seeding-time" ?—A. I suppose seeding-time would be between from the 10th to 15th of September ; about that time.

Q. Do you remember of your son stating to you that he had obeyed your instructions and given Fabinger a receipt for his taxes ?—A. He said so ; yes.

Q. You say that you did have an actual settlement with Fabinger ; that these taxes were actually settled for, but that you cannot recall the date of the transaction, do you ?—A. I can remember the transaction but I cannot remember the date.

Q. Have you any personal knowledge as to whether or not the following persons paid their State and county taxes for 1877 ? Thomas Cupp, sr., John Cable, William Chatham, John Q. Dice, James Pipes, George Ritter, Joseph Simcox, Thomas K. Shortlidge, Benjamin F. Toner, Robert H. Williams, John Hoyt, Nelson Clendennin, James Q. Dice, Joseph R. Fredericks, and Jacob Stamm ?—A. No, sir.

JACOB QUIGGLE.

CRAWFORD J. QUIGGLE, without objection by counsel for contestant, being duly sworn, deposes as follows :

Question. State your name, residence, age, and occupation ?—Answer. Crawford J. Quiggle ; I live with my father in Wayne Township ; I am 24 years of age ; I am a farmer.

Q. Have you been collecting the State and county taxes for Wayne Township, Clinton County, for the year 1877, for your father, who was appointed collector by the commissioners of Clinton County ?—A. Yes, sir ; some money would sometimes be paid to him in my absence, and he would hand it to me when I came back.

Q. Have the taxes of William Connell, Samuel Cable, John G. Davis, jr., William McClure, William M. Quiggle, Richard H. Quiggle, jr., Robert T. Quiggle, jr., Thomas G. Simcox, William E. Lucas, Peter Miller, Joseph McKague, and Cornelius McKague, been paid on your duplicates ?—A. William Connell's tax is not paid ; Samuel Cable's tax is not paid; John G. Davis, jr.'s, tax is not paid; William McClure's tax is not paid; Wm. M. Quiggle's tax is not paid; Richard H. Quiggle, jr.'s, tax is not paid; Robert T. Quiggle, jr.'s, tax is not paid; Thomas G. Simcox's tax is not paid; William E. Lucas is not on my duplicate; Peter Miller's tax is not paid; Joseph McKeague's tax is not paid; Cornelius McKeague's tax is not paid.

Q. Have the taxes of Jacob B. Antis, John W. Johnson, Washington McClure, Henry J. Snyder, Abraham Simcox, been paid; if so, when were they paid and by whom?—A. Jacob B. Antis's tax is paid by George M. Hoagland; it was paid on the 5th day of October, 1878; all of these taxes for these persons were paid by George M. Hoagland on that day.

Q. What amount of money did you receive for the taxes of the persons whose names you have mentioned as having been paid by George M. Hoagland?—A. I can't exactly state the amount. It has slipped my memory now.

Q. Was it neither more nor less than the exact amount required to pay the taxes of the persons whose taxes you say were paid by George M. Hoagland?—A. No, sir; Hoagland gave me the list of names that he wanted to pay taxes for. They were written on the paper that was wrapped around the money which he left with father. It was the paper father spoke about. There were a few names on the list that Hoagland left that were not on my duplicate. I returned the money for them to Hoagland again.

Q. Then, as I understand you, you and Hoagland had not looked over your duplicate and ascertained the name and the amount of taxes he proposed to pay?—A. Hoagland had not looked at my duplicate.

Q. Were there any receipts returned to you after the election?

(Objected to, unless they were the receipts of some of the persons above named, or of some of the persons shown to have voted at the election.)

A. No, sir; I got no receipts.

Q. Do you not know that there were receipts in existence on the day of the election for which you had not at that time received the money, or if you had received the money for said receipts, were they not returned to you or some other person after the election?

(Objected to, because it is indefinite and vague; the question not stating what receipts are meant; whether any of them had been used to vote upon; whether any of them were ever delivered to anybody; the evident purpose being to reflect upon the integrity of the witness and of others manifesting an interest in the election by the use of general terms and expressions.)

A. No, sir.

Q. Do you state that as collector you did not sign a single receipt for the payment of State and county taxes for which you had not at the time received the money?

(Objected to, because such receipts if issued should in some wise be connected with the election and should be shown to have been used; for a tax-collector could ordinarily give a receipt to a tax-payer without having received the money, if he chose to do so, without doing any wrong unless he intended they should be used for voting purposes, or for some other improper purpose.)

A. Yes, sir; I did not sign a single receipt since the election; I signed no receipt for which I had not already received the money.

Q. Have the taxes of Victor D. Fabinger been paid upon your duplicate?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who paid them, and what month and what day of the month was it that they were paid?—A. They were paid through father, but I do not know exactly the day of the month. I don't just exactly know the month. It was before the election, and Fabinger came to me and said he wanted to settle up his taxes so that he could vote. I made out the receipt for his taxes as father told me to do.

Q. Do you not know that the settlement which was made with Fabinger was made since the election of November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; it was made before; because he came to me and wanted a receipt so that he could vote.

Q. Did you mark his taxes paid in your duplicate at the time you say you gave that receipt?—A. No, sir; I neglected it at that time, but the taxes were paid.

Q. Did you ever mark it as paid in your duplicate?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Was it marked paid in your duplicate until Joseph R. Fredericks was examining your duplicate within a few weeks; was it then not marked paid by him at your request?—A. He marked it paid. I do not know that I requested him to do it. He had a pencil in his hand and marked it paid as he was looking over my duplicates. I told Joseph R. Fredericks that it had been paid.

Cross-examined by counsel for contestant:

Q. A number of receipts have been shown in evidence, dated October 5, 1878, signed Crawford J. Quiggle, in favor of Henry J. Snyder and others, for State and county taxes of 1877; were those receipts dated at the time they were issued?—A. No; they were not. I made the receipts as of the date when the money was paid in.

Q. Did you give Victor D. Fabinger a receipt?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did Victor D. Fabinger come to you, as you have stated above, before the time (October 5, 1878) that Hoagland paid this money for these other receipts, and did you give the receipt to him in pursuance of the order of your father, Jacob Quiggles?—A. He came to me before the time that Hoagland paid his money; I know Hoagland paid his money on the 5th day of October, 1878, and I gave Fabinger his receipt before that.

Q. Please take your duplicate and state whether or not the State and county taxes therein are paid by the following persons, in whole or in part, or by any one for them, viz: Thomas Cupp, sr., John Cable, William Chatham, John Q. Dice, James Pipes, George Ritters, Joseph Simcox, Thomas K. Shortlidge, Benjamin F. Toner, Robert H. Williams, John Hoyt, Nelson Clendennin, James Q. Dice, Joseph R. Fredericks, and Jacob Stamm?

(Same objection as to the cross-examination of John Simcox.)

A. Thos. Cupper's taxes have not been paid; John Cable's taxes have not been paid; William Chatham's taxes have not been paid; John Q. Dice's taxes have not been paid; James Pipe's taxes have not been paid; George Ritter's taxes have not been paid; Joseph Simcox's taxes have not been paid; Thomas K. Shortlidge's name does not appear on my duplicate; Benjamin F. Toner's taxes have not been paid; Robert H. Williams's taxes have not been paid; John Hoyt's taxes have not been paid; Nelson Clendennin's name does not appear on my duplicate; James Dice's taxes are marked paid. I do not recollect anything about that payment. Joseph R. Fredericks's taxes have not been paid; Jacob Stamm's taxes have not been paid.

CRAWFORD J. QUIGGLE.

C. H. McKee, esq., appears for contestee; T. C. Hipple, esq., and T. T. Abrams appear for contestant.

JOHN W. EARON, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. John W. Earon; I am 18 years of age on September 6, 1878; I live in Pine Creek Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am a farmer.

Q. Are you a son of Adam Earon?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did Jacob A. Kline pay to you his State or county tax?—A. No, sir.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE:

Q. Do you know when your father received his duplicate?—A. No, sir; I can't tell just when.

Q. How many persons do you know in Pine Creek Township by the name of Jacob Kline?—A. I think there are three living in Pine Creek Township.

Q. State the middle names, if you know them.—A. I don't know their middle names; there is one Jacob A. Kline and one Jacob E. Kline.

Q. Where does Jacob E. Kline live?—A. His parents live down at Pine Creek bridge.

Q. Where does Jacob A. Kline live?—A. He lives near Pine Creek too; I can't tell how far from the mouth of it though.

Q. Do you know where the Garman family live in Pine Creek Township?—A. George Garman lives within about half a mile of Pine Creek.

Q. Do you know Ellen Garman, Rebecca Garman, or George Garman?

(Objected to, because it is irrelevant and not proper cross examination.)

A. Yes, sir; I know there is a Rebecca Garman.

Q. Do you know where they live?—A. I do not know where Rebecca Garman lives; Ellen Garman lives near Pine Creek.

Q. Is either Jacob A. or Jacob E. Kline related to that family?—A. I believe Jacob A. is; I think probably both are married. I think Jacob A. is married. I most always get mixed in their names.

Q. Do you know where Jacob A. Kline lives?—A. He lives near Pine Creek; I have been at his house.

Q. Were you ever at his house within two years prior to November 5, 1878, when his wife was present, and Ellen Garman and Rebecca Garman and George Garman were present, or any of them?—A. Yes, sir; they were all present except Rebecca Garman; I do not know whether she was present or not. I think it was before November 5, 1878.

Q. Can you remember on what errand you went to that place?—A. I was collecting taxes on my father's duplicate.

Q. Was the question of taxes discussed there or mentioned?—A. I think so.

Q. Did you have your duplicate along?—A. Yes, sir; I do not know whether I had the county duplicate along or not. I had the duplicate for the school tax of 1877 along, I think. I can't tell anything about whether I had the county duplicate along.

Q. Have you a brother who is living at home with your father and who also collected taxes for your father, and did your father also do the collecting?—A. I have a brother at home who collected some taxes for my father; I believe father did some collecting.

Q. Have you any recollections of receiving taxes when you did not have your duplicate to produce, or which you did not immediately credit on your duplicate?—A. I don't know whether I have or not. It has been offered to me in that way, but I do not remember whether I took it or not.

Q. Have you not upwards of 300 names of tax-payers in your duplicate?—A. I can't answer that question; there are 21 pages in the duplicate, and as high as 18 names on a page, and as low as 7 on a page.

Q. Do you pretend to say that with a duplicate of that size, and without the aid of a memorandum or an entry in the book of payments, that you can recall the detailed transactions with the persons named therein as far back as the summer of 1878, or that if you took taxes without having your duplicate present to make an entry thereon, that you could not have omitted to make that entry and it might not have escaped your mind?—A. I think I could recall the transactions; if I had taken taxes that way it might have escaped my mind.

Q. Does the name of Matthew Rogers and William Rice and Frank Cable appear upon your duplicate?

(Objection same as to cross-examination of John Sincox, collector of Wayne Township.)

A. Matthew Rogers' name appears; his county tax is $12.32; no State tax; there has been nothing paid upon it. Frank Cable's name appears; his county tax is 52 cents; no State tax. I do not know whether it was paid since the election, but I think it was. William Rice is on my duplicate; his county tax is 40 cents; no State tax. His county tax has not been paid.

Q. Does the name of David B. Crist appear upon your duplicate?

(Objected to same as to cross-examination of John Sincox, collector of Wayne Township.)

A. Yes, sir. His county taxes are 40 cents. I think they were paid since the election. It was paid to me. I am sure I received it after October 5, 1878.

Q. Look at the names of William Waters and Geo. Betts; are they on your duplicate; are their taxes paid; if so, to whom paid, and when?

(Objected to same as to cross-examination of John Sincox, collector.)

A. William Waters' name is on my duplicate; his tax was paid to me. I can't tell when it was paid, but I think it was since the election. He has a receipt and can tell that better than I can. George Betts' name is on my duplicate. His tax was paid to me. I can't tell when it was paid, but I think it was since the election.

Q. Look at William C. Donnelly's name and see if his taxes are paid; and if so, state when and by whom.

(Objected to same as to cross-examination of John Sincox, collector.)

A. William C. Donnelly's tax was paid to me by M. B. Rich before the election. It was more than 30 days before the election.

Direct examination resumed by C. H. McKEE, Esq.:

Q. You spoke of Jacob A. Kline's having paid you taxes when Rebecca Gaman and Ellen Gaman was present; state what taxes he paid you.—A. He paid me school-tax. I did not say that Rebecca Gaman was present. He did not pay me State or county taxes at that time.

Q. Do you remember when it was that you were at his house for taxes?—A. I think it was in 1878; I am not sure.

Q. Was it before your father got the duplicate for 1878?—A. I don't know that. I can't tell.

Q. Did he, Jacob A. Kline, pay you State or county tax at any time?—A. No, sir.

Cross-examination resumed by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq.:

Q. You now state that Jacob A. Kline at one time paid you taxes at his house in presence of some of the Gaman family; what directions did you have about applying those taxes, or what statements did you make as to how you would apply them?—A. I gave him credit on the school tax. I don't remember that any directions were given. I do not remember whether or not I gave him a receipt.

Q. What amount of money did you receive from Jacob A. Kline at that time?—A. I can't tell you that. I think it was something like $1.40.

*Q. Please state what his taxes on your State and county duplicate are?—A. His county tax is 56 cents; no State tax.

JOHN W. EARAN.

Continued to Wednesday, March 19, 1878.

March 19, 1878, Wednesday. Met pursuant to adjournment. C. H. McKee, esq., appears for contestee; T. C. Hipple, esq., appears for contestant.

NATHAN J. BITNER, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. Nathan J. Bitner; I am 34 years of age; I live in Beech Creek Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am a farmer.

Q. How far is Quay's school-house from the house formerly occupied by Andrew White, in Florence, in Beech Creek Township?—A. As near as I can give it as a guess, it is between three-quarters of a mile and a mile, but it is very near a mile, I suppose.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq.:

Q. How long have you lived in Beech Creek Township?—A. About thirty-three years, if it has been a township that long. It was a township long before I was a voter.

Q. Were you one of the election officers at the election held November 5, 1878, in Beech Creek Township?—A. Yes, sir. I was a clerk.

Q. Reference has been made to the house formerly occupied by Andrew White in Florence; and you were asked the distance from Florence to Quay's school house, where the election was held last fall. Now state whether or not there is such a place as Florence, and whether or not the house of Andrew White, mentioned in the sheriff's proclamation, was not long since torn down and destroyed.

(Objected to as irrelevant and immaterial and not proper cross-examination.)

A. I think there must certainly be such a place as Florence; yes, sir. It went by the name as long as I can remember. The house of Andrew White mentioned in the sheriff's proclamation was torn down and destroyed about three years ago.

Q. Do you not know that the place formerly called Florence, was very many years ago changed to Beech Creek Borough, and have you not stated since you came into this room that the name Florence, as designating a locality, was hardly known to the young men in your section, and that you and others of your age hardly ever heard it used except when some old person inquired for Florence?

(Objected to as irrelevant and immaterial and not proper cross-examination.)

A. I do know that the place called Florence was many years ago changed to Beech Creek Borough. I have stated since I came into this room that the name Florence as designating a locality was hardly known to the young men in our section, and that I and others of my age hardly ever hear it used except when some old person inquires for Florence.

Q. How many years ago, as nearly as you can judge, was the name Florence changed to Beech Creek Borough?—A. I suppose since it took its name of Beech Creek Borough was probably seven years. Before it was made a borough it went by both names, Florence and Beech Creek Borough.

Q. Do you know the place where the house of Andrew White formerly stood?—A. I know it as designated by the sheriff's proclamation. I have passed by it.

Q. You have stated that you have lived in that vicinity for 33 years and over; are you not perfectly familiar with the location or site where the house of Andrew White stood, which house you heretofore testified was now torn down and destroyed?—A. Yes, sir; I am.

Q. How long have voted in Beech Creek Township?—A. Twelve years.

Q. How long have you voted at Quay's school-house, the place where the election was held November 5, 1878?—A. Three years, as near as I can recollect.

Q. Have not all the elections in Beech Creek Township, both township and general elections, been held at Quay's school-house for at least three years?—A. Yes, sir; as near as I can recollect.

Q. Did you go, or think of going, on the 5th day of November, 1878, or do you know of any person who went, or thought of going (I mean, voters in Beech Township) to any other place than Quay's school-house to vote on November 5, 1878?—A. I did not go or think of going. I know of no one else who went to any other place.

Q. You have stated that you were a clerk on the election board November 5, 1878; now have you ever heard it stated that anybody entitled to vote in Beech Creek Township was misled by the sheriff's proclamation so that he went to where the house of Andrew White once stood for the purpose of voting, or failed to come to Quay's school-house to vote on November 5, 1878?—A. I did not.

Q. Do you know that in 1876 a petition was presented to the court of quarter sessions of Clinton County, setting forth that the buildings in which the general, special and township elections for the election district composed of the township of Beech Creek had been held had been torn down and no new building erected, and asking for a change of the place of holding elections; and did you not sign said petition? and do you not know that ever since the court acted upon that petition the elections have been held at Quay's school-house, the place where it was held November 5, 1878?—A. I knew there was such a petition. I signed that petition. I know that after I signed that petition it was said to me that the place for holding elections in Beech Creek Township was changed to Quay's school-house; but I have no knowledge that the court ever granted the petition.

Q. Please look at this petition above mentioned, No. 46, May session, 1876, quarter sessions of Clinton County (petition of citizens of Beech Creek Township to change the place of holding elections), and state whether the name of Nathan J. Bitner thereon was signed by you.—A. It was not signed to this petition in the shape that it is now.

Q. Will you answer my question as to whether or not that name, Nathan J. Bitner, upon this petition is in your own handwriting?

(Objected to by H. T. Haney, esq., counsel for contestant, because not proper cross-examination, and because the witness has already stated that he never signed the petition presented by counsel for contestant; that said paper, upon its face shows an alteration made by the attorney who presented the petition to the court, making said petition to read differently from what it did read at the time it was signed by the petitioners, and accordingly it can be of no consequence whether the name of Nathan J. Bitner appears upon the paper or not, the substance of said paper having been changed without his knowledge and consent to-day.)

A. The name Nathan J. Bitner on this paper is in my own handwriting. I wrote it myself.

Q. State your politics, whether Republican or Demoratic.—A. I am a Republican.

Cross-examined by CHAS. H. McKEE, Esq.:

Q. State whether or not this petition to which you here stated you had signed your name has been altered and changed since you signed it?—A. It has.

Q. Has the prayer of the petition which at the time you signed it was for "the court to order an election in said election district on the question of the change of place of holding said elections as above mentioned" been so changed as "to ask for fixing the place of holding the elections within mentioned at the Quay school-house," since you signed the petition?

(Objected to for the reason that the petition, though filed June 9, 1876, was on application of the petitioner's attorney, on September 29, 1876, allowed by the court to be amended as above stated, and the decree of the court indorsed upon said petition fixing Quay's school-house as the place for holding said election, and that petitioner is bound by the act of his attorney who appeared for him and others before the court, and by his own acts in voting, as he has testified, at the Quay's school-house ever since the decree of the court.)

A. Yes, sir; I never saw the paper until it came here to-day.

Q. Were you consulted at any time in reference to this change; was it made with your consent; did you authorize any one to make the change for you, or do you know of any attorney employed who had authority on your behalf to make such a change as appears on this paper?—

A. I was not consulted at any time in reference to this change; it was not made with my consent. I did not authorize any one to make the change for me. I do not know of any attorney employed who had authority on my behalf to make such a change as appears in this paper.

Q. When did you first learn of the change of this petition?—A. Not until to-day; I have never heard any of the other petitioners say anything in reference to the change in the petition.

Recross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq.:

Q. Please count the number of names attached to that petition besides yourself, and state the number.—A. Forty-six.

(C. H. McKee, esq., objects to all the foregoing cross examination of this witness as not proper cross-examination and irrelevant.)

NATHAN J. BITNER.

E. A. MCGILL, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. E. A. McGill. I am 36 years of age. I live in Castawa Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania. I am a laborer.

Q. State whether or not you have paid a State or county tax within two years prior to the 5th day of November, 1878; if so, when, how much, and to whom?—A. I have; I paid it to Robert McAlister for the year 1876. I paid it along in the fall of 1877, or in the latter part of the summer of 1877. I do not remember the amount. I don't know whether or not I have paid the State and county tax for 1877. I know that I paid him State, county, and school-tax in the latter part of the summer or in the fall of 1877.

Q. State whether or not you have paid any other State or county tax since November 5, 1876, and prior to October 5, 1878, than that which you say you paid to Robert McAlister.—A. Yes, sir; I pay State and county tax all the time here in Lock Haven. It is all paid up to 1878.

E. A. MCGILL.

Testimony of witnesses taken on Tuesday, March 18, 1879, between the hours of 8 o'clock a. m. and 11 o'clock p. m., by virtue of notice of contestee, hereto attached, marked I. S. M. McCormick, notary public.

H. T. Haney, Esq., appears as counsel for contestee; T. C. Hipple, Esq., and T. T. Adams, Esq., appear as counsel for contestant.

DAVID LUDWIG, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, residence, age, and occupation.—Answer. David Ludwig; I am 23 years of age; I live in Logansville Borough, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am a laborer.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years previous to the election of November 5, 1878; if so, when and to whom did you pay it, and how much did you pay?—A. Yes, sir; I paid it about the middle of September, 1878, to Michael Fetterhoof. Well, they were paying 75 cents a day, and I thought I was to get that.

Q. How did you pay it?—A. I paid it in labor.

Q. How many days' labor?—A. One.

Q. At the time you went to labor for Michael Fetterhoof, did you go to work out taxes?—A. I thought, of course, it would go on that. I knew he was tax collector.

Q. How long after you did the work, did you tell him to apply it on taxes?—A. I can't recollect the time any more; but I know it was in September some time.

Q. How do you know it was in September that you told him to apply it as taxes?—A. I knew that he was tax collector, and I told him so that he would not forget to apply it.

Q. Did you not tell me (H. T. Haney) yesterday that you did not know when it was that you told him to apply your work to taxes; but that you had asked him within a few days whether he had credited you with your taxes on your work?

(Objected to: 1st. Because it is irrelevant; 2d. Because it is in contradiction of their own witness; 3d. Because mere casual conversations in general terms are not competent to contradict direct statements under oath; 4th. Because the witness does not pretend to state the exact date; but states that he knows it was in a certain month.)

A. I don't think I told you that yesterday. I studied over it last night, what Mr. Haney asked me. He asked me whether I paid the taxes—yes. Yes, it was in September that I told him.

Q. How do you know it was in September?—A. Because I worked for him and I knew he was tax collector.

Q. When did you work for him; what time in September was it?—A. I don't recollect what time in September it was.

Q. How many days or weeks was it after you worked for him that you told him to credit it on the taxes?—A. I can't recollect that any more; but I know it was in September some time.

Q. Was it before or after the 20th of September that you worked for him?—A. I don't recollect that. It was in corn-cutting, and I think it was before that time.

Q. Was it before or after the 20th of September that you told him to credit your wages on taxes?—A. I don't recollect that any more.

Q. Who told you that it was necessary in order to keep your vote from being thrown out, or any portion of it, that you should make it appear that you had paid this tax in September?

(Objected to as irrelevant, it not being in evidence in any manner whatever that the witness was so instructed, and the question assuming that the witness has deliberately prepared a statement contrary to the facts in the case for the purpose of testifying thereto and saving his vote.)

A. No one; I knew it without any one telling me.

Q. Have you received from Michael Fetterhoof a receipt for your taxes?—A. No, sir; I have not.

Q. How much are they?—A. I guess they are 50 cents; that is what he told me.

Q. Your wages you say amounted to 75 cents; did you get the other quarter from him?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Did you ever talk to him about your taxes since the time you worked for him, until since you were subpoenaed to testify in this case?—A. I spoke to him since I was subpoenaed.

Q. Did you vote at the election held November 5, 1878, in the election district of Logansville Borough, Clinton County, Pennsylvania? If so, did you vote for member of Congress; and, if so, for whom did you vote?

(Objected to because the witness has not been shown to lack any of the legal qualifications of a voter.)

A. I voted at that election in that election district. I voted for Andrew G. Curtin for member of Congress.

DAVID LUDWIG.

JOSEPH HERB, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. Joseph Herb. I am 30 years of age. My permanent home is in Booneville, Logan Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania. I am a teacher. I reside at the present time in Greene Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Have you a wife and a child?—A. Yes, sir; I have.

Q. Are you keeping house?—A. Yes, sir; I am.

Q. What month and what day of the month did you move into Greene Township?—A. I moved to Greene Township on Saturday previous to the election of November, 1878.

Q. Have you resided there ever since?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote at the election held November 5, 1878, in Logan Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania? If so, did you vote for member of Congress; and, if so, for whom did you vote?

(Objected to because the witness has not been shown to lack any of the legal qualifications of a voter.)

A. I voted at that election in Logan Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania. I voted for Andrew G. Curtin for member of Congress.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq:

Q. You have stated in your examination-in-chief that your permanent residence is in Booneville, Logan Township, but that you now live in Greene Township. What do you mean by that?—A. I am employed as a teacher in Greene Township, and as I am not well, so I got myself a home on the mountain, that I could take my family with me, in regards of walking back to Booneville every Friday evening on account of my disease which I am subject to.

Q. How long had you lived in Booneville prior to being employed as a teacher in Greene Township?—A. Two and a half years.

Q. Do you own a house in Booneville? If so, did you occupy it, have it furnished, &c., before you moved to Greene Township?—A. Yes, sir; I own a house there. I occupied it two and a half years, and I had it furnished.

Q. What furniture, if any, did you take into Greene Township with you; was it all or only a portion of what you used at Booneville?—A. I only took with me a portion of our furniture. I took away a table and a sink and two bedsteads and bedding; that is about all I took with me.

Q. Did you leave the rest of your furniture in your house at Booneville, and did you close that house up for the time being?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. You spoke of getting a home in the mountain. What kind of a place did you get?—A. I got a room in the lower part of the house of John H. Motter's house.

Q. When you were employed to teach school in Greene Township, did you know the time you were expected to teach?—A. No, sir; not distinctly. I was to commence when the schools in the township were to open. I had been away for a week's time, and as I had some fall work to do, I put off my school for a week coming.

Q. How long were you to teach?—A. Five months.

Q. Then, since you were employed to teach in Greene Township for five months, state what was your intention as to which place should be your legal residence; state whether you intended to remain away from Logan Township permanently or whether you intended to return at the expiration of your school term, and whether your taking your wife and child and some furniture into Greene Township was not for the purpose of convenience merely or whether it was for the purpose of obtaining a legal residence there?—A. I thought that Logan Township was my legal residence. I intended then, and do intend now, to return to Logan Township at the expiration of my school term. My taking my wife and child and some furniture to Greene Township was merely for convenience.

Q. State the distance from your house in Booneville to the place where you teach in Greene Township?—A. As near as I can tell, it is six miles.

Q. Do you state that you are subject to such illness as to incapacitate you from walking that distance home on the Fridays of each week and of returning each week to teach?—A. Yes, sir; I do so state. I did not offer to vote in Greene Township in November, 1878.

JOSEPH HERB.

Met at 1.30 p. m.

H. T. Haney, esq., appears for contestee; T. C. Hipple and T. T. Abrams, esq., appear for contestant.

WILLIAM R. GOODMAN, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. William R. Goodman. I am 26 years of age. I am a medical student. I live in Logansville Borough, Clinton County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Have you paid State or county taxes at any time within two years previous to November 5, 1878; if so, when, to whom, and how much?—

A. I am under the impression that I did, to Robert T. Kleckner, but I cannot tell how much. I cannot tell when it was. I have no receipt.

Q. Is there any fact or circumstance that you can mention, other than the fact that you told Mr. Kleckner that you would pay them, that induces you to say that you have an impression that you did?—A. No, sir; I told him that I would pay them, and I am under the impression that I did.

Q. Who is collecting the taxes that were laid in 1876, which Robert T. Kleckner was collecting previous to his death?—A. I think Daniel M. Morris is, and that he told me that my taxes were not marked paid.

Q. Did you vote at the election held November 5, 1878, in the election district of Logansville Borough, Clinton County, Pennsylvania? If so, did you vote for member of Congress; and, if so, for whom did you vote?

(Objected to because the witness has not been shown to lack any of the legal qualifications of a voter.)

A. I voted at that election in said election district. I voted for Andrew G. Curtin for member of Congress.

Q. Are you prepared to state as a fact that you paid State or county taxes to Mr. Kleckner, or any one else, within two years previous to November 5, 1878?—A. I would answer this the same as I did before. I am under the impression that I did. I cannot state as a fact any more than I stated before, that I am under the impression that I did.

Q. Are you prepared to state as a fact that you paid State or county taxes to Mr. Kleckner, or any one else, within two years previous to November 5, 1878?

(Objected to because the witness has already stated that he is under the impression that he did pay State or county taxes within the period stated; and the burden of proof is upon the contestee when his witness speaks to the best of his knowledge and belief, in the absence of an actual receipt, that it is all that can be required of him.)

A. I say, to the best of my belief, I did.

Q. Then do you decline to give an affirmative or a negative answer as to whether or not you paid taxes to Kleckner?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is it that has made the impression upon your mind that you paid Kleckner taxes when you state that you have no knowledge as to the time when it was paid, the amount you paid, or any other circumstance than that you told him at one time that you would pay it?—A. Because I had promised him, and because he had been around me every day in the summer time and never asked me for it. That is all I have to answer.

Q. When did Mr. Kleckner die, as near as you can tell?—A. I think he died some time after the middle of August, 1878.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq.:

Q. Did you come from any other place home to vote at the November election?—A. I came from Philadelphia, Pa. I was a student at a medical college in Philadelphia.

Q. You stated you did vote, did you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was there any objection made to your voting?—A. No, sir.

Q. You have been pressed for either an affirmative or negative answer to the question as to whether you could state as a fact that you paid State or county taxes to Mr. Kleckner, or any one else, within two years previous to November 5, 1878; and you stated that you declined to give an affirmative or negative answer to that question. Now state whether or not you declined to give such an affirmative or negative answer because you knew that you had not paid such taxes within such time, or whether it was because that, without any actual receipt or memoranda to show dates, you were unwilling to abandon your best knowledge and belief upon the subject and fix an exact date; and state further, whether or not it is still your best knowledge and belief on that subject that you did pay said taxes within the period named?

(Objected to because the witness was not asked to abandon his best knowledge and belief, nor was he asked to state anything as a fact, but simply to say whether or not he could say that he had or had not paid the taxes referred to.)

A. Because I do not want to swear that I did, and I don't want to swear that I did not; but to the best of my ability to remember it, I paid them. It is still my best knowledge and belief that I did pay them.

Q. Did it ever occur to you before your examination in this case that your proper taxes were not paid so as to enable you to vote on November 5, 1878, or did you have any doubts about your right to vote when you voted?

(Objected to as immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. It never occurred to me before my examination that my proper taxes were not paid so as to enable me to vote; I was under that impression all along. I did not have any doubts about my right to vote when I voted, or I would not have voted. There is no other W. R. Goodman or Wm. R. Goodman in Logansville Borough.

W. R. GOODMAN.

JOSEPH KLECKNER, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. Joseph Kleckner; I am 53 years of age; I live in Logansville Borough, Clinton County, Pennsylvania. I am keeping hotel.

Q. Have you paid any State or county taxes within two years prior to the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. I have.

Q. Have you paid any State or county tax within two years prior to November 5, 1878, on your own account; that is, taxes which were assessed against you?—A. I hardly know how to answer that. I answer, yes, I have.

Q. If you paid them, to whom did you pay them, when, and how much?—A. I paid them to Michael Fetterhoof on September 2, 1878; I paid him $5.

Q. On what property were these taxes laid?—A. On house and two lots on Anthony street in Logansville; it is not the Logan House property.

Q. Were you the owner of this property at the time the taxes were assessed, and are you the owner of it yet?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Does the title stand in your name?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was it assessed in your name?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you paid any other tax within the two years prior to November 5, 1878, other than those you have mentioned?—A. No other State or county tax.

Q. Did you vote at the election held on the 5th day of November, 1878, in the election district of Logansville Borough, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; if so, did you vote for member of Congress; and, if so, for whom did you vote?

(Objected to because the witness has not been shown to lack any of the qualifications of a legal voter.)

A. I voted at that election in Logansville Borough; I voted for Andrew G. Curtin for member of Congress.

JOS. KLECKNER.

JONATHAN MOYER, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. Jonathan Moyer; I am 62 years of age; I reside in Logansville, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am a physician.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years prior to the 5th day of November, 1878; if so, when, how much, and to whom did you pay it?—A. I have. I paid in 1877, to Robert Kleckner. I paid him $6. I paid it in either June or July, 1877. I paid the tax that was assessed in 1876 in 1877. I have paid no other State or county tax than this since. I paid this tax by an order on John Eamig. The order was paid a couple of days after I gave him the order.

Q. Did you vote at the election held on November 5, 1878, in Logansville Borough; if so, did you vote for member of Congress, and for whom did you vote?

(Objected to because witness not shown to lack any qualifications of legal voter.)

A. I did so vote. I voted for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq.:

Q. The name "Jno. Moyer" appears upon the poll-list returned from the election district of Logansville Borough; and the name "Jon. Moyer" appears on the register list for that district; are you the only person of that name in that district, and are you the person intended in both instances?

(Objected to as irrelevant.)

A. I am.

JONATHAN MOYER.

ISAAC L. McCLOSKE.

JOSEPH MCKAGNE, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. Joseph McKagne; I am 45 years of age; I live in Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am a farmer.

Q. Did you pay State and county tax previous to November 5, 1878, and within two years of that date; and if so, to whom did you pay it?—

A. I have paid my tax by an order; it was last spring some time; I can't tell the date exactly; I paid it to Thomas Henry.

Q. Have you a receipt?—A. No, sir; I have not. He came to my house and I gave him an order on George Hoagland. Mr. Henry told me that it was paid. He told me that along through the summer of 1878; I cannot remember the time.

Q. Did you give him an order for the exact amount of your taxes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote on November 5, 1878, at the election held in the election district of Wayne Township? If so, did you vote for member of Congress; and if so, for whom?—A. I did so vote at that place. I voted for Andrew G. Curtin for member of Congress.

Q. Did you pay State or county taxes to any other collector within two years previous to November 5, 1878?—A. I think I did; but I can't be sure.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestee:

Q. You have stated that in the spring of 1878 you were called upon by Thomas Henry for your State and county taxes; that you gave an order to said Henry on George M. Hoagland for the amount of your taxes; that said Henry told you in the summer of 1878 that the order had been paid. Did you have a settlement with Hoagland in which this order that was paid was settled for?—A. I did not have a settlement with him. We looked over the account. The order was charged against me. We had mutual accounts against each other.

JOSEPH McKAGNE.

PETER MILLER, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

Question. State your name, age, residence and occupation.—Answer. Peter Miller; I am 54 years of age; I live in Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am a farmer.

Q. Have you paid State and county taxes at any time within two years before November 5, 1878? If so, to whom did you pay it?—A. I paid my State and county tax to John Simcox last spring a year—that is, the spring of 1878.

Q. How much did you pay?—A. I can't tell how much it was; I took no receipt.

Q. How many taxes did you pay?—A. I can't tell how much.

Q. Was there some school tax in it?—A. I can't tell any more what kind of tax he was collecting exactly.

Q. Did you pay all that he was collecting at that time?—A. I don't know. I may have paid him some before. I do not know whether I paid it all at once. I paid the balance on last spring, 1878.

Q. Is there any other Peter Miller in your township beside yourself?—A. No, sir; not that I know of.

Q. How long have you lived in Wayne Township?—A. For the last ten years.

Q. Do you know how much you paid to John Simcox in the summer or early part of the year 1878?—A. I can't remember how much I paid him.

Q. Mr. John Simcox has stated that your county tax on his duplicate is $6.60, and that you paid in the fore part of the summer of 1878 $1.01. Do you know that the amount paid as testified to by him is not correct?—A. I can't see how that can be done. I don't know whether that amount is right or not. That is all that I know.

Q. Do you not know that Mr. Simcox was collecting some other taxes?—A. Yes; I believe he collected some school tax besides.

Q. Did you vote at the election of November 5, 1878, held in Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania? If so, did you vote for member of Congress; and if so, for whom did you vote?

(Objected to because the witness has not been shown to lack any of the legal qualifications for a voter.)

A. I voted at that election in that election district. It is hard to tell for whom I voted for member of Congress; I did not open my ticket.

Q. Who gave you your ticket?—A. John Chatham.

Q. Was it a Democratic ticket?—A. I believe so.

Q. Did you ask for a Democratic ticket?—A. No, sir.

Q. What did you ask for?—A. I asked for nothing at all. He handed me a ticket and I went right square and voted the ticket he gave me, and then I went home.

Q. Did your son vote at the same time you did ?

(Objected to as irrelevant.)

A. Yes; the same day or the same evening. We were not right together at the polls when he voted.

Q. What is your son's name ?—A. Lewis H. Miller.

Q. Where is he now ?—A. In State of Michigan; he went off last fall.

Q. Has he been away ever since ?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you hear him say for whom he had voted for member of Congress ?

(Objected to as irrelevant, the Lewis H. Miller not having been shown to lack any of the qualifications of a legal voter; and there being no proof of any attempt to subpoena Lewis H. Miller; and there being no notice given to examine him or concerning his vote.)

A. No; I can't say particular.

Q. Do you know whether or not either you or your son voted for Andrew G. Curtin for member of Congress ?

(Objected to because the witness has stated that he did not look at his own ticket, and could not say for whom he had voted for Congress, and therefore has no means of personal knowledge; that witness has stated that his son did not tell him for whom he had voted, nor does he state that he was present when his son voted, or that he has any means of personal knowledge as to how his son voted.)

A. I can't tell for sure. We believe we did, but can't tell for sure.

Q. How old was your son ?—A. He is twenty-three years of age, I believe.

Q. Is John Chatham, who gave you your ticket, a Democrat ?

(Objected to as irrelevant.)

A. I can't tell what his mind is; but he has been pronounced to be a Democrat. My mind was, when I got my ticket from him, was that I was getting a Democratic ticket.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestant:

Q. Did you see your son vote on November 5, 1878 ?—A. I did not see him pass his vote in. I saw him about the polls, but cannot say whether he voted or not.

Q. From any examination you made of your ticket, would you have been able to have detected the name of Seth H. Yocum upon it for Congress, if it had been there ?—A. No; I did not open it at all.

PETER MILLER.

HARVEY C. LIAS, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. Harvey C. Lias; I was born on December 25, 1856, in Jackson County, Iowa; I live now in the third ward of Lock Haven, Pennsylvania; I have lived in Lock Haven with my father and mother either eleven or twelve years; I am a laborer; I have lived in the third ward of Lock Haven two years this April.

Q. Did you vote at the election held November 5, 1878, in the election-district of the third ward of Lock Haven; if so, did you vote for member of Congress; and, if so, for whom did you vote ?—A. I did vote at that election. I voted for Seth H. Yocum.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestant:

Q. Did you read the ticket you voted and see the name of Yocum upon it ?—A. I did not; my father gave me the ticket. He has been a Republican ever since I knew anything about him, and I know he would not give me any other kind of a ticket than a Republican ticket.

HARVEY C. LIAS.

WILLIAM A. REED, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. William A. Reed; I will be 23 years of age in July, 1879; I reside in the second ward of the city of Lock Haven, Pennsylvania; I am a painter.

Q. How long have you lived in the second ward of Lock Haven?—A. I have lived here all my life, with my father.

Q. Have you paid State or county tax within two years previous to November 5, 1879, and to whom did you pay it?—A. I paid county tax to Alexander Sloan, on September 28, 1878; I also paid county tax to Basil Reinocher on September 29, 1877.

Q. Did you vote at the election held November 5, 1878, in the election-district of the second ward of Lock Haven, Pa.; if so, did you vote for member of Congress, and for whom did you vote?—A. I voted at that election in said election-district; I voted for Seth H. Yocum for member of Congress.

WM. A. REED.

HOWARD L. BANES, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. Howard L. Banes; I was born on September 25, 1857; I live in the first ward of the city of Lock Haven, in Clinton County, Pennsylvania, and have lived there all my life. I live now and have always lived with my father. I am a mechanic.

Q. Did you vote at the election held November 5, 1878, in the election-district of the first ward of the city Lock Haven; if so, did you vote for member of Congress; and if so, for whom did you vote?—A. I voted at that election in said election-district. I voted for Seth H. Yocum for member of Congress.

HOWARD BANES.

C. W. MILNER, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. C. W. Milner; I am 44 years of age; I reside in Lock Haven, Pa.; I am a clerk.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in 1835.

Q. Where did you reside on November 5, 1878, and how long did you have your residence at the place you then resided previous to that time?—A. I resided then in Greene Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I moved there in 1866, and lived there ever since; I moved to Lock Haven in December, 1878; I lived with my family.

Q. When did you last pay State or county tax previous to November 5, 1878?—A. In 1877 I paid tax to Amos Zeigler for one; I do not remember the name of the other; my State and county taxes are paid up to 1878.

Q. Did you vote at the election held November 5, 1878, in the election district of Greene Township; if so, for whom did you vote for member of Congress?—A. I voted at that election in said election district; I voted for Seth H. Young for member of Congress.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq., counsel for contestant :

Q. Can you recall the name of any other person to whom you paid State or county taxes than Amos Zeigler?—A. I paid State and county taxes to Philip Gramley, and also to David Staunn and Jesse Schrack; I took receipts.

Q. Did you take a receipt for the tax paid to Amos Zeigler? If so, produce it and give the date of it.—A. I took a receipt for that tax; it is dated December 11, 1875; it is $35.19 for county, State, and poor tax.

Q. Did you take receipts for taxes paid these other parties?—A. The tax that was paid Jesse Schrack was by an order on F. M. Ross, Lock Haven, Pennsylvania.

Q. State when that order was given, and whether it was paid, to your personal knowledge.—A. It was given, I think, in the month of February or March, 1877, and the collector told me it was paid, and he said he had marked it paid on his book; that he told me after he returned from Lock Haven.

Q. How do you know that order was given to apply on State and county taxes?—A. I expressed it in that way in the order, what it was for; that is my recollection that it was for that purpose.

Q. How did you pay your tax to David Staunn and Philip Gramley, and when did you pay it; and how do you know that either or both of them were for State or county taxes?—A. In 1878 I paid county tax to David Staun; I gave him part in the spring of 1878, the balance I paid by order; I paid Philip Gramley's tax in money over two years ago; the collectors told me that they were collecting county taxes, and I paid it as such; I do not remember now whether Mr. Gramley collected county tax or not.

Q. Were you the only person of the name "C. W. Milner" in Greene Township on November 5, 1878, to the best of your knowledge?—A. Yes, sir; I never knew of any other person of that name.

C. W. MILNER.

Continued to Thursday, March 27, 1879.

Thursday, March 27, 1879, met pursuant to continuance.

W. C. Kress, esq., appears as counsel for contestee; T. C. Hipple, esq., appears as counsel for contestant.

J. C. C. WHALEY, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. J. C. C. Whaley; I am 43 years of age; I reside in the third ward of the city of Lock Haven, Pennsylvania; I am editor and publisher of the Clinton Democrat.

Q. What is your politics?—A. I am a Democrat.

Q. Are you acquainted with Andrew G. Curtin, the contestant, and Seth H. Yocum, the contestee?—A. I know Andrew G. Curtin personally, but not Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Were you favorable to the nomination of Andrew G. Curtin for Congress in 1878 in this district?—A. I was.

Q. Did you advocate his nomination?—A. I did.

Q. After his nomination, did you advocate his election?—A. I did.

Q. Did you use any money for that purpose?—A. As chairman of the Democratic county committee I used the funds placed in my hands—my assessments from the candidates—for the lawful purposes of the campaign, and that only.

Q. What do you call the "lawful purposes" of the campaign?—A.

Printing, and the necessary expenses for holding the different meetings, and paying the taxes of those tax-payers who were not able to pay.

Q. Is that all?—A. That is all in general that I can recall.

Q. Is it all in particular?—A. It is.

Q. Then do I understand you to say that all the money that you used for political purposes during the campaign of 1878 was for printing, the necessary expenses of holding meetings, and the payment of taxes of those who were too poor to pay?

(Objected to, because it is too general; the witness, as chairman of the county committee, operated for a great number of candidates for different offices who were voted for at the same election that Andrew G. Curtin was voted for; and that the question is broad enough to embrace the management of the campaign as to all candidates, whereas, the only question in this contest is as to the Congressional campaign, and nothing else is relevant; and the witness cannot be compelled to answer concerning matters not at issue, and may, if he chooses, properly decline to answer concerning all other matters except those pertaining to the Congressional election.)

A. I decline to speak of anything but the Congressional contest, and I answer "Yes, sir."

Q. Did you not, of your own accord, and not in a legitimate answer to questions first propounded by me, mingle the campaign generally with that of the campaign for Congress?

(Objected to as irrelevant, and a forced construction of the previous testimony of the witness.)

A. Such was not my understanding of the intent of your question when you asked it; I understand myself to be here subject to investigation in reference to the Congressional contest.

Q. Did you pay the taxes of men you expected to vote for Seth H. Yocum for Congress?—A. I directed the members of the county committee to pay the taxes within the lawful time of such Democrats as they might find in default of taxes.

Q. Did you expect the men whose taxes were paid by or through you with the campaign funds to vote for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress?—A. That was implied in the act.

Q. Did you expect it, is my question?—A. I expected them to vote the Democratic ticket, Curtin included; but no individual understanding was had with the voter to that effect.

Q. Did you see these voters personally, so as to know in each case what the individual understanding was with them?—A. I did not, as I answered before.

Q. Why, then, do you speak so positively as to what individual understanding was not had with them?

(Objected to as a forced construction of witness' answer, he not having attempted to make positive statements as to what those who were under him as members of his county committee may have done; witness merely stating that he had directed members of his county committee to pay the taxes of Democrats in arrears; and the witness not professing to have personal knowledge of what the members of his county committee did in individual cases.)

A. Because I had none.

Q. Did you not say that "no individual understanding was had with the voter" to that effect?—A. I said, and wish to be understood as meaning, that I had no individual understanding with the voter.

Q. Then you did not pay the taxes of Curtin voters yourself directly, but furnished the money to do it?

(Objected to because the witness did not state anything to justify a question assuming that the money given by the witness to his subordinates was to pay the taxes of Curtin voters, the witness having used the general term Democrats; and further, there being no evidence of money having been actually used for that purpose, but merely evidence of a direction to pay for delinquent Democrats, if any.

Counsel for contestee would remind counsel for contestant that this is not a cross-examination in which questions must be based upon evidence already in, but a direct examination in which we are trying to get evidence, and would further remind said counsel that the questions are confined to the Congressional votes, because the witness declines to answer all questions in reference to the Democratic ticket generally, and only speaks of the Democrats and Democratic ticket generally where it is not brought out by the questions, but a direct avoidance of the questions asked.

Counsel for contestant respectfully refers these reminders to the Congressional committee.)

A. I directed members of the county committee in their respective townships, wards, and boroughs to furnish me within the lawful time with a list of Democratic voters in default of taxes, the amount opposite the name of each necessary to secure him a vote. On these lists the members of the county committee were furnished with the funds to pay the tax-collector; that is about the answer.

Q. Was there a member of the county committee in each election precinct in the county?—A. There was.

Q. What amount of money did you furnish to pay the taxes of men in Clinton County who were expected to vote for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress?—A. I paid taxes only in the way before mentioned on the lists as presented, and I cannot state the amount.

Q. Can you state about the amount?—A. I cannot. I have no record of the amount. I paid them as they came in.

Q. Can you give it within a hundred dollars?—A. I cannot state the amount; I have no record of it. I assume roughly that the whole amount would not run over $150.

Q. Who made the assessments upon the different candidates?

(Objected to. The question should have been, Who made the assessment upon Andrew G. Curtin, if any were made?)

A. I made the assessment upon Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Did you make it upon the other candidates of which you have spoken that assessments had been made?

(Objected to as irrelevant, and the witness is instructed that he may decline to answer if he wants to.)

A. I have spoken of no other candidates, but I made all the assessments that were made.

Q. What proportion of the entire amount assessed did you assess upon Andrew G. Curtin?—A. The amount assessed and paid by Mr. Curtin was $200.

Q. Is that all the money that you know of Andrew G. Curtin sending to this county for campaign purposes?—A. That is all.

Q. Were you not informed that he sent money to other persons in this county to be used for campaign purposes?—A. I have no recollection of having received any such information.

Q. Have you recollection of having heard that Andrew G. Curtin did furnish money to other persons in this county during the campaign of 1878?—A. I have not, and was not privy to the expenditures of any other sum than the amount stated by me as having been placed in my hands as chairman of the county committee.

Adjourned at 12 o'clock to meet at 2 o'clock p. m.

Met at 2 o'clock p. m., pursuant to adjournment.

W. C. Kress, esq., appears as counsel for contestee; T. C. Hipple, esq., appears as counsel for contestant.

J. C. C. WHALEY (direct examination resumed.

Question. Who paid you the assessment which you laid upon Andrew G. Curtin?—Answer. My recollection is that I received it by check from Mr. Curtin.

Q. Had you no other money for political purposes in the year 1878 than that received from the candidates?—A. None at all, excepting $50 to the general fund by a citizen of this county.

Q. Who was that citizen?—A. Col. A. C. Noyes gave me $50, but not especially for Mr. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. What amount of money had you for campaign purposes in the year 1878?

(Objected to because it covers all candidates, the witness having testified that he had no special Curtin fund. The witness is instructed that he may decline to answer or answer, as he sees proper.)

A. I decline to answer as not germane to the present contest.

Q. Was or was not the funds received from Andrew G. Curtin put into the general fund, and used in connection with that, and the general fund used for his benefit as well as for the benefit of the other candidates?—A. It was.

Q. Do I understand you, then, to decline to state what amount of funds were used by you generally for the election of Andrew G. Curtin?—A. I cannot state what funds were used by me for the election of Andrew G. Curtin. He took his place with the other candidates, for whom the money was used for general electioneering expenses. No special fund from that source or any other was used by me for Mr. Curtin's election.

Q. Did you pay out of the general fund all the expenses for all the meetings that were held in the county at which the election of Andrew G. Curtin was advocated?

(Objected to because the witness has not been shown to have been present at all the meetings, so as to know when and where Andrew G. Curtin was advocated; the question is vague, irrelevant, and in no manner germane to the question of this contest.)

A. I paid out of the fund in my hands the expenses of the meetings held under the auspices of the Democratic county committee. To what extent Mr. Curtin may or may not have been advocated I cannot certainly say.

Q. Were all the meetings addressed by Democratic speakers in Clinton County during said campaign held "under the auspices of the Democratic county committee"?—A. That question is very vague and too indefinite to answer. Men calling themselves Democrats might have addressed a meeting held under the auspices of the party calling themselves "Greenbackers," or under the auspices of the Republican party.

Q. Did you pay the expenses of all the meetings addressed by speakers who were Democrats according to your idea?

(Objected to because it is vague and because the witness has not been shown to have knowledge of all the meetings held in the county and addressed by Democrats.)

A. I paid the expenses of all the meetings appointed by, and held under the auspices of, the Democratic county committee.

Q. Were all the Democratic meetings in said county held under the auspices of said committee?—A. They were, so far as I know.

Q. Have you any information of any other money having been expended in Clinton County for the Democratic ticket, or for the election of Andrew G. Curtin, except what you expended yourself?—A. I have no knowledge of any money having been expended for the election of Andrew G. Curtin, excepting the money expended by myself, as before stated in this testimony.

Q. Do I understand you to say that what you expended, including what was furnished you by Andrew G. Curtin, you expended for the benefit of the Democratic ticket generally?—A. It was so expended.

Q. Do you know of any other moneys being so spent?—A. I do not understand the question.

Q. Do you know of any other moneys being expended in the campaign of 1878, than that expended by yourself, for your party in Clinton County?

(Objected to as embracing all the candidates upon the ticket, and covering whatever they may have done in their own behalf as candidates upon the Democratic ticket, matters not pertinent to this Congressional contest, as Andrew G. Curtin had no control over the other candidates, and should not be held responsible for what, if anything, they did in the campaign; and the witness is instructed that he may, if he chooses, decline to answer questions concerning expenditures of money by other candidates or parties, unless those expenditures in some way had reference to the advancement of the election of Andrew G. Curtin, to the witness's own knowledge; that statements of other parties concerning money expended in the campaign would be clearly irrelevant, unless in some wise connected with Curtin's canvassing.)

A. The "Young Men's A. H. Dill Club" bore a portion of the expenses of some meetings, and they controlled their own fund, and there may have been some contributions from Renovo; if so, they did not come into my hands; but I paid, if not all, certainly nearly all of the expenses there. Individual contributions were made in that way there and here, which were not considered by me in my answers as being part of the general fund in my hand for election purposes.

Q. Did you receive any money from, or on behalf of, Andrew G. Curtin, either before or after the election, except the amount you have already stated?—A. I never received but $200, either before, during, or since the campaign, from Andrew G. Curtin, nor by anybody for him, nor was I promised any money.

Q. Did you put all the money which you received from Andrew G. Curtin into the general fund?—A. I did.

Q. Were receipts taken for the taxes which were paid for individual voters?

(Objected to because the witness has testified that he did not personally pay taxes; that members of his committee were given funds to pay taxes, but witness has not stated that he knows of a single dollar having been actually applied to that purpose; the whole matter being a trust by him in the representations of others, who may or may not have applied the money to the purposes for which they professedly obtained it.)

A. I cannot say, as that duty was delegated to the respective committeemen, in their several districts.

Q. Did you instruct them to take receipts?—A. I did.

Q. What did you instruct them to do with those receipts?—A. To use them at the election, I was going to say, for the benefit of the voters.

Q. For the benefit of the voter or the candidates?—A. For the benefit of the Democratic ticket.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE:

Q. Are you the editor of the Clinton Democrat, and is that the Democratic organ in Clinton County?—A. I am the editor of the Clinton Democrat. It is a supporter of the Democratic party in its principles, and supported the Democratic nominees in the last election.

Q. For how long have you acted as chairman of the Democratic county committee?—A. For five years, I should judge.

Q. During your term as chairman, were there one or more Congressmen elected in the Congressional district of which Clinton County is a part, prior to the election held November 5, 1878?—A. This is the third Congressional election in which I participated as chairman.

Q. Please state who were the candidates of the Democratic party for Congress in these elections besides Andrew G. Curtin.—A. In both instances, Hon. L. A. Mackey, of Lock Haven, Clinton County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Since you became chairman did you assess the Hon. L. A. Mackey, when he was a candidate for Congress, in the same manner in which you assessed Andrew G. Curtin, and did you in any manner whatever, either in amount, terms, or otherwise, assess Andrew G. Curtin differently from what you assessed Hon. L. A. Mackey, or differently from what was the usual custom, as far as you knew?

(Objected to because the present financial condition of the Hon. L. A. Mackey is the best evidence of the assessments made by the witness.)

A. I assessed him in precisely the same manner. I did not assess Andrew G. Curtin in any manner whatever, either in amount, terms, or otherwise, differently from what I assessed Hon. L. A. Mackey. My recollection is that Mr. Mackey's last assessment by the county committee was $200; at the other election it may have been $250. I do not recollect certainly. I did not assess Andrew G. Curtin differently from what was the usual custom, so far as I knew.

Q. Did you furnish Andrew G. Curtin, or rather furnish for use at the election at which he was a candidate, the tickets to be voted for Mr. Curtin?—A. I did.

Q. Have you any knowledge whatsoever of a special fund, or operation, in behalf of Andrew G. Curtin as a candidate in Clinton County?—A. I have no knowledge.

Q. You have spoken of the payment of money to members of the county committee for taxes of voters; have you personal knowledge of the persons or tax collectors to whom that money was paid, if paid, or the persons for whom it was paid, if paid; in fact, have you personal knowledge that such money was actually applied to the purposes for which the parties obtained it; or have you personal knowledge that there were any Democratic voters in arrears for taxes?—A. I have no personal knowledge of the tax collectors or persons to whom that money was paid, if paid. I have no personal knowledge of the persons for whom it was paid. I have not personal knowledge that such money was actually applied to the purposes for which the parties obtained it. I may have known of one or more Democratic voters in arrears for taxes, here and there, but in the sense in which the question is asked I have no personal knowledge. I dealt with those parties as trusted agents, and left it with them to collect a list of delinquent tax-payers, and trusted them with the payment.

Q. Who was the candidate at the head of the Democratic ticket at the election November 5, 1878, and for what office was he a candidate? You may say who was candidate for governor?—A. Hon. Andrew H. Dill was candidate for governor.

Q. What was his majority in Clinton County at that election according to the returns?—A. Eight hundred and eighty-five, I think, over Mr. Hoyt.

Q. What was Andrew G. Curtin's majority for Congress at that election?—A. Three hundred and one, I think.

Direct examination resumed by W. C. KRESS:

Q. Dill seems to have been much more popular in Clinton County than Curtin, does he not?

(Objected to, because the counsel for contestee and all others concerned can draw conclusions from the testimony for themselves just as well as the witness; and that, under the peculiar circumstances of the case, the reduced majority for Andrew G. Curtin can hardly be construed as an evidence of his unpopularity with the masses of the voters.)

A. I have no answer to make to that question. Others are as capable of judging as I am.

Q. Can you tell whether Curtin ran as many votes in Clinton County as Dill?—A. I can.

Q. Will you tell?—A. I will.

Q. When?—A. I decline to be examined in this way. At the last election. I withdraw that declination. I should have said at the last election of 1878. I will tell at once.

Q. What do you say occurred at the last election in 1878?

(Objected to as indefinite and irrelevant. The counsel for contestant claims that the witness has the right to have made known to him the meaning of the question last asked so that he may answer it understandingly; and, further, the notary is requested to note that the witness has stated that he did not understand when he commenced his last answer and referred to last election, what time the word "when" forming the question referred to.)

The notary public replies that the witness stated that he did not understand when he commenced his last answer to what the word "when" referred. The question and those preceding had been read over to him once or twice, and upon the notary informing him as to the meaning of the question, he answered, "I will tell it now," which he has noted in witness's answer to question.)

A. I am desirous of answering promptly.

(Counsel for contestee desires the witness to answer the question asked and state his desire afterwards.)

Q. Question repeated.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question, for the reason that the witness did not say that anything occurred at the election of 1878; but, as the testimony shows, he merely commenced an answer and used the words, "I should have said at the last election of 1878," and was then stopped, after which he stated that he did not understand the question "when.")

(Counsel for contestee requests notary to state whether he stopped the witness from testifying.)

The notary answers that the witness at that place stopped of his own accord.)

A. I desire to answer all questions promptly and courteously. I cannot answer this question because it is too indefinite.

Q. Do you say that your remark "at the last election of 1878," is so indefinite that you cannot tell what it means?—A. I mean to say that what occurred at the last election is so indefinite and general that I cannot answer it.

Last question repeated.

A. "What occurred at the last election." I did not so answer. I say that the question "What occurred at the last election of 1878" is so indefinite that I cannot answer it.

Question repeated.

A. I do not say so. I know what that means.

Q. What does it mean?—A. It means the election of November 5, 1878, at which the election for governor and other officers took place.

Q. You say you have been chairman of the Democratic county committee for five years?—A. I said so; yes, sir.

Q. And publisher of the Democratic organ of that county for how many years?—A. I have been publisher of the Clinton Democrat since 1869.

Q. How long before the nomination of Andrew G. Curtin did you become favorable to his nomination?

(Objected to as irrelevant.)

A. I decline to answer under the objection of counsel.

Q. Did you advocate his nomination?—A. I did.

Q. For whom did the Democratic party of Clinton County, by their delegates in convention assembled, declare for for Congress?

(Objected to as irrelevant.)

A. Hon. L. A. Mackey.

J. C. C. WHALEY.

Q. Are you a married man?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you been married?—A. A year last October; my family lives with me in Castanea Township.

Cross-examination by T. C. HIPPLE:

Q. Did you vote at the election held November 5, 1878, in the election district of Castanea Township; if so, did you vote for member of Congress, and for whom?—A. I voted at that election in said district; I voted for Seth H. Yocum, for member of Congress.

WILLIAM ^{his} + SHADE.
mark.

Witness:

S. M. McCORMICK.

PHILIP M. LEITZEL, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. Philip M. Leitzel; I was born September 4, 1857, in Flemington, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I live now in Flemington, Allison Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am a tinner.

Q. Where have you lived since you were born?—A. I have always lived in Flemington, Pennsylvania, with my father, David Leitzel; I am not married.

PHILIP M. LEITZEL.

J. M. DAUER (without objection), being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. J. M. Dauer; I am 45 years of age; I live in Lock Haven, Pennsylvania; I am a barber.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Germany, in the state of Bavaria. (Taufschein spoken of by Chas. H. McKee, James T. Brown, purporting to be a record of the birth and baptism of Ad. McLain, shown witness.)

Q. Did you make a true and correct translation of the portion of said Taufschein which purports to contain the account of the birth and baptism of the person named in said Taufschein; if so, have you said translation with you, and in what language is the original?—A. I did make a true and correct translation of that portion of this Taufschein; I have said translation with me; the original is in the German language.

Q. Is part of the original printed and part written?—A. It is part written and part printed.

This is the translation. (H. T. Haney, esq., counsel for contestant, offers Exhibit No. 31, in evidence.)

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE:

Q. This copy you have prepared does not purport to observe or follow the original paper in its size, illustrations, printed matter in the margin, and colored pictures; but merely gives the portion of the paper you were directed to copy, does it not?—A. It does not follow the original in size, illustrations, printed matter in margin, and colored pictures; but merely gives the portion of the paper I was directed to copy.

Q. Can you find anywhere on this original the name of any person signing or attesting the paper; or can you find anywhere any date of when this paper was made out?—A. I can find the witness of baptism, his mother; this is a question I can hardly answer; I can find a date upon the paper. There is a date on this paper when it was made out, as far as I know.

Q. Does that date appear in the copy you have made?—A. It does.

Q. State the date.—A. The 27th day of May, in the year of our Lord 1858.

Q. You were asked plainly whether upon this original paper you found any date to show when it was made out you; answered that you did; that the date appeared in the copy you made; that it was the 27th day of May, 1858; do you undertake to say that that date there given can under any possible construction of that paper be considered as showing the date when the paper was written and prepared?—A. I will answer, it could or could not. It might have been prepared or it might have not been prepared that day.

Q. Do you find on that paper anything going to show that the date you have mentioned was intended by the party who wrote the paper to represent the date on which it was written?—A. No, sir.

Q. Now, then, please answer my question, whether you find anywhere on that paper a statement of the date when it was written. I do not wish a surmise or a statement of which might have been or might not have been; if there is any date of the execution or writing of that paper, state it; if there is not, state so.—A. I don't find any date of which it was written positive. I cannot answer positive.

Q. You were asked if you found the name on the original of any person signing or attesting the paper; and you answered that you found the witness of baptism, his mother. Do you say that the name of any person appears written as a witness upon that paper in any capacity; and if so, state the name written in the place for witness in the paper; and state why you did not put the name in the copy you made?—A. No, sir; there was no name there in that place.

Q. Is there then anything to show by whom that paper was written?—A. It purports to have been written by the Rev. James Corm.

Q. Please state what words in that paper make you believe that it purports to have been written by the Rev. James Corm?—A. The general tenor of said certificate and the name James Corm appearing there. I find the name of Rev. James Corm in connection with the words "and was baptized by the pastor, Rev. James Corm, and received the name Adam Sylvester."

Q. Do you regard the name of Rev. James Corm, as it appears in the body of that certificate with the words before and after it, sufficient to justify you in saying that that paper purports to have been written by the Rev. James Corm?—A. Yes, sir; it purports to have been written by Rev. James Corm. I do not know James Corm's handwriting.

Direct examination by H. T. HANEY:

Q. Do you consider yourself capable of translating German into English?—A. I do.

Q. Who gave you the paper or taufschein with the request that you should make the translation which you did make?—A. Mr. S. M. McCormick.

Q. Is there anything upon the original bearing upon the birth or baptism of Adam Sylvester Reninger which you have not translated into your copy?—A. No, sir.

JOHN M. DAUER

JOSEPH GRIER, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. Joseph Grier; I was 21 years August, 1878; I reside in the first ward of the city of Lock Haven, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am a laborer; I was born August 4, 1857.

Q. Where were you born?—A. I was born at Farrandsville, Clinton County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How long have you lived in Lock Haven?—A. About 18 or 19 years.

Q. How long previous to the 5th of November, 1878, had you lived in the first ward of the city of Lock Haven, Pennsylvania?—A. About sixteen years; it is still my residence.

Q. Did you vote on November 5, 1878, in the election district of the first ward of Lock Haven? If so, did you vote for member of Congress, and if so, for whom?—A. I voted at that election in said district. I voted for Seth H. Yocum for member of Congress.

JOSEPH GRIER.

FRANK REESE, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer.

Frank Reese; I was 21 years old the 7th day of last June, 1878; I was born June 7, 1857; I live in Castanea Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am a laborer.

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Bald Eagle Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania, as near as I can remember.

Q. Were you called on the part of the contestant in this case?—A. Yes, sir.

FRANK REESE.

WM. S. FLETCHER (without objection), being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. William S. Fletcher; I am 23 years of age; I reside in the second ward of Lock Haven, Pennsylvania; I am a student at law.

Q. Were you present before S. M. McCormick at the time of the taking of the testimony of Frederick Berger, of Gallagher Township?—A. I was.

Q. Did you hear him testify, and did you hear his cross-examination in reference to George W. Moore, Robert Moore, and Robert Mitchell Moore?—A. I did.

Q. Who cross examined him on the part of the contestee?—A. C. H. McKee, esq. I think he did it all.

Q. Did you, after the examination was completed and after Frederick Berger had left the witness stand, hear him make any remark to any one in regard to his examination?

(Objected to as not a proper mode of contradicting Frederick Berger, if that is the intention of the question. Frederick Berger himself should first be called, and then the witness, if it is desired to contradict him. Further, that the declarations of Frederick Berger, after he has testified under oath, has been discharged as a witness, cannot override his testimony given under oath.)

A. I did hear him remark to C. H. McKee, esq. I think he said, "You were too hard on me. I know what you want. I told you a lie." That is all. This remark occurred here in this room immediately after he was discharged.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE:

Q. Was S. M. McCormick, esq., the commissioner before whom Frederick Berger had testified, still in this room acting as commissioner when Berger made that remark to C. H. McKee, esq., who had cross-examined him in behalf of contestee?—A. He was.

Q. Was T. C. Hipple, esq., the attorney for the contestant, still in the room at the time?—A. He was.

Q. C. H. McKee, esq., was in the room also?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. How near were you to Berger when he made this remark?—A. I should say about two or three feet. Within that distance.

Q. How near was Mr. McKee to Berger, and did Berger address his conversation exclusively to McKee?—A. I should think Berger was from four to six feet away from C. H. McKee when he made the remark. He addressed his remark to McKee, exclusively, I think.

Q. Have you given his remark as nearly exact as you are able?—A. Yes, sir; I think those were his exact words.

Q. Did McKee hear them?—A. I think he did.

Q. Were Berger and McKee laughing and joking at each other, and did you not notice that they did considerable of that, especially McKee with Berger?—A. My recollection is that McKee asked Berger some questions regarding his politics, during his examination, and that you objected to him doing it. I think that McKee was rather amused at some of his answers. I think that McKee joked some with Berger. I don't think Berger joked at that remark. My opinion is that McKee asked Berger some questions that made Berger a little angry, and the fun usually followed his replies.

Q. Did Berger's remark strike you at the time of being sufficiently serious and important, as he made it, to deserve a special attention, and to be testified to so as to affect his credibility?—A. I should think it would. It did so strike me.

Q. When did you first speak of it to C. H. McKee, esq.?—A. Mr. McKee wrote his remark upon a slip of paper and laid it before me on the table, and asked me if I heard Berger make the remark that he (McKee) had written on the paper; that was done immediately after Berger made the remark and had left the room.

Q. Did you suggest to McKee or did McKee say anything about recalling that witness at that time before the commissioner, all parties still being present?—A. No, sir; there was nothing said on the subject.

Q. Was there anything said about allowing a witness to depart and then taking your testimony as to this remark?—A. There was nothing said about taking my testimony at that time; that is my recollection.

Q. Mr. Berger did not state on what particular point or regarding what particular facts he had told a lie?—A. No, sir.

Q. Now, do you not remember that Mr. McKee and Berger had some talk about Berger's politics, and do you not remember that in Berger's testimony he was particularly pressed by McKee as to his politics, and do you not remember that immediately after he had left the witness stand, and yet was in the room, that McKee and Berger talked lightly about Berger's politics, and was it not during that conversation that Berger told McKee he had told him a lie?—A. During the examination they had some talk as to the politics of Berger. I think that McKee asked him a couple of questions in regard to his politics which Berger did not answer satisfactorily to McKee; I do not remember that they talked any after the witness had left the stand.

Q. You have stated that Mr. McKee asked Berger a couple of questions as to his politics, and that his answer was not satisfactory to McKee; do you mean by that that Berger evaded the question, or answered indefinitely?—A. I mean that he evaded the question.

Q. In the testimony as taken for the contestant there appears in the testimony of J. Fred. Berger a question upon cross-examination by C. H. McKee, esq., as follows: "Are you a Democrat?—Yes, I am. I am a hot one." Do you term that evading the question?—A. I do not.

Q. Have you the notes of testimony taken by you for the contestee's counsel of what was sworn to by Mr. Berger?—A. I have.

Q. Will you please produce them?—A. I will; here they are.

Q. Please refer to your notes and state whether you have that question written and the answer written the same as they appear in the testimony written by the commissioner.—A. The question is the same; the answer I have is, "I am a hot one."

Q. Do you term that answer evasive?—A. No, sir.

Q. When did you first know you were to testify on this point?—A. I can't tell exactly. I think probably the same day or the next day after this occurred. I understood that I would be called to testify to this remark.

Q. From whom did you understand it?—A. I think from Charles H. McKee.

Q. Have you a distinct recollection on that point; and how did you come to understand that you would be called?—A. My recollection is clear, I think, that McKee informed me that I was to testify. I understood the remark to be of such a kind that it would be wanted in evidence.

Q. You say McKee laid a paper before you on the table about the time this remark was made by Berger; and on it he had written the remark; now do you not know that Berger was still present in the room when that was done, and that the writing was done so as not to attract his attention?

(Objected to, because the witness is not of counsel for the contestee, and could not recall the witness under any circumstances; because he cannot tell what may have been in the mind or what was the purpose of Mr. McKee who represents the contestee; because no good could result from recalling and placing again upon the witness stand, for the purpose of explanation, a man capable of stating that he had just told a lie while under oath.)

A. I do not know that Berger was still in the room when that was done. I think Berger was instructed to go into the front room to the clerk to get his pay as a witness. I think the clerk was sitting in the front room at a table with money to pay the witnesses. I do not know that the writing was done so as not to attract his attention. I think Mr. Berger had left the room at that time.

Q. Were you subpœnaed to attend here as a witness?—A. I did not have a subpœna served upon me.

Q. Were you not at the time you say you heard this remark made in the employ of the contestee, or his counsel, to write down the testimony of witnesses; have you not been since so employed, and are you not at this time so employed?—A. I was at the time the remark was made employed for contestee, and am still so employed, to write down the testimony of witnesses.

Q. Have you seen that paper written by McKee since the time he showed it to you first?—A. Yes, sir; I saw it before I came upon the witness stand to-day and I read it.

Direct examination:

Q. Being employed to take testimony in this case are you not expected to be here whether subpœnaed as a witness or not?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you any explanation that you desire to make in reference to any statements made by you on cross-examination?—A. I have a statement to make with regard to my answer when I said that Berger "evaded the questions" asked by McKee. When I was asked whether McKee and Berger were joking with each other and whether Berger was pressed for an answer with regard to his politics, I meant to say that Berger got angry, and evaded answering the question. McKee asked him a couple of times, and Berger got angry and would not answer the question satisfactorily until the question was written down and he was asked to give a positive answer to the question. Some of the jocular remarks made and referred to by Mr. T. C. Hipple were not made and taken down in the testimony. That is my recollection.

Cross-examined:

Q. Did not Berger speak very broken English?—A. I don't recollect that it was very broken; he could be understood very easily. I think he did speak broken English. He was a German.

Q. Then, from your explanation, I understand you to say that these questions about which Berger got angry, and which he evaded answering, were not written down? That McKee asked him a couple of times without having the questions written down; that Berger would not answer him satisfactorily until the question was written down by the commissioner. Now do you say Berger evaded answering any question written down and put to him by the commissioner?—A. I do not say that he evaded any questions that were written down and asked by the commissioner, but I think he was pressed for the answer.

W. S. FLETCHER.

C. H. MCKEE, recalled, deposes as follows :

Question. Were you present at the examination of J. Frederick Berger, of Gallagher Township, when called and examined in this case, on the part of the contestant, before S. M. McCormick, and did you appear as attorney for contestee and cross-examine the said Berger?—Answer. Yes, sir.

Q. State if after the examination was completed and the witness was about leaving the room, whether he made a remark to you, what it was, if you took it down in writing at once, and if you have that writing or memorandum with you.

(Objected to as irrelevant. The statements that a witness made after he has testified under oath not being competent to impeach sworn testimony, unless the witness has first been called and interrogated concerning the alleged statement, and it not appearing that Frederick Berger was recalled at the time of the alleged statement, or was since called, or that any attempt was made to subpoena him.)

A. He did make a remark to me as he was about to leave the room. He says: "You are too hard on me. I know what you are after. I told you a lie." I took it down in writing immediately afterwards. I have that writing with me.

Q. Are the words which you have given as uttered by Berger the exact words taken down by you upon the paper which you have now before you, and did you at the time take them down correctly?—A. They are the exact words uttered by Berger, which I have on this paper. I took down his exact words to the best of my ability within a minute or two of the time he uttered them. At the time of taking them down, I showed them to Mr. Fletcher, and we both agreed to this being a correct statement of the words he used.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE :

Q. Was this remark made in the same room where Mr. Berger's testimony had been taken and before he left the room?—A. It was. He stood at the door about ready to pass out of the room.

Q. Were the commissioner, counsel for contestant, and Mr. Fletcher, who copied testimony for contestee, still in the room?—A. My recollection is that the commissioner and Mr. Fletcher were in the room, but that the counsel for contestant was in the other room.

Q. Did you call the attention of Mr. Berger to his remark?—A. I did not. He at once left. The remark was made after he had quit the witness stand.

Q. Did you make any effort to have him recalled at that time, so that he could speak under oath concerning said statement?—A. I did not. I did not suppose that I had power to recall a witness brought by contestant after he had once left the stand.

Q. Do you know whether or not Frederick Berger was subpoenaed in behalf of contestee to come and testify under oath concerning the meaning of said remark?—A. I do not.

Q. You have had charge of making notices to contestant of witnesses to be examined on behalf of contestee, have you not?—A. I have made out some notices. I presume most of them.

Q. Were you ever instructed to serve a notice of Mr. Berger as a witness?—A. No, sir.

Q. Does not Mr. Berger markedly speak broken English?—A. He speaks broken English, but it is not so broken that the substance of his remarks cannot be understood.

Q. You were then and have been ever since actively operating for contestee, have you not?—A. Not actively. At different times I have aided the attorneys for the contestee at their request.

Q. Have you not as a rule, since then, had the returns of subpoenas served with names of parties reported to you, and have you not as a rule made out notice upon contestant for witnesses to be examined?—A. I can't say that I have done so as a rule. By the request of the counsel, I from time to time made out notices. I think I have made out notices for all the subpoenas that have come into my hands.

Q. Please state who, beside yourself, made out notices on contestant?—A. I can't say who, beside myself, has made out notices. I know that Mr. Fletcher, who is a student in Mr. Haney's office, has made out notices for some witnesses; that the names of some witnesses who were to be called here were sent to Bellefonte and the notices made there. My services in this case have been mostly of a clerical nature, and I have not felt the responsibility of an attorney in respect to this contest, except in a few instances, when, at the request of the counsel engaged in the case, I have appeared before the commission during the taking of testimony.

Q. Do you wish us to consider your services on behalf of the contestee as gratuitous and voluntary?—A. I don't care how you consider them. I hope that the contestee won't consider them entirely gratuitous.

C. H. McKEE.

Continued to March 29, 1879, Saturday morning.

Met Saturday morning, March 29, 1879.

H. T. Haney, esq., and Jesse Merrill, esq., appear as counsel for contestee; T. C. Hipple, esq., appears as counsel for contestant.

J. M. A. MILLER, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence and occupation.—Answer. J. M. A. Miller. I am 24 years of age. I reside in Bald Eagle Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania. I am a farmer.

Q. Where were you born?—A. I was born in Bald Eagle Township.

Q. Have you always resided in Bald Eagle Township?—A. I have.

Q. Are you married or single?—A. Single. I reside with my father, Henderson Miller.

Q. Have you paid State and county taxes within two years previous to November 5, 1878?—A. I have to the best of my knowledge. I paid it to John Snodgrass.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE:

Q. Were you absent from home any length of time during the year 1878, prior to November 5?—A. No, sir; not over a week at the outside.

Q. Did you take a receipt for the taxes you say you paid Snodgrass?—A. I have a receipt for either 1876 or 1877 taxes, but I did not bring it along with me this morning.

Q. Where is that receipt?—A. It is at home somewhere. I could not find it this morning.

Q. State the date of the payment and the amount of money.—A. I can't give the date; the amount of the money was fifty cents.

Q. Give the date as near as you can.—A. I don't know whether I can give the true date. It was in the year 1877, I think. During that year some time.

Q. State your reasons for fixing the date in the year 1877.—A. I have no general reason any more than I pay my taxes every year.

Q. Where did you make this payment?—A. It was made at John Snodgrass's residence.

Q. In what season of the year was it?—A. I think it was during the summer season.

Q. Have you given all your reasons for fixing that payment in 1877?—A. The reasons I have is that he has no taxes against me except the 1878 taxes. I have paid all my taxes up to that year.

Q. When did you see Snodgrass, if at all, in reference to your taxes being paid up to 1878?—A. I think it was on election day, February, 1879, I saw him there. There was nothing said about taxes either way.

Q. Did you ever examine his duplicate to see whether he had any taxes against you?—A. No, sir. I did not, because I knew they were paid.

Q. Did you ever make any other payment of taxes than the time you mention of having paid him 50 cents; if so, when?—A. I paid school-taxes to the same man; he was collector of both. I cannot say that it was at the same time.

Q. When did you pay your 1876 taxes?—A. If I am not mistaken it was during 1876, or rather I think it was in 1877. I am not positive which year it was, but I think it was in 1877. A person does not generally pay taxes in the same year they are laid. My father paid those taxes for me. He pays ours both together.

Q. Did your father pay the fifty cents taxes you spoke of having been paid in 1877?—A. He did and brought me the receipt.

Q. Then your statement that you paid taxes in 1877 is meant to be that your father told you he had paid your taxes and handed you what was said to be a receipt for the same, is it not?—A. It is.

Q. You stated that this payment of taxes was in John Snodgrass's house. Do you mean to say that you were present at the time your father paid your taxes?—A. No, sir; I was not present, but my father told me he had paid at Snodgrass's house. To the best of my knowledge I think he told me that.

Q. Where did your father tell you he had paid these taxes and hand you the paper you called a receipt?—A. If I am not mistaken it was at home, about a mile and a half from John Snodgrass's house.

Q. Then if your father did not actually pay these taxes, as he said he had, you cannot say that they were paid by you in person, or that you know them to be paid, can you?—A. I can't say that I paid them in person, but I can say I know them to be paid or else he would not have had the receipt.

Q. Then his having a receipt is what makes you think your taxes are paid up, is it not?—A. It is. Further, that if they had not been paid Snodgrass would have informed me of it.

Q. Did you make any search for that receipt before coming to testify this morning?—A. I did make a search this morning. I understood that my name not being registered was the trouble.

Q. Can you state the contents of that receipt?—A. No, sir.

Q. Can you state the amount of money called for?—A. Fifty cents; my State and county tax. That is what my receipt called for.

Q. You have spoken of your father having paid school and other taxes for you; was that paid at the same time you claimed the fifty cents was paid by your father?—A. The 1876 tax was paid at the same time; but I think the school tax for 1877 was paid some time afterwards.

Q. Did you depend upon your father to pay your taxes during the years 1876 and 1877?—A. I did not just ask him to pay the taxes; he said he had paid them or would pay them, I depended on him to pay my taxes and did not give them my personal attention.

Q. Did you vote for member of Congress in Bald Eagle Township, Clinton County, at the election held November 5, 1878?—A. I did. I voted for Seth H. Yocum.

J. M. A. MILLER.

JOHN Q. DICE, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. John Q. Dice. I am 46 years of age. I reside in Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania. I am a laborer.

Q. Are you acquainted with Peter Miller, of Wayne Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you acquainted with his son, Lewis Miller?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know where Lewis Miller is?—A. The last account I had of him he was in Michigan.

Q. Did you have a conversation with Peter Miller and Lewis Miller previous to November 5, 1878, in which they told you that they were not entitled to vote at the ensuing election of November 5, 1878, they not having paid State or county taxes within two years?

(Objected to as irrelevant, the casual conversations or statements of the persons named made to a person having no authority or business to inquire of them upon this point not being the best evidence; that Peter Miller himself has been on the witness stand on behalf of the contestee and was not questioned concerning this alleged statement; that the tax collectors of Wayne Township for 1876, 1877, and 1878 were upon the witness stand on behalf of the contestee and were not questioned concerning Lewis Miller at all, although they were here with their duplicates and could have furnished the best evidence; that one of said collectors (John Simcox) admitted that Peter Miller had paid at least one $\frac{0.1}{100}$ dollars upon his taxes in the forpart of the summer of 1878, which admission was recognized by counsel for contestee in their examination of Peter Miller; that the question is indefinite in not fixing the time at which said statement should have been made.)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know that their taxes were not paid after the date of that conversation?—A. The taxes may have been paid after that. The conversation I had with them was about the last day of grace. After this conversation I went to Jacob Quiggle in reference to paying their taxes myself. Peter B. Miller's taxes on that duplicate were $5.60 or $6.60. Lewis Miller's name was not on his duplicate. Joseph Fredericks was to pay that tax that evening, which was not done. It was not paid.

Q. Did you see Peter Miller and Lewis Miller vote at the election of November 5, 1878, at the election district in Wayne Township, Clinton County? Did you see their tickets and for whom they voted for member of Congress?

(Objected to as irrelevant.)

A. I saw them vote at that election in said election district. I saw both of their tickets as they voted them and as they came out of the box. I did not see them before they voted them. I was standing by the inspector. I was the only one in the room outside of the board. I was constable, and was the only one allowed in the room. They voted the whole Democratic ticket from beginning to end. They voted for Andrew G. Curtin for member of Congress.

Q. Do you know who gave them their tickets, either from what you saw or from what they told you?—A. I saw the man give them their tickets. It was John H. Chatham, the young man, old John Chatham's son.

Q. What is John H. Chatham's politics?—A. Democrat.

Q. State if during the present week John H. Chatham called upon you and entered a complaint to you in reference to the taxes of Peter B. Miller and Lewis Miller. State what day it was and what he said.

(Objected to as irrelevant.)

A. He came to me on Thursday morning, March 27, 1879. He asked me how much tax I had paid to John Simcox for Peter B. Miller. I told him that I had no money to pay anybody's taxes, and had not paid any. He said that was a "hell of a note," and left.

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE:

Q. What motive had you in going to Peter B. Miller and Lewis Miller and engaging them in conversation about their taxes? Who was with you and where did you see them?—A. I never went to them. Those persons came to me and Mont. Quiggle, at Quiggle's Hall, at Wayne station.

Q. Who commenced the conversation in reference to their taxes?—A. I spoke to those fellows in reference to voting for Stewart Barker, the Republican candidate for sheriff of Clinton County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Please give the entire conversation that took place at that time?—A. Our main conversation at that time was in reference to the sheriff. I asked those fellows for whom they intended to vote for sheriff. Peter B. Miller said he had never cut his ticket, but he thought that Smith had enough of office, and he would vote for Barker. He said he was too poor to pay his taxes; unless his taxes were paid he would not come to the election. I told him that I thought his taxes could be arranged. That is about all that transpired between Mr. Miller, myself, and Mont. Quiggle until the evening of the election.

Q. Do you think you have given nearly the language used?—A. As near as I can remember.

Q. Was there anything else said by any other party on that point at that time?—A. There was no persons excepting ourselves there. There was nothing else said by the others.

Q. Then you had your talk with Peter B. Miller, had you not?—A. Yes; at that time in Quiggle's Hall, I talked with Peter B. Miller.

Q. Was it Peter B. Miller who used the language you have given?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then Lewis Miller and Mont. Quiggle took no part in the conversation in Quiggle's Hall?—A. Not at that time.

Q. Will you please, then, tell me why you testified in chief that you had a conversation with Peter B. Miller and Lewis Miller previous to the election of November 5, 1878, in which they (both Peter B. and Lewis) said they were not entitled to vote because they had not paid taxes within two years, when in your cross-examination you have said that your conversation was with Peter B. Miller, and that Lewis Miller took no part in it?—A. From the fact that I answered the question in reference to Peter B. Miller. I will give my conversation with Lewis Miller. In reference to Lewis Miller, he said that his taxes stood on McKague's duplicate, and Mont. Quiggle was to see that his taxes were paid. That is about all that transpired between Lew. and me, as near as I can recollect.

Q. Please state as nearly as possible how long this was prior to October 5, 1878, and what brought you together in Quiggle's Hall.—A. If you can tell me the last day in October that a person could pay taxes and vote at the November election, I will tell you the date. Mont. Quiggle, Lewis Miller, and I were there every evening after camp-meeting until election. By Quiggle's Hall I mean Mont. Quiggle's room, our headquarters. It was the evening of the 4th of October that this conversation took place.

Q. How long after this did you go to examine the duplicate of Jacob Quiggle?—A. I went down the next morning.

Q. Whom did you see?—A. I saw Jacob Quiggle in his tobacco shed.

Q. What purpose had you in going to see him?—A. In reference to those fellows' taxes. I calculated we could make arrangements to fix their taxes. I was anxious for a vote for Stewart Barker.

Q. Did you go alone?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What arrangements did you expect to make for the payment of their taxes?—A. I got the amount of tax against Mr. Miller and gave it to Joseph R. Fredericks, and he sent a note with me to Jacob Quiggle, stating that he would pay the taxes that evening.

Q. Did he tell you why he did not pay the taxes?—A. Yes; from the fact that in the evening, when he went over to pay the taxes, that he lacked a few cents. Therefore it was not paid.

Q. Did you go to the duplicate of John Simcox, collector of 1876, or of Thomas McKague, collector of 1878, of State and county taxes of Wayne Township, to ascertain about these men's taxes?—A. I saw all the duplicates, but I did not go that day to see them.

Q. Did you see the other duplicates since or before that time?—A. I saw them both before and since.

Q. When did you see them since?—A. I saw all the duplicates, Quiggle's, Simcox's and McKague's, between the 5th day of October, 1878, and the 1st day of December, 1878. I have not seen them since.

Q. How did you come to see them?—A. Mr. Quiggle was at my house collecting taxes. Crawford Quiggle, who was collecting the duplicate of his father, Mr. Simcox, and Mr. McKague were there with their duplicates.

Q. Then you were soliciting these men to vote against the Democratic candidate for sheriff, were you not, and did you not believe them to be Democrats?—A. I was soliciting them to vote against the Democratic candidate for sheriff. I found them out to be pure Democrats. I believed them at that time to be Democrats. I found them out to be liars afterwards.

Q. Did you mention the name of Andrew G. Curtin or Seth H. Yocum to them at that time?

(Objected to, because the question is too indefinite. The witness, in order to answer it, would be compelled to surmise who is meant by "them," and also to surmise what is meant by "that time.")

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you believe on the election-day that the taxes of these Millers had not been paid?—A. No, sir; I did not believe it. I thought they had been paid.

Q. When was it that Fredericks told you why he did not pay the taxes to the Millers on account of lacking a few cents?—A. About the latter part of December, 1878, or the beginning of January, 1878, somewhere along there.

Continued at 12 m., to meet at 2 p. m.

Met at 2 p. m. in pursuance of continuance.

H. T. Haney, esq., appears for contestee; T. C. Hipple, esq., appears for contestant.

Witness on the stand; cross-examination resumed:

Question. Did you, on the day of the election, give to Peter B. Miller or Lewis Miller tickets which you desired them to vote?—Answer. No, sir.

Q. Did you offer them tickets?—A. No, sir.

Q. You have stated that you saw them vote. Did you make it a point to see them when they voted?—A. I did, for a fact.

Q. Did you suppose they were voting for Barker, as you had requested them to do?—A. No, sir; I did not suppose any such thing, because I was fooled before they voted.

Q. Did you make it a point to be in the room when the votes were being counted, to see, if possible, how the two Millers voted?—A. I did make it a point.

Q. Had you any doubts as to how they voted?—A. Yes, sir; I had.

Q. Regarding what particular candidate or candidates did you wish to see their tickets?—A. I never saw their tickets before they voted them. I never asked them to see their tickets. I did not want to see the name of any particular candidate.

Q. You have stated that you did "for a fact" make it a point to be present when the votes were counted, and you have stated, too, that you did not do so for the purpose of seeing how they had voted for any particular candidate. Please state why you made such an effort to see the tickets voted by these two Millers?—A. Mr. Peter Miller and Lewis Miller agreed to give me their votes for Stewart Barker for sheriff. I made such an effort from the fact that I wanted to see how the township would go.

Q. You were not a member of the election board, were you?—A. No, sir.

Q. What member of the election board allowed you to examine tickets?—A. No member allowed me, but I was constable and had access to the room.

Q. Did you handle any of the tickets?—A. I did not.

Q. Did you have the Miller tickets in your hands at all?—A. No, sir; I had not.

Q. Did any of the election board show these tickets to you?—A. No, sir.

Q. State how you came to see these tickets, and to know they were the Miller tickets?—A. It was about half past four o'clock in the afternoon when the board began to count off. It was about half past six o'clock when Peter B. Miller cast his vote. I was standing by the inspector who took in the tickets. When Peter B. Miller's vote was handed in the window, Samuel Wilson, one of the inspectors, received his vote. It was passed right over to the judge and was called off and counted. His son, Lewis Miller, next. The ticket of Lewis Miller never left the hands of the inspector till it was cried off. It never went into the box.

Q. Then neither of these tickets were actually placed in the ballot-box?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you testify this morning in your examination-in-chief that you saw both of these men's tickets as they voted them and as they came out of the box?—A. I did not see those tickets, any more than I saw them come through the window. I did testify to that; I saw them as they came out of the box, and I say I am correct to-day; I saw them vote; I did not see their tickets before they voted; I did not say so.

Q. Then these Miller tickets were put into the box by the election officers and afterwards taken out and counted, were they not?—A. No, they were not put in the box; that was just a sham about putting into the box; they were just handed in the window and then handed to the judge and counted.

Q. Who was the judge of election?—A. David Cochran.

Q. Who were the inspectors?—A. Samuel Wilson and John H. Chatham, jr.

Q. Then you do not profess to have read these tickets, do you?—A. I profess to have read them off as the inspector called them off; I was standing alongside the inspector and read them; I was looking for Barker, and I could not see it.

Q. Did you make it a point to notice who was upon these tickets for Congress?—A. Yes, sir; Andrew G. Curtin was upon them.

Q. What are your politics?—A. Democratic.

Q. Were you favorable to the nomination and election of Andrew G. Curtin?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you electioneer against Andrew G. Curtin?—A. No, sir; I never said a word against him.

Q. Did you not give out one or more Democratic tickets with the name of Curtin scratched or erased from it?—A. I gave one ticket with the name of Curtin erased, and that was to my son, James Dice; I erased the name of Curtin in my own ticket.

Q. Did you vote the ticket erased, or did you place another name instead of the name Curtin?—A. We voted the ticket erased. My son voted as I did.

Q. Did you not on the day of election exhibit to John H. Chatham a ticket with the name of Seth H. Yocum upon it for Congress, and did you not tell him that was the ticket you were going to vote?—A. No, sir; I did no such thing; I showed my ticket to John Simcox; I voted at half past twelve o'clock; my number was ninety-six; I erased the name of Curtin, and did not vote for Yocum.

Q. Did you vote for anybody for member of Congress?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you, within two weeks, or thereabouts, about the time when a number of witnesses were here from Wayne Township on behalf of the contestee, have a conversation with the Hon. L. A. Mackey and W. A. Simpson, in Lock Haven, in which you stated to Mr. Mackey that you and your son and Adam Dice had all voted for Mr. Mackey for Congress November 5, 1878, and that you wanted to find out why those three votes had not been counted and returned?—A. I don't recollect of any such conversation.

Q. Have you not, since this contest commenced, engaged actively in hunting witnesses and gathering information in behalf of the contestee?—A. I answer that emphatically, no.

Q. Do you know how it became known to the counsel for the contestee that you had had conversations with Peter B. and Lewis Miller, and that you had seen their tickets, and the other points you have testified to?—A. I can't answer that question, therefore I won't; if I knew it I would tell it.

Q. Did any one vote after the Millers voted that evening?—A. Yes, sir; I think there was some sixteen votes polled after that.

Q. Were all the other votes that came in after Miller's treated the same way that you say Miller's were?—A. On the same principle; I think John Young was the last voter; in counting off they had more than three or four in the box.

Q. Then they did not at any time have the box empty of votes?—A. No, sir; they did not.

Q. Two names appear upon the poll-list from Wayne Township, one "J. Q. Dice," the other "James Q. Dice." Is either intended for you; if so, which?—A. James Q. Dice is my son; J. Q. Dice is my own name.

Q. Did the polls open in the morning at the regular time on November 5, 1878?—A. I opened the polls at 10 minutes after 7 o'clock in the morning; no voters there at that time; closed them at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Q. Did the voters commence voting at once?—A. Yes, sir.

Direct examination by H. T. HANEY, Esq.:

Q. Was the box open, and were they counting at the time Peter B. Miller and Lewis Miller voted?—A. Yes, sir; they were counting out; the box was open.

Q. Did the inspector put his hand into the box, holding these tickets, without dropping them into the box?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where was the election in Wayne Township held?—A. At Wayne Hotel.

Q. What is the regular place for holding the election in Wayne Township, and how far is it from the hotel?

(Objected to because in the charges and specifications of contestee there is nothing as to the election being irregularly held in Wayne Township or that it was not held at the right place.)

A. Wayne school-house; it is 254 rods from the hotel.

Cross-examined:

Q. How long have the elections been held at Wayne Hotel?—A. The spring election of 1878 was the first election held there.

Q. Do you not know that the place of holding the elections have been changed from the school-house by a vote of the people taken, and that a petition was presented to the court asking the change?—A. Yes, sir; but the court never confirmed it; the sheriff advertised for the school-house.

Q. Do you not know that the general election of 1877 was held at the same place as that of 1878?—A. It was held at the Wayne school-house.

JOHN Q. DICE.

WALTER S. CHATHAM, being duly sworn, deposes as follows:

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. Walter S. Chatham; I am 43 years of age; I reside in Lock Haven, Clinton County, Pennsylvania; I am a printer by trade.

Q. Have you been employed in subpoenaing witnesses on part of contestee in these proceedings?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you acquainted with A. C. Chatham and Samuel Wentzel, of Crawford Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you have a conversation with Samuel Wenzel at any time since November 5, 1878; and if so, what did he say to you about his having voted for member of Congress, and about his not having paid State or county taxes?

(Objected to because the casual statements of a party as to how he voted are irrelevant and in nowise competent to establish the fact of his having voted for any particular candidate, they not being the best evidence.)

A. I did have a conversation with him; he told me he voted for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress; and as regards taxes, he told me he had not paid any taxes; that he had dealings with the tax collector.

Q. What did he say, if anything, as to the time within which he had paid State or county taxes?

(Objected to for same reason as above.)

A. He told me that the last tax he had paid to the tax-collector was in 1875.

Q. Did you have a conversation with A. C. Chatham, in which he told you for whom he had voted for member of Congress; and if so, for whom did he say he voted?

(Objected to as irrelevant and merely a casual statement of a party to another who had no authority or right to inquire, and whom A. C. Chatham was under no obligations to answer either at all or correctly; that the said A. C. Chatham was himself before the commissioner yesterday, but was not called as a witness on account of proper notice not having been given to contestant's counsel; that the best evidence on that point would have been from A. C. Chatham himself, and the contestee was bound to due care and diligence to obtain the best evidence.)

A. I did have a conversation with him, and he told me he had voted for Andrew G. Curtin for member of Congress.

(Notary is requested by H. T. Haney, esq., attorney for contestee, to note that the evidence offered is the best under the circumstances that it is possible to introduce; that the failure to give notice to contestant's counsel was not discovered until the witness was called to the witness-stand with thirty-six hours of the time when contestee's time for taking testimony would expire.

Counsel for contestant objects to commissioner making any such note, for the reason that the commissioner cannot tell whether this is the best evidence or not, nor can he tell when the failure to notify contestant's counsel of A. C. Chatham was first discovered.)

Cross-examined by T. C. HIPPLE, Esq.:

Q. Since what time have you been employed on behalf of contestee?

—A. Since February 22, 1879.

Q. Have you not been engaged actively in behalf of contestee ever since a long time prior to February 22, 1879, in the examining of office papers, registry and poll-lists, &c., and traveling through Clinton County on business pertaining to the contest on behalf of the contestee? If so, state when you first began to work on behalf of the contestee.—A. I can't tell exactly at this time, but I think it was some time the latter part of December, 1878, or in the beginning of January, 1879; I have been engaged actively in examining office papers, registry and poll-lists, &c., on behalf of contestee.

Q. When did you have this conversation with Wenzel?—A. On the 8th day of March, 1879, at his house in Crawford Township.

Q. Did not Wenzel claim that his taxes were paid or discharged within two years before November 5, 1878, through dealings he had with the tax-collector?—A. He said that he had dealings with the tax-collector; that is all he said.

Q. Did you not understand him then to mean only that he had not paid actual money for his taxes?—A. He just told me that the last tax he had paid was in 1875. He said that he had had dealings with the tax collector and had not had a settlement with him.

Q. Did you not understand him then to claim that he had such dealings with the tax-collector as would pay his taxes?—A. I could only infer that from his remark.

Q. Were you instructed by the counsel for the contestee to inquire especially concerning how persons whom you subpoenaed had voted, or whether they had paid taxes?—A. I was.

Q. When did Alfred Chatham tell you he had voted for Andrew G. Curtin?—A. On the evening of March 7, 1879, at his own house.

Q. You made your inquiries for the same reason that you inquired of Wenzel and other parties?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. You have no positive means of knowing whether they told you the truth or not, have you?—A. No, sir.

Direct examination :

Q. Where do A. C. Chatham and Samuel Wentz live?—A. In Crawford Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania.

WALTER S. CHATHAM.

JOHN SWEEZEY, being duly sworn, deposes as follows :

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. John Sweezy ; I am thirty-five years of age ; I reside at present in Gallagher Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania ; I lived in the Fourth ward of the city of Lock Haven on November 5, 1878 ; I am a tanner.

Q. Where was your family on November 5, 1878?—A. In Lock Haven, Pennsylvania.

Q. Had your family been in the fourth ward of the city of Lock Haven all of the time during the summer and fall of 1878, previous to November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir ; they had.

Q. Were you a housekeeper in the fourth ward of the city of Lock Haven?—A. We kept house ; yes, sir.

Q. Who did you keep house with?—A. With my wife and family.

Q. Do you say now, under oath, that you and your wife staid in Lock Haven, and that you kept a house where you and your wife lived all of the time during the year 1878, up to November 5, 1878?

(Objected to as covering a longer period than sixty days previous to November 5, 1878.)

A. I do. I moved that afternoon of the 5th of November, 1878, at about 4 o'clock ; I started to move at that time. I voted before I started. I voted the straight Democratic ticket that day.

Cross-examined :

Q. Did you know any other person in the fourth ward of Lock Haven than yourself by the name of "John Sweeze," or "John Sweezy"?—A. I did not.

JOHN SWEEZEY.

M. C. LINGLE, being duly affirmed, deposes as follows :

Question. State your name, age, residence, and occupation.—Answer. M. C. Lingle. I am twenty-four years of age. I reside in the first ward of the city of Lock Haven, Pennsylvania. I am an attorney at law.

Q. Are you acquainted with Lewis K. Brown, of the fourth ward of the city of Lock Haven, Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is his politics?

(Objected to as irrelevant.)

A. I can't say positively, but I think he is a Democrat.

Q. State if you subpoenaed him to be present here and testify in these proceedings; and, if so, when you subpœnaed him.—A. I subpœnaed him on the 24th day of March, 1879, at the house of his sister, Mrs. Beyer, in the fourth ward of the city of Lock Haven, Pennsylvania. I subpœnaed him for the 29th March, 1879.

Q. At the time you were requested to subpœna him were you furnished with a memorandum or statement by contestee's counsel of what they expected to prove by him?

(Objected to as irrelevant.)

A. I can't say that I was, exactly. I was given a memorandum containing a list of non-registered voters with instructions to subpœna them and ascertain how they voted.

Q. Look at this memorandum and state whether this is the memorandum you had.—A. Yes, sir; it is.

Q. Is it in your handwriting?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. State what you have entered on that memorandum opposite the name of Lewis K. Brown.

(Objected to as irrelevant, as showing merely the memorandum made by the agent of the contestee in advance of serving of subpœna, and showing only the supposed facts about said individuals, and as containing alleged evidence of a fact that could have been easily proved by the tax-collectors of Lock Haven, none of whom were called by the contestee, which collectors could have furnished the best evidence on the point.)

A. "Paid tax to Beck a few days before the election."

Q. Do you know Joseph Yearick and Winslow Poorman and C. F. Earon?—A. Yes, sir; the first two (Joseph Yearick and Winslow Poorman) live in the first ward of the city of Lock Haven, and C. F. Earon lives in Colebrook Township, Clinton County, Pennsylvania.

Q. State if you had a conversation with each of these persons, and did they tell you that they had voted on the 5th day of November, 1878, and how they had voted?—A. I can't answer that directly. They gave different answers. Joseph Yearick told me he always voted the Democratic ticket; Winslow Poorman told me he had voted for Curtin; C. F. Earon said he was a Democrat.

Cross-examined:

Q. These questions were asked of the individuals to whom you have referred in pursuance of your instructions from the counsel for the contestee that you should question the parties and find out how they had voted and so on?—A. I can't say that I was requested to ask the parties directly, but to ascertain in some manner or other how they voted, so as to subpœna them or not as would be necessary in regard to the time for subpœnaing the witness. I subpœnaed C. F. Earon because I had the five days' time to give notice to contestant. In the other two cases it was too late to subpœna them.

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He shall have resided in the State one year (or if having previously been a qualified elector or native-born citizen of the State, he shall have removed therefrom and returned, then six months) immediately preceding the election.

Third. He shall have resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election.

Fourth. If twenty-two years of age or upwards, he shall have paid within two years a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election.

SEC. 4. All elections by the citizens shall be by ballot. Every ballot voted shall be numbered in the order in which it shall be received, and the number recorded by the election officers on the list of voters opposite the name of the elector who presents the ballot. Any elector may write his name upon his ticket, or cause the same to be written thereon and attested by a citizen of the district. The election officers shall be sworn or affirmed not to disclose how any elector shall have voted unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

SEC. 5. Electors shall in all cases, except treason, felony, and breach of surety of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance on elections and in going to and returning therefrom.

SEC. 7. All laws regulating the holding of elections by the citizens or for the registration of electors shall be uniform throughout the State, but no elector shall be deprived of the privilege of voting by reason of his name not being registered.

SEC. 8. Any person who shall give, or promise or offer to give, to an elector any money, reward, or other valuable consideration for his vote at an election, or for withholding the same, or who shall give or promise to give such consideration to any other person or party for such elector's vote or for the withholding thereof, and any elector who shall receive or agree to receive, for himself or for another, any money, reward, or other valuable consideration for his vote at an election, or for withholding the same, shall thereby forfeit the right to vote at such election, and any elector whose right to vote shall be challenged for such cause before the election officers shall be required to swear or affirm that the matter of the challenge is untrue before his vote shall be received.

Any person convicted of willful violation of the election laws shall, in addition to any penalties provided by law, be deprived of the right of suffrage absolutely for a term of four years.

SEC. 13. For the purpose of voting no person shall be deemed to have gained a residence by reason of his presence, or lost it reason of his absence while employed in the service, either civil or military, of this State or of the United States, nor while engaged in the navigation of the waters of the State, or the United States, or on the high seas, nor while a student of any institution of learning, nor while kept in any poor-house or other asylum at public expense, nor while confined in public prison.

SEC. 10. On the day of election any person whose name shall not appear on the registry of voters, and who claims the right to vote at said election, shall produce at least one qualified voter of the district as a witness to the residence of the claimant in the district in which he claims to be a voter for the period of at least two months immediately preceding said election, which witness shall be sworn or affirmed, and subscribe a written or partly written and partly printed affidavit to the facts stated by him, which affidavit shall define clearly where the residence is of the person so claiming to be a voter, and the person so claiming the right to vote shall also take and subscribe a written or partly written and partly printed affidavit, stating, to the best of his knowledge and belief, when and where he was born; that he has been a citizen of the United States for one month and of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania; that he has resided in the commonwealth one year, or, if formerly a qualified elector or a native-born citizen thereof, and has removed therefrom and returned, that he has resided therein six months next preceding said election; that he has resided in the district in which he claims to be a voter for the period of at least two months immediately preceding said election; that he has not moved into the district for the purpose of voting therein; that he has, if twenty-two years of age or upwards, paid a State or county tax within two years, which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election. The said affidavit shall also state when and where the tax claimed to be paid by the affiant was assessed, and when and where and to whom paid; and the tax receipt therefor shall be produced for examination, unless the affiant shall state in his affidavit that it has been lost or destroyed, or that he never received any; and, if a naturalized citizen, shall also state when, where, and by what court he was naturalized, and shall produce his certificate of naturalization for examination. But if the person so claiming the right to vote shall take and subscribe an affidavit that he is a native-born citizen of the United States, or, if born elsewhere, shall state the fact in his affidavit, and shall produce evidence that he has been naturalized, or that he is entitled to citizenship by reason of his father's naturalization, and shall further state in his affidavit that he is, at the time of making the affidavit, of the age of twenty-one and under twenty-two years; that he has been a citizen of the United States one month, and has resided in the State one year; or, if a native-born citizen of the State and removed therefrom and returned, that he has resided therein six months next preceding said election, and in the election district immediately two months preceding such election, he shall be entitled to vote, although he shall not have paid taxes. SEC. 11. It shall be lawful for any qualified citizen of the district, notwithstanding the name of the proposed voter is contained on the list of resident taxables, to challenge the vote of such person, whereupon the same proof of the right of suffrage as is now required by law shall be publicly made and acted upon by the election board, and the vote admitted or rejected according to the evidence. Every person claiming to be a naturalized citizen shall be required to produce his naturalization certificate at the election before voting, except where he has been for five years consecutively a voter in the district where he offers a vote; and on the vote of such person being received, the election officers are to write or stamp the word "voted" on his certificate, with the day, month, and year, and if any election officer or officers shall receive a second vote on the same day by virtue of the same certificate, except where sons are entitled to vote because of the naturalization of their father, they and the person who shall offer such second vote, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined or imprisoned, or both, at the discretion of the court; but the fine shall not exceed five hundred dollars in each case, nor the imprisonment more than one year. The like punishment shall be inflicted, on conviction, on the officers of election who shall neglect, or refuse to make, or cause to be made, the endorsement required as aforesaid on said naturalization certificate.

SEC. 12. If any election officer shall refuse or neglect to require such proof of the right of suffrage as is prescribed by this law, or the laws to which this is a supplement, from any person offering to vote whose name is not on the list of assessed voters, or whose right to vote is challenged by any qualified voter present, and shall admit such person to vote without requiring such proof, every person so offending shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be sentenced, for every such offense, to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or undergo an imprisonment of not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 19. Any assessor, election officers, or person appointed as an overseer, who shall neglect or refuse to perform any duty enjoined by this act, without reasonable or legal cause, shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars; and if any assessor shall knowingly assess any person as a voter who is not qualified, or who shall willfully refuse to assess any one who is qualified, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and, on conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both, at the discretion of the court, and also be subject to an action for damages by the party aggrieved; and if any person shall fraudulently alter, add to, deface, or destroy any list of voters made out as directed by this act, or tear down or remove the same from the place where it has been fixed, with fraudulent or mischievous intent, or for any improper purpose, the person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both, at the discretion of the court; and if any person shall by violence or intimidation, drive or attempt to drive from the polls any person or persons appointed by the court to act as overseers of an election, or in any way willfully prevent said overseers from performing the duties enjoined upon them by this act, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both, at the discretion of the court. Any person who shall on the day of any election visit a polling place in any election district which he is not entitled to vote, and shall

The vote, as soon as counted, shall also be publicly and fully declared from the window to the citizens present, and a brief statement showing the votes received by each candidate shall be made and signed by the election officers as soon as the vote is counted, and the same shall be immediately posted up on the door of the election house for the information of the public. The triplicate returns shall be enclosed in envelopes and be sealed in the presence of the officers, and one envelope with the unsealed return sheet given to the judge, which shall contain one list of voters, tally paper, and oaths of officers, and another of said envelopes shall be given to the minority inspector. district shall require the election boxes of such district to hold any election which by law they are or shall be required to hold, they shall keep the same securely in their possession without opening until the morning of such election, and until they shall severally be sworn or affirmed not to disclose how any elector shall have voted, and after being so sworn or affirmed, they shall open the said boxes and burn and totally destroy all the ballots and other papers which they shall find therein, before proceeding to hold such election.

CONTESTED ELECTIONS.

That whenever, in contested elections of president or additional law judges, senators and members of the house of representatives, and of county, borough, township, or municipal officers, under the provisions of the ninth section of an act entitled "An act designating the several classes of contested elections in this commonwealth, and providing for the trial thereof," approved the nineteenth day of May, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and seventy-four, wherein it is provided that in contested elections of president or additional law judges, senators and members of the house of representatives, and of county, borough, township, or municipal officers, in which the court or judge shall not decide that the complaint is without probable cause, the proper district, county, city, township, borough, ward, school district, or municipality shall be liable to pay all costs, and the same shall be promptly paid by the proper authorities; and upon the order of the court or judge trying the case, if any court or judge shall have heretofore decided, or shall hereafter decide, that the complaint was not or is not without probable cause, the said court or judge is hereby authorized and shall apportion all the costs among the proper districts, counties, cities, townships, boroughs, wards, school districts, or municipalities of the whole district in which the contest is had, in such way as said court or judge shall think just, and to compel by order the payment of such amounts so appropriated to each of the properly constituted authorities of each of the proper districts, counties, cities, townships, boroughs, wards, school districts, or municipalities as the payments of debts by the same can now be enforced.

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He shall have resided in the State one year (or if having previously been a qualified elector or native-born citizen of the State, he shall have removed therefrom and returned, then six months) immediately preceding the election.

Fourth. If twenty-two years of age or upwards, he shall have paid within two years a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election.

SECTION 4. All elections by the citizens shall be by ballot. Every ballot voted shall be numbered in the order in which it shall be received, and the number recorded by the election officers on the list of voters, opposite the name of the elector who presents the ballot. Any elector may write his name upon his ticket, or cause the same to be written thereon and attested by a citizen of the district. SEC. 8. Any person who shall give, or promise or offer to give, to an elector, any money, reward, or other valuable consideration for his vote at an election, or for withholding the same, or who shall give or promise to give such consideration to any other person or party for such elector's vote or for the withholding thereof, and any elector who shall receive or agree to receive, for himself or for another, any money, reward, or other valuable consideration for his vote at an election, or for withholding the same, shall thereby forfeit the right to vote at such election, and any elector whose right to vote shall be challenged for such cause before the election officers, shall be required to swear or affirm that the matter of the challenge is untrue before his vote shall be received.

SEC. 10. On the day of election any person whose name shall not appear on the registry of voters, and who claims the right to vote at said election, shall produce at least one qualified voter of the district as a witness to the residence of the claimant in the district in which he claims to be a voter, for the period of at least two months immediately preceding said election, which witness shall be sworn or affirmed and subscribe a written or partly written and partly printed affidavit to the facts stated by him, which affidavit shall define clearly where the residence is of the person so claiming to be a voter, and the person so claiming the right to vote shall also take and subscribe a written or partly written and partly printed affidavit, stating, to the best of his knowledge and belief, when and where he was born; that he has been a citizen of the United States for one month, and of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania; that he has resided in the commonwealth one year, or if formerly a qualified elector or a native-born citizen thereof, and has removed therefrom and returned, that he has resided therein six months next preceding said election; that he has resided in the district in which he claims to be a voter for the period of at least two months immediately preceding said election; that he has not moved into the district for the purpose of voting therein; that he has, if twenty-two years of age or upwards, paid a State or county tax within two years, which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election. The said affidavit shall also state when and where the tax claimed to be paid by the affiant was assessed and when and where and to whom paid; and the tax receipt therefor shall be produced for examination, unless the affiant shall state in his affidavit that it has been lost or destroyed, or that he never received any; and if a naturalized citizen, shall also state when, where, and by what court he was naturalized and shall produce his certificate of naturalization for examination. But if the person so claiming the right to vote shall take and subscribe an affidavit that he is a native-born citizen of the United States, or, if born elsewhere, shall state the fact in his affidavit, and shall produce evidence that he has been naturalized or that he is entitled to citizenship by reason of his father's naturalization, and shall further state in his affidavit that he is, at the time of making the affidavit, of the age of twenty-one and under twenty-two years; that he has been a citizen of the United States one month, and has resided in the State one year; or if a native-born citizen of the State and removed therefrom and returned, that he has resided therein six months next preceding said election, and in the election district immediately two months preceding such election, he shall be entitled to vote although he shall not have paid taxes. The said affidavits of all persons making such claims, and the affidavits of the witnesses to their residence, shall be preserved by the election board, and at the close of the election they shall be enclosed with the list of voters, tally-list, and other papers required by law to be filled by the return judge with the prothonotary, and shall remain on file therewith in the prothonotary's office, subject to examination as other election papers are. If the election officers shall find that the applicant possesses all the legal qualifications of a voter he shall be permitted to vote, and his name shall be added to the list of taxables by the election officers, the word "tax" being added where the claimant claims to vote on tax, and the word "age" where he claims to vote on age; the same words being added by the clerks in each case, respectively, on the list of persons voting at such election.

SEC. 11. It shall be lawful for any qualified citizen of the district, notwithstanding the name of the proposed voter is contained on the list of resident taxables, to challenge the vote of such person, whereupon the same proof of the right of suffrage as is now required by law shall be publicly made and acted upon by the election board, and the vote admitted or rejected according to the evidence. Every person claiming to be a naturalized citizen shall be required to produce his naturalization certificate at the election before voting, except where he has been for five years consecutively a voter in the district where he offers a vote; and on the vote of such person being received, the election officers are to write or stamp the word "voted" on his certificate, with the day, month, and year, and if any election officer or officers shall receive a second vote on the same day by virtue of the same certificate, except where sons are entitled to vote because of the naturalization of their father, they and the person who shall offer such second vote shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined or imprisoned, or both, at the discretion of the court; but the fine shall not exceed five hundred dollars in each case nor the imprisonment more than one year. The like punishment shall be inflicted, on conviction, on the officers of election who shall neglect or refuse to make or cause to be made the indorsement required as aforesaid on said naturalization certificate.

SEC. 12. If any election officer shall refuse or neglect to require such proof of the right of suffrage as is prescribed by this law or the laws to which this is a supplement, from any person offering to vote whose name is not on the list of assessed voters, or whose right to vote is challenged by any qualified voter present, and shall admit such person to vote without requiring such proof, every person so offending shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be sentenced for every such offense to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or undergo an imprisonment of not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 19. Any assessor, election officers, or person appointed as an overseer, who shall neglect or refuse to perform any duty enjoined by this act without reasonable or legal cause, shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars; and if any assessor shall knowingly assess any person as a voter who is not qualified, or who shall willfully refuse to assess any one who is qualified, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and, on conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both, at the discretion of the court, and also be subject to an action for damages by the party aggrieved; and if any person shall fraudulently alter, add to, deface, or destroy any list of voters made out as directed by this act, or tear down or remove the same from the place where it has been fixed, with fraudulent or mischievous intent, or for any improper purpose, the person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both, at the discretion of the court; and if any person shall, by violence or intimidation, drive or attempt to drive from the polls any person or persons appointed by the court to act as overseers of an election, or in any way willfully prevent said overseers from performing the duties enjoined upon them by this act, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both, at the discretion of the court. Any person who shall on the day of any election visit a polling place in any election district which he is not entitled to vote, and shall use any intimidation or violence for the purpose of preventing any officer of election from performing the duties required of him by law, or for the purpose of preventing any qualified voter of such district exercising his right to vote, or from exercising his right to challenge any person offering to vote, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both, at the discretion of the court. Any clerk, overseer, or election officer who shall disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

B.] do ——— that I will duly attend to the ensuing election during the continuance thereof as an inspector, and that I will not receive any ticket or vote from any person other than such as I firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and the laws of this commonwealth, entitled to a vote at such election without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law, nor will I vexatiously delay or refuse to receive any vote from any person who I shall believe to be entitled to vote as aforesaid, and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding, but that I will in all things truly and impartially and faithfully perform my duty therein to the best of my judgment and abilities, and that I am not, directly or indirectly, interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election."

The following shall be the oath or affirmation of each judge, viz: "I [A. B.] do ——— that I will, as judge, duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, and faithfully assist the inspectors in carrying on the same; that I will not give my consent that any vote or ticket shall be received from any person other than such as firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law, and that I will use my best endeavors to prevent any fraud, deceit, or abuse in carrying on the same by citizens qualified to vote, or others, and I will make a true and perfect return of the said election, and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding, and will in all things truly, impartially, and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same, to the best of my judgment and ability, and that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election."

The following shall be the form of oath or affirmation to be taken by each clerk, viz: "I [A. B.] do ——— that I will impartially and truly write down the name of each elector who shall vote at the ensuing election which shall be given me in charge, and also the name of the township, ward, or district wherein such elector resides, and will record the number of his ballot on the list of voters opposite to his name, and carefully and truly write down the number of his ballot on the list of voters opposite to his name, and carefully and truly write down the number of votes that shall be given for each candidate at the election, as often as his name shall be read to me by the inspector thereof, and in all things truly and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same, to the best of my judgment and ability; that I am not, directly or indirectly, interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election, and that I will not disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding."

A. G. CURTIN.

FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT.

Whereas the Congress of the United States on the 31st day of March, 1870, passed an act entitled "An act to enforce the right of citizens of the United States to vote in the several States of this Union, and for other purposes," the first and second sections of which are as follows:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all citizens of the United States who are or shall be otherwise qualified by law to vote at any election by the people in any State, Territory, district, city, parish, township, school district, municipality, or other territorial subdivision, shall be entitled and allowed to vote at all such elections, without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude, any constitution, law, custom, usage, or regulation of any State or Territory, or by or under its authority, to the contrary notwithstanding.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That by or under the authority of the constitution or laws of any State, or the laws of any Territory, any act is or shall be required to be done as a prerequisite or qualification for voting, and by such constitution or law persons or officers are or shall be charged with the performance of duties in furnishing to citizens an opportunity to perform such requisite, or to become qualified to vote, it shall be the duty of every such person and officer to give to all citizens of the United States the same and equal opportunity to perform such prerequisite, and to become qualified to vote, without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude; and if such person or officer shall refuse or knowingly omit to give full effect to this section, he shall, for every such offense, forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred dollars to the person aggrieved thereby, to be recovered by an action on the case, with full costs and such allowance for counsel fees as the court shall deem just; and shall also, for every such offense, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction thereof, be fined not less than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned not less than one month nor more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

HOW TO MAKE RETURNS.

SEC. 13. As soon as the polls shall close the officers of election shall proceed to count all the votes cast for each candidate voted for, and make a full return of the same in triplicate, with a return sheet in addition, in all of which the votes received by each candidate shall be given after his or her name, first in words and again in figures, and shall be signed by all of said officers and certified by overseers, if any, or if not so certified, the overseers and any officers refusing to sign or certify, or either of them, shall write upon each of the returns his or their reasons for not signing or certifying them. The vote as soon as counted shall also be publicly and fully declared from the window to the citizens present, and a brief statement showing the votes received by each candidate shall be made and signed by the election officers as soon as the vote is counted, and the same shall be immediately posted up on the door of the election house for the information of the public. The triplicate returns shall be inclosed in envelopes and be sealed in presence of the officers, and one envelope, with the unsealed return sheet, given to the judge, which shall contain one list of voters, tally paper, and oaths of officers, and another of said envelopes shall be given to the minority inspector. All judges living within twelve miles of the prothonotary's office, or within twenty-four miles, if their residence be in a town, village, or city upon the line of a railroad leading to the county seat, shall before 2 o'clock post meridian of the day after the election, and all other judges shall, before twelve o'clock meridian of the second day after the election, deliver said return, together with return sheet, to the prothonotary of the court of common pleas of the county, which said return sheet shall be filed, and the day and hour of filing marked thereon, and shall be preserved by the prothonotary for public inspection. At twelve o'clock on the said second day following any election the prothonotary of the court of common pleas shall present the said returns to the said court. In counties where there is no resident president judge the associate judges shall perform the duties imposed upon the court of common pleas, which shall convene for said purpose; the return presented by the prothonotary shall be opened by said court and computed by such of its officers and such sworn assistants as the court shall appoint, in the presence of the judge or judges of the said court, and the returns certified and certificates of election issued under the seal of the court as is now required to be done by return judges; and the vote as so computed and certified shall be made a matter of record in said court. The sessions of said court are open to the public. And in case the return of any election district shall be missing when the returns are presented, or in case of complaint of a qualified elector under oath, charging palpable fraud or mistake, and particularly specifying the alleged fraud or mistake, or where fraud or mistake is apparent on the return, the court shall examine the return, and if in the judgment of the court it shall be necessary to a just return, said court shall issue summary process against the election officers and overseers, if any, of the election district complained of, to bring them forthwith into court, with all election papers in their possession; and if palpable mistake or fraud shall be discovered, it shall, upon such hearing as may be deemed necessary to enlighten the court, be corrected by the court, and so certified; but all allegations of palpable fraud or mistake shall be decided by the said court within three days after the day the returns are brought into court for computation; and the said inquiry shall be directed only to palpable fraud or mistake, and shall not be deemed a judicial adjudication to conclude any contest now or hereafter to be provided by law; and the other said triplicate returns shall be placed in the box and sealed up with the ballots. Nothing in this act shall require the returns of elections of township or borough officers to be made to the court as directed in this section, but all returns of the election of township and borough officers shall be enclosed in a sealed cover, directed to the prothonotary of the court of common pleas of the proper county, and shall, by some one of them, be delivered into his office within three days after every such election and filed therein.

DISTRICT RETURN JUDGES.

When two or more counties are connected for the election of any officer, the courts of such counties shall each appoint a return judge to meet at such a time and place as required by law, to compute and certify the vote of such district. All officers provided for by this act shall be compensated as like officers are paid by existing laws. Whenever a place has been or shall be provided by the authorities of any city, county, township, or borough for the safe keeping of the ballot boxes, the judge and minority inspector shall, after the election shall be finished and the ballot box or boxes containing the tickets, list of voters and other papers, have been securely bound with tape and sealed, and the signatures of the judge and inspectors affixed thereto, forthwith deliver the same, together with the remaining boxes, to the mayor and recorder of such city, or in counties, townships, or boroughs, to such person or persons as the court of common pleas of the proper county may designate, at the place provided as aforesaid, who shall then deposit the said boxes and keep the same to answer the call of any court or tribunal authorized to try the merits of such election. Whenever the election officers of any district shall require the election boxes of such district to hold any election which by law they are or shall be required to hold, they shall keep the same securely in their possession, without opening until the morning of such election, and until they shall severally be sworn or affirmed not to disclose how any elector shall have voted, and after being so sworn or affirmed, they shall open the said boxes and burn and totally destroy all the ballots and other papers which they shall find therein, before proceeding to hold such election.

CONTESTED ELECTIONS.

That whenever, in contested elections of president or additional law judges, senators, and members of the house of representatives, and of county, borough, township, or municipal officers, under the provisions of the ninth section of an act entitled "An act designating the several classes of contested elections in this commonwealth, and providing for the trial thereof," approved the nineteenth day of May, anno Domini eighteen hundred and seventy-four, wherein it is provided that in contested elections of president or additional law judges, senators, and members of the house of representatives, and of county, borough, township, or municipal officers, in which the court or judge shall not decide that the complaint is without probable cause, the proper district, county, city, township, borough, ward, school district, or municipality shall be liable to pay all costs, and the same shall be promptly paid by the proper authorities and upon the order of the court or judge trying the case, if any court or judge shall have heretofore decided, or shall hereafter decide, that the complaint was not, or is not, without probable cause, the said court or judge is hereby authorized and shall apportion all the costs among the proper districts, counties, cities, townships, boroughs, wards, school districts, or municipalities of the whole district in which the contest is had, in such way as said court or judge shall think just, and to compel by order the payment of such amounts so appropriated to each of the properly constituted authorities of each of the proper districts, counties, cities, townships, boroughs, wards, school districts or municipalities as the payments of debts by the same can now be enforced.

Q. You neither know of your own personal knowledge that Yale paid this tax in question nor when he paid it, do you ?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you examine the ticket you cast on November 5, 1878, in Horton election district immediately before you cast it ?—A. I didn't look over the whole of it ; I looked over some of it, and I saw that the main men that I cared anything for were on.

Q. To what political party did you belong on November 5, 1878 ?—A. To the Democratic party, but I voted the Yocum ticket last fall.

Q. Don't you know that the Democratic tickets in the fall of 1878 were not printed with name of Yocum upon them ?—A. I don't know whether I can answer that question or not.

Q. Have you ever known sons to deceive their parents?—A. No, sir.

Q. Can sons deceive their parents?—A. Yes, sir; they can.

Q. Might Daniel Silvis not have voted, possibly, for Andrew G. Curtin?—A. He might, but I know he didn't.

Q. Couldn't he have had a Curtin ticket in his hand which he did not show you and a Yocum ticket in his hand which he did show you, and then have voted the Curtin ticket?—A. He could, but he didn't.

Q. Were your eyes constantly on him from the time you saw a ticket in his hands till the time he voted, and that for the express purpose of seeing and knowing precisely how he voted?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you swear positively in giving your answer to the last above question?—A. Yes, sir; I stood at the window and looked at his ticket and handed it right back to him, and he put it in.

Q. Where did he get his ticket?—A. I gave it to him.

Q. Where did you get it?—A. From Horton.

Q. Warren H. Horton?—A. Yes, sir.

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, as irrelevant and incompetent.)

A. About that time.

Q. Is the receipt spoken of by you as having been drawn last night, a copy of which is set forth in your evidence, a duplicate of the receipt spoken of as lost, in respect to date, what for, and signature?—A. That receipt is drawn from George Clinton's duplicate.

Q. Are you or are you not a property holder; and, if so, for how long have you been?—A. I have been for about six years.

Recross-examined:

Q. At the time James Yale lived on and worked your farm, wasn't it agreed between you and Yale that he should pay the tax?—A. Yes, sir; he was to pay the tax.

Q. Have you had any conversation with any one about what you should testify to before this commission in regard to the name of the candidate for Congress for whom you voted?—A. No, sir; I didn't.

Redirect:

Q. Was or was not the payment of taxes agreed upon between you and Yale a part of the consideration for leasing him the property?—A. He was to pay part of it and I was to pay the others, and he paid the whole of it and I paid him.

Recross-examined by GEORGE R. DIXON:

Q. Did you own the land which James Yale farmed?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Question. What is your name?—Answer. Oliver Elias Sherman.

Q. How old are you?—A. Thirty-nine years old the 23d day of February.

Q. Where do you reside?—A. In Horton Township, Elk County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How long have you resided there?—A. Since two years ago the last of this month or the first of next month.

Q. What is your occupation?—A. Laborer.

Q. Are you a citizen of the United States and of the State of Pennsylvania?—A. I am.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years, which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before November 5, 1878?—A. I can't tell just when it was assessed. I paid two State and county taxes since I came there—1877 and 1878.

Q. Did you vote at the general election held in Horton district, November 5, 1878, for a candidate for Representative in Congress for the twentieth Congressional district of the State of Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for said office?—A. Seth H. Yocum.

Q. Are you acquainted with William Vibbert?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know where he lives on Bogy Run?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What township is that in?—A. Horton.

Cross-examined:

Q. In what part of Horton Township do you reside?—A. Bogy Run.

Q. Do you, of your own knowledge, know that you were assessed?—A. I had a notice to that effect.

Q. Who sent you your notice?—A. The notice was sent by my hired man, T. W. Space. I think he said Burchfield sent it.

Q. Do you know that Burchfield was not an assessor for Horton Township for 1877 or 1878?—A. Yes, sir; was not an assessor.

Q. Then this notice which you received from Mr. Burchfield was not the notice of an assessor?—A. The notice was probably given him by the assessor; Burchfield was constable; the notice had the assessor's name on.

Q. Who was assessor?—A. G. W. Clinton, 1877, and W. Rudolph in 1878.

Q. To whom did you pay tax that was assessed by G. W. Clinton in 1877?—A. To G. W. Clinton.

Q. Do you say that G. W. Clinton assessed and collected the taxes that he assessed the same year, 1877?—A. No, sir.

Q. Wasn't that a poor, a road, and a school tax that you paid G. W. Clinton in 1877?—A. No, sir.

Q. Didn't the notice which you received from Constable Burchfield simply set forth that you had been assessed with poor and road tax to a certain amount?—A. No, sir.

Q. Do you of your own knowledge to a certainty know where the line is which separates Horton Township from Fox Township in the region of Bogy Run?—A. No, sir.

Q. Then you don't swear positively and say that you know to a certainty that William Vibbert lives in Horton Township?—A. Nothing nearer than that I know he votes in Horton Township.

Q. The fact that he votes or voted in Horton Township on November 5, 1878, is the reason then, is it not, that you said he lived in Horton Township, and you did not speak of your own personal knowledge?—A. To the first of that question would imply the answer no, sir. He has voted in that township to every election since I have been in the county. Furthermore, I have been told by both of the assessors and reliable business men in this county that the Wadsworth lot is in Horton Township.

(The counsel for contestant objects to so much of the witness's answer to the last above question as is hearsay; second, that the same part of the answer to the last above question does not in any way, directly or indirectly, answer the question put.)

Q. Did you not, in the summer and fall of 1878, work more or less at lumbering?—A. I didn't work at all at lumbering in the summer. In the fall I did.

Q. For whom did you work?—A. Short & Horton.

Q. In what direction is William Vibbert's farm from the place on Bogy Run that you occupy?—A. In a southeasterly direction; more south than east, I should say.

Q. Does any part of Fox Township lie southeast of your place on Bogy Run?—A. I should think it must be; but I don't know that I ever was in the township.

Q. You are not familiar, then, with the location of the line between Horton and Fox at the southeast of where your place is on Bogy Run?—A. Not positively.

Q. Have you heard it talked that we, the members of this commission, were particular in our examination of our witnesses as to the full name of the candidates for Congress voted for by the witnesses?—A. I don't know that I ever heard one that had been sworn here say anything of the kind that you were.

Q. Did you ever hear any one say that we were exacting in our examination of witnesses before this commission the full name of candidates voted for?—A. I heard some one make such a remark; I don't remember who it was.

Q. To what political party did you belong on November 5, 1878?—A. National Greenback party.

Q. Did you prepare the ticket you voted in Horton election district on November 5, 1878?—A. I procured the straight ticket, examined it, was satisfied with it, and voted it.

Q. Did you notice whether the name of the candidate for Congress for whom you say you voted was Seth Yocum, or Seth Y. Yocum, or Seth A. Yocum?—A. I did.

Q. Was the name written or printed on the ticket you voted?—A. It was printed.

Q. Where did you procure your ticket?—A. I procured it after I went to the election house. I can't say just who I got it of, whether it was Jack Allen, W. H. Horton, or H. C. Burchfield. I think it was either Burchfield or Allen.

Q. Were you at the time you procured your ticket of Allen or Burchfield in the election house?—A. It seems to me the one that gave me the ticket sat on the steps as I came up to the house.

Q. Isn't your recollection of the name of the candidate for Congress for whom you allege you voted on November 5, 1878, almost entirely from the appearance of the name "Yocum" on the subpoena by which you were summoned here?—A. No, sir; I remember how that name looked, the plainest on the ticket; that and W. H. Horton were together. I knew Horton, and felt an interest in him.

Q. On your oath, do you now say that you positively did pay to Daniel Phalen, in Horton Township, in the year 1877, a State and county tax?—A. I paid tax to Daniel Phalen which I supposed to be a State and county tax, and I don't think Daniel Phalen was collector of any other tax, not that I know of.

Q. How is it that you remember the name of the candidate for whom you voted for Congress to be Seth Yocum?—A. Well, it is generally talked up that that is the man running on the Greenback ticket, and a man would naturally remember it.

Q. Isn't your recollection of the name Seth Yocum as the name of the candidate for Congress for whom you allege to have voted almost entirely from what you have heard talked since this contest began, and not from the ticket you voted?—A. Well, the ticket and the talk would keep a man in pretty good remembrance of it.

Q. You didn't have your spectacles with you at the polls in Horton election district on November 5, 1878, did you?—A. No, sir; I went off in a hurry and forgot them.

Q. You can't see to read the names on a ticket without your glasses, then, can you?—A. No, sir.

SAMUEL PAULEY.

DENNIS DONOVAN sworn and examined by W. W. AMES, Esq.:

Question. What is your name?—Answer. Dennis Donovan.

Q. What is your age?—A. I couldn't tell you that, sir; I have no record of it; I think I am over forty.

Q. Where do you reside?—A. In Horton Township, Elk County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How long have you lived there?—A. Well, I have no record of that; I think I have lived there thirty-three years—two years of that time I was in the West.

Q. What is your occupation?—A. Farming.

Q. Are you a citizen of the United States and of the State of Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir; I think I am.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before November 5, 1878?—A. I can't tell just the date when I paid it, but I paid it before election.

Q. State whether you paid a State or county tax in the year 1877?—A. I did, sir.

Q. Did you vote at the general election held in Horton district November 5, 1878, for a candidate for Representative in Congress for the twentieth Congressional district of the State of Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. For whom did you vote for said office?—A. I voted for Seth H Yocum.

Cross-examined by GEORGE R. DIXON, Esq.:

Q. Wasn't the name of the candidate for Congress on the ticket which you cast at the polls in Horton district on November 5, 1878, Seth A. Yocum?—A. I think there was an H. to his name after the Seth. I don't think it at all; I am sure there was.

Q. Where did you last see the name of the candidate for whom you allege to have voted for Congress?—A. I see it just now on this paper I have in my pocket.

Q. Haven't you referred to that paper which you say you now have in your pocket several times since you first obtained said paper and within the last few days?—A. I never looked at the paper since I got it until to-day—I wouldn't looked at it then but because you said there was A and I was pretty sure there was an H there, and looked at it to be sure.

Q. Didn't some one to-day have a talk with you as to what the full name of Yocum is?—A. Nobody talked to me much of anything about it. Somebody said, they will ask you his name. I asked some men what they was kept there so long for and they said they were asked a lot of questions—what the man's name was you voted for, and lots of other questions; they told me several other questions they were asked.

Q. When these persons to whom you refer told you that you would be asked before this commission the name of the candidate for Congress for whom you voted, you began to inquire what the full name of Yocum was, did you not?—A. No, sir; I didn't inquire of nobody what the full name was—I knew what it was.

Q. Do you now swear that you have, at this time, a distinct and clear remembrance as to the name of the candidate for Congress for whom you voted and that that remembrance is entirely from the ticket which you voted?—A. Well, it's no use asking me such foolish questions as that; if you have no better questions to ask than that, I will go home. I know the man's name from the ticket and read about him in the papers and seen the man before I voted for him, and heard the man's name called in Ridgway.

Q. Do you refuse to be further questioned before this commission?—A. No, sir; I don't refuse to answer any question that is a fair question.

Q. But you propose, do you not, to answer only such questions as you in your own judgment think are fair?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as not being cross-examination, and having nothing to do with the case, and the witness not having refused to testify.)

A. I propose to answer any question unless I am asked a question over three or four times.

Q. To whom did you pay a tax prior to October 1, 1878?—A. I paid to George Clint or Clinton a tax.

Q. When did you pay it?—A. I paid tax to George Clint two years ago last fall.

Q. Two years ago last fall, 1878, was the time you paid the tax, was it not?—A. I paid tax, if I remember, to George Clint in 1877.

Q. Did the assessor personally come to you and assess you for said tax?—A. Yes, sir; he come to the house.

Q. Was your vote challenged at the polls on November 5, 1878, in Horton election district?—A. No, sir; my vote was never challenged in this county.

AMBROSE STRAIT sworn and examined.

By C. E. LYMAN, Esq.:

Question. What is your name?—Answer. Ambrose Strait.

Q. What is your age?—A. Forty-four years old yesterday.

Q. What township, county, and State do you reside in?—A. Elk, Horton Township, Pennsylvania.

Q. How long have you resided in Horton Township, Elk County, Pennsylvania?—A. Ever since 1857.

Q. Are you a citizen of the United States and of the State of Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote at Horton election district on the fifth day of November, 1878, at the general election there held, for any person for the office of Representative in Congress for the twentieth Congressional district of the State of Pennsylvania?—A. I did vote.

Q. For whom did you vote for such Representative in Congress?—A. Seth H. Yocum.

Cross-examined by GEORGE R. DIXON, Esq.:

Q. Who assessed you for the tax which you allege to have paid?—A. George Clinton.

Q. When was George Clinton assessor?—A. In 1878.

Q. Do you mean that he was assessor for Horton Township for the year 1878, or for some other township for that year?—A. Horton Township.

Q. Don't you know that George W. Clinton was assessor for school-tax for Horton Township in 1878?—A. No, sir; I don't know it.

Q. Then you say that the tax you paid was on the assessment made on you by George W. Clinton in the year 1878?—A. I think it was; I wouldn't be positive.

Q. Did George W. Clinton come to you, talk with you, and assess you, that you remember of?—A. No, sir; he did not.

Q. Of course, then, you cannot swear to a certainty that you know of your own knowledge that you really were assessed in 1878?—A. I suppose I know I was assessed well enough. I wouldn't be positive that he assessed me; but I think he did.

Q. Well, if you did not see and hear Mr. Clinton assess you, what makes you think that you were assessed?—A. I suppose if I hadn't been assessed I wouldn't got a chance to vote.

Q. The fact, then, that you were allowed to vote is what makes you think that you were assessed, is it not?—A. I suppose if I hadn't been assessed they wouldn't be after me to pay taxes, and consequently wouldn't have any right to vote.

Q. Can you swear at all to the date on which you paid the tax, the

Q. That is, that you paid a State or county tax within a year prior to November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. To whom did you pay this tax?—A. Burchfield.

Q. Did you pay Mr. Burchfield yourself?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you take there and then from Mr. Burchfield a receipt therefor?—A. I think I did.

Q. Where did you pay him, if you remember?—A. I paid him at his house.

Q. Did you work at lumbering any in the year 1878?—A. I did.

Q. For whom?—A. For Short & Horton.

Q. Are you a single man?—A. I am not.

Q. Has your family resided with you in Horton Township, or have they resided elsewhere while you were in Horton?—A. They have been there ever since I had a family in Horton Township.

Q. Did you get it from one of the desks in the election-house while the polls were open?—A. I did.

Q. You then prepared your own ticket, did you not?—A. No; I didn't prepare my own ticket.

Q. You can read and write readily, can you not?—A. No, sir; I can't neither read nor write—not writing.

Q. That is the reason, then, that you did not prepare your own ticket, is it not?—A. Yes, sir; it is.

Q. As you cannot read or write readily, might you not have voted somewhat differently from that which you intended?—A. No, sir; I don't think I did vote different.

Q. Still you might, under those circumstances, possibly, have been a little deceived?—A. I don't think I was deceived any.

Q. How can it be clear to you that you voted for a certain man for a certain office when you cannot read?—A. I don't think the man would deceive me any who made the ticket out for me.

Q. The knowledge, then, of the ticket which you cast at the polls in Horton election district on November 5, 1878, you depend upon another man for, do you not?—A. I did depend on another man to fill out the ticket I voted.

Q. Then, when you said you voted for Yocum for Congress, you meant to say that you intended to vote for him, did you not?—A. I did.

Q. But, of your own personal knowledge, as far as you individually know, without taking the word of another, you really can't swear that you certainly did vote for any man for member of Congress?—A. No, sir; I could not.

Redirect:

Q. Who prepared that ticket for you?—A. Mr. Horton.

Q. Did he read that ticket to you?—A. He did.

Q. Did he inform you that the name of the person for whom you voted for Congress was Seth H. Yocum?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote the ticket so prepared by him and given to you?—A. I did.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax in 1877?—A. Yes, sir. I never missed a year in twenty-two years.

Q. Were you assessed regularly every year, as far as you recollect?—
A. I think I was.

Recross-examined:

Q. Can you swear to any of these assessments?—A. I don't know whether I could or not; I suppose I could by looking them up; I don't pay much attention to those things.

BRANDY CAMP HOTEL, HORTON TOWNSHIP,
ELK COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA,
Wednesday, March 19, 1879.

Pursuant to adjournment we met and resumed the further taking of said depositions.

Present, George R. Dixon, esq., counsel for contestant, and W. W. Ames, esq., and C. E. Lyman, esq., counsel for contestee.

JAMES H. MOSIER sworn and examined by C. E. LYMAN, Esq.:

Question. What is your name?—Answer. James H. Mosier.

Q. What is your age?—A. Fifty years old the 12th of last February.

Q. Give us the town, county, and State in which you reside?—A. Horton Township, Elk County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How long have you resided at that place?—A. Well, really, my residence has been here for the last sixteen years.

Q. Are you a citizen of the United States and of the State of Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within two years which had been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before November 5, 1878?—A. I have.

Q. Did you vote in Horton election district at the general election there held on the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. Did you vote at said time and place for a person for the office of Representative in Congress for the twentieth Congressional district of the State of Pennsylvania?—A. I did.

Q. For whom did you vote for that office?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant as incompetent, the ballot itself being the best evidence, and there is no proof that the ballot has been lost or destroyed.)

A. I voted for Yocum.

Q. Do you remember the given name of the man Yocum for whom you voted?—A. I don't, sir; I knew at the time, but my memory is not very good to mind such things in my head.

Cross-examined:

Q. In what part of Horton Township did you reside in 1878?—A. The west part of it.

Q. What is the name of the locality, if it had a name?—A. That's a question I can't answer. I was working in the woods in Collins' camp, on Laurel Run.

Q. Did you live at Collins' camp on Laurel Run throughout the year 1878?—A. No, sir, I didn't; I was there not quite a month.

Q. The month that you were there at Collins' camp, when was it?—A. I was there at off-times, commenced in August; I got hurt by a tree there, went back there again and worked there a few days, and went to work on Johnson Run.

Q. This Collins' camp on Laurel Run, where is it?—A. Comes in near the mouth of Toby.

Q. Isn't the camp in Spring Creek Township, Elk County, Pennsylvania?—A. No, sir; in Horton.

Q. Don't you know that Collins' camp, where you worked and lived in the fall of 1878, is in Jefferson County, Pennsylvania?—A. No, sir; I don't know it.

Q. Do you know just where the official line is which separates Spring Creek Township from Horton Township in the region of Collins' camp?—A. No, sir; I don't exactly.

Q. You have never seen what you knew to be the line?—A. No, sir, I didn't, not exactly—not that I could swear to; I seen what they called the line in the woods.

Q. Then you don't swear that is a fact about which you are certain, and will risk your oath that Collins' camp is in Horton Township?—A. I think it is, sir, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. But you don't know that it is, do you?—A. Well, I guess I know about as well as the best of the woodsmen, because I never helped to survey the lines.

Q. Where is Johnson's Run?—A. Empties into the mouth of Brandy Camp.

Q. For whom did you work on Johnson's Run?—A. Jefferson Taylor.

Q. For whom was Jefferson Taylor jobbing?—A. He was jobbing for Mr. Hyde.

Q. Was the camp on Johnson's Run in Horton Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When were you assessed?—A. In 1878.

Q. Who assessed you?—A. I can't think of his name.

Q. Did any one come to you, talk with you, and assess you?—A. Assess me—I am assessed every year, except I was away three years.

Q. How do you know?—A. Well, the assessor comes to me and assesses me.

Q. When were you away three years?—A. Well, sir, I can't tell you the year exactly that I went away in.

Q. When did you get back?—A. I come back somewhere about 1876.

Q. Now, don't you know that you went away out of Horton Township in 1875?—A. No, sir, I don't.

Q. But you do know that it was in 1874, don't you?—A. No, sir, I don't; I'll not be positive.

Q. Well, you came back in the early part of 1877, didn't you?—A. No, sir; somewhere about 1876—somewhere near there.

Q. Were you away out of Elk County for these three years?—A. I was, sir.

Q. Was your family, if you have one, with you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Where were you?—A. That's a leading question—I don't know as I am obliged to answer it.

Q. Do you refuse to answer?—A. I was in Allegheny City.

Q. How did you come to go there?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as incompetent, irrelevant, and not cross-examination, it making no difference how he came to go, the only material question being as to where he was during the absence from Elk County referred to.)

A. Well, sir, I come to go there on a girl scrape.

Q. What do you mean by your answer to the last question?—A. I mean, sir, I was arrested on account of a girl scrape.

Q. Do you also mean that you were tried, convicted, and sentenced to the Western penitentiary at Allegheny City, and there confined for about three years?—A. Yes, sir; two years and eight months—they sentenced me three years.

Q. Now, don't you remember when you were taken to Allegheny City to pay the penalty of the crime for which you were tried and convicted?

(Objected to by C. E. Lyman, esq., counsel for contestee, as incompetent to affect his right of suffrage, or the case at issue, and only calculated to provoke the witness, and entirely irrelevant.)

The counsel for contestant requests to make the following statement, viz: That whether that part of the last above objection, to wit, first, that it is incompetent to affect his right of suffrage, is not for any counsel to state in this examination, and order the same to be taken down by the commissioner, because, whether it is competent to affect his right of suffrage is beyond all doubt or question a legal conclusion to be arrived at by the proper tribunal; second, the statement in the last above objection, to wit, "and only calculated to provoke the witness," is certainly not an objection to be found in any proper proceedings in the taking of testimony, and when the counsel for the contestee stated the same he did not know, neither could he know, and even if he did know whether his statement were true, he as a professional man and as a lawyer bound by professional rules had no right to state the same.)

A. I made that statement once; I don't remember the time.

Q. You were let out you say at the expiration of two years and eight months, when your sentence was for three years; why and how were you released before the expiration of the term of your sentence?—A. On my good behavior.

Q. That is, the manager of the penitentiary released you before the expiration of your sentence, because of your good behavior?—A. Yes, sir; he released me; I suppose there was law to that effect.

Q. You did not have, neither now have, an official pardon from the governor of the State of Pennsylvania?—A. I had no pardon.

Q. With what were you assessed in the year 1878?—A. Well, I don't know as I could answer that; they put down the forty-cent tax—that is the amount I had to pay—I don't know what I was assessed with.

Q. Where, at what place in Horton Township, were you assessed?—A. I was assessed near the Brockport Mills.

Q. You don't remember now who assessed you?—A. Rudolph.

Q. Who assessed you, if any one, at any other time and when?—A. I don't know or mind now who the assessor was.

Q. Can you swear at all to the date of the assessment by Rudolph?—A. I can't, sir.

Q. It has slipped entirely from your memory, has it?—A. I have a receipt of my taxes, but I forgot to bring it with me. Yes, sir; I can't.

Q. To whom did you pay the tax assessed by Rudolph, or which you allege to have been assessed by Rudolph?—A. Mr. Horton paid my tax; I ordered him to pay it for me.

Q. To whom did you order W. H. Horton to pay the tax to?—A. Mr. Burchfield.

Q. Didn't he say at that time that he had charged you with it?—A. No, sir; I don't remember.

Q. You had an open and running account at that time with W. H. Horton, hadn't you?—A. I had and have yet.

Q. You worked for him occasionally, did you not, and he gave you credit on his books for the labor done by you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you swear positively that you received a receipt from Mr. Burchfield himself directly?—A. No, sir; I don't.

Q. You were up at the election-house in Horton district on November 5, 1878, and remained there for some time, did you not?—A. I was there about a half an hour.

Q. Did you read over and examine your own ticket?—A. I did examine my own ticket.

Q. You prepared your own ticket, then, did you not?—A. No, sir; I didn't prepare it myself.

Q. Did you examine your ticket immediately before you cast it at the polls in Horton election district on November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. Having examined your ticket carefully yourself you are certain now, are you, as to its contents?—A. I can't remember the whole of it now, as I stated here before.

Q. Do you swear that you positively did vote on November 5, 1878, at the polls in Horton district, for any one named Yocum?—A. I did vote for Yocum.

Q. Well, did you vote for Yocum for any office; and, if so, was it really that he should be representative in the State legislature?—A. No, sir; Congressman.

Q. You did see the name Yocum, did you, on the ticket?—A. I don't mind if it was on the ticket or off of the ticket; I made that statement several times.

Q. If you don't remember whether you saw the name "Yocum" on the ticket or off of the ticket, then how can you on your oath say you voted for Yocum?—A. Well, sir, I did mind it at the time, but I don't know.

Q. Providing you did vote for Yocum, you can't now swear, can you, to the office for which he was running on your ticket?—A. He was running for Congressman.

Q. But you don't know now that he was running for Congressman on your ticket?—A. I did at the time of it.

Q. But your recollection of the matter to-day is not at all clear, is it?—A. No, sir; I am not good to mind anything any length of time.

Q. Look at that paper in your hand and tell what it is.—A. Its a receipt for county and State tax.

(Counsel for contestee requests that a copy be taken of the paper referred to in last above question.)

“HORTON TOWNSHIP, Oct. 1, 1878.

“To MICHAEL:

“DEAR SIR: The followin’ bill of taxes has been placed in my hands for collection. Please call and settle the same within thirty days, and oblige yours, truly:

“County tax, $.66

“State tax, $.05

Amount $.71.

“Received payment, Oct. —, 1878.

“THOMAS BURCHFIELD, Collector.”

Q. State when you got that paper.—A. I got that the 1st day of October.

Q. It says, “To Michael”; do you know to whom that referred?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant as being incompetent and irrelevant.)

A. Well, I suppose it refers to me; there was no other Michael there at the time.

Q. State when you paid the tax referred to in the notice and receipt.

—A. I paid that the 1st day of October, 1878.

Q. To whom did you pay that tax?—A. I paid that tax to George Clinton.

Q. How did you come to pay it to George Clinton?—A. Well, sir, George Clinton paid the tax to Burchfield in the morning, and in the afternoon I happened into his office and he presented this receipt and I paid him the same day that I got it.

Q. State whether you paid State or county tax in 1877.—A. I did.

Recross examination:

Q. Might there not be another man in Horton Township named Michael than yourself?—A. Well, if there is I paid this tax, anyhow, that is on this paper. I suppose there are more Michaels.

Q. Then you don’t know but that this may have been a bill of taxes against some other Michael?—A. It was Michael Bish in the duplicate, any way.

Q. Who had the duplicate?—A. Thomas Burchfield.

Q. Did you see the duplicate in the possession of Thomas Burchfield?

—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Well, you saw in the duplicate which Thomas Burchfield had your name “Michael Bish,” did you not?—A. I did.

Q. Did you see anywhere in the duplicate a tax charged to Michael?

—A. Not without some other name to it.

Q. Did you see Clinton pay Burchfield the tax mentioned in the receipt, a copy of which is in evidence?—A. No, I didn’t, but I seen the tax on the same day on the duplicate, and Burchfield told me that it was paid.

Q. Was the payment of it receipted on the duplicate?—A. It was crossed with a ring around it.

Q. Who assessed you in 1877?—A. If my memory serves me right it was Clinton. He didn't come to my place in 1877, that is, for that tax that was to be paid at that time.

Q. Wasn't the tax mentioned in the receipt, a copy of which is in evidence, the same tax which was assessed by Clinton in 1877?—A. Yes, he was at my place in 1877, and assessed the tax or assessed my property rather. I was mistaken in the first above answer as to the assessment in 1877; I should have said it was in 1876 that he didn't come to my place to assess the taxes for 1877, I suppose it should be.

Q. Did you pay a State or county tax in 1877?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote in Horton Township at the general election there held on the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you vote at said election for a person for the office of Representative in Congress of the twentieth Congressional district of the State of Pennsylvania?—A. Yes, sir; I think I did.

Q. For whom did you vote for the office of Representative in Congress of the twentieth Congressional district of the State of Pennsylvania at Horton election district, on the fifth day of November, 1878?—A. Seth H. Yocum, I believe, sir.

Q. Did you prepare a ticket for Jeff. Bish at that election on the 5th day of November, 1878?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, the question as worded is leading in that it implies an answer.)

A. Yes, sir, I gave him a ticket, sir.

Q. Did he cast the ticket you gave him at the election aforesaid?—

A. I think he did; I went and gave him a ticket and saw him put one in.

Q. Whose name, if any, was upon that ticket for the office of Representative in Congress of the twentieth Congressional district of Pennsylvania?—A. Seth H. Yocum, sir, I think.

(The counsel for contestant wishes the commissioner to write above answer as given by the witness, viz: "Seth H. Yocum, sir, I think.")

Q. Can you spell?—A. Not very well; I can't speak words very plain sometimes.

Q. Pronounce the word Seth.

(Objected to by counsel for contestant as being irrelevant and leading.)

A. Seth.

Q. Do you or do you not mean Seth H. Yocum?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant in that the question puts into the mouth of the witness the name and gives to the witness the pronunciation of the name which the counsel desires to have mentioned and pronounced by the witness.)

A. Yes, sir; I mean that name, sir.

Cross-examined:

Q. Are you known as George Reedy sometimes?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you sworn in this contest before?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. At what place did you testify?—A. At Ridgeway.

Q. Before what commissioner or notary public was your evidence taken?—A. I do not know the man's name; I forget.

Q. Wasn't your evidence taken before M. S. Kline, the commissioner before whom you are now giving testimony?—A. I think it was. (Pointing at me, the witness says:) I think that was the man; I think perhaps that was his name.

Q. Are you intimately acquainted with Jeff. Bish?—A. Yes, sir; as a neighbor.

Q. Did you see Jeff. Bish pay the collector of Horton Township a tax?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Mr. Reedy, did you see the assessor of Horton Township personally assess Jeff. Bish?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Then you don't swear that you know he, Jeff. Bish, was assessed?—A. No, sir; I wouldn't swear to that.

Q. Then you don't swear that you know that Jeff. Bish personally paid a tax in Horton Township at least one month before November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir, I would not swear to that; he owns land.

Q. How do you know that he owns land?—A. Why, he bought it and paid for it, I heard him say—I heard the man say that he bought it of.

Q. You say that you heard it reported that he owns land, do you not?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then you don't swear, if all you know about it is hearsay, that you know he owns land?—A. Yes, sir; just hearsay.

Q. You say you gave Jeff. Bish a ticket; might he not have received tickets also from others the day before or on that day, November 5, 1878, for all you know?—A. Yes, sir; I gave him a ticket, but I didn't say but what he might have had tickets from others, and I saw him just put in a ticket.

Q. Might Jeff. Bish have simply voted a blank, for all you know of your own knowledge?—A. He might have, but I don't think he would.

Q. Mr. Reedy, of course then you don't swear that you know what Jeff. Bish positively did vote at the polls in Horton Township, November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; I wouldn't swear to it positive.

Q. Who gave you the ticket you voted on November 5, 1878?—A. Well, no man in particular; I got one myself, and could read part of it.

Q. Can you remember where you obtained it, or from whom?—A. Well, there was a man writing tickets, and I just picked up one of them and see the man's name that I wanted to vote, and see if it was right.

Q. Do you remember whether the name of the candidate for Congress for whom you allege to have voted was in writing on that ticket?—A. Yes, sir; in writing.

Q. Did you see the words "For Representative" on that ticket?—A. Yes, sir; for Congress.

Q. They were in writing, too, were they not?—A. Yes, sir; I think they were.

Q. Now, do you say that you are sure that the words "For Congress" were on that ticket at all?—A. Yes, sir; I wouldn't be real positive, now when I come to think that they were all written. I got the election a little mixed up; they might have been printed. I won't be positive that they were written, now come to think about it.

Q. Did you pay a tax prior to October, 1878, in Horton Township; and, if so, to whom?—A. I think to Thomas Burchfield. I have receipts for it at home; I haven't them with me.

Q. Did you pay a tax to Thomas Burchfield yourself directly or through a third party?—A. Well, I paid it in scrip, and Burchfield asked Mr. Horton right at the time if it would be all right to take it, and he said it would.

Q. Was this scrip with which you paid your tax to Burchfield legal money of the United States?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as irrelevant.)

A. Well, I don't think it is; it calls for merchandise and so on. Burchfield asked Horton if he would give him money for it, and he said he would.

Q. This scrip then with which you paid Burchfield is an order simply upon the firm of Short & Horton for merchandise, is it not?—A. Yes, sir; I think it is. They redeem it; it is redeemable.

Q. You were laboring at the manufacture of lumber, were you not, in the year 1878, and for Short & Horton?—A. Yes, sir; lumbering.

Q. Weren't you on what is called Bear Run in the fall of 1878, putting in logs for Short & Horton?—A. I was working for them by the month on Bear Run.

Q. Did you not keep what is known as Reedy's Camp, on Bear Run, in the fall of 1878, prior to November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I had my wife and family there. I did not move there. I had my wife and family there. I did not move my furniture.

Q. Mr. Reedy, do you say to-day on your oath that you didn't take household goods with you and your family into Reedy's Camp, on Bear Run?—A. No, sir; I did not take furniture there for housekeeping.

Q. Didn't you take some articles with you that were used by you in that camp as furniture?—A. Not on positive purpose.

Q. You did take something along with your family in the way of household goods?—A. One high chair and one rocking-chair, and one of them I bought after I was there.

Q. Didn't you take some bedding?—A. Yes, sir, I took one bed; that's bed-clothing just.

Q. Well, didn't you take some other things?—A. A sewing-machine and a trunk.

Q. Didn't you take some pails, dishes, or something of that kind?—A. No, sir, I think not; not that I know of.

Q. Then you now swear that you did take some furniture with you?—A. As I told you, one chair, and bought one after I was there.

Q. You don't know, do you, where the township line is that separates between Fox and Horton Townships, in the region of Bear Run?—A. No, sir; I do not know.

Q. Did you ever see James McClellan in the region of Bear Run?—A. No, sir; I never saw him on Bear Run, on any business that I know of.

Q. When did you take your family and the household goods sworn to by you and go into Reedy's Camp, on Bear Run?—A. At the upper camp, that's at the line, or somewhere near the line; we moved there about the last of September, 1878, or somewhere near that.

Q. Might the camp you moved into, by you and your family, about the last of September, 1878, have been in Fox Township for all you positively know about it?—A. It might have been and might not have been. I would not be positive, for I don't know. I tried to find out, and could not, whether it was out of Horton Township or not.

Q. Can you swear to the date of an assessment in 1878 made on you?—A. I couldn't swear to it because I do not know.

Q. Then can you swear at all to the date of an assessment on you in 1877?—A. I could not, when it was; I couldn't swear to the date.

Q. You paid a road tax in 1877, did you not?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. And that was the tax you had reference to in your direct testimony, was it not?—A. Yes, sir, and all other tax I paid.

Q. Did you pay said tax in 1877 yourself, directly; if so, was it in scrip?—A. I wouldn't be positive whether it was scrip or money. I think it was money.

Q. You don't remember well enough about the tax in 1877 to swear positively now in regard to it?—A. No, sir; I would not like to swear to it positively, but I think I could find out, if it would be necessary. I have got the receipts.

Q. You remained at Reedy's Camp, that is, kept the camp till quite late in the winter, did you not?—A. Till along in January some time; towards the last.

Redirect by W. W. AMES, Esq.:

Q. State whether you were keeping house in Horton Township immediately before going to Reedy's Camp, in the fall of 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I was keeping house in Horton Township.

Q. How long had you been keeping house there before that time?—A. Six or seven years. I wouldn't be positive just how long it is.

Q. Where did you leave your furniture at the time that you moved or went to Reedy's Camp?—A. In the house that I owned or the house that I lived in.

Q. State whether you have been yearly assessed and have yearly paid a State or county tax since you were keeping house.—A. Yes, sir; paid tax and was assessed.

Q. When you finished the job at Reedy's Camp, did you remain there or move away?—A. Yes, sir; we went back to my house; we didn't stay there.

Recross-examined:

Q. Can you remember now, and do you now say, that you were assessed as far back as 1874, and in 1874?—A. Yes, sir, to 1874. As far as that—a little further.

Q. Do you remember distinctly of being assessed in 1875?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you swear that you know of your own knowledge that you were assessed in 1876?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who was present when you gave Burchfield the scrip mentioned by you in payment of your tax?—A. I wouldn't be positive; there were several around, but I don't remember who they were.

Q. Was Warren H. Horton present?—A. Yes, sir; I think he was.

Q. The Republican tickets in Horton Township in the fall of 1878—were they not printed without the name of any candidate for Congress upon them?—A. Well, I couldn't answer that question. I fixed and mixed up my ticket to suit myself.

Q. Then you prepared your own ticket that you cast at the polls in Horton district on November 5, 1878?—A. I prepared a part of it, and my State ticket was given me; I examined it and voted it.

Q. The name of the candidate for Congress for whom you say you voted—did you look carefully at your State ticket to see if it was on that ticket?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. You are quite sure, then, that the name "Yocum, for Congress" was on that ticket, are you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was it on that ticket in writing or in print, or don't you remember about that now?—A. In print.

Q. Did you see the words "for Congress" near the name "Yocum" on that ticket?—A. I think I did; I was sure and examined the name that was there, but wasn't so particular about the office. I didn't think of any fraud or anything in election tickets; I wanted to be sure that I voted for the right man; that was why I examined my tickets.

Q. Do you say, then, that you don't remember distinctly the designation on the ticket of the office for which you voted Yocum?—A. I do not; I think I did know that the words "for Congress" were on the ticket.

Q. You remember that the company was assessed, don't you?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. But can you say who assessed the company?—A. I say that I think George W. Clinton assessed the company; am not certain.

Q. Well, don't you now remember that George W. Clinton was not collector for 1878 in Horton Township?—A. I don't know as he was collector for that year. I paid him the tax and have the receipt, in the year 1878.

Q. Don't you know that Thomas Burchfield was collector of State and county tax for Horton Township in 1878?—A. I think he is.

Q. Well, the company tax, then, that you paid George Clinton, and which you think was assessed by George Clinton, was the tax against the company for 1877, wasn't it?—A. I think it was.

Q. You do not swear to the date of the assessment, neither to the date of the payment of tax, do you?—A. No, sir.

Q. Have you individual property?—A. I calculate that I have, since last spring some time; I don't remember the day I bought the farm, but I suppose the last assessment was made a company assessment, because I think that the assessor knows nothing of the contract.

Q. Was this hall in which O. E. Sherman gave you these tickets an apartment in the election-house?—A. If I understand what an apartment is—a room under the same roof—it was.

Q. You can read and write, can you not?—A. I can.

Q. You saw Mr. O. E. Sherman have several tickets, did you not?—A. I only saw him have the one that he gave me.

Q. You voted, then, a State ticket, did you not?—A. Why, I didn't look at my bunch of tickets what they were, only I opened one, glanced over it, and I seen Yocum's and Horton's name on them; filled them up and went and handed them in.

Q. You don't swear, then, whether these names just mentioned by you were on the State ticket?—A. They were on the ticket; I don't say whether State or what.

Q. If you don't know what ticket Yocum's name was on, you can't tell what office you voted him for, can you?—A. I guess I can.

Q. Well, what words were near the name Yocum on your ticket, to show what office you voted him for?—A. I didn't look at no words; I just glanced over and saw the name of Yocum on my ticket, folded it up, and didn't pay no more attention to it.

Q. Mr. Space, do you remember now the very day and date when W. H. Horton gave you the receipt?—A. November 5, 1878.

Q. It was at the election house on election day where he gave you the receipt, was it not?—A. It was.

Q. When he gave you the receipt—that is, W. H. Horton gave you the receipt, at the election house in Horton district, November 5, 1878—did he tell you that the tax was paid and that he paid it?—A. No, sir; he only handed me my receipt and told me, "Here is your tax receipt."

Redirect:

Q. State whether Mr. Burchfield ever said anything about the payment of that tax; and, if so, what.

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, in that the answer sought by the question is incompetent matter.)

A. Why, I asked him a few days before the election if Horton had paid my taxes, and he said that he had.

Saturday, March 22, 1879.

Having met pursuant to adjournment we proceeded with the further taking of said depositions.

Present, C. H. McCauley and George R. Dixon, esqs., counsel for contestant, and C. E. Lyman, esq., counsel for contestee. 10.50 a. m.

A. D. ALDEN sworn and examined by C. E. LYMAN, Esq.:

Question. What is your name?—Answer. A. D. Alden.

Q. Was you an officer of the election board of the election held in Horton Township on the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. I was.

Q. What position did you hold upon that board at said election?—A. The position of clerk.

Q. By whom was you chosen or appointed clerk?—A. T. J. Taylor, one of the inspectors.

Q. At what time did the polls open?—A. I can't say positively; I think somewhere near eight o'clock.

Q. Was you there at the opening of the polls at the general election held in Horton Township on the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. I was.

Q. At what time in the day did the polls of said election close?—A. Seven o'clock.

Q. Was you at said election all of the time that the polls were so open?—A. I was.

Q. At the time a vote was cast did you write down the name of the voter?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant as leading.)

A. I did write it down.

Q. Was or was not the name of each voter called out when the ticket was offered?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant as leading.)

A. The name of each voter was called.

Q. By whom was the name of each voter so called?—A. T. J. Taylor.

Q. Was or was not T. J. Taylor one of the inspectors of that election?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant as incompetent, the election returns returned and on file in the prothonotary's office of Elk County, Pennsylvania, being the best evidence, and there is no proof that the said returns are lost or destroyed.)

A. He was an inspector.

Q. Was there or was there not a number attached or set opposite to the name of each voter?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, first, as leading; second, incompetent, the election returns or paper made by the witness and returned as part of the election papers of said election held in said township or district being the best evidence, and there is no proof that it is lost or destroyed; also, that there is no competent proof of the existence of any such paper as referred to by counsel.)

A. There was.

Q. Was there or was there not a number corresponding to that fixed by you to the name of each voter, put upon the ticket cast by such voter?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, first, as leading; second, incompetent, because there is no proof that the alleged ballots or papers were numbered; also, that if said alleged ballots or papers were numbered they would be the best evidence, and there is no proof of their loss or destruction.)

A. There was.

Q. What became of the list of voters made by you at the Horton election district on the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. I think it was sealed up in the ballot-box.

Q. At that time what was done with the ballot-box?—A. It was given to the judge of election and by him given to George Clinton justice of the peace.

Q. Were or were not all the ballots cast at said election placed in and sealed up in that ballot-box, so delivered by the judge of that election to George W. Clinton, justice of the peace?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant as leading.)

A. They were.

Q. What is the last knowledge you have of the list of voters made by you and of the ballots cast at the election held in Horton election district on the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. The last I saw of the ballots was when they were placed in the box with the list of voters. I saw the box delivered to the judge.

Q. Mr. Alden, during the day of that election on the 5th day of November, 1878, was there or was there not disturbance or disturbances at election?—A. There was not.

Cross-examined :

Q. Did you see each and every voter when he presented his ticket?—A. I wouldn't be positive. I don't know that I did see them all.

Q. Did you see each and every ballot numbered by Mr. Taylor that day? I mean did you see him number it?—A. I couldn't swear that saw him number every one of them.

Q. Did you see each and every one of the ballots put in the box?—A. I don't know that I seen them all.

Q. Don't you know that the poll-list made by you is now on file in Ridgway?—A. I don't know any such thing.

Q. Do you say that it is not so on file?—A. I won't say that it is not.

Q. Did you see the judge of election deliver the ballot-box to Mr. Clinton, justice of the peace?—A. I did not see him personally deliver it.

Q. Did you not say that he did so deliver it?—A. I believe I did.

Q. Then you do not know, of your own personal knowledge, whether it was so delivered, do you?—A. I do know that Mr. Clinton had the box in his possession at the last election.

Q. Then although you did not see the judge of election deliver the ballot-box to Mr. Clinton, you swear that he did personally deliver it?—A. I do not swear that he delivered it personally to Mr. Clinton.

Q. Do you know that he delivered it at all?—A. I know it was in Mr. Clinton's possession before the last election.

Q. Then, personally, you don't know how he got it?—A. I do not know by what means he got it.

Q. Were you and T. J. Taylor both Greenbackers?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as irrelevant.)

A. I can speak for myself. I can't speak for Mr. Taylor. I was.

Q. Don't you know that Taylor was?—A. Not positively; I mistrusted it strongly.

A. D. ALDEN.

C. L. CHAMBERLIN sworn and examined by C. E. LYMAN, Esq.

Question. What is your name?—Answer. C. L. Chamberlin.

Q. Where do you reside?—A. Horton Township, Elk County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Was you a member of the election board of Horton election district on the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. I was.

Q. In what capacity was you acting upon said election board?—A. As clerk.

Q. By whom was you appointed or chosen clerk of that election board?—A. Daniel Phalen.

Q. What was his position upon said election board?—A. Inspector.

Q. Who received the ballots at the window at the election held in Horton Township on the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. T. J. Taylor.

Q. At the time each ticket was offered at the window, was the name of the person offering it called by the inspector receiving it?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant as leading.)

A. It was.

Q. When, as those names were called, were they written down; and, if so, by whom?—A. They were, by myself and A. D. Alden.

Q. Was there or not a number attached to or set opposite the name of each voter so written down at the said election on the 5th day of November, 1878?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant as leading.)

A. There was a number written opposite each and every name.

Q. Was there or was there not a corresponding number to the one you mention as set opposite the name of each voter put upon the ballot then and there cast by such voter at the said election in Horton district on the 5th day of November, 1878?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant as incompetent and leading.)

A. There was.

Q. What became of the list of voters made by you at the Horton election district on the 5th day of November, 1878, as clerk of that election?—A. It was put in the ballot-box after the election polls were closed.

Q. What became of the votes or ballots that were cast at said election?—A. They were put in the ballot-box.

Q. Do you mean before or after they were counted?—A. Before and after, both.

Q. Was or was not, to your knowledge, that ballot-box containing those ballots and that said list of voters sealed up?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant as incompetent and leading.)

A. There was no tape there, but there was a string or something tied around in place of tape.

Q. What, if you know, was done with that ballot-box after it had been so closed?—A. I don't remember.

Cross examined:

Q. Did you see each and every voter who offered his vote that day?

A. I did.

Q. Did you see T. J. Taylor number each and every ballot that was cast that day?—A. I did not, for I was writing the names down, and did not take notice.

Q. Then you don't know whether Taylor numbered every ballot, do you?—A. I don't.

Q. Don't you know that Daniel Phalen took a few ballots at the window that day?—A. I don't.

Q. Did he take any?—A. Why, I don't know; I don't think he did.

Q. Did not Daniel Phalen number a portion of the ballots?—A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Could he have numbered any and you not have known it?—A. I think not.

Q. Did not Hezekiah Horton, judge, number some of those tickets?—A. He did not.

Q. Did he not handle them?—A. Not till after the polls were closed.

Q. Did he not put some of them in the box?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did not Taylor put some of them in the box?—A. He did not.

Q. Then you swear positively that neither T. J. Taylor nor Hezekiah Horton, judge, put any tickets in the box that day?—A. I do.

Q. Could Taylor have put a different number on the several ballots and you not have known it?—A. He could.

Q. Then you do not know personally whether the number put on the ballots corresponded with your list, do you?—A. I don't know that all of them did.

Redirect:

Q. Was you at the election in Horton election district all of the time after the polls opened in the morning until after counting was completed on the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. I was.

Q. To your knowledge was the duties of that election-board held in Horton Township on the 5th of November, 1878, in anywise interfered with by persons not belonging to said election-board?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant: First, as leading; second, incompetent, because there is no proof that the witness on the stand has any knowledge of the duties of an election-board pertaining to a fair and legal election, and therefore his opinion is not evidence.)

A. It was not.

Recross-examined:

Q. How old are you?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as not cross-examination.)

A. Twenty-four years old.

Q. How many election-boards have you been a member of?—A. Four.

Q. Were you ever a member of any board of election other than Horton Township?—A. No, sir.

Q. You were a member of the board, then, before you were of age, were you not?—A. No, sir.

Q. Could you be a member of four separate boards between the year in which you were twenty-one and now?—A. I don't know anything to hinder.

Q. Are not the members of the election-board elected for the term of one year?—A. They are; but what I understood you to mean was the different elections.

Q. Does not the same board hold both spring and fall elections?—A. It does.

Q. Do you consider it right and proper for a crowd of twenty-five or thirty persons other than the election-board to crowd around the ballot-box and argue and give directions to the board as to the right or qualifications of voters?—A. I do not.

Q. Are you a Republican?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as irrelevant and incompetent to prove anything connected with the case at issue.)

A. A Republican.

Q. Were you out of the election-house November 5, 1878, during the election?—A. I was.

Q. More than once?—A. I think I was.

C. L. CHAMBERLIN.

(The counsel for the contestee asks or requests of the commissioner an attachment for Daniel Phalen, an absent witness.)

Capt. JAMES WOODWARD sworn and examined by C. E. LYMAN, Esq. :

Question. Captain Woodward, have you served a subpœna duces tecum upon Daniel Phalen, commanding him to appear before the commission at Brandy Camp, in the matter of the contest for a seat in the Forty-sixth Congress, between Hon. A. G. Curtin and Seth H. Yocum, esq., there being held, and to produce the ballot-box and ballot of the election held in Horton district on the 5th day of November, 1878, on this 22d day of March, 1879; if so, is that order or subpœna in your possession?—A. Yes, sir; I served the subpœna, and it is in my possession.

Q. Will you produce that subpœna?—A. Yes.

(Witness produces subpœna, and counsel for contestee offers it in evidence.)

No cross-examination.

The subpœna is put in evidence and hereto annexed and marked Exhibit A.)

JAMES WOODWARD.

The counsel for contestee having asked or requested of the commissioner to issue an attachment for an absent witness, as named in said request, the commissioner refuses to give any such attachment for the following reasons:

First. The subpœna on which the attachment is asked was issued by H. M. Powers, notary public, commanding the said Daniel Phalen to appear before him the said H. M. Powers, and therefore the appearance of said witness before me would not be in accordance with the command of said subpœna, and therefore said subpœna, as well as for other reasons, is irregular.

Second. That the act of Congress referred to in said subpœna does not give me, as a commissioner taking testimony, any authority to compel the attendance of witnesses.

Notary Pub'ic.

Q. Were not all the members of the board present when votes were received, with the exceptions of those received before Mr. Brindle came?

Q. Was Philip Wehler sworn?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he produce a witness as to his qualification as a voter?—A. Yes, sir; he did.

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as incompetent, the affidavits themselves being the best evidence, and no proof being offered as to their loss or destruction.)

Q. Where did these witnesses sign their affidavits?—A. At the beginning.

(Objected to by counsel for contestee for reasons last above given.)

Malone, Michael Nichlous, Joseph Sporer, Albert Dippold, John Bimel, Michael Nibert, George Wiesner, Valentine Nibert, Nick Nibert, John Wolf, George Kugler, Herman Stockman, Jacob Simmons, Peter Weller, John Ehrensberger, George Wittman, Joseph Baumer, Englebert Spellenberg, and Charles Weis, about the election held November 5, 1878?—A. I had conversation with all but Michael Nichlous and George Wiesner.

Q. What was that conversation?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, to the witness giving testimony as to conversations had with any of the parties named, as being incompetent and irrelevant, to prove anything in this contest, and being hearsay.)

A. I asked them whether they voted for Curtin or Yocum, and was told by all excepting Joseph Baumer they voted for Curtin. Joseph Baumer said he did not know for whom he voted; he got his ticket from Charles Luhr and voted it.

Q. State whether anything was said about what office Yocum and Curtin were running for?—A. I am not certain in all cases, but in some.

Q. How long since did this conversation occur?—A. Some I asked when I subpœnaed them, others when they came to this office on the day they were subpœnaed to be here.

Q. During the taking of testimony at the office of W. W. Ames, in Saint Mary's, in this contest, have you not been working under pay for the Yocum side?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. You were employed to serve the subpoenas on witnesses, and attended to getting them to the office when wanted to testify?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who employed you?—A. W. W. Ames, counsel for the contestee.

Q. Were you instructed to ask the witnesses upon whom you served subpoenas to appear and testify at the office of Mr. Ames, on the part of the contestee, how they voted?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. And to ascertain whether they were legal voters or not?—A. Not in all cases.

Q. Were you in the cases of the parties whom you have mentioned here?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who, if any, of these parties appear here as commanded to do by the subpoena?—A. Wm. M. Long, Sebastian Sporer, Joseph Finfinger, Sebastian Kraft, Joseph Sporer, John Brinel, Charles Weis, Albert Dippold, George Wittnan; that's all.

Q. How many of the parties named that you subpoenaed did you notify not to come afterward?—A. I cannot remember.

Q. Did you notify and tell Joseph Baumer and E. Spellenberger not to come?—A. I told Spellenberger at his house not to come, and I told Baumer on the street not to come.

Q. Did not the parties whom you mentioned, who appeared in obedience to the subpoenas served upon them, come to the office of W. W. Ames to give testimony, as they were commanded in said subpoenas?—A. Most of them came on account of their witness fees.

Q. Didn't they tell you they had appeared here at the day and time they were commanded to appear?—A. I don't remember of any saying so.

Q. Did you or the counsel for the contestee pay the witness fees to those who appeared?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were they not examined privately by yourself or counsel for the contestee as to their qualifications to vote at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was it not because the counsel for the contestee, either from examining the witnesses themselves or from information obtained from you or other sources, know the parties were legal voters at said election that the said witnesses were paid and discharged?—A. I suppose so.

Q. Was it not because the counsel for the contestee had ascertained that the parties you notified or sent word to not to appear in obedience to the subpoenas served on them were legal voters at said election held November 5, 1878, that they were notified not to appear as they were commanded by the subpoena served upon them?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who told you to notify them not to appear?—A. Counsel for contestee.

Q. You don't know the witnesses you could not find, as stated in your direct examination?—A. No, sir.

Q. How long have you lived in Saint Mary's?—A. I have been born and raised here. I lived here for the last three years all the time, excepting a month or so at the time.

A. C. SCHANT.

Not being able to conclude the taking of testimony, and upon the agreement of the counsel for the parties, I adjourn the further taking of evidence until 9 o'clock in the afternoon of Saturday next, being the 29th of March, A. D. 1879.

D. 1879, in a certain contest now pending in the House of Representatives of the Forty-sixth Congress of the United States of America, concerning the position of Representative for the twentieth Congressional district of the State of Pennsylvania, wherein Andrew G. Curtin is contestant and Seth H. Yocum is contestee.

George R. Rathbun and W. W. Ames, for contestee, and C. H. McCauley and George R. Dixon, for contestant, present.

H. HORTON sworn and examined :

Question. What is your name?—Answer. Hezekiah Horton.

Q. Where do you live?—A. In Horton Township, Elk County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How long have you lived there?—A. I have lived in this county all my life, and in Horton election district ever since it has been an election district.

Q. What is your age?—A. I am fifty-five years of age.

Q. To what political party do you belong?—A. To the Democratic party.

Q. How long have you been affiliated with that party?—A. Ever since I commenced voting.

Q. Were you present at the general election held in Horton Township on the 5th day of November, A. D. 1878?—A. I was.

Q. Were you a member of the election board?—A. I was.

Q. What position did you hold upon the board?—A. Judge.

Q. Who were the inspectors?—A. Daniel Phalen and T. J. Taylor.

Q. Who were the clerks?—A. De Witt Alden and Charles Chamberlain.

Q. To what political party does Daniel Phalen belong?—A. I believe he belongs to the Democratic party.

Q. To what political party does T. J. Taylor belong?—A. To the National or Greenback party.

Q. Did you at that election vote for any person for member of Congress for the twentieth Congressional district of the State of Pennsylvania?—A. I did.

Q. For whom did you vote?—A. Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. In what building are the elections in Horton election district held?—A. At what is called the Hellen school-house; the old school-house.

Q. Where is this school-house situate?—A. About a quarter of a mile or little more from the old Oyster place.

Q. How far from this school-house is the nearest building or dwelling?—A. About 30 or 40 rods, I should judge; 40 rods probably.

Q. Were you present at that election during all the time the board were receiving and counting the votes from the time the polls opened until the result was finally declared?—A. I was.

Q. Were there any persons other than the board who had access to the ballot-boxes, or who received and handled the tickets?—A. No, sir; there was not.

Q. Were there any persons other than the board in the school-house during the time the election was going on and the vote being counted?—A. Yes, there was.

Q. Were there more persons there in the school-house during that election than usual at elections held at that place?

(Counsel for contestant object to the last question as incompetent and irrelevant.)

A. I think not; not any more than is usual at general elections.

Q. Was there any disturbance in or around the school-house that in any way interfered with the board in the performance of their duties?—A. There was not.

Q. Can you tell how the whole number of votes polled compared with the whole number of votes in the district?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, as incompetent and irrelevant, the returns from the several election districts being the best evidence.)

A. I cannot tell exactly. I think there were some few voters who were not in. There might have been three or four, but I think not more than two.

Q. Were all the votes that were offered, and that you considered legal, received?—A. They were.

Q. Was there any amount of boisterous conduct and angry talk in the school-house that day?—A. I did not hear any myself.

Q. How large is that school-house?—A. About 26 by 36 feet, I think.

Q. Was the ballot-box at any time during the day left unguarded?—A. It was not.

Q. Were any ballots received while members of the board was out?—A. There was not.

Q. Did you see Herbert Burchfield there that day?—A. I did.

Q. What was he doing?—A. I don't know really what he was doing; he had a paper or slip of something, and I supposed he was taking down the men's names who were voting, but I did not pay any attention to him. He was standing back from the board six or eight feet; he was not there all the time, sometimes he was in one place and sometimes in another. I think in the afternoon he did not have that paper. He was not there all the time, at least I did not notice him.

Q. Did Mr. Burchfield interfere or meddle with the tickets or the board in the performance of their duties?—A. He did not.

Q. Who received the tickets at the window?—A. T. J. Taylor.

Q. Do you know Walter Rudolph?—A. I do know him.

Q. Was he present there during any part of the day?—A. He was.

Q. Did he interfere with the board in the performance of their duties?—A. He did not.

Q. When voters were challenged were they properly sworn or qualified in case the challenge was not withdrawn?—A. They were. We intended to have it properly done; if it was not it was through ignorance.

Cross-examined by C. H. McCAULEY, counsel for contestant:

Q. When were you elected judge of Horton election district, and for how long?—A. I was elected in February, 1878, for one term. I suppose for one year.

Q. Did you serve as judge of Horton election district at February election, 1879?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as irrelevant.)

A. I did not.

Q. Why?—A. For the reason that I had a suit in the Jefferson County court and I had to be there.

Q. Was it not because of the difficulty you experienced at the election held in Horton Township November 5, 1878, to a certain extent?—A. It was not.

Q. Did you not tell certain parties in the district that you would not serve on the election board as judge on account of the difficulties you experienced at the election of November 5, 1878?—A. I did not. I said this, if they ever elected me again judge of election and Dan. Phalen was on the board, I would not serve.

Q. Have you not some feeling against Mr. Phalen?—A. I have not. Mr. Phalen and I have always been on good terms, for anything that I know.

Q. To whom did you tell that you would not serve as judge if Mr. Phalen was on the board?—A. I do not recollect; I might have told it to two or three.

Q. Before February election last, did you not say that you would not serve as judge at any election hereafter?—A. I think not. I don't recollect of ever making that remark.

Q. What relation are you to W. H. Horton ?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as irrelevant and not cross-examination.)

A. He is my son.

Q. Was he a candidate for office at November election, 1878 ; if so, for what office and upon what ticket ?—A. He was running for assembly on the National or Greenback ticket.

Q. Who were the clerks of the election board November 5, 1878, and to what political party did they belong ?—A. De Witt Alden and Charles Chamberlain were clerks. De Witt Alden belonged to the National or Greenback party, and Charles Chamberlain to the Republican party.

Q. What relation is Charles Chamberlain to you ?—A. He is my wife's nephew.

Q. Were you out of the election-house during the election November 5, 1878 ; if so, how many times ?—A. I was out once that I recollect of, and that was the only time. My little girl brought my dinner, and I met her between the school-house and the road and got it.

Q. Are you positive that you were not out of the election-house at any other time during the election and the counting of the votes than the one above referred to ?—A. I have no recollection of being out ; I might have been, but I know I was not off of the door-steps more than the one time during the day.

Q. Then you might have been out on the door-steps ?—A. I might have been out, but I think not.

Q. Do you swear positively that no votes were cast while you were out of the election-house, November 5, 1878 ?—A. I do.

Q. Do you swear positively that no votes were cast November 5, 1878, while you were on the steps in front of the election-house ?—A. I do. If there was, I have no knowledge of it.

Q. Could they not have received votes while you were out ?—A. They could, I suppose, if they had a mind to do so ; but we never received a vote without the full board was present.

Q. Then you do swear that no votes were received except when you were present ?—A. I do. If they did it was done very slyly, for I was not out at any time to exceed two minutes.

Q. How far was it from where the election board was to the road ?—A. It isn't over sixty feet.

Q. Did you have any conversation with your little girl ?—A. I did.

Q. Was any other member of the election board out of the house during the election and counting of the votes cast in Horton Township, November 5, 1878 ?—A. They might have been, but I couldn't swear to it.

Q. Was not Mr. Taylor out of the house during the election ?—A. I couldn't say. He might have been, but I couldn't say that he was or was not.

Q. Was not Mr. Phalen out during the election ?—A. He might have been ; but I could not say whether he was or was not.

Q. Were not the clerks, or either of them, out of the election-house during the election or count of the votes cast in Horton Township, November 5, 1878 ?—A. They might have been.

Q. Did you not receive ballots while Mr. Taylor, one of the inspectors, was out of the election-house ?—A. We did not.

Q. Did you not receive ballots while Mr. Phalen was out of the election-house on that day ?—A. We did not.

Q. Was there any person in the election house during the day and counting of the votes in the evening other than the election board ; if so, how many?—A. There was. I couldn't tell how many.

Q. About how many did you see there at one time?—A. About twenty or twenty-five might have been there at one time. The voters usually sit back in the back end of the school-house and make up their tickets.

Q. Was there not a crowd in and around the board several times during the day?—A. Yes. They were in the house at different times during the day and around the board, or within perhaps six feet of the board.

Q. Was there not a continual running in and out of the house during the election or counting of the votes?—A. Yes. The doors were open and they came in and went out just as they pleased.

Q. Do you swear positively that there were no persons other than the board nearer than six feet to the board and to the ballot-box during the day and the counting of the votes in the evening?—A. I do not.

Q. Did not Herbert Burchfield sit at the table beside the clerks and have the ballot-box immediately in front of him at any time during that day?—A. Not that I recollect of. I recollect that at one time when we were counting a vote came out for Herbert Burchfield ; he set down by the side of the clerk to try to find out who had put it in, and I told them to not let him know.

Q. Did he not sit at the table around which the board was sitting at any time during the day?—A. I don't recollect of his sitting at the table. The seats in the school-house came right up behind where the clerks sat, and I saw him sitting on these seats behind the clerks.

Q. How close was he sitting to the clerks?—A. These seats probably came within two feet of the bench upon which the clerks sat.

Q. Did you see Mr. Burchfield during that day bending over the ballot box?—A. I did not.

Q. Could he have been bending over that box and you not have seen him?—A. I think not. Not unless it was while I was out of doors when I went to get my dinner.

Q. Then you swear positively that he did not lean or bend over the ballot box during the election or counting of the votes cast November 5, 1878, unless he did it while you were out of the house?—A. I swear positively that I did not see him bend over it.

Q. Do you swear positively that you would have seen him if he had leaned over it?—A. I think I would.

Q. Could anybody have leaned over that box or been close to it and you not see them?—A. Not while we were receiving votes. At times we were not receiving votes—people not voting ; at such a time they might have leaned over it and I not have seen them.

Q. Did you see Walter Rudolph sitting at the table upon which the ballot-box was placed at any time during the day or the counting of the votes cast November 5, 1878, in Horton Township?—A. I saw him sitting on the seats back of the clerks. I did not see him sitting at the table with the clerks.

Q. Did you see either Rudolph or Burchfield near the window through which the votes were polled at any time through the day?—A. I did, inside of the house ; I saw Rudolph there ; I think he was standing ; he might have been there different times ; think he was. He was by the side of the window on the inside, probably within two feet of the window, back of the clerk's seat, and up against the wall.

Q. Was he there any considerable length of time?—A. I could not say how long; he was not there all the time—not there steady; part of the time he was back by the stove.

Q. What was he doing?—A. I could not say.

Q. Did he not keep a tally or list of the voters?—A. I don't know about that.

Q. Didn't he write or use a pen or pencil a part of the time?—A. I think he did, but am not positive about it; he did not use a pen, or did not come near the board with a pen.

Q. Did you see Warren H. Horton, the Greenback candidate for assembly, in the election-house near the board at any time during the election or the counting of the votes cast in Horton Township November 5, 1878?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as irrelevant and not cross-examination.)

A. He was in the house a part of the time during the election and counting of the votes.

Q. Did you hear any loud talking at any time during the day or evening?—A. I did not hear any louder talking than is usual talking back and forth in a crowd of that size.

Q. Wasn't it a fact that there was considerable noise in the election house several times during the day?—A. There was not, only talking backward and forwards, as I have stated before.

Q. Did not some of the voters talk very loud when challenges had been made and the board were considering the voter's right to vote?—A. The loudest talk I heard was John McAllister, when his vote was challenged.

Q. Was he challenged?—A. He was.

Q. Were all the votes presented at the window during the day received?—A. I cannot say positively as to that.

Q. What is your impression?—A. I could not say that they were or were not, but my impression is that they were, but it was our intention not to receive any illegal votes.

Q. Where did you sit while on the board with reference to the ballot-box?—A. I sat at the table with the ballot-box in front of me.

Q. Where did Mr. Phalen sit?—A. He sat at my right hand.

Q. Where was Mr. T. J. Tayler?—A. He sat at the right hand of Mr. Phalen, on the same bench.

Q. Who took the tickets at the window?—A. T. J. Tayler.

Q. What did he do with them?—A. He handed them to Phalen.

Q. What did Phalen do with them?—A. He handed them to me.

Q. What did you do with them?—A. I put them into the box.

Q. Were these tickets numbered; and, if so, by whom?—A. They were numbered, I think, by T. J. Tayler.

Q. Don't you know?—A. Yes; I am positive it was him.

Q. Did not Mr. Phalen put a few tickets into the ballot-box?—A. No, sir.

Q. Are you positive?—A. I did not know that he did anything of that kind, and I am quite positive that he did not. If he did, he did it without my knowing it.

Q. Could he not have put some of the tickets into the box and you not know it?—A. I think not.

Q. Do you swear that you put every one of the tickets voted November 5, 1878, in Horton Township, into the ballot-box?—A. I do.

Q. Did Mr. Phalen have any other duty than the handing of the tickets from T. J. Tayler to you?—A. I believe that was all he had to do.

Q. How many challenges were there made at the election in Horton Township, November 5, 1878?—A. I could not say.

Q. About how many?—A. I do not know; there might have been five or six; maybe not as many.

Q. Were these voters who were challenged sworn?—A. I think they were; those that had no receipts for paying their tax.

Q. Did they subscribe a written or printed or partly written and partly printed affidavit?—A. I am not positive about their subscribing. I think that was an oversight of the board.

Q. Did not Esquire McAllister swear some of the voters?

(Objected to by counsel of contestee as not being cross-examination and part of their case in chief.)

A. I think he did one, in the presence of the board.

Q. Were the votes of any of these voters who were challenged refused?

—A. I think not.

Q. Was it not a fact that there were at least twelve voters challenged?

—A. I cannot say, but I should think not so many.

Q. Who swore in the board at that election?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as not cross-examination.)

A. George Clinton, a justice of the peace for Horton Township.

Q. Was it not after eight o'clock in the morning of election day when the polls were opened?—A. I don't think it was later than eight o'clock, and it might have been so late.

Q. Might it not have been a few minutes after eight?—A. It might have been, but I think not.

Q. Did you have any sign or placard pasted up at or near the polling window indicating where ballots were to be received?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as irrelevant, not cross-examination, and, if competent, part of their case in chief.)

A. I think not. We have never had anything of that kind at our election house.

Q. How was the cover to the ballot-box guarded or fastened during the day of election?—A. The cover to the box was a slide running in a groove, covering two or three apartments, and at the end of the slide was a pin pinning the cover down to keep it from sliding.

Q. At which end of the cover was this pin, and was it not so as to be easily drawn out?—A. It was pinned with two pins, one on each end of the slide, going down into the side of the box. The pins could have been drawn out easily, but I think they could not have been drawn out easily without the aid of a knife or some pointed instrument.

Q. Could they not have been withdrawn with a pair of pincers?—A. They might, if they had had good ones.

Q. Could they not have been withdrawn with a pair of bullet moulds?—A. I suppose they could if they could get hold of them.

Q. Didn't they stick up far enough to get hold of them?—A. I think not; I think they were cut off even with the lid, but am not positive.

Q. Was there any holes in this cover?—A. There was.

Q. Was there any cover over these holes?—A. There was not.

Q. Did you see Warren Mosier in the house?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as not cross-examination and irrelevant.)

A. I don't know that I saw him in the house; I saw him put his vote in at the window.

Q. When a voter was challenged, what did he do?—A. They came inside of the house, to the board.

Q. Were there any parties with him and about the board other than the election board when the voter was being interrogated as to his right to vote?—A. There were other parties in the room, standing around as they always have done.

Q. Was there any proclamation made of the opening of the polls? If so, by whom?—A. There was no proclamation made at the window. I simply stood by the table and said that we were ready to receive their votes.

Q. Did you hear any complaint about the loud talking and noise made around the polls either in or out of the house?—A. I did not.

Q. Did you see James McClellan and Jacob Fields and Nathan Hipple, or either of them, at the election house that day?—A. I saw Jacob Fields there, but am not positive that I saw Nathan Hipple or James McClellan.

Q. Didn't you hear Warren H. Horton request Esquire McAllister to assist in quelling the noise and disturbance about the polls at any time during the day?—A. I did not; I do not recollect of hearing any such conversation.

Q. Did you not hear Warren H. Horton talk loud or threaten Mr. Phalen, one of the inspectors, at any time during the day?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as not cross-examination and incompetent; if any such occurrence took place, it is a part of their case in chief.)

A. I heard them have some words; it was regarding some voter that had a tax receipt; Phalen objected to it, and Warren told him that he had a receipt and if he didn't let him vote he would show him hereafter whether he was a voter or not, or something to that effect.

Q. Didn't he say that he would see him for it hereafter?—A. I don't know whether these were the words or not; I am not positive about it.

Q. Did not a number of voters argue the qualifications of the voters challenged with the board at several times?—A. There was always some one in the house standing back by the stove and on the seats, but did not argue with the board.

Q. Do you swear that the voters did not argue the right of any voters to vote at that election at any time during the day with the board?—A. They didn't argue with the board; there would some of them make the remark that they knew them to be voters.

Q. Didn't Nathan Hipple tell the board that they had better permit certain vote or votes to be cast?—A. I have no recollection of anything of that kind.

Redirect:

Q. Was Daniel Phalen in the house at the time you was out?—A. I cannot say positive whether he was or not.

Q. How long were you occupied in your conversation with your daughter when she brought your dinner?—A. I don't recollect exactly, but don't think it would exceed two minutes from the time I left the house until I was back.

Q. Were all the political parties represented among the people who were in the school-house?—A. they were.

Q. Was it as free for one to come in as another?—A. It was.

Q. Who kept the registry list and checked off the voters?—A. Phalen.

Q. To what political party does Esquire McAllister belong?—A. To the Democratic party.

Q. How came Mr. McAllister to swear a voter?—A. He was standing there and we requested him to do it.

Q. How came George W. Clinton to swear the board?—A. The board requested him to do it.

Q. Were they all present?—A. They were.

Q. You stated in your cross-examination, that you had said that you would not act as judge upon an election board of which Daniel Phalen was a member. What was your reason for making that statement?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, as incompetent and irrelevant.)

A. For the reason that he was so inconsistent.

Q. In what was he inconsistent?—A. In regard to voters. He made us a great deal of trouble. In regard to the voting there was one man in particular, Thomas Dallinger. He was a single man and worked in the blacksmith shop for Short and Horton for over a year. Phalen had got work done in the shop for a year previous to the election, and ought to have known that he was a voter.

Q. Upon what ground did he challenge Dallinger?—A. Upon the ground of his not being a resident.

Q. Was the conduct of Phalen while upon the board that of a bitter partisan?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, as incompetent and irrelevant.)

A. I don't know that he had any bitter feeling toward the other party, but he is a very stiff party man, and is a Democrat.

Q. Did he not show by his actions and words that he had a strong party feeling?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant, as incompetent and irrelevant, and the counsel for the contestee putting the words in the witness' mouth.)

A. Yes; he did.

Recross-examined:

Q. Did Mr. Phalen not tell the board that all he wanted was a fair election?—A. I think he did.

Q. Do you know Mr. Dallinger?—A. I do.

Q. Who are Short and Horton?—A. Alfred Short and Warren H. Horton.

Q. Was this Warren H. Horton, of Short & Horton, the Greenback candidate for assembly?—A. He was.

Q. Is not Mr. Dallinger a Democrat?—A. I think he is, but am not positive of that. Most of those Germans are.

Q. Did not Mr. Phalen challenge him simply on the ground of residence?—A. Yes; I think that was the ground of the challenge.

Q. Wasn't that all the trouble that Mr. Phalen made you, simply the challenging of voters?—A. Yes; that was about all the trouble he made us, but would challenge votes that I thought he ought to know were voters.

Q. Do you swear that he knew the votes challenged by him were legal, and that he made the challenges for the purpose of hindering and delaying the board in their duties?—A. No, I do not swear positively to that; that is a matter that I could not swear positively to.

Q. How long has Mr. Phalen lived in this election district?—A. I cannot say exactly; ten or twelve years, perhaps longer.

Q. Is he not an honest and upright man?—A. He is, so far as I know.

Q. Was Mr. Dallinger sworn?—A. I think not.

Q. Who did Mr. McAllister swear?—A. I cannot tell, unless it was John George; I am not positive who it was.

Q. Did you see James Maloy in the election house that day?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as irrelevant and not cross-examination, the name of Maloy not having been used or inquired into in the examination of the witness before.)

A. I think I did see him in the election house.

Q. Did you not hear James Maloy argue with the board as to the qualification or right to vote of a man named Groves?—A. I cannot recollect, but I think there was some talk about a man by the name of Groves, who worked at Keystone, by Maloy.

Q. Did he not tell the board to receive Groves's vote?—A. I have no recollection of it.

Q. Was there not considerable talk about the legality of Arnold Groves's vote?—A. I think there was some talk about it, but I don't recollect just what.

Q. Was there not quite a number of persons other than the board in the house and around the election board at the time of this talk between Maloy and others and the board?—A. There was.

Q. Was Richard Hines challenged at Horton election polls November 5, 1878?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as irrelevant and not cross-examination, the name of Richard Hines not having been mentioned by the witness or to him either in his examination-in-chief, cross-examination, or redirect. The counsel for the contestee further protest against the course of the counsel in their examination of the witness, and to the recording of testimony which is not cross-examination of the witness as to any matters he may have sworn to in his examination-in-chief or upon his redirect examination, such matters being such as should have formed a part of the contestant's case in chief.

By the counsel for the contestant: The counsel for the contestee having examined the witness on the stand as to the conduct of the election officers, and the irregularities as to challenges and casting of votes polled in Horton Township November 5, 1878, the counsel for the contestant now proposes to cross-examine the witness fully as to all challenges and conversation and qualification of each and every vote offered at said election, and thereby obtain the truth and the whole truth.)

A. I think he was.

Q. Was he sworn?—A. I am not certain about that. I think the board concluded he was a voter and let him vote and did not swear him.

Q. Was there not quite a number of persons other than the election board in the house and about the polling window at the time that Hines was challenged?—A. I think there was quite a number in the house. I don't know that there were many about the window.

Q. Was there not considerable talk about the right of Mr. Hines to vote on the ground of residence?—A. I think there was some talk.

Q. Did not George Ready vote in Horton election district November 5, 1878?—A. He did vote.

Q. Was he challenged?—A. Not that I recollect of. I think not.

Q. Did Henry Yale vote at Horton election district November 5, 1878?—A. I don't recollect whether he did or did not.

Q. What is your impression?—A. I have no impression about it. I don't recollect of seeing him there.

Q. Was he in the house and sworn?—A. I don't recollect.

Q. Did George W. Gardner vote in Horton election district November 5, 1878?—A. He did.

Q. Was he challenged?—A. He was, I believe.

Q. Did he subscribe an affidavit?—A. I don't know, but don't think he did.

Q. Did any other party than Daniel Phalen have the registry of votes at any time during the election day?—A. Not that I know of.

Q. Did not Nathan Hipple or Herbert Burchfield have the registry of voters?—A. I don't know of them having it.

Q. Did you not see Herbert Burchfield looking at the votes as they came through the window and were being passed through the hands of the inspectors?—A. I do not recollect of his looking at them any more than what he could see by standing back of the board. He did not look at them any more than others did.

Q. At the time of the counting of the votes, was the cover to the ballot-box totally removed?—A. It was not; at least I think it was not.

Q. How was it?—A. It was shoved just far enough so that we could get at one apartment.

Q. Were the apartments into which the tickets were placed that day, crosswise or lengthways of the box?—A. I am not positive about that, but I think they were crosswise, and that the slide run over three apartments.

Q. Who took the tickets out of the box?—A. T. J. Tayler.

Q. What did he do with them?—A. He handed them to Phalen.

Q. What did he do with them?—A. He read off the names of each candidate, and then handed them to me.

Q. What did you do with them?—A. I strung them onto a string.

Q. What did you do with them after you had strung them?—A. We kept them there in our possession until we had the papers made out, and then we put them into the ballot box.

Q. Did you seal up the ballot-box after you had put the tickets on the string into the box?—A. We did.

Q. Did you put the tickets all in one apartment?—A. We did. They were all on one string, and we couldn't very well get them into two apartments.

Q. Were there any more apartments in this box than the three you have testified to?—A. There were.

Q. Was there not a separate cover for each three apartments?—A. I think there is.

Q. Did you paste or seal anything over the holes of the apartments in which you put the ballots after they were on the string?—A. I think not. We put a string or tape round the box and sealed it fast.

Q. What did you do with the ballot-box after it was sealed?—A. I took it home with me that night, and a day or two after I took it down and delivered it to Esquire Clinton, at his office.

Q. Did you not request the crowd in the election house on election day to cease their noise in the presence of Jacob Fields, McAllister, and others?—A. I don't recollect positively whether I did or not. If there had been much noise there I should probably have done so, but I don't recollect now whether I did or not; I might, and I might not.

Q. When the board were not receiving votes were they at any time around through the house among the crowd?—A. They would, some of them, occasionally be away from the board.

Q. Did you not see Mr. John Brown or Mr. Jos. Chamberlain have the registry list during the day?—A. I did not; they might have had it, but I did not see them have it. Phalen was the man who had charge of it, and he ought to know.

(The counsel for the contestee objects to all the foregoing recross-examination as not being proper examination.)

Q. For whom did you vote?—A. For Seth H. Yocum.

(Counsel for contestant objects to all evidence as to whom the witness on the stand voted for for Congress for the twentieth Congressional district of Pennsylvania as incompetent, there being no evidence that the ballot has been lost or destroyed, and the ballot itself being the best evidence.)

Q. Were you present at the election held in Horton district on the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. I was.

Q. How long were you there?—A. The greater part of the day.

Q. Were there many persons in and about the polling place that day?

A. About as many as are usually there at our general elections.

Q. Was there any disturbance, boisterous conduct, or loud talking that interfered with the polling of the vote?—A. There was no boisterous conduct or anything of that kind, but I think that Daniel Phalen tried to keep back votes by objecting to men voting who were legal voters.

Q. What position did Daniel Phalen occupy, if any?—A. He was inspector of election.

Q. Did you have any conversation with Mr. Phalen that day?—A. Very little, but don't remember what it was.

Q. Did you do any writing in the school-house where the election was held that day; and, if so, what was it?—A. I did. I wrote one or more orders for my men.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the question as incompetent and irrelevant.)

A. The orders were on one of the two clerks at the store, I don't remember which clerk, and was for scrip or store trade.

Cross-examined by C. H. McCAULY, Esq., counsel for contestant:

Q. When did you pay State and county tax?—A. I paid it when the collector asked me for it, which was thirty days or more certainly before the 5th day of November, 1878, and which was within two years.

Q. What time in the year did you pay it, and what year?—A. In 1878; I don't know what time.

Q. Where?—A. At the Brockport store.

Q. To whom?—A. To the collector of State and county tax.

Q. Who was the collector?—A. I think Thomas Burchfield was collector in 1878; and, if so, I paid to him.

Q. Have you a distinct recollection of paying Burchfield a State and county tax?—A. I have a distinct recollection of paying a State and county tax, but do not know whether I paid it to Burchfield or Clinton.

Q. When was that tax assessed?—A. It was assessed at least 60 days previous to election.

Q. At whose house?—A. I don't know, but I presume at the Brockport store.

Q. Have you a distinct recollection of the assessor coming to you and assessing this property? If so, who was the assessor?—A. The last assessor was Walter Rudolph, but I think George W. Q. Was the tax you have testified to as having been paid by you based upon the assessment made by Mr. Clinton?—A. One of the taxes was.

Q. Did you pay any other tax or taxes during the years of 1877 or 1878 other than your own; if so, for whom?

A. I did. I paid some of them for men who were working for me, and for men who do work for us at different times during the year.

Q. Give their names.—A. In order to do that I would have to produce a list which I think I have at home.

Q. About how many?—A. I don't remember.

Q. Were there fifty?—A. No.

Q. Were there twenty-five?—A. I don't think there was.

Q. Were there over fifteen?—A. There might be, but I am not certain.

Q. Did you pay taxes for any parties during the years 1877 and 1878 other than yourself and the men who worked for you?—A. I don't think I did. I think that all the men for whom I paid taxes, with one exception, worked for me at some time during the two years. That exception was Philip Rhodes.

By counsel for contestant :

Q. Do you believe in a God?—A. I do. I believe in an omnipotent, omniscient, and all-gracious God.

Q. Do you believe in a future state of rewards and punishments?—A. That is a pretty close question. I don't know but that I will have to qualify my answer. If a man merits any future reward he gets it; if a man merits any future punishment he gets it.

Q. Have you any conscientious scruples against the taking of an oath, such as has been administered to you by the commissioner?—A. I have not.

Q. Did you take that oath with any mental reservation?—A. No further than what I have stated.

Q. Do you mean three or four years subsequent to the six months' absence you spoke of before?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant as leading.)

A. I do.

Q. Have you paid a State or county tax within two years which was assessed more than two months and paid more than one month before the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. I have.

Q. Did you vote for any person for member of Congress for the twentieth Congressional district of the State of Pennsylvania on that day and at that election?—A. I did.

Q. Was there any disturbance in or about the polling place that interfered with the deposit or taking by the board of all the legal votes that were offered?—A. Nothing at all that I am aware of, except when votes were challenged.

(Counsel for contestant desires the balance of the witness's answer to the last question written down by the commissioner, to wit, after the word challenged, "there was considerable wrangling.")

At the request of the commissioner, the foregoing question is repeated and copied down.)

Q. Was there any disturbance in or about the polling-place that interfered with the deposit or taking by the board of all the legal votes that were offered?—A. There was none, in my opinion, that interfered with the general result of the election held there that day.

(The last answer objected to by counsel for contestant because the witness's opinion is not evidence, there being no proof or evidence of his knowledge of what constitutes a legal and orderly election.)

Q. Did you make the regular registry of voters in Horton Township for the year 1878?—A. Yes.

Q. Was there a full vote in Horton district at November election, 1878?

(Objected to by counsel for contestant as incompetent and irrelevant, the election returns and the registry being the best evidence, and there having been no proof offered that they are lost or destroyed.)

Q. Did you stay there until evening?—A. I did not.

Q. Did you leave before four o'clock?—A. I left before school was out.

Q. At what time did you go to the school-house on September 5th, 1878, and how long did you remain there during the day?—A. I don't remember what time I went, and don't know how long I staid; not very long.

Q. Were you in the election house over an hour that day?—A. I could not tell.

Q. You wasn't there in the afternoon at all, in the school-house, on September 5th, 1878, were you?—A. I think not.

Q. Did you make a certificate and attach it to the registry of voters made by you?—A. I think not.

Q. Did you register the names of any persons who did not apply to you personally?—A. I did.

Q. How many?—A. I couldn't tell.

Q. Who gave you those names?—A. Some names I took on my own responsibility, and some were sent to me.

Q. Who sent you those names?—A. I don't recollect.

Q. Did more than one party send you names?—A. They did.

Q. Did you assess voters on your sixty-day list with an occupation tax?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were not some of the names handed you by other parties than the voter thus assessed?—A. There was.

Q. Were you in the election house on November 5, 1878; if so, for how long?—A. Yes, sir; I was. I think the whole day.

Q. Didn't you have the registry of voters that belonged to the board at any time during that day?—A. I had the registry list in my hands several times during the day.

Q. Did you register the names of any voters between September 5, 1878, and election day?—A. I did not.

Q. Did you not sit at the table around which the election board were sitting during the election or the counting of the votes cast November 5, 1878?—A. I did not, to my knowledge.

Q. You might have done so and not now recollect it?—A. I think not.

Q. Were you near that table during the day?—A. I was standing behind the inspectors. Mr. Daniel Phalen called me there to assist him in finding some names in the registry-list.

Q. You had the registry at other times than when you assisted him?—A. Not that I remember.

Q. Did you see Warren Mosier in the election house during that election?

(Counsel for contestee objects to the last question as not cross-examination, and all testimony of Mr. Rudolph which does not relate to his evidence in chief.)

A. I cannot say positive, but I think I did.

Q. Did you not hear him make a threat or offer to fight?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as not being cross-examination, and a part of contestant's evidence in chief.)

A. I did not, and never heard of such a thing, to my recollection.

Q. Will you swear positively that he did not make threats to the board or a member of the board in the election house, during election day?—

A. Not in my hearing, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. May he not have done so?—A. He might have done so.

Q. Did you see Arnold Groves at the election house November 5, 1878?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as not cross examination, and part of their case in chief.)

A. I did.

Q. Did you see James Maloy there while Arnold Groves was trying to vote?—A. I don't remember.

Q. Was Arnold Groves challenged?—A. I think he was.

Q. Did he come round into the election house?—A. He did.

Q. Were there not ten or fifteen or twenty persons other than the board in the election house when Mr. Groves came in?—A. There was that many—perhaps more, maybe not as many.

Q. Didn't James Maloy argue the qualifications of Mr. Groves' right to vote with the board?—A. I don't remember of his doing so.

Q. Don't you know that there was considerable talk between the board and James Maloy and others in regard to the receiving of Groves' vote?—A. There might have been, but I don't remember positively whether there was or not, but think there was some, though.

Q. Don't you know that they talked quite loud?—A. I do.

Q. Did you see Mr. Groves sworn?—A. I think I did, but am not positive.

Q. Were not some of these parties other than the board pretty close to the table around which the board sat?—A. I think not very near.

Q. Don't you know that Warren Mosier, Warren Horton, James Maloy, Arnold Groves, and Herbert Burchfield, or at least some of them, were right up close to this table when the challenge of Groves was being considered?—A. I think not; I don't think they were near enough to put their hands on the table; I mean none of these mentioned in the question.

Q. Then you swear positively that there were no persons other than the board near enough to lay their hands on the table at the time of the challenge of Groves' vote?—A. I don't swear positively to anything; I don't think they were.

Q. Don't you know that there were persons other than the board, during the considering of Groves' vote, close up around the table around which the board sat?—A. I do not, very close.

Q. Do you swear that they were not close up around the table?—A. I don't think they were.

Q. Were there persons other than the board close to that table at any time during the day?—A. There might have been and I not observed it.

Q. Don't you know that Herbert Burchfield sat upon the same bench with the clerks during that day?—A. I do not.

Q. Did he sit there?—A. I think not; I did not see him.

Q. Did you see him have a book or slip of paper and a pencil near the polling window, inside of the house?—A. I did.

Q. Didn't he stand pretty close to the polling-window?—A. Not very. He might have got up there sometimes, but I did not see him. He sat in a chair.

Q. Wasn't he within two feet of that window?—A. He might have been some time, but generally was about six feet away.

Q. Did you see him write?—A. I did.

Q. Was he keeping a list of voters?—A. He was keeping a list of the names and the number.

Q. Did you see John McAllister there?—A. It seems to me that I did.

Q. Was he challenged?—A. I think he was.

Q. Was there not considerable loud talk about the receiving of his vote?—A. I think no more than he made himself; not much more, any way.

Q. Who was he talking with?—A. Me for one.

Q. Were you talking about his right to vote?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you not tell the board that Mr. McAllister had no right to vote?—A. I don't think I did.

Q. Did you not say that he had no right to vote in the hearing of the board?—A. No.

Q. Were his qualifications not talked over in the election house within hearing of the board?—A. They might have been.

Q. Were there not quite a number of persons, at the time McAllister's vote was being considered, in the election house?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you swear that Mr. McAllister was the only man that talked loud?—A. I do not.

Q. How does it come that you remember that Mr. McAllister talked loud and no one else?—A. Because he seemed to be angry.

Q. Who was he angry with?—A. He mentioned the whole board to me, and included myself with the rest.

Q. You did not give him any cause to get angry with you, did you?—A. Not that I know of; I did not challenge his vote.

Q. Then he simply got angry with you and the board and talked very loud, and no one else said anything or talked loud?—A. I don't remember of any one at that time talking very loud except him.

Q. Did not Warren H. Horton, the Greenback candidate for assembly, tell the board in your presence that McAllister had no right to vote?—A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Was not Warren H. Horton there?—A. I could not say whether he was at that time or not.

Q. Did you hear Warren H. Horton make any threats against the board, or any member thereof, at any time during election day?—A. I cannot say that I did that day.

Q. Did you hear him tell Mr. Phalen that unless he ceased challenging votes he would see him for it hereafter?—A. I heard nothing of the kind; not on election day.

Q. Then you didn't hear any conversation between Mr. Warren H. Horton and the board, or any member thereof, in regard to their receiving votes?—A. I think I did.

Q. What was it?—A. I think he told Phalen that he was working against him out of personal spite, or something to that effect.

Q. Was that all he said?—A. That is all that I remember he said.

Q. What did Phalen say?—A. He denied the assertion.

Q. Don't you know that Mr. Warren H. Horton was angry, excited, and in a passion at one time during the day in the school-house?—A. I think he was offended at some one, but not in a passion.

Q. Was there not some loud talk at the time Mr. Horton was offended?—A. I don't remember of his talking any louder than usual. He is not in the habit of talking loud. Yes, there were other ones there talking loud.

Q. Did you see Richard Himes, George Reedy, Geo. W. Gardner, or either of them, present at the polls; if so, which one?—A. I remember of seeing Gardner there, and think the others were, but am not positive.

Q. Was not Richard Himes challenged?—A. He was.

Q. Did he vote?—A. I think he did.

Q. Did he go around into the house; and was he sworn?—A. He was called in and sworn by the board.

Q. Were there not quite a number of persons other than the board in the house at that time?—A. Yes.

Q. Was there not considerable talk about his right to vote?—A. I believe there was.

Q. Was not that conversation a spirited one?—A. Not very.

Q. On what grounds was Mr. Himes challenged?—A. I think it was citizenship.

Q. Were any witnesses sworn?—A. I believe no more than the usual vouchers required by law.

Q. How many were sworn?—A. I think but one besides himself. I didn't pay strict attention to such things, it was so common there that day.

Q. Give us the name of the witness.—A. I cannot.

Q. Were there not at least a dozen challenges made during the day?—

A. I couldn't say as to that.

Q. Don't you think that there might have been that many?—A. There might have been more or less than that number.

Q. Was there not a larger crowd in the election house at each time a challenged voter would come in to be sworn than when no challenges were made?—A. I think not.

Q. Would not the voter, his witnesses, and his friends come round into the house when challenged?—A. Sometimes, if there were many there, they would work in, and sometimes, if there were not many there, he would have hard work to find a witness.

Q. Was George Reedy challenged, and did he vote?—A. Yes.

Q. Do you know where Short & Horton's lumber camp is?—A. I do.

Q. Is it in Fox Township?—A. I am told it is in Fox Township. I think it is.

Q. Are not the elections in Horton Township usually conducted very irregular and loose?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as incompetent and asking the opinion of a witness in a matter in which he is not shown to be an expert.)

A. I think not.

Q. Do they not generally at elections in Horton Township crowd around the table of the election board?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as incompetent and irrelevant, and as not referring to the election in question.)

A. Not very near, they don't. Not enough to interfere with the election, to my knowledge.

Q. Is it not usual for voters to congregate in the election house in Horton Township during elections?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as incompetent and irrelevant.)

A. They do, because they have no other place to go.

Q. Do you consider it proper to have a crowd of voters in and around the election board while the election is being held?—A. I do not.

Q. Do you consider it proper for candidates or voters to crowd around election boards and argue or give directions as to the duties of the board during the election?—A. No.

Q. Did you not say while on the stand as a witness there was considerable wrangling?—A. Yes, sir. But I was talking to Mr. Rathbun, and used those words not intending to have them taken down by the commissioner, and so stated; but I now state it as a fact that there was considerable wrangling.

Q. Were you not then answering a question and stopped by Mr. Rathbun?—A. I think not. I did not understand it that way.

Q. Did not Mr. Rathbun first object to these words being put down?—A. I don't know as he did.

Q. Did he object to having these words go down?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee, as having nothing to do with the case.)

A. I think he did, after I had objected.

I did; I took them out of the box, unfolded them, and then handed them to Mr. Phalen, who read them aloud and then handed them to the judge, who put them on a string.

Q. Did the number of votes taken out of the box agree with the clerks' poll-list?

(Objected to by counsel for contestee as incompetent, the poll-lists, returns, and tally papers being the best evidence, and there being no proof that they are lost or destroyed.)

A. They did, with the exceptions of the judiciary; I found two tickets for judiciary folded together, and but one of them numbered; I destroyed them both.

Q. Have you seen that string of tickets at any time since they were so put in?—A. I have not.

Q. Were there not quite a number of persons in the election-house during the day?—A. There were several different persons in there during the day.

Q. Did not Herbert Burchfield or Mr. Rudolph keep a tally or list of the votes cast for the office of assembly while in the election-house November 5, 1878?—A. I cannot say that they did. They had a book, but I cannot say what they were doing with it; one had a book part of the time and the other had the same book part of the time.

(The counsel for contestee object to all the questions and answers in the foregoing cross-examination which are not in regard to matters or facts called out in the examination of the witness in chief.)

Redirect:

Q. You have testified that when you went out of the election-house you had one ticket with you; what did you do with it?—A. I gave it to John Fry.

Q. Then you do not know whether he charged it or not, do you?—A. I am not positive on the matter, but I think he did.

Q. Is not all you know about it hearsay?—A. I have Thomas Burchfield's word for that.

Q. How did you adopt payment of that tax?—A. I should think it was adopted when I told him to charge it to me.

Q. How did you accept it?—A. I think it was accepted by having it charged.

Q. Was that the only way?—A. Yes.

Q. Then it was charged, was it not?—A. I say that I told Thomas Burchfield to charge it to me, and he said that he would.

Q. Did you credit your father with the amount of that tax?—A. I think I did.

Q. Don't you know that you did?—A. If I had my book, I could tell you in a few minutes whether I had credited it or not.

Q. Then you have not in fact paid him that tax, have you?—A. I have.

Q. How do you mean you have paid it?—A. In work.

JOSEPH CAMPBELL sworn.

Question. Were you an officer of the election held for Union Township, in the County of Mifflin, on the fifth day of November, 1878, for a member of Congress for this district?—Answer. I was judge of the election.

Q. How long have you been a resident of Union Township?—A. I have been a resident of Union Township a little over sixty years.

Q. Are you familiar with the qualified voters of Union Township?

(Mr. Parker objects. Is irrelevant.)

A. I know most of the voters of Union Township.

Q. Were there any illegal votes received at the November election of 1878, for member of Congress?

(Mr. Parker objects. That is a question to be settled by the facts to be proven in connection with the qualification of the persons who voted.)

A. To the best of my knowledge there was not.

Q. Do you remember of Charles M. McNabb, the son of Wm. McNabb, voting at that election?

(This question asked for the purpose of showing that Chas. M. McNabb voted at that election, that he was a resident of Philadelphia, and that he voted for A. G. Curtin, and that he was sent there to vote by R. Milton Spear, the chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee.)

Mr. Parker objects—1. That the list of voters is the best evidence of the persons who voted at the election; 2. That it is irrelevant and immaterial whether he was sent there by Mr. Spear or not; 3. That the witness is competent to prove how Chas. M. McNabb voted.)

A. I do.

Q. State if his vote was objected to?—A. It was objected to.

Q. On what grounds was it objected to?—A. It was objected to on the grounds that he was a resident of Philadelphia, and not a resident of that district.

Q. Had he been residing out of that district and in Philadelphia or not?—A. He said himself that he had been residing in Philadelphia, but claimed that as his place of voting, he being between the age of twenty-one and twenty-two, his father being a resident of Union Township. He said that he had been told by R. Milton Spear that he could vote there, and he knew the law better than any of us, or words to that effect. We received his vote.

Q. How long had he been residing in Philadelphia, or elsewhere than in that district, prior to the November election 1878, for member of Congress?—A. My recollection is that he had been away from the district for two years or more. I have seen him at home within that time occasionally.

Q. What had he been doing in Philadelphia prior to the November election 1878?—A. About October, 1877, Chas. M. McNabb told me in Philadelphia that he was clerking in a dry-goods store in that city. I think he said he was a salesman in the house of James Kent Santee & Co. He likewise told the board the day of the last November election, when he voted, that he was still doing business in Philadelphia.

Q. State what the politics of Chas. M. McNabb was and who he voted for for member of Congress?—A. Chas. M. McNabb was a Democrat. I don't know for whom he voted for member of Congress.

Q. State if the board of election officers had before them during that day a registry list from the commissioners' office of Mifflin County of the qualified voters for Union Township?—A. They had.

Q. Were the voters as they voted marked off that list by one of the officers of the election?—A. They were.

Q. Did any persons vote at that election who were not on that list of voters, who were not otherwise qualified to vote, except Chas. M. McNabb?—A. They did not, and in my opinion Chas. M. McNabb was qualified to vote. I gave the casting vote for him to vote.

Q. Will you state whether or not all the officers of the election, to wit, the judge, the two inspectors, and the two clerks, were sworn according to law before the election opened?—A. The officers of the election were all sworn or affirmed according to law.

Q. Who swore or affirmed them?—A. Wm. C. Gardner, one of the inspectors, swore me, and I swore or affirmed the rest of the board, including the clerks.

Witness cross-examined by Jos. W. PARKER, attorney for A. G. Curtin:

Q. Was Chas. M. McNabb a single man?—A. He was and is yet so far as I know.

Q. Do his parents reside in Belleville, Union Township, and if so how long have they done so?—A. His father has resided there all his life.

Q. Did Charles M. McNabb reside at home with his father until he removed to Philadelphia?—A. He did.

Q. How often, as near as you recollect, did he visit his parents?—A. Either last summer, or last summer a year; I think both. He spent a vacation at home perhaps two weeks. I have no recollection of seeing him at home at any other time, though he may have been.

Q. Did you ever talk politics with Charles M. McNabb?—A. I did on the day of election; he said he was a Democrat.

Q. That was the only conversation you had with him on politics?—A. So far as I recollect it was.

Q. Do you remember what names were on the registry list and what names were on the list of voters?—A. I do not. I recollect some of them.

Q. By which one of the inspectors were you sworn, the majority or the minority?—A. I was sworn by William C. Gardner; I believe he was the minority inspector.

Q. Do you remember how many persons voted whose names were not on the registry?—A. I do not.

Q. Do you remember the names of the persons who voted who were not on the registry list?—A. I do not; I remember Charles M. McNabb was not on.

Q. What proof do those voters whose names were not on the list make of their qualification to vote?—A. The board required a receipt of tax and evidence that they had been in the district a proper length of time.

Q. What was the character of evidence required for residence of those whose names were not on the registry list?—A. My recollection is they required their oaths or the oath of some one who knew them. I don't recollect all the cases; I believe, about two cases.

Q. Was this oath partly written or partly printed or written of the facts stated by the voter and subscribed by him?—A. In most cases the oath was just administered; it was neither printed or written; he was questioned by the board until they were satisfied of his qualification to vote.

Q. Did you require a written or printed affidavit from the witness produced by the voter as to the qualification of the voter to vote?—A. We did not; my recollection is that one case where we had great doubt we did, and that is the only case that I recollect.

Q. Did you require from the voter any proof by witnesses of his right to vote except what you required from the voter himself?—A. We did in several cases.

Q. Do you remember how many and in what cases?—A. I don't remember how many, but I remember two or three.

Adjourned until two o'clock p. m.

Q. State in cases where witnesses were called to prove the residence of the voter, were the witnesses qualified voters of the district, and were they sworn or affirmed?—A. In so far as I now recollect they were sworn. In one case the witness was not a qualified voter on account of his tax receipt; the tax receipt was too old.

Q. Did the person claiming the right to vote state when and where he was born?—A. He did.

Q. Did you ask him whether he had been a citizen of the United States for one month and of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania?—A. I do not recollect.

Q. Did you ask him if he had resided in the commonwealth for one year?—A. I don't recollect, my impression is we did not.

Q. If he had formerly been a qualified elector or a native-born citizen thereof and had removed therefrom and returned, did you, in that case, ask him whether he had resided in the State six months next preceding said election?—A. I don't think we asked him that question. I don't now remember what questions we did ask him.

Q. Did you ask him whether he had resided in the district in which he claimed to vote for a period at least two months immediately preceding said election?—A. My impression is we did.

Q. In case a person was twenty-two years of age or upwards, did you ask him if he had paid a State or county tax within two years, which was assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before election?—A. We did ask those questions of the voter.

Q. Did the voter state when and where the tax which he claimed to be paid was assessed, and when and where and to whom paid?—A. The voter stated except where he produced a receipt.

Q. Did you require tax-receipts unless in cases where the voter stated that it had been lost or destroyed, or that he had never received any?—A. We did.

Q. Do you say that you had before the board of election officers of Union Township a complete registry of the qualified voters of that election district furnished by the commissioners of Mifflin County?—A. We had what I believed a complete registry. I don't know by whom it was furnished.

Q. Did you have more than one registry-list?—A. So far as I recollect we had not.

Q. Did you have a separate registry of the sixty-day list of qualified voters furnished by the commissioners of Mifflin County?—A. I have no recollection of any.

Q. Do you know who made out the registry used by the election board on that day?—A. I do not.

Q. Did you have an old registry? and, if so, state what registry it was if you know?—A. There was an old registry of the year before, but it was not used in conducting this election.

Recalled:

Q. Did the registry-list you had at that election embrace the sixty-day assessment, and was it a full registry of the legal voters of Union Township?

(Mr. Parker objects, the question is leading.)

A. I think it did embrace the sixty-day list, and was a full registry of the voters of Union Township.

Q. How many electors presented themselves to vote whose names were not found on the registry-list?—A. I don't recollect; my impression is that the number would be between from six to twelve.

Q. State whether you applied to the collector of Union Township before the election for a list of persons who had paid their taxes, and whether you received a list of such persons or not.

(Mr. Parker objects, that a list of the paid taxes furnished by the collector to the officer of election was no evidence of the payment of the taxes of the person claiming to vote.)

A. I applied to the collector and he said to me that every citizen had paid his tax without an exception; he furnished me no list.

(Mr. Parker objects to the answer as containing more than is embraced in the question, and that the declaration of the tax collector is no evidence of the legal payment of the taxes.)

JOS. CAMPBELL.

RICHARD YOUNG affirmed.

Question. Were you an officer of the election board in Union Township for the general election held November 5, 1878?—Answer. I was.

Q. What office did you hold in that board?—A. Inspector.

Q. State whether or not the election board at that election had for its use a registry-list, furnished by the commissioners, of the legal voters of Union Township.—A. We had one that came with the election papers.

Q. When you say election papers, what is embraced in what you call election papers?—A. Blank forms and oaths and some blank paper, sealing wax and tape.

Q. Do you know whether or not the registry-list embraced the June assessment of voters of Union Township?—A. It did.

Q. What became of that registry-list that you used at that election?—A. I believe it is in the box; it was put in and sealed up.

Q. When a voter presented himself to vote did you or did you not refer to the registry-list to find whether he was registered, and, if he voted, was he or was he not checked off that list?—A. We did refer to the list, and his name was checked off when he voted.

Q. When persons applied to vote whose names were not contained on the registry list, did you or did you not require them to make proof of their right to vote in every instance?—A. We did require it.

Cross-examined:

Q. When did you first see the registry list?—A. On the morning of the election, before seven o'clock.

Q. In whose possession was it?—A. It was on the table in the election room, under the care of the constable.

Q. Who was the constable?—A. Adam Wademen.

Q. Was the envelope which contained the papers opened or sealed when you first saw it?—A. I can't remember.

Q. If you can't remember whether it was opened or sealed how do you know whether the registry list was with the other papers?—A. The other papers were lying with the registry list.

Q. How do you know that the registry list came with the other papers?—A. All I know it was with them when we got our hands on them.

Q. Did you help make up the June assessment?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you help make up any of the assessments that year?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you compare the different assessments made that year with each other?—A. We had the three assessments in the one list. If my memory serves me right I saw the regular list, the June assessment list, and the sixty-one-day list.

Q. Where did you see these lists?—A. In Mr. Gardner's hands, in the election room.

Q. Was it from seeing the June assessment and the sixty-one-day assessment and the regular list that you knew that the registry list contained the names of all the voters of Union Township?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you compare the assessment lists with the registry?—A. I did not, no more than as the votes came in.

Q. How do you know that the registry used by the election officers embraced the June assessment?—A. We were looking over it, and Mr. Haffley came in and show me the June assessment list, and told us it was all there.

Q. Had Mr. Haffley the June assessment list with him that day?—A. No, sir; it was on the table.

Q. Do you know in whose handwriting the registry was?—A. No, sir.

Q. State what proof you required of the voter when his name was not on the registry-list.—A. We called in witnesses in some cases, and in some we swore them or affirmed them.

Q. What questions did you submit to the witness as to residence?—A. If they had known them such a length of time.

Q. What length of time?—A. Six months in most cases, if my memory serves me right.

Q. What other questions did you ask them?—A. If they had receipts for payment of tax.

Q. Did you require of them written, or partly printed or partly written, affidavits to the facts upon which the elector claimed the right to vote?—A. If my memory serves me right in some cases we did, where it required it.

Q. What other questions did you ask the voters?

(Mr. Elder objects; because of its generality, witness could not possibly answer.)

A. I cannot remember..

Q. Did the voter produce at least one qualified voter of the district as witness to the residence of the voter in the district for at least two months immediately preceding election?—A. There was one case.

Q. In all cases where the names did not appear on the registry of the person claiming the right to vote, did you require him to produce and did he produce at least one qualified voter of the district as a witness to the residence of the claimant in the district for the period of at least two months immediately preceding the election?—A. To the best of my knowledge we did, except in the one case where the tax receipt was too old.

Q. Did you take written, or partly printed and partly written, affidavits in all cases where the voter's name was not on the registry list?—A. Not in all cases, if I recollect.

RICHARD YOUNG.

MILES HAFFLY affirmed.

Question. Were you the assessor for Union Township for 1878?—Answer. I was assessor for Union Township in 1878.

Q. Did you make the June assessment, as it is called?—A. I did.

Q. Did you make the sixty-one assessments?—A. I did.

Q. What did you do with these assessments?—A. I furnished a copy of the June assessment in connection with the assessment of valuation made the fall before to the commissioners.

Q. What did you do with the sixty-one-day assessment?—A. I sent it to the commissioners' office through the mail direct to the clerk.

Q. Did you see the registry list furnished to the officers who held the general election held on the 5th of November, 1878; and if you answer you did, what assessments did it embrace?—A. I did see it, and it contained the assessment of valuation, the June assessment, and the sixty-one-day assessment.

Q. Where did you last see this registry list, and when furnished the election officers?—A. I believe I saw it after the vote was counted, put into one of the boxes, and sealed up.

Q. Did you see this registry list in the hands of the officers during the day?—A. I did, and saw one of the inspectors checking off the names of the voters as they were taken in.

Q. Are you acquainted with the handwriting of J. K. Rhodes, clerk of commissioners at that time?—A. I believe I am.

Q. In whose handwriting was the registry list you saw in the hands of the election officers of Union Township whilst they were holding the general election on November 5, 1878?—A. I believe it to have been in the handwriting of J. K. Rhodes, clerk of the commissioners.

Cross-examined by J. S. RAKARD and JOS. W. PARKER, attorneys for A. G. Curtin:

Q. What did the June assessment returned by you to the county commissioners embrace?—A. It embraced all who had come into the district after the assessment of valuation made the fall before, as far as I could ascertain.

Q. Did the registry sent to the election board by the county commissioners embrace any other names than those in the June assessment and sixty-one-day assessment?—A. Yes, sir; it embraced the assessment of valuation made the fall before and the June and sixty-one-day lists.

Q. What time did you first see that registry?—A. I saw it in the hands of one of the inspectors on the day of election checking off names for the first time.

Q. Did any one ask you if the regular assessment was on that registry?—A. I don't remember that Mr. Young asked me if the general assessment was on there, but he did ask me if the June and sixty-one-day assessment was on that, and I told him they were.

Re-examined:

Q. Was the fall assessment on that list together with the June and sixty-one-day assessments?—A. It was.

MILES HAFFLY.

Adjourned until 8 o'clock on March 15, 1879.

Met at 10 o'clock a. m. March 15, 1879.

WILLIAM H. GLASS sworn.

Question. Were you one of the clerks for the general election held in Menno Township on the 5th of November, 1878, for Congress?—Answer. I was.

Q. How was the election board sworn or affirmed to hold the election?

(Mr. Parker objects. The affidavits must be produced, they being the best evidence.)

A. Mr. John A. Fultz, being the minority inspector, swore the judge, and Mr. John W. Bradley, the judge of election, swore the balance of the board.

Q. Who was the other clerk of the election beside yourself?—A. Francis E. Barr.

Q. Were there lists made of all the voters of Menno Township who voted at that election by you and the other clerk of the election; and, if there was, what became of them?—A. There were two correct lists made, one by Mr. Barr and one by myself, of all the qualified voters of Menno Township who voted on the 5th day of November, 1878. The one list was inclosed with the return-sheet, tally-list, list of oaths, to the prothonotary's office in Lewistown; the other was deposited in the ballot-box, properly sealed, and delivered to the justice of the peace.

Q. How many votes were cast on that day at that election for Congress?

(Mr. Parker objects that the returns are the best evidence.)

A. Two hundred and twenty-eight.

Q. Have you made search for the list of voters, and have you been able to find it?—A. I did; I searched through all the papers, and was unable to find anything of the kind.

Cross-examined by Mr. PARKER and Mr. RAKARD:

Q. Who made up the returns that were sent to the prothonotary?—A. I did myself.

Q. Do you have a distinct recollection that one of the lists of the voters was inclosed among those returns?—A. I have.

Q. If you have a distinct recollection that the list was so returned, why did you make search for it, and where did you search?—A. I did not make search for that list I sent.

Q. For what list did you make search?—A. For the one I supposed was deposited in the ballot-box and taken out at the spring election?

Q. Why did you make search for the list of voters you supposed was in the ballot-box?—A. I examined it to see if there, and to produce it here; I mean the registry-list.

Q. Then you never did make search for the list of voters?—A. The list of voters is what I searched for.

Q. Did you search for that list with a view of presenting it here to-day?—A. I did.

Q. Who sealed up these returns?—A. I did myself, in the presence of the judge of the election.

Q. To whom were the returns directed to the prothonotary delivered on the day of election?—A. They were delivered to John W. Bradley, judge of the election.

Re-examined:

Q. Do you recollect any circumstance which happened at the time the returns were sealed up, which satisfies you now that the list of voters were sealed up with the other returns at that time?—A. I gave those four papers, return-sheet, tally-list, list of oaths, and list of voters, to F. E. Barr, the other clerk; and after working some time to get these papers inside the large envelope, he could not get them in, and requested me to put them in, which I did.

W. H. GLASS.

JOHN W. BRADLEY sworn.

Question. State if you were the judge of the election in Menno Township at the election held November 5, 1878.—Answer. I was.

Q. State if a list of voters was kept by each of the clerks at that election.—A. Yes, sir.

Q. State if the papers spoken of by the former witness, Mr. Glass, as directed to the prothonotary, were delivered to you and what you did with them.—A. They were delivered to me, and I delivered them to the prothonotary.

Q. Do you know what papers were in the envelope you delivered to the prothonotary?—A. The list of voters, the tally-list and the list of oaths and the return sheet.

Q. What was done with the other list of voters?—A. The inspectors put them into the box along with the other papers.

Q. How many votes were cast for Congress at that election?

(Mr. Parker objects: 1. Returns are the best evidence.)

A. Two hundred and twenty-eight.

Q. On what day did you deliver these papers to the prothonotary?—A. I delivered them the next morning after the election, about nine o'clock.

Q. Was that envelope opened from the time it was delivered to you until you delivered it to the prothonotary?—A. No.

Q. Was the envelope containing the returns you have spoken of at any time out of your possession from the time you received it until you delivered it to the prothonotary?—A. No.

Cross-examined by Mr. PARKER:

Q. Were you present when this list of voters was put into the envelope and did you see it put in with the other papers?—A. I was present and saw it put in.

Q. By whom was it put in?—A. By William H. Glass.

Q. Do you know from your own knowledge and observation that it was in the envelope at the time it was sealed up and delivered to you?—A. I do.

Re-examined:

Q. Were there any persons voted at that election whose names were not upon the registry-list, and, if so, were they sworn according to law before their votes were received, and by whom was the oath administered?

(Mr. Parker objects.

Question withdrawn by Mr. McKee.)

JOHN W. BRADLEY.

JOHN A. FULTZ sworn.

Question. State if you were one of the inspectors at the general election held for Menno Township on the 5th of November, 1878.—Answer. I was the minority inspector.

Q. Did you swear the judge of elections at that time?—A. I did.

Q. Who swore the other officers?—A. John W. Bradley, the judge.

Q. Were there lists of voters kept of the persons who voted at that election by the clerks?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was done with those lists?—A. The one was put with the tally-lists, return-sheet, and the oaths into the envelope, and addressed to the prothonotary at Lewistown. It was sealed and delivered to the judge of elections. The other was put into the ballot-box, sealed, shut, and returned to the justice of the peace.

Cross-examined by Mr. RAKARD:

Q. Do you know certainly, of your own knowledge, that a list of voters was inclosed with the returns sent to the prothonotary?—A. I do.

Q. Where is the list of voters that was sealed up in the ballot-box?—A. I believe it to be there yet.

Those offered, to wit, papers, E. C 1, E. C 2, E. C 3, E. C 4, E. C 5, E. C 6, being the certificates of the prothonotary of the copies of election papers filed in his office of the election districts west ward of the borough of Lewistown, east ward of the borough of Lewistown, Bratton Township, Wayne Township, Granville Township, and Oliver Township, to be followed with certified copies of the registry-lists of said election districts, and to prove that the officers who held the elections in said districts were not duly qualified, and further to show the number of votes cast in the several townships and election districts of the county of Mifflin for Seth H. Yocum and A. G. Curtin, and to be followed with proof that illegal votes in said election districts were cast and counted for Andrew G. Curtin for member of Congress. Paper marked E. C 7, being certificate by the prothonotary of copy of papers on file in the prothonotary's office of the election for member of Congress at the election held November 5, 1878, in Menno Township, offered in connection with the testimony of the election officers of said township or election district already given in evidence, to prove the regularity and fairness of the election held in said township or election district.

Mr. Parker objects: 1. That the papers do not prove the purpose for which they are offered. 2. That the paper relating to Menno Township does not prove the fairness and regularity of the election held in said township.

WM. S. SETTLE sworn.

Are these papers true, full, and correct copies of the lists of voters, oaths of the election officers, and return-sheets of the votes for member of Congress in the several election districts to which they refer, as full and entire as the same were returned and filed in your office, and were there any other affidavits of any kind filed from said election districts in connection with such papers, except those which appear and are attached thereto?—A. Mr. D. W. Woods offers papers marked E. C 8, E. C 9, E. C 10, E. C 11, E. C 12, E. C 13, registry lists for the November election, 1878, for Lewistown west ward, Lewistown east ward, Bratton Township, Wayne Township, Granville Township, and Oliver Township, in the county of Mifflin, being certified copies of the registry of qualified voters of said townships and districts, as returned and filed in the office of the county commissioners of Mifflin County for and during the year 1878. These offered in connection with the list of voters already given in evidence in said districts for the purpose of showing the persons entitled to vote at the November election, 1878, for member of Congress, and to show that other persons voted than those whose names are on said registry lists or were otherwise qualified to vote according to law, and that such illegal votes were cast for Andrew G. Curtin for member of Congress.

(Mr. Parker objects that said papers do not show, or tend to show, any illegal votes were cast for Andrew G. Curtin.)

Question. Are you clerk to the county commissioners of Mifflin County?—Answer. I am.

Q. How long have you been clerk to the county commissioners of Mifflin County?—A. I have been their clerk for three years.

Q. State if you are the custodian of the papers and records of the commissioners' office of Mifflin County, and were you during all that period of three years said custodian?—A. I am and was.

Q. State if the returns were made to the county commissioners by the assessors for the election districts in and for the west ward of the borough of Lewistown, the east ward of the borough of Lewistown, Bratton Township, Wayne Township, Granville Township, and Oliver Township, of the resident taxables and voters in said election districts for the year 1878, and when the same were so returned.—A. There was, but can't state the exact day they were returned; but they were all returned more than sixty days before the November election, or immediately after the 61-day assessment.

Q. State whether the county commissioners caused a full and correct copy of these resident taxables and voters to be made for the several election districts above mentioned, containing the names of all persons so returned as resident taxables and voters in said several election districts, and whether you as their clerk made such copies, and when they were made out.—A. They did cause such lists to be made out, and I made them out by their orders; they were made out some time between the time the sixty-one-day lists were returned and the day of election.

Q. State whether or not a copy of the lists which you have stated to have been thus made out by order of the county commissioners was furnished to the officers of said several election districts before the election of November 5, 1878.—A. There was.

Q. State if papers marked E. C 8, E. C 9, E. C 10, E. C 11, E. C 12, E. C 13, hereto attached, are full and correct copies of the lists so made out by order of the commissioners of Mifflin County, and furnished to the board of election officers of said several election districts.—A. They are.

UNION COUNTY.

Depositions of witnesses produced, qualified, and examined before the undersigned, a notary public in and for the county of Union and State of Pennsylvania, in pursuance of the notices hereto attached, at the court-house in the borough of Lewisburg, county of Union, and State aforesaid, beginning on the seventeenth day of March, A. D. 1879, and afterwards by adjournments as herein noted, and ending on the 29th day of March, A. D. 1879.

In the matter of the contest between Hon. Andrew G. Curtin and Seth H. Yocum, esq., for the right to a seat in the Forty-sixth Congress of the United States for twentieth Congressional district of the State of Pennsylvania, composed of the counties of Centre, Clinton, Clearfield, Mifflin, Union, and Elk, on the part of the contestee.

Alfred Hayes, esq., and Dale Wilson, esq., appear as counsel for the contestee, and Daniel W. Cox, esq., as counsel for the contestant.

Counsel for contestee offer in evidence a certified copy of the registry list of voters of the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg, Union County, Pennsylvania, being an election district comprised in the twentieth Congressional district of Pennsylvania, with the seal of the county commissioners attached, and attested by Peter Hursh, the clerk of the commissioners of said county, marked Exhibit D. B. M., No. 1.

(Counsel for contestee here states that he will hereafter call Peter Hursh, and make common-law proof also of the foregoing paper offered in evidence.)

Counsel for contestant objects to said paper marked Exhibit D. B. M., No. 1. 1st. Because said paper is not certified according to the act of Congress. 2d. Peter Hursh is simply the clerk of the commissioners of Union County, and as such clerk has no authority under the laws of Pennsylvania to use a seal, said seal being a seal of the commissioners, and not of the clerk. 3d. Said paper is not evidence in itself, and it must be proved to be correct and a true copy before it can be received in evidence.

Papers marked Exhibit D. B. M., No. 1, in evidence and made part of the record under the above objections.

CHARLES H. HASSENPLUG sworn and examined.

Question. What is your full name?—Answer. Charles H. Hassenplug.

Q. Where do you reside?—A. Lewisburg, Union County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Are you an officer of a court of record for Union County?—A. I am the prothonotary of the court of common pleas of Union County, which is a court of record, and am clerk of the several other courts of Union County.

(Counsel for contestee shows witness a certified copy of list of voters who voted in the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg, county of Union, and State of Pennsylvania, at the general election held November 5, 1878, it being an election district comprised within the twentieth election district of Pennsylvania, as taken from the original list as filed in the prothonotary's office of said county. Paper marked Exhibit D. B. M., No. 2.)

Q. Is this a certified copy of the original list of voters of the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg, county of Union, Pennsylvania, for the election held November 5, 1878, as filed in your office by the judge of said election district?—A. Yes; it is.

Counsel for contestant reserving all legal exceptions to the competency and relevancy of the testimony proceeds to cross-examine:

Q. Is the said copy marked Exhibit D. B. M., No. 2, in your own handwriting?—A. Nothing but the signature—the other is in the handwriting of one of my clerks.

Q. Have you made a comparison of this copy with the original, carefully noting each name?—A. I have not, but I have looked over it generally and believe it to be correct. I compared it with the original this morning, and added a few figures which were omitted.

Q. You did not make such a comparison and examination as will enable you to swear that said paper claimed to be a copy marked Exhibit D. B. M., No. 2, is in fact a true and correct copy of the original?—A. Yes; just as much so as if I had made it myself.

Q. Have you the original in your possession as custodian of the records?—A. I have.

Counsel for contestee now offer in evidence Exhibit D. B. M., No. 2.

Counsel for contestant objects, that a certified copy is not evidence when the original is in the possession of the witness and can be produced and copied by the notary, and said copy not being certified according to the act of Congress.

Paper marked Exhibit D. B. M., No. 2, in evidence and made part of this record under above objections.

C. H. HASSENPLUG.

Sworn and subscribed before me this 17th day of March, A. D. 1879.

D. B. MILLER,
Notary Public.

J. W. CORNELIUS sworn and examined.

Question. What is your full name?—Answer. John Wesley Cornelius.

Q. How do you generally write your name?—A. J. Wesley Cornelius. Generally written by others J. W. Cornelius.

Q. Where did you reside on the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. I had been residing in the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg, Union County, Pennsylvania. On the 16th day of October, 1878, I rented a house in the south ward of said borough, and commenced putting my goods in on the same day. Myself and wife slept there and sometimes we took our meals there.

Q. Had you any other residence or place you called home after the 16th day of October, 1878?—A. I regarded my mother's place in the north ward as my home.

Q. Why did you regard your mother's place as your home?—A. Because I lived there before I moved. I never kept house before now. I lived with my mother.

Q. What goods were remaining at your mother's house on the 5th day of November, 1878, of your own personal effects, which you calculated for your own housekeeping and which you have since removed to the house you so rented?—A. I had a heater stove there, some clothing, and some preserves.

Q. Was not the house you so rented furnished sufficiently to enable you to keep house in it prior to November 5, 1878?—A. We could have kept house in it if we wanted to. If we had staid in it all the time we could have done so.

Q. Did you not have your cooking stove and cooking utensils in the house prior to November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; the cooking stove was put in in September.

Q. During how many days after October 16, 1878, and prior to November 5, 1878, did you take your meals at your mother's house in the north ward?—A. About one-fourth of the time.

Q. You slept at the house you so rented from the 16th day of October, 1878, until the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. When you rented this house on the 16th day of October, 1878, you intended to make it your place of residence, did you not?—A. I did, after I got everything moved.

Q. After renting as you have stated, did you intend going back to your mother's as a permanent place of residence?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Where have you continued to reside since the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. In the south ward, in the house which I rented on the 16th of October, 1878.

Q. Did you vote at the election held on November 5, 1878, for member of Congress, to represent the twentieth Congressional district of Pennsylvania in the Forty-sixth Congress of the United States?—A. I did.

Q. Where did you so vote?—A. In the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg, Union County, Pennsylvania.

Q. For whom did you vote for member of Congress on said 5th day of November, 1878?—A. For Andrew G. Curtin.

Counsel for contestant reserving all legal exceptions proceeds to cross-examine:

Q. Had you resided with your mother in the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg previous to the time when you began housekeeping in the south ward of said borough; if so, for how long previous?—A. I did reside with my mother in the north ward for eighteen years prior to my going to housekeeping in the south ward.

Q. You had only been married a short time before the 5th day of November, A. D. 1878, and had not began housekeeping yet, had you not?—A. Not any more than I had stated before.

Q. Had you taken up your residence permanently in the south ward of Lewisburg on November 5, 1878, or did you still consider your residence in the north ward at your mother's house until you had finally moved into the south ward?—A. I did not consider the south ward my residence. I considered my residence in the north ward until I had everything moved.

Q. From the 16th day of October, 1878, until November 15, 1878, were you not simply arranging and furnishing the house in the south ward in order to go to reside in the said south ward?—A. Yes, sir; we furnished and fixed it up the best we could, and slept there too.

Q. You had not taken up your residence in the south ward of the borough of Lewisburg until after November 5, 1878?—A. No, sir; not more than I had stated before.

Re-examined by counsel for contestee:

Q. Where is the house located you rented on the 16th day of October, 1878?—A. In the south ward of the borough of Lewisburg, on south Fourth street.

Q. Was not the great bulk of your household goods at the house in the south ward on the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. They were.

Q. Does it not depend on what is considered a residence as to whether you resided in the north or south ward on November 5, 1878, and can you be positive that your residence was in the north ward on that day?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the form of the question, because it is impossible for the witness to swear as to what his residence depended upon, and any answer would simply be the opinion of the witness; 2d, irrelevant.)

A. I considered the north ward my residence, of course.

Recross-examined by counsel for contestant:

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax in the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg within two years prior to November 5, 1878, which had been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Was your name upon the registry of voters for said north ward election district for said election held November 5, 1878?

(Counsel for contestee object, because the witness being a resident of the south ward of the borough of Lewisburg on November 5, 1878, it is immaterial whether his name was on the registry-list of the north ward or not; 2d, irrelevant.)

A. I considered my name was on the registry-list, as no objection was made to my vote.

J. WESLEY CORNELIUS.

Sworn and subscribed before me this 17th day of March, A. D. 1879.

[SEAL.]

D. B. MILLER,

Notary Public.

FRANK S. HIGH sworn and examined.

Question. What is your name?—Answer. Frank S. High.

Q. Where did you reside on the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. I resided on Fourth street, south of Market, in the borough of Lewisburg, and have been told that it is in the south ward. I lived next door to J. W. Cornelius.

Q. Did you vote at the election held on November 5, 1878, for member of Congress?—A. I don't know. I voted the State ticket.

Q. State whether or not in voting at said election you did not intend and desire and believe you did vote the Democratic ticket as nominated.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the above question, because what the witness intended or desired to do by way of voting at the election held November 5, 1878, is not evidence. It is what he did or for whom he voted that is evidence; 2d, irrelevant.)

A. I am a Democrat, and intended voting the Democratic ticket, but I don't know how I voted, as I did not see the contents of the ticket. Don't know how many tickets I voted. The ticket I voted had a gum around it, and I placed it upon the table before the election board.

Q. Where did you get the ticket or tickets which you voted?—A. I got my ticket from Mr. Cox, I believe, who is counsel for contestant in this case.

Q. Where did you vote at the election held November 5, 1878?—A. I voted at the school-house on Second street, north of Market, in the borough of Lewisburg, Union County, Pennsylvania. I believe it is in the north ward.

Counsel for contestant, reserving all legal exceptions, proceeds to cross-examine.

Q. Are you certain that you received the ticket which you voted November 5, 1878, from Daniel W. Cox?—A. I either got the ticket from Daniel W. Cox or Charles S. Wolfe, who was the Republican candidate for the legislature, and I don't know for whom I voted for Congress or whether I voted for member of Congress. Any further than the State ticket I cannot swear to.

Re-examined:

Q. Are you not pretty certain that you received your tickets from Mr. Cox?—A. Yes, sir; I am pretty certain of that.

Q. If you voted the whole Democratic ticket did you not vote for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the above question for the reason that the witness has already stated that he does not know either that he voted for a candidate for Congress or for whom he voted; 2d, the answer, whatever it might be, would be irrelevant.)

A. If I did vote the whole Democratic ticket I voted for Andrew G. Curtin, as he was on the Democratic ticket.

Q. At what time of day did you attend the election, and what time were you at the polls?—A. I was there between six and seven o'clock in the evening, and think I was there about one-half an hour.

Notary Public.

CHARLES H. HASSENPLUG recalled and examined on the part of the contestee, as follows:

(Exhibit D. B. M., No. 2, shown witness.)

Question. Since you testified this morning, have you compared this paper with the original list of voters at the general election of November 5, 1878, held in the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg on said day? and state whether you find this to be an accurate copy as you have certified.—Answer. I have examined it since and find it a true copy.

C. H. HASSONPLUG.

Sworn and subscribed before me this 17th day of March, A. D. 1878.
[SEAL.]

D. B. MILLER,
Notary Public.

WILLIAM FRANCIS sworn and examined.

Question. What is your full name?—Answer. William Francis.

Q. What is your age?—A. I am going on twenty-eight years of age.

Q. Where did you reside on the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. In the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg, Union County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Did you vote at the general election held on November 5, 1878, and if so, where did you vote?—A. I did; I voted in the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg, Union County, Pennsylvania.

Q. State whether you voted the Democratic or Republican ticket at said election.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the above question. 1st. Because it is not shown or offered to be shown that the witness was not a qualified voter of said election district, and until it is shown that he is not a qualified elector the witness need not state how he voted as, he, prima facie, has a right to vote.)

A. To the best of my knowledge I voted the full Democratic ticket.

Q. What influence was brought to bear on you at said election to induce you to vote the Democratic ticket?—A. On the morning of the election Cap. Walls came down to my house and said he would give me a sack of flour if I would vote for Hoffa and Dill. I told him I would. I did so vote, and afterwards he gave me an order for a sack of flour, and I afterwards got the flour.

Q. About what time of day did you vote and who gave you your ticket?—A. I can't tell what time of day, but I think it was about 9 o'clock in the morning Mr. Walls gave me the ticket.

Q. Did Mr. Walls give you the whole Democratic ticket?—A. I can't say whether he did or not. It was folded up and I did not open it to look at it. To the best of my knowledge he did.

Q. What is Cap. Walls's name?—A. I don't know what his first name is.

Q. Do you know where he has his store?—A. He has a large store on Market street.

Counsel for contestant, reserving all legal exceptions to the competency and relevancy of the testimony, proceeds to cross-examine:

Q. You were a legal voter of the north ward of the borough of Lewisburgh, were you not?—A. I was.

Q. Mr. Walls did not give you anything to vote for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress?—A. I do not know whether he did or not. Mr. Curtin's name was not mentioned.

Q. He asked you to vote for Hoffa and Dill?—A. Yes, sir; that was what he asked me to do.

Q. You have stated that you did not open and read the ticket which you voted; therefore you can't say of your own knowledge whose names were upon it, can you?—A. I can't say whose names were on the ticket; only that Cap. gave it to me.

Q. Did Cap. Walls not tell you that he would give you nothing for your vote, but that he would make you a present of a sack of flour because you complained to him of poverty?—A. No, sir; I did not complain to him. He said he would give me a sack of flour if I would go along with him up and vote for Dill and Hoffa.

Q. Had not Cap. Walls frequently assisted you?

(Counsel for contestee objects, because not cross-examination and irrelevant.)

A. No, sir; he did not.

Re-examined by counsel for contestee:

Q. Did you go along with Cap. Walls and vote the ticket he gave you?—A. I did.

Q. Is Cap. Walls a democrat or not?

(Counsel for contestant objects, first, that it is immaterial whether Walls is a democrat or not; 2d, irrelevant.)

A. I think he is.

Recross-examined by counsel for contestant:

Q. Whom did you first tell that Cap. Walls had given you a sack of flour to vote for Dill and Hoffa?

(Counsel for contestee objects, because no cross-examination, immaterial, and irrelevant.)

A. I first told Ross Hann; then I told Jim Knettle.

Q. Who else did you tell?

(Counsel for contestee objects, because no cross-examination, immaterial, and irrelevant.)

A. I told my father. I don't know as I told anybody else. I told William Wolfe.

WILLIAM FRANCIS.

Sworn and subscribed before me this 17th day of March, A. D. 1879.

D. B. MILLER,

Notary Public.

CHARLES H. HASSONPLUG recalled.

Question. Do you reside in the borough of Lewisburg, and, if so, how long have you resided there, and in what ward do you now reside?—

Answer. I have resided in the borough of Lewisburg for over fifteen years, and about ten years in the north ward.

Q. Are you acquainted with Captain Walls, and how long have you known him?

(Counsel for contestant objects, that the evidence is immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. I am acquainted with him, and have known him for about fifteen years.

Q. What is his full name?—A. George W. Walls; I think his initials are G. W.

Q. What are his politics?

(Counsel for contestant objects, that the evidence is immaterial, inadmissible, and irrelevant.)

A. He is an active Democrat.

Q. Was he not active as a Democratic politician at the north ward polls at the election of November 5, 1878?

(Objected to as above.)

A. I don't know whether he was all day or not. I was not at the polls all day, but generally when I was there he was about. He appeared to be electioneering.

Q. Are you acquainted with Daniel W. Cox, esq., and how long have you known him?

(Objected to as above.)

A. I am acquainted with him, and have known him for about twelve or fifteen years; I don't know exactly.

Q. State whether or not he is an active Democratic politician.

(Counsel for contestant objects as before, and besides Daniel W. Cox would be the best witness as to his politics.)

A. Yes; he generally is.

Q. Did he not interest himself at the polls in the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg at the election of November 5, 1878 in behalf of the Democratic ticket?

(Objected to as above.)

A. He did generally. He did for part of the ticket; can't say that he did for it all. He was chairman of the Democratic standing committee for Union County.

D. B. MILLER,
Notary Public.

DAVID HIGH sworn and examined.

Question. What is your name?—Answer. David High.

Q. Where did you reside on the 5th day of November, A. D. 1878?—

A. In a house belonging to Charles S. Wolfe, situated on South Water Street, south of Market Street, in the borough of Lewisburg, Union County, Pennsylvania. I think it is in the south ward.

Q. Did you vote at the general election held November 5, 1878, for member of Congress?—A. I voted at the election, but I can't say whether or not I voted for member of Congress.

Q. Where did you vote at the election held November 5, 1878?—A. I voted at the school-house situated on Second street, north of Market, in the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg, Union County, Pennsylvania.

Q. State whether or not you voted the whole Democratic ticket or not.—A. I don't know whether it was or not. I did not even as much as look at the heading.

Q. From whom did you get the ticket or tickets voted by you?—A. I got the ticket from Mr. Baker. I did not know him at the time.

Q. State whether or not you asked for any particular ticket.—A. I did not.

Q. What party in politics do you belong to?—A. I belong to the Democrats.

Q. Did you not ask for a Democratic ticket?—A. I don't recollect asking for a ticket at all. The ticket was given to me.

Q. Had you any reason to believe that the person who gave you the ticket was of the same political party as yourself?—A. I did not ask the man what his politics were, neither did I know. I never saw the man before.

Q. Describe the man who gave you the ticket.—A. I can't tell what kind of a looking man he was. It was dark, and they were running around with a lantern.

Q. Did anybody tell you to apply to Mr. Baker for a ticket?—A. No, sir.

Q. What did Mr. Baker say to you when he gave you the ticket?—A. I don't recollect.

Q. Did not Mr. Baker tell you that it was a Democratic ticket he gave you?—A. I don't recollect anything about it.

Q. Had you any choice between the tickets voted there that day?—A. I suppose my choice would have been a Democratic ticket, but I don't know whether I voted it or not.

Q. Have you found out since where this Baker lives, or have you since seen him to know him?—A. I have not.

Counsel for contestant, reserving all legal exceptions to the relevancy of the testimony, proceeds to cross-examine:

Q. Are you acquainted with Hon. Charles S. Wolfe?—A. I am.

Q. Was he present when you voted, and did he approve of the ticket which you voted?—A. Mr. Wolfe sanctioned it.

Q. Was or was not Charles S. Wolfe the Republican candidate for the legislature at the election held November 5, 1878?

(Counsel for contestee object, for the reason that it is not cross-examination, and irrelevant.)

A. I know that he was a candidate for some office, but did not know what it was, but have since learned that he was the Republican candidate for the legislature.

Q. Did you desire to vote for Charles S. Wolfe?—A. He was my preference because I lived in his house.

Q. You did not care much how you voted?—A. I did not.

D. B. MILLER,

Notary Public.

March 18, 1879, parties met pursuant to adjournment.

Counsel for contestee offer in evidence certified copy of registry list of voters of the west ward of the borough of Mifflinburg, Union County, Pennsylvania, for the year 1878, marked Exhibit D. B. M. No. 3; this certified copy to be followed by the testimony of Peter Hursh, clerk to the commissioners, and which will be further authenticated by proof at common law, making it also a sworn copy.

Counsel for contestant makes the following objections to the paper offered in evidence marked Exhibit D. B. M. No. 3: 1st. Said paper is not certified according to act of Congress. 2d. Peter Hursh is simply the clerk of the commissioners of Union County, and as such clerk has no authority under the laws of Pennsylvania to use a seal, and besides, the seal attached to said paper is the seal of the commissioners and not of the clerk.

(Certified copy of said certificate offered in evidence and marked Exhibit D. B. M. No. 4.)

Q. Is Exhibit D. B. M. No. 4 a true and correct copy of said original return sheet so full and entire as the same remains on file in your office?—A. It is.

Q. Will you please produce the original triplicate election return made by the election board of the west ward of the borough of Mifflinburg, of the election held in said ward on the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. I will, and herewith produce it.

(Certified copy of said triplicate election return offered in evidence and marked Exhibit D. B. M. No. 5.)

Q. Is Exhibit D. B. M. No. 5 a true and correct copy of said original triplicate election return so full and entire as the same remains on file in your office?—A. It is.

Q. Will you please produce the original tally-sheet, made by the court of common pleas of Union County, of the result of the election held in said county on the 5th day of November, 1878, which said tally-sheet is dated November 7, 1878?—A. I will, and herewith produce it.

(Certified abstract of said tally-sheet, so far as the same relates to the vote cast for Congress, offered in evidence, and marked Exhibit D. B. M. No. 6.)

Q. Is Exhibit D. B. M. No. 6 a true and correct abstract of said tally-sheet, so far as the same relates to the vote for Congress in Union County, so full and entire as the same remains in your office?—A. It is.

Q. Will you please produce the original tally-paper of votes cast at the election held in the west ward of the borough of Mifflinburg at the election held November 5, 1878, made by the said election board and on file in your office?—A. I will, and herewith produce it.

(Certified copy of said original tally-paper of votes cast at said election held in the west ward of the borough of Mifflinburg offered in evidence, and marked Exhibit D. B. M. No. 7.)

Q. Is Exhibit D. B. M. No. 7 a true and correct copy of said original tally-paper of votes so full and entire as the same remains on file in your office?—A. It is.

Q. Is the west ward of the borough of Mifflinburg also designated as the seventeenth election district in Union County?—A. It is.

Q. Will you please produce the original list of voters for the west ward of the borough of Mifflinburg at the general election held November 5, 1878?—A. I will, and herewith produce it.

(Certified copy of said original list of voters offered in evidence, and marked Exhibit D. B. M. No. 8.)

Q. Is Exhibit D. B. M. No. 8 a true and correct copy of said original list of voters so full and entire as the same remains on file in your office?—A. It is.

Q. How many votes are returned on the tally-list of voters for the west ward of Mifflinburg at the election held November 5, 1878, for the different candidates for Congress, as shown by the tally-list made by the election board?

(Counsel for contestant objects to any parol proof as to the contents of any of the exhibits offered in evidence, as the exhibits themselves are the best evidence as to their contents.)

A. Andrew G. Curtin received seventy (70) votes for Congress, Seth H. Yocum received eighty (80) votes for Congress.

Q. Please state how many votes were cast at the election held in the west ward in Mifflinburg on the 5th day of November, 1878, as shown by the list of voters as returned by the election officers of said ward, and which said original list of voters has been produced by you and marked Exhibit D. B. M. No. 8.

(Same objection as above.)

A. There were one hundred and fifty (150).

Q. On the triplicate election return offered in evidence of the west ward of Mifflinburg, is there not a discrepancy between said original tally-list of the west ward and said triplicate election return? If so, please state wherein said discrepancy exists.

(Same objection as to the preceding question.)

A. The triplicate election return shows that Andrew G. Curtin got seventy-seven (77) votes, and the tally-sheet shows that he got but seventy (70) votes.

Q. Please state, if you know, or can explain, how said mistake occurred, and what the true vote should have been returned for Curtin.

(Same objection as to the above.)

A. The papers show that in carrying out on the triplicate return, that the election officers carried out seventy-seven (77) votes instead of seventy (70) in figures for Curtin. There should have been but seventy (70) votes returned for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress.

Q. Then there is a mistake, is there not, in the triplicate return which gives Curtin seven (7) more votes than he actually received?

(Same objection as before.)

A. Yes, according to the returns.

Q. What then is the true and actual majority which Mr. Yocum did receive in the west ward of the borough of Mifflinburg at the election held November 5, 1878?

(Same objection as before.)

A. Ten (10) majority for Seth H. Yocum.

Q. In making out the general return of said election, state whether the vote as carried out in said general return from the west ward of the borough of Mifflinburg was seventy-seven (77) votes for Curtin instead of seventy (70).

(Same objection as above.)

A. It was counted as seventy-seven (77) votes in the general return.

Q. Please state what the actual vote was as returned in county of Union for A. G. Curtin, as shown by the return sheet offered in evidence.

(Same objection as above.)

A. Fourteen hundred and fifty-five (1,455).

Q. Correcting the mistake in the West ward of Mifflinburg, what is the true vote in Union County for Curtin for Congress?

(Same objection as before.)

A. Fourteen hundred and forty-eight (1,448).

Q. Correcting said mistake, what would Mr. Yocum's majority be in Union County according to the official returns?

(Same objection as before.)

A. Seven hundred and seventy-two (772).

Counsel for contestant, reserving all legal exceptions to the competency and relevancy of the testimony, proceeds to cross-examine:

Q. The official majority as computed by the court in the county of Union, for Seth H. Yocum, was seven hundred and sixty-five (765), was it not?—A. Yes; I have already stated that.

Q. The official majority as computed by the court in the county of Union, for Seth H. Yocum, was seven hundred and sixty-five (765), was it not?—A. Yes, it was.

Q. The official majority of Seth H. Yocum, in Union County, was counted and announced by the court, sitting as the return board, as seven hundred and sixty-five (765), was it not?—A. As computed by the court, it was seven hundred and sixty-five (765).

Q. You have no knowledge as to any mistake in the west ward of the borough of Mifflinburg other than what you gather from the return from said ward, have you?—A. After the returns had gone out, we discovered the mistake from the returns themselves, and I have no other knowledge except from hearsay.

Q. Are you acquainted with Charles S. Wolfe? If so, state how long you have known him.—A. I have known him for ten or twelve years.

Q. State where he resides.—A. He resides in the south ward of the borough of Lewisburg.

Q. You stated in your evidence-in-chief that you were a resident of the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg. State whether or not Charles S. Wolfe stood at the polls at the north ward election house, at the election held November 8, 1878.—A. I think I saw him at the north ward election polls, but I am not positive.

Q. Is not Charles S. Wolfe an active Republican ward politician?—A. I think he is generally so.

Q. Was Charles S. Wolfe the Republican candidate for the legislature at the election held November 5, 1878?—A. He was.

Q. Was he not electioneering and working for the election of the whole Republican ticket?—A. I think he was.

Re-examined in chief:

Q. What is the line of separation or boundary between the north and south wards of the borough of Lewisburg?

(Counsel for contestant objects because the testimony of the witness is not the best evidence, there being a record of the division of the borough of Lewisburg into wards in the possession of the town clerk of said borough.)

A. The turnpike or main street, called Market street in the town plan, from the river to Fifth street.

Q. Where is the election held in the north ward in the borough of Lewisburg, and where is the election held in the south ward of the borough of Lewisburg?

(Same objection as before.)

A. The elections are held in the north ward school-house, on North Second street, for the north ward. And for the south ward they are held at the court-house, on South Second street.

ROBERT F. BARBER sworn and examined.

Question. Please state your age and residence.—Answer. Am fifty-eight. Reside at Mifflinburg, Union County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Were you a member of the election board in the west ward of Mifflinburg at the election held November 5, 1878?—A. I was. I was the clerk of the Democratic inspector.

Q. Is the original tally paper of votes, being Exhibit D. B. M. No. 7, certified copy, in your handwriting?—A. It is.

Q. How many votes at said election in said ward did A. G. Curtin receive for Congress?

(Counsel for contestant objects, that the original tally paper is the best evidence.)

A. Seventy (70) votes. He received seventy (70) votes.

Q. Is the triplicate election return, a certified copy of which being Exhibit D. B. M. No. 5, in your handwriting?—A. It is my handwriting.

Q. In the triplicate election return just referred to you have marked in figures that A. G. Curtin received seventy-seven votes. Please state whether or not this is a mistake.—A. It is a mistake.

Q. What should it be?—A. It should be seventy (70) instead of seventy-seven (77).

Q. How did you make this mistake on the triplicate election return?—A. I must have done it by looking at the wrong name. Immediately below is "A. W. Smith," that has seventy-seven (77) votes. In making out the triplicate return from the tally-sheet I took the number seventy-seven in place of seventy, as it should have been. The tally-sheet is made out as we count off the votes, and the triplicate is made afterwards, copying from the tally-sheet. The mistake was made in copying. The mistake was innocently made by me.

Q. Do you recollect also from your own personal knowledge of the vote cast at that election that Curtin received but seventy votes?—A. I do.

SAMUEL MARSHALL sworn and examined.

Question. Please state your age and residence.—Answer. About sixty-eight; reside in White Deer Township, Union County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Were you the return judge from Union County appointed to carry the Congressional return of the election to Bellefonte immediately after the election of November 5, 1878? and if so, state whether you performed that duty.—A. I was; and I took the return to Bellefonte.

Q. Did you meet the other return judges from the several counties comprising the twentieth Congressional district, at Bellefonte?

(Objected to for the reason that the record made by the return judges for said district is the best evidence, and the proceedings before the board cannot be shown without proof that said record is lost.)

A. I did.

Q. Had you with you, as return judge, a certificate made by Hon. Joseph C. Bucher, president judge of the court of common pleas of Union County, that a mistake had been made in the official count of the west ward of Mifflinburg of seven (7) votes in favor of Curtin?

(Objected to for the reason that said certificate was not an official act of the said Hon. Joseph C. Bucher, and not evidence for any purpose.)

A. I had.

Q. Did the return judges who met at Bellefonte on or about the 12th of November, 1878, correct the mistake in said official return from Union County?—A. They did not correct the mistake.

Q. Did you present the certificate of Judge Bucher at said meeting?—A. I did.

Q. Did you ask to have the official return from Union County corrected so as to show the actual vote cast for Curtin?—A. I did; but they refused to correct it.

Q. By refusing to correct said error, state whether or not A. G. Curtin was credited at said conference with fourteen hundred and fifty-five (1,455) votes from Union County.—A. He was.

Q. In that return, was he not credited with seventy-seven (77) votes from the west ward of Mifflinburg?

(Objected to for the reason that the return itself will show how many votes was credited to A. G. Curtin from the west ward of Mifflinburg.)

A. He was.

Counsel for contestant, reserving all legal exceptions, proceeds to cross-examine:

Q. How do you know that A. G. Curtin was credited with seventy-seven (77) votes from the west ward of the borough of Mifflinburg in the return presented by you to the board of the return-judges at their meeting in Bellefonte?—A. All I know about it was that the returns were placed in my hands by Judge Bucher. His signature was to it.

Q. Did the return which was made out by the court on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1878, and which was given to you as the return-judge from Union County, show the mistake, or did the paper which was afterwards made out by Judge Bucher and given to you, and which you was requested to present with your return, show the mistake?—A. The official return did not show the mistake, but the certificate of Judge Bucher did.

Q. Then all that you know in relation to any mistake was what you learned from the paper given you by Judge Bucher?—A. Yes, sir; that is all.

D. B. MILLER,

Hon. JOSEPH E. BUCHER sworn and examined.

Question. Please state your residence and official position.—Answer. Joseph C. Bucher; residence, Lewisburg, Union County, Pennsylvania; my official position is president judge of the twentieth judicial district, composed of the counties of Union, Snyder, and Mifflin, in the State of Pennsylvania.

Q. What judicial duties did you perform in the County of Union on the 7th day of November, 1878, in reference to the election?—A. The law cast upon me as the president judge, resident in the County of Union, to compute the vote of the entire county, at twelve o'clock, at the courthouse, on the 7th day of November, 1878. The law required the judges of the respective election districts in the county to carry the returns of the election in their respective districts to the prothonotary of the county to be filed in his office. This was done, and the prothonotary, on the day appointed by the law, brought them into open court before me for computation, and I computed the vote according to law.

Q. Please state whether you signed, as president judge of said court, the Congressional return marked Exhibit D. B. M. No. 4.—A. I did.

Q. What error did you discover in regard to the return of the vote cast for Congress in the west ward of Mifflinburg, and what measures did you take to correct the same after you discovered that the error had not been corrected in the Congressional return? Please state the same fully.

(Counsel for contestant objects, first, that if there was any error in the return from the west ward of the borough of Mifflinburg, it was the duty of the court to correct the same at the time fixed by law for computing the votes cast in the county of Union. If this was not done at the time, it is now too late to correct it, and besides, the only tribunal which can correct it is the court of common pleas of Union County.)

A. I did discover an error in the Congressional return in the west ward of Mifflinburg Borough. The error was discovered in this way: The law authorized me to appoint assistants to compute the vote. I appointed the prothonotary and two clerks. I held in my hand one of the returns, the prothonotary the other, a duplicate. As I announced the vote he compared it with his, and the clerks took it down. In computing the returns of this borough, I held in my hand the tally-sheet, the prothonotary the triplicate return. When I announced the vote from the paper I held, the prothonotary stated that it differed from his in the vote for Congress in this: My return gave to Andrew G. Curtin seventy (70) votes; to Seth H. Yocum eighty (80) votes; whilst the return that the prothonotary held gave Andrew G. Curtin seventy-seven (77) votes, and Seth H. Yocum eighty (80) votes; thus making a discrepancy of seven (7) votes between the tally-paper and the triplicate return.

The law made it my duty to ascertain where the error was and to correct it. The triplicate return is made from the tally-paper, which is the original. I ascertained from a computation of the vote from the tally-paper, that Andrew G. Curtin had received only seventy (70) votes, and that the election officers in giving the result as taken from the tally-paper had allowed him seventy-seven (77) votes, or seven (7) more than he actually received. I therefore directed the clerks to allow Andrew G. Curtin seventy (70) votes, and Seth H. Yocum eighty (80) votes. The returns were then all computed and certificates made out and handed to me for signature. I was under the impression that the correction had been made as ordered until, a day or two subsequent to the count, I examined the matter and discovered that the clerks had neglected to make the correction as ordered. I had already appointed Samuel Marshall, Congressional return judge, and had given him a certificate showing the vote for Congress in the county of Union. The prothonotary had already mailed the result of the count to Harrisburg, as required by law. I was mortified at the mistake that had been made, but when I ascertained that the error would not change the result in the district, I concluded not to reopen the count but contented myself with giving Samuel Marshall, the return judge, a paper setting forth that an error had been made in the count, and that Andrew G. Curtin had actually received seven (7) votes less in the west ward of Mifflinburg than the original certificate disclosed. I am informed that the board of Congressional return judges refused to count the votes from the last paper given to Mr. Marshall, but counted from the first certificate given him, which gave Andrew G. Curtin seven (7) votes more than he had actually received. The official majority of Seth H. Yocum, in Union County, over Andrew G. Curtin, according to a correct account of the votes cast, was seven hundred and seventy-two (772), instead of seven hundred and sixty-five (765) votes, as counted by the Congressional return judges.

(Counsel for contestee offer in evidence a certified copy of the sixty day assessment list made by the assessor of the west ward of the borough of Lewisburg, Union County, Pennsylvania, for the year 1878, marked Exhibit D. B. M. No. 9; this certified copy to be followed by the testimony of Peter Hursh, clerk to the commissioners, and which will be further authenticated by proof at common law, making it also a sworn copy, and also proof that the original registry-list of voters of said ward for said year is mislaid or lost, and a certified copy thereof cannot be produced.)

Counsel for contestant makes the following objections to the paper offered in evidence marked Exhibit D. B. M. No. 9: 1st. Said paper is not certified according to act of Congress; 2d. Peter Hursh is simply the clerk of the commissioners of Union County, and as such clerk has no authority, under the laws of Pennsylvania, to use a seal, and besides the seal attached to said paper is the seal of the commissioners and not of the clerk; 3d. Said copy of the sixty-day assessment is not a copy of the list, as furnished to the election board, for the election held November 5, 1878.)

March 19, 1879, parties met pursuant to adjournment.

DANIEL MILLER sworn and examined.

Question. What is your name and where do you reside?—Answer. My name is Daniel W. Miller. I reside in the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg.

Q. Where did you reside on the 5th day of November, 1878; and if you resided in the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg at that time, how long had you resided there before that date?—A. I resided in the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg on that date. On the 16th day of September, 1878, I went to live at Henry Frick's, in the north ward.

Q. What was your age on the 5th day of November, 1878?—A. As near as I can tell the way my father told me, I would have been twenty-one June 26, 1878.

Q. Do you know of any family Bible containing a record of the date of your birth and of the members of your father's family, and, if so, where is said family record?—A. There is such a family Bible containing such family record and the date of my birth. When I last saw it, it was at my uncle's, James Dunlap, who resides near the Winfield furnace.

Q. Did you vote in the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg at the general election held November 5, 1878, for Member of Congress?—

A. Yes, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote for Member of Congress?—A. I voted for Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Did you vote at said election on your age?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you on the registry-list of voters of the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg for 1878?—A. No, sir; I don't think I was.

Q. Did you swear or affirm to and subscribe a written or partly written and partly printed affidavit to facts stated by you, setting forth your qualifications and right to vote before so voting?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Counsel for contestant, reserving all legal exceptions to the competency and relevancy of the testimony, proceeds to cross-examine.

Q. How long did you live in the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg before going to live with Henry Frick?—A. About two weeks.

Q. Then you came into the north ward in Lewisburg on September 2, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. The election board administered to you an oath as to your age before you deposited your vote, did they not?—A. They did.

Q. You stated in your examination-in-chief that you had been 21 years of age on the 26th day of June A. D., 1878, according to what your father had told you; now state the language used by your father when he so informed you and all about it.

(Counsel for contestee objects because not cross-examination; 2d. The witness was not inquired of concerning any language of the father of the witness or as to any conversation between witness and his father; 3d. Irrelevant.)

A. In the year 1876 my father told me that I would have a vote at the next governor's election; to be sure of it I made a memorandum of it, but I lost it about six months ago.

Q. Was the election held November 5, 1878, a governor's election?—A. It was.

Q. Is the family record in the family Bible in the handwriting of your father and is there any errors in said record?—A. I cannot positively swear that it is my father's handwriting; it does not look like his writing; are several kinds of writing in the Bible; I do not know who wrote any of it; I know of one error in the record in the Bible; there was a mistake of two years in relation to the birth of my sister which he corrected on the day of her funeral; it was not corrected in the Bible, but he counted it up on the day of the funeral; he wanted to give her age to the preacher who preached her funeral-sermon and he then counted up her age, but did not correct it in the Bible record.

Q. If the record kept in the family Bible makes you younger than twenty-one years on June 26, 1878, is or is it not an error?

(Counsel for contestee objects; 1st. Because the opinion of the witness as to the correctness of the family record is not evidence; 2d. The record cannot be varied or falsified by the declaration of the witness.)

A. I don't know whether it is an error or not.

Q. Do you believe it to be an error?

(Opinion of witness objected to.)

A. From what my father told me I think it is an error.

Q. How far back can you recollect?—A. I can mind in 1861 when the war broke out; in the fall of 1862 my brother enlisted at Lewisburg and my father come to Lewisburg and brought him home, my brother not being of age; in 1862 I was large enough to carry my father's dinner to him at his work; I was then wearing pants buttoned to a waist.

Re-examined:

Q. When did your father die?—A. November 12, 1876.

Q. Did this family Bible you speak of remain in your father's family from your earliest recollection up to the time of your father's death?—

A. I saw the family Bible for the first time about nine years ago. My father kept it locked up, and I never saw it except when my father used it. He kept it in his desk. The desk was not locked, but we did not dare open it. The Bible was in my father's family until about four weeks before he died, as near as I can recollect. It then went into the possession of my uncle, James Dunlap.

Q. What reason have you for believing that you recollect the outbreak of the war in 1861?—A. I recollect it because my brother wanted to enlist, and at first they would not take any colored troops. In 1862 he enlisted.

Q. When you left Laurelton in September, 1878, and came to Lewisburg, to whose house did you come, and for what purpose?—A. I was out at Bell's. I stopped at Bell's. I came to get work. I intended to go to Clearfield.

Q. Where was Bell's house at which you stopped, and how long did you stay there before going to Mr. Frick's?—A. The house is over by the seminary, between Sixth and Seventh streets, south of Market street, in the borough of Lewisburg. I came to Bell's September 2, 1878, and staid there until September 15, 1878, when I went to Frick's.

Recross-examined:

Q. Where were you born, and where have you lived since you were born?—A. I was born in Hartley Township, Union County, Pennsylvania, and have lived in Pennsylvania all my life.

Re-examined in chief:

Q. You did not reside, then, in the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg two months preceding the election held November 5, 1878?

(Question objected to as leading.)

A. No, sir.

DANIEL W. MILLER.

D. B. MILLER,

Notary Public.

WILLIAM H. WOLFE sworn and examined.

Question. What is your name, age, and place of residence?—Answer. William H. Wolfe; aged forty-two years; reside in the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg; resided in that ward about three years.

Q. Are you acquainted with a person named Marks Hart?—A. I am.

Q. Does Marks Hart reside in the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg? When did he come there, and how long has he resided therein, if at all?—A. He does not live there now. Can't tell when he came there. He boarded at Mrs. Alexander Hutchison's in the north ward; can't say how long. He left town. I do not know where he is now.

Q. State whether you had any conversation with Marks Hart on the next day after the general election held November 5, 1878. State whether he told you for whom he voted for Member of Congress, and what he stated to you relative to his having a right to vote at said election.

(Counsel for contestant objects to witness stating any conversation which he had with Marks Hart in relation to the right of said Marks Hart to vote, as said Marks Hart was regularly upon the registry-list, duly assessed, and his taxes paid by himself, and from the proof already in evidence he was a resident of said north ward, and as such, had a right to vote. Any subsequent conversation would not alter or abridge a right to vote for Congress. Second. Marks Hart himself would be the best witness, and in the absence of evidence that diligent search was made for him and that he could not be found, witness cannot state any conversation had with him. Third. Irrelevant.

A. He said he was a Democrat and voted the Democratic ticket entire, and he said (not knowing who I was) that Wolfe's friends wanted him to vote for Charles S. Wolfe, for the legislature, but that he would not vote for any Republican. He said that he had either left or mislaid his naturalization papers; that he did not have them with him, and that as he was a soldier of the war, he should not think they ought to deprive him of his vote. My impression is that he said he was naturalized in Ohio, and had left his papers there. He said that the election board of the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg objected to his vote because he did not have his naturalization papers with him.

Q. What business did Marks Hart follow when here, and have you tried to ascertain his whereabouts?—A. He was a peddler for Koch and Strouse. I have asked Koch and Strouse, and was not able to find out where he has gone.

Counsel for contestant, reserving all legal exceptions to the competency and relevancy of the testimony, proceeds to cross-examine.

Q. Then, from what Marks Hart told you, he had a right to vote?

(Counsel for contestee objects to the opinion of the witness as to Hart's right to vote. That will depend on the proven facts.)

A. He said he had a right to vote.

Q. Did he tell you for whom he voted for Congress?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did he tell you that he was a naturalized citizen of the United States?—A. He said he had papers to that effect, but he did not have them with him.

Q. You were angry at him during this conversation which you have just detailed, and were going to smack his mouth, were you not?—A. I was not angry at him, but I told him if he continued to abuse my brother, I would slap his mouth.

(Counsel for contestee object to the above question and answer as being immaterial and irrelevant.)

Q. There were parties annoying or abusing Marks Hart at the time this conversation, as alleged, took place, were there not?—A. There were parties twitting him. Remarks were made which I did not think were proper. I said he had no right to vote, and he claimed that he had a right to vote, and this was what led to the conversation.

Re-examined in chief:

Q. Who was the only Democratic nominee for Congress in this district, and what did Hart say about voting the whole ticket?—A. Andrew G. Curtin was the only Democratic nominee in this district for Congress; Hart said he voted the whole Democratic ticket and would not vote for any Republican.

WM. H. WOLFE.

E. L. ANGSTADT sworn and examined.

Question. What is your name, age, and place of residence?—Answer. E. L. Angstadt; will be twenty-two June 20, 1879; reside in the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg, Union County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Where did you reside on the 5th day of November, 1878, and if in the north ward of said borough, how long previous to said date?—A. In the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg, and resided there about eight or nine years.

Q. Did you vote in the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg at the general election held November 5, 1878, for member of Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you on the registry list of voters of the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg for the year 1878?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you swear or affirm to and subscribe a written or partly written and partly printed affidavit to facts stated by you, setting forth your qualifications and right to vote before so voting?—A. I did not.

Q. For whom did you vote for member of Congress at said election?—A. I voted for Andrew G. Curtin.

Counsel for contestant, reserving all legal exceptions to competency and relevancy of the testimony, proceeds to cross-examine:

Q. Where were you born?—A. In Lewisburg, Union County, Pennsylvania, and have resided all my life there.

Q. State what occurred when you voted in relation to your right to vote.

(Counsel for contestee object, that witness not having been registered and not having sworn to and filed the affidavit required by law, any evidence tending to show that he was in other respects entitled to vote is immaterial and irrelevant.)

A. I went to the window and offered my vote. The election board told me to come inside; father told them that I was voting on age; they then took my vote and nothing more was said. There was no objection to my vote.

Q. Had you been a resident of the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg, Union County, Pennsylvania, for more than two months preceding the election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; I had.

Q. Had the assessor for the north ward called upon you or at your father's house in order that you might be registered?

(Counsel for contestee object to the question because immaterial, and is no legal excuse for his not being on the registry-list.)

A. He did not call me; I do not know whether he called at my father's house or not.

Re-examined in chief:

Q. As we understand you, you voted on age and you were not sworn by the election board at all?—A. I did vote on age and I was not sworn at all.

E. L. ANGSTADT.

D. B. MILLER,
Notary Public.

HENRY CARP sworn and examined.

Question. What is your name, age, and place of residence?—Answer. My name is Henry Karpf, and is sometimes spelled and written "Carp" and "Carpf"; my age is twenty-eight years; I reside in the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg, Union County, Pennsylvania.

(Counsel for contestant objects to any further testimony from this witness, for the reason that the notice served on the contestant does not contain the name of witness, but does contain the name of Henry Carp, and neither contestant nor his counsel knew that the person mentioned in the notice as Henry Carp was the witness.)

Q. Where did you reside on the 5th day of November, 1878, and, if in the north ward of said borough, how long previous to said date?—A. I resided in the north ward of borough of Lewisburg, and lived there about four months preceding said date.

Q. Did you vote in the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg at the general election held November 5, 1878, for member of Congress?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you on the registry-list of voters of the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg for the year 1878?—A. I can't tell you that.

Q. Did you swear or affirm to and subscribe a written or partly written and partly printed affidavit of facts stated by you, setting forth your qualifications and right to vote, or that you had paid a State or county tax within two years, which was assessed within two months and paid at least one month before the election, before so voting?—A. No, sir; I did not swear to anything.

Q. For whom did you vote for member of Congress at said election?—A. I voted the whole Democratic ticket; I think I voted for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress.

(Counsel for contestant, reserving all legal exceptions to the competency and relevancy of the testimony, proceeds to cross-examine:

Q. Had you paid a State or county tax within two years previous to November 5, 1878, which had been assessed at least two months before said date and paid at least one month before said date; and did you have a receipt for the same, and did you produce said receipt and exhibit it to the election board when you voted on November 5, 1878?

(Counsel for contestee object, because if witness was disqualified by reason of not being on the registry-list of voters and failed to file the affidavit of payment of tax required by law, the evidence now sought to be given by witness cannot remove such disqualification and render him a legal voter.)

A. I had paid a State or county tax within two years, which had been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before November 5, 1878, and I produced the receipt and showed it to the board when I voted.

Re-examined in chief:

Q. How did you happen to show this receipt to the election board?—A. Some of the election board asked me before I voted whether I had paid my tax. I told them that I had and showed them my receipt. The election board did not administer any oath to me. I then voted, there being no further objection.

HENRY KARPFF.

Q. Did you vote at the general election held on the 5th day of November, 1878, in said ward, for member of Congress?—A. I voted the whole Democratic ticket. I did vote at that election.

Q. Was your name on the registry-list of voters of said ward for the year 1878?—A. Not as I know.

Q. Did you vote on your age at said election?—A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. Did you swear or affirm to and subscribe a written or partly written and partly printed affidavit to facts stated by you, setting forth your qualifications and right to vote before so voting?—A. No, sir; I did not.

Q. Did the election board swear you at all before you voted?—A. They did not.

Counsel for contestant, reserving all legal exceptions to the competency and relevancy of the testimony, proceeds to cross-examine:

Q. Did or did not your father inform the election-board when you voted that you were above the age of twenty-one years, and that you were entitled to vote in the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg?—A. Yes, sir; he did.

Q. Do you know the name of the person for whom you voted for member of Congress on November 5, 1878?—A. I don't remember for whom I voted.

Q. Did you read the ticket which you voted on November 5, 1878?—A. I did not.

Q. Then you don't know, of your own knowledge, whether the ticket which you voted was the Democratic or Republican ticket?—A. I don't know.

Q. Was there any objection to your vote when you voted on November 5, 1878?—A. There was no objection to my vote, and the board received it.

Re-examined in chief:

Q. When you voted did you intend to vote, and do you believe that you voted, the whole Democratic ticket?

(Counsel for contestant objects to an answer to the question, as the intention or the belief of the witness as to how he voted is not evidence for any purpose. It is simply what he did vote or for whom he voted that is evidence.)

A. I wanted to vote the Democratic ticket, but I don't know whether I voted the Democratic ticket or not.

Q. Did any person give you the ticket which you voted, and if so, who?—A. The ticket which I voted was given to me by George S. Matlock.

Recross-examined:

Q. What is the politics of George S. Matlock, the person from whom you received your ticket?—A. From what I heard other people say he was a Republican once, but I don't know what his politics are now.

Q. Then you don't know how or for whom you voted?—A. No; I do not.

Q. Were you sworn by the board before you voted?—A. No, sir, I was not.

Q. How does it come that you were not sworn by the board before you voted?—A. The judge of election knew my age and said it was all right; I had been residing with the judge of the election (R. M. Bennett) for some time.

Q. What is the politics of R. M. Bennett, who was judge of the election?—A. He is a very strong Republican. He is married to my sister.

(Counsel for contestee object to the foregoing questions and answers because they are irrelevant and immaterial.)

Q. Is Exhibit D. B. M. No. 21 a true and correct copy of the original list of registered voters of Gregg Township, Union County, for the year 1878, so full and entire as the same remains on file in the commissioners' office?—A. It is.

Q. Will you please produce the original list of registered voters for the township of Hartley, in the county of Union, for the year 1878?—A. I will, and herewith produce it.

Counsel for contestee now offers in evidence exhibit marked D. B. M. No. 21, and Exhibit D. B. M. No. 22.

Counsel for contestant objects to the admission in evidence of Exhibits D. B. M. Nos. 21 and 22, purporting to be certified copies of the registry of voters of the townships of Gregg and Hartley for the year 1878, as there is nothing contained in the answer of the contestee to the notice of contest given by the contestant alleging any fraud, informality, or irregularity in the said townships of Hartley and Gregg, and is not in rebuttal.

Exhibit D. B. M. No. 21 and Exhibit D. B. M. No. 22 in evidence, and made part of the record under the above objection.

Q. Did you vote in said ward at the general election held November 5, 1878, for member of Congress?—A. I think I voted for member of Congress in said ward.

Q. For whom did you vote for member of Congress at said election?

(Counsel for contestant objects to an answer being given by the witness to the question, for the reason that witness being a duly registered and qualified voter of the north ward, as has been shown by the contestee, witness being a legal voter is not required to state for whom he voted.)

A. I voted for Andrew G. Curtin for member of Congress.

Counsel for contestant, reserving all legal exceptions to the relevancy and competency of the testimony, proceeds to cross-examine:

Q. Did you give to any voter in the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg, or elsewhere, any money or other valuable thing for the purpose of purchasing his vote for Andrew G. Curtin for Congress?

(Counsel for contestee object because witness has not been asked in regard to his giving money or any valuable thing to influence any voter, and the question propounded to witness is not a proper cross-examination.)

A. I did not.

Q. Was your name upon the registry of voters for the north ward of the borough of Lewisburg for the election held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. To what political party does Mr. Plummer belong?—A. He is a Democrat.

Counsel for contestant, reserving all legal exceptions to the competency and relevancy of the testimony, proceeds to cross-examine:

Re-examined in chief:

Counsel for contestant, reserving all legal exceptions to the competency and relevancy of the testimony, proceeds to cross-examine:

WILLIAM KEISER sworn and examined.

(Counsel for contestee, not waiving any objection to the fact that in contestant's notice of contest no allegations are made as to fraud, irregularity, or informality on part of the election board of East Buffalo Township, but expressly saving and reserving all and every legal exception, calls this witness in rebuttal.)

Question. What is your name, age, and place of residence?—Answer. My name is William Keiser; I am 40 years of age; I reside in East Buffalo Township, Union County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Were you present at the polls in said township on the 5th day of November, 1878; and, if so, how long were you so present?—A. I was present; I got there soon after seven o'clock in the morning, and remained there all day until the polls closed in the evening.

Q. Where were you during said time, and what were you doing?—A. I was outside of the election-house, among the people who came there to vote, and was engaged in electioneering.

Q. State whether you know, of your own knowledge, whether there was any closing of the polls during that day until after seven o'clock in the evening.

Q. Do you know of any voter going away from the polls because he had no opportunity to vote?—A. I do not.

Q. Did the election board at any time during the day leave the premises on which the election was held?—A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Was full opportunity given to any and all legal voters who desired to vote to do so?—A. There was, so far as I saw. It was as fair an election as I ever saw held in East Buffalo Township.

Q. If any one had left the polls by reason of not having an opportunity to vote, would you have known it?

(Counsel for contestant objects to any answer to the question, as it would simply be the opinion of the witness, and his opinion is not evidence.)

A. I think I would have known it.

Counsel for contestant, reserving all legal exceptions to the competency and relevancy of the testimony, proceeds to cross-examine.

Q. Was the election in East Buffalo Township held in the house in which it was usually held, and where it was designated to be held by law?

(Counsel for contestee object: 1st. Not proper evidence to prove the place designated by law to hold the election. 2d. Not cross-examination. 3d. Irrelevant.)

A. I can't tell whether the election was held at the place designated by law or not. It was held in an outhouse on the premises of George Wolfe; and the election has always been held on the premises of George Wolfe. It has been held at three different places on the premises of George Wolfe since I have lived in the township. Sometimes it is held in the dwelling-house; then right back of the dwelling-house is a brick outbuilding where the election had been held; and then it has been held two or three times in a new building about ten yards from the house, on the same lot.

Q. Was the election of November 5, 1878, held in the dwelling-house of George Wolfe, for East Buffalo Township?—A. It was not held in the dwelling-house; it was held in the new frame building.

Q. Have any of the election officers of the election held November 5, 1878, informed you that the polls were closed during that day during the time that the election should have remained open?—A. They have not.

Q. Don't you know that the polls in East Buffalo Township were closed at dinner-time, and at supper-time, at the election held November 5, 1878?—A. I do not; if the polls were closed for dinner and supper I know nothing of it.

Q. Have you ever known the election polls to be closed in East Buffalo Township at dinner-time and at supper-time?

(Counsel for contestee object to any question being asked concerning any other election than that held on November 5, 1878.)

A. I have known the polls to be closed several years ago at dinner-time.

Re-examined in chief:

Q. Were the elections you speak of as being held in the different buildings on the premises of George Wolfe so held to suit the convenience of Mr. Wolfe and family?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the opinion of the witness.)

A. They have been so held, I suppose.

Q. How are these buildings situated in reference to each other?—A. I think the small brick building is connected with the brick dwelling-house; the frame building stands separate, and is about twelve or fifteen feet from the small brick building.

Q. Was any election heretofore held in the frame dwelling prior to November 5, 1878?—A. There was.

Recross-examined:

Q. You have stated that the election had been held in the frame house previous to the election held November 5, 1878; state how often it had been so held, and when.—A. I can't tell how often, or when—whether it was the spring election of 1878 or the fall election of 1877; I am positive it was held there once or twice.

Q. Where was the election held in March, 1879?—A. It was held in the dwelling-house of George Wolfe.

(Counsel for contestee object to the foregoing question and answer as irrelevant.)

Q. Where did you reside on the 5th day of November, 1878; and if in Buffalo Township, Union County, Pennsylvania, how long did you reside there previous to that date?—A. I lived in Buffalo Township on that date, and have resided there all my life.

Q. Did you vote at the general election held in said township on November 5, 1878?—A. I did. I voted on age.

Q. Did you swear or affirm to and subscribe a written or partly printed and partly written affidavit, setting forth your qualifications and right to vote, before so voting?—A. I swore to one, but I did not sign it.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for member of Congress?—A. I voted for Andrew G. Curtin.

Q. Did you ever see paper of which Exhibit D. B. M. No. 26 purports to be a certified copy? And state whether or not this is the affidavit to which you were sworn on November 5, 1878.—A. Yes, sir.

(Original paper shown witness.)

Q. This is the paper, is it?—A. It is.

Counsel for contestant, reserving all legal exceptions to the competency and relevancy of the testimony, proceeds to cross-examine:

Q. After having given the board the affidavit which you have just seen, was your vote received without any objection?—A. Yes, sir.

JACOB RUMFELT sworn and examined.

Question. What is your name, age, and place of residence?—Answer. My name is Jacob Rumfelt; I am twenty-seven years of age; I reside in White Deer Township, Union County, Pennsylvania.

Q. Where did you reside on the 5th day of November, 1878; and if in White Deer Township, Union County, Pennsylvania, how long did you reside there prior to that date?—A. I resided in said township on November 5, 1878, and lived there since the year 1871.

Q. Did you vote at the general election held in said township November 5, 1878?—A. I did.

Q. Was the name Jacob Rumfelt on the registry of voters for said election?—A. No, sir.

Q. Did you swear or affirm to and subscribe a written or partly written and partly printed affidavit of facts, setting forth your qualifications and right to vote, before so voting?—A. No, sir.

Q. For whom did you vote at said election for member of Congress?—A. I voted for Andrew G. Curtin.

Counsel for contestant, reserving all exceptions to the competency and relevancy of the testimony, proceeds to cross-examine:

Q. Was there a name upon the registry of voters for the township of White Deer for the election held November 5, 1878, which was intended for your name?—A. Yes, sir, to the best of my knowledge.

Q. State whether the name of Jacob Broomfield was or was not intended for your name, and whether it was not spelled Bromfield by the assessor in a mistake.—A. It was.

Q. State whether there is residing in the township of White Deer a person by the name of Jacob Broomfield.—A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. State whether or not there is any other person residing in White Deer Township by the name of Jacob Rumfelt.—A. There is not; none that I have heard of.

Q. State whether or not when the collector of taxes of White Deer Township came to you for tax you were assessed by the name of Jacob Broomfield.

(Counsel for contestee object that what the collector may have told witness is not evidence.)

A. I was.

Q. Did you pay your tax which was assessed against you in the name of Jacob Broomfield?

(Counsel for contestee objects because the spelling of the name would not indicate a legal liability on the part of the witness to pay said tax, and it was the interest of the collector to receive the tax from any one whom he could induce to pay the same.)

A. I was satisfied that the tax was intended for me.

Q. Is not your name usually pronounced as though spelled "Roomfelt"?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. With whom did you reside on November 5, 1878?—A. Augustus A. Danowsky.

(Original assessment of the township of White Deer, Union County, Pennsylvania, for the year 1878 shown witness.)

Q. Does not your name appear upon the original assessment shown you spelled "Jacob Broomfield, residing with A. A. Danowsky"?—A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is there any person residing with A. A. Danowsky by the name of Jacob Broomfield?—A. There is not. The name is intended for me.

Re-examined in chief:

Q. You are not positive that there was not a person by the name of Jacob Broomfield residing in White Deer Township on the 5th day of November, 1878, are you?—A. No; I can't say that.

Recross-examined:

Q. Are you assessed under the name of Jacob Broomfield, as residing with A. A. Danowsky, upon the original assessment for the township of White Deer?—A. I am.

Re-examined in chief:

Q. How do you know that this is the original assessment of White Deer Township?—A. I don't know; but it looks like it.

CHARLES A. DIEFFENDERFER sworn and examined.

(Counsel for contestee not waiving any objection to the fact that in contestant's notice of contest no allegation is made as to fraud, irregularity, or informality on the part of the election board of White Deer Township, but expressly saving and reserving all and every legal exception, calls this witness in rebuttal.)

Question. What is your name, age, and place of residence?—Answer. My name is Charles A. Dieffenderfer; am 51 years of age; I resided in White Deer Township all my life.

Q. State whether or not you were a member of the election board of White Deer Township at the general election held November 5, 1878; and, if so, what position did you hold?—A. I was the clerk of the majority inspector at said election.

Q. State whether or not the election board administered an oath or affirmation to persons claiming to vote at said election whose names did not appear upon the list of registered voters in said township.

(Counsel for contestant objects that, as this witness is called in rebuttal, the question is not a proper one, as an answer to it would be evidence in chief. 2d. The law requires that the board must take from persons claiming the right to vote written or printed affidavits setting forth their right to vote, which must be subscribed by the voter. This not having been done in the township of White Deer, any evidence showing that the board administered an oral oath is immaterial and irrelevant.)

Counsel for contestee saving and reserving all of the aforesaid exceptions and objections calls witness in chief as well as in rebuttal.)

A. They did.

Q. Did the election board satisfy itself as to the qualifications of all persons who voted at said election, and whose names were not upon the original list of registered voters of said township before so voting?—A. I think they did in all cases.

Q. How does it happen that affidavits sworn and subscribed were not taken from unregistered voters?—A. We thought that we did not have the time to do it; voters did not commence to vote until between ten and eleven o'clock, and there were about four hundred to vote; after the voting began the votes came in very rapidly, and there was no time to write affidavits.

Q. Have you not been acquainted for years with nearly all the voters of White Deer Township, and were not those who voted, although not registered, qualified voters of the township?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the opinion of the witness.)

A. I have been acquainted with the voters, and all who voted were qualified, I think.

Q. At what time were the polls opened and the board organized in said township at said election?—A. At 7 o'clock a. m.

Counsel for contestant, reserving all legal exceptions to the competency and relevancy of the testimony, proceeds to cross-examine:

Q. Did the board administer an oath to every person who voted at the election held November 5, 1878, whose names did not appear upon the registry-list of voters for said township?—A. A good many persons voted whose names were not on the registry-list, and they were not sworn.

Q. At what time in the evening were the polls closed?—A. About ten minutes after seven o'clock.

Q. Did the board pass a resolution in the morning that they would not require written or partly written and partly printed affidavits from persons claiming the right to vote whose names did not appear upon the registry-list of said township?—A. Not in the morning. I made the proposition because there were so many voters. I think I made the proposition after dinner, when the votes were coming in pretty fast, and the board acted upon my suggestion.

Q. Were any affidavits taken at all?—A. Not a great many. I think eight or ten oral oaths, but no written or printed ones.

Re-examined in chief:

Q. Did you have a list of the taxables of White Deer Township for the year 1878, posted up by the assessor, in the room in which the election was held November 5, 1878?—A. Yes, sir; such a list was posted up.

Q. Were not the names of many old citizens who had voted in White Deer Township for years omitted from the list of registered voters, but whose names appeared upon the list of taxables so posted up?

(Counsel for contestant objects that the name appearing upon the list of taxables is no evidence that the person whose name it is has a right to vote.)

A. They did so appear, and the board was guided to some extent by this list of taxables.

Q. Did not many of those who were not sworn produce receipts showing that they had paid their State and county tax in time sufficient to entitle them to vote, and produce to the board other satisfactory evidence that they were legal voters?

(Counsel for contestant objects that the witness not being a member of the board, but simply a clerk of the majority inspector, an answer to the question would be simply his opinion, and would not be evidence for any purpose.)

A. I think they did.

Q. You stated that the polls did not close until ten minutes after 7 o'clock p. m.; how did this occur? And state whether any votes were received by the board after 7 o'clock p. m.?—A. We waited for an alarm-clock to strike, but it did not go off. No votes were taken in after 7 o'clock.

Recross-examined:

Q. For whom did you vote for member of Congress at the election held November 5, 1878?—A. I voted for Seth H. Yocum.

(Counsel for contestee object to the foregoing question and answer, because not proper cross-examination.)

Re-examined in chief:

Q. Was not the election held in White Deer Township on November 5, 1878, a fair and honest election?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the answer, as it is only the opinion of the witness.)

A. It was.

[SEAL.]

D. B. MILLER,

Notary Public.

March 29, 1879. Parties met pursuant to adjournment.

W. W. BROWN sworn and examined.

Question. What is your name, age, and place of residence?—Answer. My name is William W. Brown; am thirty-six years of age; I reside in White Deer Township, Union County, Pennsylvania, and have resided there for about twenty years.

Q. Are you the collector of State and county tax for White Deer Township for years 1876 and 1877?—A. I am, and was collector for those years.

Q. Is Gabriel Huntingdon a citizen of the United States and of Pennsylvania, and how long did he live in White Deer Township immediately preceding November 5, 1878?

(Counsel for contestant objects to an answer being given to the question, for the reason that it is absolutely impossible for the witness to know whether Gabriel Huntingdon is a citizen of the United States or whether he is not, or how long he has resided in the township of White Deer, and the answer to the question would simply be the opinion of the witness, and would not be evidence.)

A. He is such citizen, and has lived in White Deer Township ever since I have known him.

Q. When did he last pay you a State or county tax?

(Counsel for contestant objects to the answer being given to the question, for the reason that in the answer of the contestee to the notice of contestant there is no allegation that there was any votes cast in the township of White Deer at the election held November 5, 1878, which were illegal on account of the non-payment of tax, and not in rebuttal.)

A. In the spring of 1878.

Q. Is Thomas Beddoe a citizen of the United States and of Pennsylvania, and how long did he live in White Deer Township preceding November 5, 1878?

(Counsel for contestant makes the same objection as heretofore made to a similar question asked about Gabriel Huntingdon.)

A. In the spring of 1878.

Q. Is William Troxel a citizen of the United States and Pennsylvania, and how long did he reside in White Deer Township preceding the election held November 5, 1878?

(Counsel for contestant objects same as above.)

A. He was born and raised in the township, and lived there all his life.

Q. When did he last pay you a State or county tax?

Q. Is John M. Sanders a citizen of the United States and of Pennsylvania, and how long did he live in White Deer Township preceding November 5, 1878?

(Counsel for contestant makes the same objection as heretofore made.)

A. He is, and resided there since childhood.

Q. When did he last pay you a State or county tax?

(Counsel for contestant objects as heretofore, and in addition the record of the payment of tax would be the best evidence.)

A. I can't say whether he has or not.

Q. Is John Vertz a citizen of the United States and of Pennsylvania, and how long has he resided in White Deer Township preceding November 5, 1878?

(Counsel for contestant makes the same objection as heretofore made.)

A. He is, and lived there from childhood.

A. In the summer of 1878; more than two months prior to the election held November 5, 1878.

Q. Is C. W. Rader a citizen of the United States and Pennsylvania, and how long did he reside in White Deer Township, Union County, prior to the election held November 5, 1878?

(Counsel for contestant objects same as before.)

A. He is; has lived there 10 or 12 years prior to said date.

Q. When did he last pay you a State or county tax?

(Counsel for contestant objects same as before.)

A. Some time in the spring of 1878. He works in the factory for Mr. Griffey and Mr. Griffey pays his taxes.

Q. Is George Bohr a citizen of the United States and of Pennsylvania, and how long did he reside in White Deer Township, Union County, prior to the election held November 5, 1878?

(Counsel for contestant objects same as before.)

A. He is; he was raised in White Deer Township and always resided there.

Q. When did he last pay you a State or county tax?

(Counsel for contestant objects same as before.)

A. In the spring of 1878; before the 1st day of April.

Q. Is John Erb a citizen of the United States and of Pennsylvania, and how long did he reside in White Deer Township, Union County, prior to the election held November 5, 1878?

(Counsel for contestant objects same as before.)

A. He is; I have known him to live there for three years.

Q. Is Andrew Shirk a citizen of the United States and of Pennsylvania, and how long did he reside in White Deer Township prior to the election held November 5, 1878?

(Counsel for contestant objects same as before.)

Q. When did he last pay you a State or county tax?

(Counsel for contestant objects same as before.)

A. In 1876, and also in the year 1877.

Q. Is George Showers a citizen of the United States and of Pennsylvania, and how long did he reside in White Deer Township, Union County, prior to the election held November 5, 1878?

(Counsel for contestant objects same as before.)

A. He is; he lived there since my earliest recollection.

Q. When did he last pay you a State or county tax?

(Counsel for contestant objects same as before.)

A. In 1878 and 1877; the last time in 1877.

Q. Is William R. Fisher a citizen of the United States and of Pennsylvania; and how long did he reside in White Deer Township, Union County, prior to the election held November 5, 1878?

(Counsel for contestant objects same as before.)

A. He is; he was raised there, and has lived there all his life.

Q. When did he last pay you a State or county tax?

(Counsel for contestant objects same as before.)

A. In 1876, more than two months before the election.

Q. Do you know a voter in White Deer Township by the name of J. Elliot; if so, what is his full name?—A. His full name is Jervis Elliot, sometimes spelled Gervis.

Q. Is J. Elliot or Jervis Elliot a citizen of the United States and of Pennsylvania; and how long has he resided in White Deer Township, Union County, prior to the election held November 5, 1878?

(Counsel for contestant objects same as before.)

A. He is. He resided there to my knowledge more than five years.

Q. When did he last pay you a State or county tax?

(Counsel for contestant objects same as before.)

A. Some time in the spring of 1878.

(Exhibit D. B. M. No. 17, shown witness.)

Witness looks at name No. 75.

Q. Is there such a man as H. A. Wiless in White Deer Township? And, if not, state for whom said name was intended.

(Counsel for contestant objects to the opinion of the witness.)

A. No such man in White Deer Township as Wiless—must be intended for A. J. Wyle.

Q. Do you see several names on this list of voters spelled Weigel? What should this name be spelled as it usually is by the parties having said name?

(Counsel for contestant objects because an answer would be simply the opinion of the witness, and the best evidence would be the clerk of the election board who made out the list of voters.)

A. If it is intended for Weikel, which I think it is, it should be spelled Weikel.

Q. How is the name Wertz sometimes spelled in your township?—A. Sometimes spelled Vertz.

Counsel for contestant, reserving all legal exceptions to the competency and relevancy of the testimony, proceeds to cross-examine:

Q. You have stated that the name of Wertz is sometimes spelled Vertz; who did you ever see or know of having spelled it Vertz?—A. I have seen it so spelled in old school-tax duplicates.

Q. Did Gabriel Huntingdon, Thomas Beddo, William Troxel, John Vertz, H. R. Hutchison, C. W. Raider, George Bohr, John Erb, Andrew Shirk, George Showers, William R. Fisher, and J. Elliot pay you their State or county tax?—A. They were all paid me by the persons themselves except Raider and Elliot, and their tax was paid by Mr. Griffey, for whom they worked.

Counsel for the contestant, reserving all legal exceptions to the competency and relevancy of the testimony, proceeds to cross-examine:
